PRIVATE RECORD

Attorney for Alison Conover

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT IN AND FOR DAVIS COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of:
ALISON CONOVER,
Petitioner,

and

JASON CONOVER,
Respondent.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Case No. 254701427

Judge: Ronald Russell
Commissioner: Julie Winkler

The above-captioned matter has come before this court on the parties' Petitions for Divorce. Both parties have stipulated to entry of this Decree of Divorce pursuant to Stipulation for Divorce filed with this court on June 12, 2025. The court, after having reviewed this stipulation and finding the same to be fair, just, and equitable, does HEREBY ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE AS FOLLOWS:

JURISDICTION

1. Alison is a bona fide resident of Davis County, State of Utah, and has been for three (3) months immediately prior to the filing of this action in accordance with Utah Code §81-4-402(1).
2. Brett and Alison are husband and wife, having been married on October 03, 1996 in Salt Lake City, Utah.

GROUND

3. The parties shall be awarded a divorce from one another on the grounds of irreconcilable differences because the parties have been unable to resolve their marital problems, making continuation of the marriage impossible.

CHILDREN

4. The parties have four children together, one of which is a minor. Namely:

a. P.M.C., born Oct. 14, 2009.

5. The parties' minor child has resided in the State of Utah for more than six (6) months prior to the commencement of this action and Utah is the home state of the minor child pursuant to Utah Code §78B-13-201(1)(a).

6. The parties do not have knowledge of any custody proceeding concerning the minor child, other than this divorce proceeding, in a court of Utah or any other state or jurisdiction.

7. The parties do not know of any other person not a party to these proceedings who has physical custody of the minor child or who claims to have custody or visitation rights with respect to the minor child.

CUSTODY

8. Legal Custody: Alison and Brett shall each be awarded joint legal custody of the parties' minor child. Each parent may make routine day-to-day decisions during their time with the child. It is anticipated that parental decisions shall be required for major issues in raising the parties' child and in meeting their ongoing needs including, but not limited to, healthcare, education, and religious upbringing. If and when they arise, the parents shall address the issues. If the parties disagree on a major decision, they shall engage in the following dispute resolution process:

a. Education/Schooling Decision: The parties shall discuss the issue and shall give good faith consideration to the views of the other. If they still cannot agree, they shall consult experts. If they still cannot agree, they shall mediate. If they still cannot agree, the matter shall be brought before the Court and the Court will have final decision-making authority.

b. Medical Decision: The parties shall discuss the issue and shall give good faith consideration to the views of the other. If they still cannot agree, they shall consult experts. If they still cannot agree, they shall mediate. If they still cannot agree, Brett shall have presumptive decision-making authority and if Alison disagrees with his decision she may bring the matter before the Court and the Court will have final decision-making authority.

c. Religious Decision: The parties shall discuss the issue and shall give good faith consideration to the views of the other. If they still cannot agree, they shall consult experts. If they still cannot agree, they shall mediate. If they still cannot agree, Alison shall have presumptive decision-making authority and if Brett disagrees with her decision he may bring the matter before the Court and the Court will have final decision-making authority.

d. Physical Custody: It is in the best interests of the parties' minor child that Alison and Brett be awarded joint physical custody. Given the child's age, maturity, and various obligations, the parties will be flexible in allowing the child freedom in where she chooses to spend her time. There will be no fixed or presumptive parent-time schedule, but Alison shall exercise parent-time at least once per week, and more to the extent the child independently desires such parent-time. Alison's parent-time shall not exceed the maximum parent-time of 145 overnights awarded under 81-9-303 of the Utah Code. The child's freedom related to parent-time will not be used by either party to argue a material and substantial change in circumstances for the purposes of modifying custody or parent-time.

PARENTING PLAN

9. Holidays: Holiday parent-time will occur in conjunction with the parent-time as per ¶ 9 above. The parties shall exercise holiday parent-time as they may agree, but in the event that they do not agree, holiday parent-time may be in accordance with Utah Code §81-9-302, with Brett being designated as the custodial parent and Alison being designated as the non-custodial parent for holiday purposes only.

10. School: Unless otherwise agreed upon in writing and based upon the child's preferences, the child shall continue to attend her current school.

11. GENERAL PRINCIPLES.

a. Court Orders Govern: The parties recognize they must follow this Decree and other applicable court orders in this case and that neither party gets to make their own rules at any point.

b. Flexibility in Co-Parenting: The parties understand that flexible co-parenting reduces conflict and creates a healthy environment for the child. Therefore, the parties agree to be reasonably flexible in co-parenting the child.

c. Speaking Positively about the Other Parent: The parties acknowledge that speaking negatively of the other parent only harms and confuses the child. The child views themselves as half of each parent. Therefore, the parties will speak well of the other parent in front of the child. The parties will not malign or speak negatively of the other parent to the child, nor will they speak negatively of the other parent to any third party where there is any risk of the child hearing what is being said. Children do not need to hear about character flaws of the other parent.

d. The Child is Not a Tool for Discovery: The Parents shall not question the child about each other's personal relationships, financial spending, or otherwise use the child as a tool for discovery.

e. The Child is Not a Counselor: The Parents shall not use the child as a confidante to counsel with about their own personal problems, especially if the problem is related to the other parent.

f. The Child is Not a Messenger: The parties shall not use the child as a messenger. Any issues that need to be discussed must be discussed between the parties outside the presence of the child.

g. Increased Flexibility Given the Child's Age: The parties will use their best efforts to coordinate with the other parent to ensure the child can engage in those appropriate activities they find most fulfilling. The parties understand that as the child gets older, she may require more freedom and the parties may need to be more flexible, avoiding placing the child in the middle of a tug-of-war between parents.

h. Maintaining Similar Schedules: The parties should try to maintain similar schedules for the child in order to create continuity for them, including mealtimes, homework schedules, bedtimes, curfews, and other routines. Similarly, the parties shall ensure that they provide as much or more emotional support, time, and affection to the child as they were used to prior to the commencement of this case.

i. Maintaining Similar Methods of Discipline: The parties should try to maintain similar styles of discipline for the child so as to allow the child predictability.

j. Exposure to Media: Neither party shall expose the child to media that is inappropriate for them.

k. Advisory Guidelines: The Advisory Guidelines of Utah Code §81-9-202 shall be binding upon the parties unless otherwise conflicting with terms herein.

12. COMMUNICATION & INFORMATION.

a. Communication with the Child: Both parties shall be entitled to reasonable, uninterrupted and unmonitored telephone, virtual, text, or other reasonable contact with the minor child at reasonable hours and for reasonable durations (which shall be based upon the child's abilities, interests, schedules, and willingness to participate) while the other party is exercising parent-time with the child. Similarly, each party shall enjoy unmonitored mail and email contact with the child. Neither party shall use communication with the children to unreasonably disrupt the other parent's exercise of parent-time.

b. Communication Between Parents: Communication about adult issues shall occur between the parties only. This means that in the event that one or both of the parties remarries or finds a significant other, the parties will continue to communicate with one another and not communicate instead through their new spouse, a significant other, or any other third party. Similarly, the parties shall not include their spouse, significant other, or a third party in the discussions between the parties about the child. Communication between co-parents shall be peaceful, civil, and nonabusive.

c. Method of Communication: The parties shall communicate as they both feel comfortable; however, either parent may limit communication to email or text message and the other parent must comply.

d. Relationships with the Child's Support Personnel: Each parent is responsible for creating their own relationships with the child's teachers, doctors, coaches and friends, and shall not rely on the other parent's relationship with these individuals. Each party shall reasonably provide the other with contact information regarding schools or other educational programs, teachers, leaders of religious training, coaches or leaders of extra-curricular activities, and other contact information that allows the other parent to fulfill this provision. However, the parties shall freely exchange information pertinent to the child consistent with this Parenting Plan, or when asked by the other parent.

e. Access to Information: Each party shall have absolute and complete access to all educational and medical records of the child. Each party shall be listed as a parent on the child's school, medical, extracurricular, religious, and all other records.

13. ACTIVITIES

- a. Attending the Child's Activities: Both parties have the right to know about and attend all school, religious, and extra-curricular activities of the child, regardless of whether such activities occur during their parent-time schedule.
- b. Calendaring Activities: The parties shall use a shared calendar (i.e. the calendar in the coparenting app if the parties are using such an app, Google Calendar, etc.) to track the child's school, religious, extra-curricular, or any other activity parents typically attend, as well as the child's doctor, dental, or other similar appointments. These events shall be calendared by the parent within 24 hours of receiving notice or scheduling the event.
- c. Child's Attendance at Special Events: The parties shall make reasonable efforts for the child to attend special family functions. Neither party shall abuse this privilege by making excessive requests or unreasonably withholding permission. This typically includes functions unalterable by a parent (i.e. weddings, extended family reunions, or important ceremonies). The party requesting an accommodation shall provide options for make-up parent-time with their request so the other parent does not lose parent-time.
- d. Listening to the Child's Interests Regarding Activities: It is both parents' responsibility to ensure that the child has the opportunity to be exposed to many good activities. Where either parent withholds exposure because they don't want to lose their child to such activities, it is ultimately the child who loses. Therefore, it is encouraged that both parents cooperate and listen to the child's wishes and desires regarding the activities the child would like to participate in.

Both parties recognize that the activities the child is involved in must be comfortable for the child and that the parent's preferences, interests, and needs are inferior.

e. Unilateral Enrollment of the Child in Activities: Either parent can enroll the child in activities that do not require involvement of the other parent. By doing so, the parties recognize the other parent will not be sharing the cost and the activity shall not interfere with their parent-time.

f. Homework: Both parties shall help the child complete any homework the child has received during their parent-time.

14. TRANSPORTATION, TRAVEL, AND LOCAL RELOCATION.

a. Pick Up and Drop Off: When the child is able to transport herself for parent-time, she should do so. If the child is unable to transport herself for parent-time, exchanges should take place at school whenever possible. If exchanges cannot reasonably take place at school, the parent receiving the child shall be responsible for picking the child up at the other parent's residence for parent-time. The receiving parent shall remain in their vehicle for the duration of the exchange and is prohibited from approaching or entering the other party's residence during the exchange. The parties shall make every effort to be on time for parent-time exchanges; on the rare occasions they are going to be late, they shall let the other party know in advance via phone call or text message.

b. Importance of Being On Time: The parties recognize and understand that the other parent has plans, schedules, and other constraints on their time.

Each party shall be considerate of this by demonstrating routine timeliness.

c. Behavior During Parent-Time Exchanges: Parents shall keep communications positive during parent-time exchanges. The parents recognize that it is healthy for the child to see their parents have positive interactions with each other. Parent-time exchanges should be brief and without fanfare or drama. Parent-time exchanges are not the place to resolve disputes or discuss substantive issues regarding the child, regardless of whether the child can hear the conversation.

d. Traveling with the Child: The parties shall follow §81-9-202(19) of the Utah Code in regards to travel and vacations with the child. Namely, whenever the child travels with either parent, all of the following will be provided to the other parent: (a) an itinerary of travel dates; (b) destinations; (c) places where the child or traveling parent can be reached; and (d) the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the child's location. When travelling, the parent will make reasonable efforts to facilitate communication with the other parent. If the child requires a passport for travel, both parties will assist in obtaining such passports.

e. Change of Contact Information: The parties shall provide one another with current contact information within 24 hours of any local change of address, a new telephone number, or new email address.

15. MUTUAL RESTRAINING ORDERS

a. Communication: Both parties shall be prohibited from doing or saying anything to the detriment, harm, or injury of the other party. This includes, but is not limited to, (a) insulting the other parent, pointing out the other parent's weaknesses or flaws, or speaking derogatorily about the other parent in the presence of the child or anywhere near the child's presence; (b) speaking to the child about the issues in this case; (c) attempting to influence the child's preferences regarding custody or visitation; (d) or attempting to diminish the love and affection of the child for the other parent or the other parent's family members.

b. Harassment: Both parties shall be mutually restrained from harassing, annoying, or otherwise bothering the other party, or from committing any domestic violence or abuse against the other party.

c. Drugs and Alcohol: Both parties shall be mutually restrained from using illicit drugs, prescription drugs except as prescribed, or drinking alcohol to the point of intoxication during the exercise of parent-time.

d. Physical Presence: Both parties shall be mutually restrained from entering one another's residences or coming onto the property of one another's residences without express permission.

e. Third Parties: Both parties shall be mutually restrained from inducing or allowing a third party to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under this Parenting Plan and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from committing such violations, or shall remove the child from such circumstances. Each party shall control their own extended family and ensure that their conduct and behavior around the child are consistent with these terms.

16. SIGNIFICANT OTHERS

a. The parties understand that it can be detrimental to the child to introduce them to multiple significant others. The parties shall not introduce the child to their significant others until appropriate, and until they have established a committed relationship with such significant other. Significant others are not parents and shall not assume any role in the parenting of or the discussing of the child with the other parent.

17. RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL

a. There shall be no right of first refusal.

RELOCATION

18. If either party moves more than 150 miles from the other parent they must follow all provisions outlined in Utah Code §81-9-209.

CHILD SUPPORT

19. The parties shall be ordered to pay child support as calculated and determined pursuant to the Uniform Child Support Guidelines and the laws of the State of Utah.

20. Alison's gross monthly income is $5,083.86.

21. Brett's gross monthly income is $12,498.56.

22. Based on a joint physical custody calculator with Alison exercising 145 overnights and Brett 220 overnights each year, Alison's child support obligation shall be $162.

23. Child support shall commence the day Alison vacates the residence and begins receiving alimony. Child support will be pro rata for the month Alison vacates the property. Brett may deduct Alison's child support obligation from his alimony obligation each month.

24. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-211, there shall be an automatic reduction for extended parent-time.

25. The parties shall have the right to adjust child support depending on substantial changes in circumstances, including increases or decreases in either party's incomes, as is set forth in Utah Code §81-6-202.

26. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for a child shall terminate at the time: (1) the child becomes 18 years of age, or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or (2) the child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated in accordance with Utah Code §78A-6-801.

MEDICAL EXPENSES & INSURANCE COVERAGE

27. The parties shall ensure the child has appropriate health insurance coverage. In the event health insurance is or becomes available to either party through employment as a benefit or at reduced cost, at least one party shall be ordered to purchase and maintain medical insurance for the benefit of the parties' minor child. The parties have agreed that Brett will pay for and be responsible for the child's medical, dental, and vision insurance coverage, including the payment of the child's portion of insurance premiums for such coverage, so long as such coverage is available through his employer. In the event that Brett is unable to obtain insurance for the minor child through his employer, Alison shall obtain insurance coverage through her employer if possible, at which point she would be responsible for the child's medical, dental, and vision insurance coverage, including the payment of the child's portion of insurance premiums for such coverage. The parties shall negotiate the child's out of pocket medical expenses related to her healthcare. In the event they cannot agree, such expenses shall be allocated to the parties in proportion to their respective incomes as stated in the child support section above. If the parties each cover the children with insurance coverage and incur an actual cost for such insurance, they shall each pay their own insurance premiums and contribute nothing to the other.

28. If, at any point in time, the dependent child is covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Brett shall be primary coverage for the dependent child and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Alison shall be secondary coverage for the dependent child. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but are covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent child.

29. The party incurring a healthcare expense on behalf of the parties' minor child shall provide written verification of the cost and payment to the other party within thirty (30) days of the payment. Written verification may be sent via text message or email.

30. The other party shall have thirty (30) days from receiving written verification to reimburse the party who incurred the expense. However, if the medical bill is over $500, the parties shall work with the medical provider to pay their share directly and set up a payment plan if necessary.

31. A parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to provide the above verification within the thirty day time period.

32. Pursuant to Utah Code §15-4-6.7 and §81-4-406, when a court order has been entered providing for payment of medical expenses of a minor child, a creditor who has been provided with a copy of the order may not make a claim for unpaid medical expenses against a parent who has paid in full that share of medical and dental expenses required to be paid by the parent under the order. Therefore, the parties shall cooperate in providing a copy of this Decree to any creditors, notify the creditors of their current address, and inform the creditor that they cannot make a claim for unpaid medical expenses or make a negative report against a party who has paid their one-half share of the child's medical expenses.

33. Alison and Brett shall cooperate in exchanging all claim forms and statements in order to coordinate the payment of all medical and dental expenses.

34. The parent who maintains health insurance shall provide verification of the coverage to the other parent, upon initial enrollment of the child, and thereafter on or before January 2nd of each calendar year.

35. The parent who maintains insurance shall provide written notice to the other parent of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within thirty (30) days of any change.

CHILDCARE

36. The child is old enough that she does not need childcare.

ASSETS AND DEBTS

37. Real Property: During the parties' marriage, the parties acquired interest in certain real property located at 1653 N. 2530 W. Clinton, Utah 84015. Brett shall be awarded the interim possession and control of the marital home. He will be solely responsible for the mortgage, utilities, and costs associated with the home. Alison shall vacate the marital home within 28 days of signing the Stipulation for Divorce.

38. The parties shall obtain an appraisal of the home to determine its fair market value and share equally in the costs of such appraisal. If they cannot agree on an appraiser, Alison shall provide three appraisers to Brett and Brett shall select from one of the three within 5 business days. If he does not select within this timeframe, Alison may choose the appraiser. Equity in the home shall be determined by this appraisal (and such debts shall be verified within 14 days of signing this Stipulation). The appraisal shall calculate the value of the home to reflect that it has a brand-new roof.. Within six (6) months of receiving the appraisal report, Brett shall complete the process of refinancing the home to remove Alison's name from the loan and pay Alison 50% of the equity.

a. Brett has fronted the cost to replace the roof and will be reimbursed from the total available equity from the home prior to dividing any equity remaining between the parties.

39. If Brett cannot complete the refinancing process within this time period, the parties shall agree upon a real estate agent to immediately list the home for sale. If they cannot agree upon a real estate agent, then Brett shall propose the names of three potential real estate agents to Alison and Alison shall select one of the three within 5 business days. If Alison does not select within this time frame, Brett may select the agent of their choice. The parties shall follow the advice of the real estate agent in making necessary repairs, staging, pricing, accepting offers, and otherwise getting the home sold as soon as practicable. The parties shall be provided the opportunity to make repairs to the home themselves (i.e. painting, repairing damage, etc.) if such repairs are recommended by the real estate agent or the appraiser and such repairs will increase the sale price. For any necessary repairs, the parties will share the cost equally. For any elective repairs, the parties shall agree on the method and division of cost, but if they cannot agree, they shall not make the repair and sell the home as-is. The parties shall cooperate without delay with the real estate agent, the title company, and in any other way necessary to get the home sold. The proceeds from the sale of the home shall be used as follows:

- a. Payment of the mortgage;
- b. Commissions, fees, closing costs, and all other expenses associated with the sale of the home;
- c. The remaining proceeds shall be divided equally between the parties.
- d. Personal Property: The parties shall work together to equitably divide all remaining items of personal property not already listed below. If they cannot reach an agreement on how to divide the remaining personal property items, they shall make a comprehensive list of all remaining personal property items and take turns selecting items from that list until no personal property remains. All assets and property will be listed regardless of who purchased the property or controlled the asset. This process shall be completed prior to Alison vacating the home.

40. Specifically, the parties shall be awarded the following:

- a. Alison shall be awarded the following assets, and shall be hereafter responsible for any debts, ongoing payments, and costs associated with such assets, holding Brett harmless for any and all liability thereon: Alison shall remove her items concurrent to when she moves out of the home.

41. Any item not selected or desired by one party will be awarded to the other party by default.

42. The 2009 Toyota Matrix shall be awarded to the parties' adult daughter, Ryann, and shall be titled in her name within 60 days of signing this Stipulation.

43. The 2002 Ford F150 shall be awarded to the parties' adult son, Brennan, and shall be titled in his name within 60 days of his return from his LDS Mission.

44. The parties shall refinance vehicles and sign titles or other appropriate documentation within 60 days to ensure vehicles are awarded to the proper party and the other party's name has been removed from any ownership or responsibility associated with the vehicle.

45. The parties have no joint financial accounts. The parties shall be awarded all financial accounts in their respective names as their sole and separate property.

46. Debts: The parties shall be solely responsible for the following debts and approximate amounts, including any ongoing payments or costs associated with such debts, holding the other harmless thereon:

a. Alison

- i. Affirm Installment Loan: $2,504.88
- ii. AFCU CC: $11,656.15
- iii. AFCU LOC: $100
- iv. Student Loan: $17,305.31
- v. Student Loan #2: $2,536.07
- vi. Student Loan #3: $25,293.94
- vii. Student Loan #4: $6,423.62

- iv. Lowes: $2,727.43
- v. Chase CC: $5,000
- vi. The loan owed to his parents: $50,000
- vii. Any other debts in his name

i. If either party is obligated on a debt the other party's name is on, the payment of that debt must remain current. For secured debt that the other party's name is on, in the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset must be placed immediately on the market for sale in order to protect the other party from further harm. If the other party makes payment on a delinquent debt in order to protect his or her credit rating, that party may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from party that was obligated to pay such debt.

47. Each party shall be responsible for any debt individually incurred after the date of separation.

48. The parties shall be ordered to notify their respective creditors in a reasonable and timely manner regarding their respective assumption and liability of their separate debts and obligations.

RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS

49. All retirement accounts and pension plans shall be divided pursuant to the principles set forth in Woodward.

ALIMONY

50. Alison shall be awarded a sum of $1,900 per month as alimony from Brett. Brett's alimony obligation shall terminate upon Alison's remarriage, cohabitation, death, Brett's death, or after 108 monthly payments, whichever occurs first. The alimony obligation commences immediately upon Alison vacating the marital home, with the calculation for the month she vacates to be calculated pro rata depending on the date she vacates.

51. Alimony shall be paid one half on or before the 5th day of each month, and the other half on or before the 20th day of each month. Alimony due and not paid on or before the 5th day of the month is delinquent on the 6th day of the month. Alimony due and not paid on or before the 20th day of the month is delinquent on the 21st day of the month.

TAXES

52. The parties will file their 2025 taxes as joint-married, claiming the minor child and splitting equally the resulting refund or liability. Thereafter, Alison shall claim the minor child on her taxes in even numbered years and Brett shall claim her on odd numbered years. The parties shall cooperate and ensure that any stimulus payments, advance child tax credits, or other payments associated with the child they are claiming for tax purposes in a given year is given to the intended parent, regardless of which address the money is sent to or what bank account it is deposited in.

53. If either party is not current on their child support or alimony obligations, they shall not be entitled to claim the exemption.

MISCELLANEOUS

54. Cooperation: Alison and Brett shall cooperate with each other, through counsel or otherwise, to effect change in titles to property agreed to be divided herein, to change the names and responsibilities for payment upon the charge accounts and other debts divided herein, and to cooperate in each and every other way necessary or proper to ensure that the Decree of Divorce is carried out in every detail.

55. Last Name: Alison may be restored to her maiden name, if she so desires.

56. Attorney Fees and Costs: The parties shall each be responsible for their own attorney fees and costs, if any.

57. Mediation: The parties understand that future modifications to the Decree may become necessary and that prior to filing any petition to modify the parties are required to first attempt in good faith to reach an agreement concerning their issues through a court approved mediator.
