The Court, having also received Petitioner’s Declaration of Jurisdiction and Grounds and entered Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and having reviewed the file in this matter and being otherwise fully advised, hereby ORDERS, ADJUDGES and DECREES as follows:

4. Children. The parties are the legal parents of the following children under Utah's Uniform Parentage Act, Utah Code 81-5-101 et seq. This court has jurisdiction to determine the issues related to the children in this divorce action because the parties became the legal parents of the children prior to or during the time the parties were married. The initials, birth month and birth year of each child are:

Child's Initials	Birth Month and Year
R.A.	07/2019
M.A.	11/2021

5. Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act. Pursuant to Utah Code 81-11-101 et seq., Utah has jurisdiction over the custody and parent-time issues in this case, pursuant to Utah's Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act (UCCJEA) because Utah is the home state of the parties' minor children or Utah was the home state of the minor children six (6) months prior to the commencement of the proceeding, and/or this case meets the criteria under Utah Code 81-11-201.

6. Children – Rule 100. Pursuant to Rule 100 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, The Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act, Utah Code Ann. §81-11-101 et seq. and The Uniform Interstate Family Support Act, Utah Code Ann. §81-8-101 et seq., the Petitioner states upon information and belief that:

b. The parties are unaware of any criminal, delinquency, or protective order cases involving a party or the parties' children.

  - v. Mediation: If a decision still cannot be reached, the parties shall promptly retain the assistance of a mediator, with the parties splitting the costs of such mediation 50/50.
  - vi. Presumptive Decision: If there is no agreement after mediation, then Megan shall have authority to make the presumptive decision regarding education decisions and Blake shall have authority to make the presumptive decision regarding medical decisions.
  - vii. Court Review: Either parent shall have the right to bring a dispute by way of court review to determine the best interests of the minor children.
  - viii. No Undue Delay: Neither party shall cause any undue delay in utilizing this decision-making process and shall pursue the speedy resolution of all disputes.

If either party moves within 150 miles of the other's present residence, the parties shall meet and confer regarding the parent time schedule and come to an agreement on a new parent time and custody schedule. If there is no agreement, the parties shall attend mediation with each paying half the cost thereof. If there is still no agreement, then either party may file with the Court.

The parties shall notify each other of any school programs, extracurricular activities and sporting events their children may be involved in.

19. Special Events. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the children available to attend family functions, including funerals and weddings, and other significant events in the life of the children or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the visitation schedule.

20. Mutual Restraining.

- a. Both of the parties are permanently enjoined from saying or doing anything in the presence of the minor children of the parties (or in such a manner that the children may become aware of the party's comments or actions, including but not limited to any and all social media posts, blog posts, or other electronic format) to convey any negative information, beliefs, feelings, etc. regarding the other parent, or doing or saying anything that would, in any way, harm the relationship between the children and the other parent; both parents are ordered to encourage the creation and maintenance of a strong and healthy relationship between the other parent and the children.
  - b. The parties are further enjoined from discussing custody or this divorce action with the children in any way or in such a manner that the children may become aware of the party's comments or actions, including but not limited to any and all social media posts, blog posts, or other electronic format.
  - c. The parties shall not make disparaging remarks to one another or to their children about one another or in the child's presence, either verbally, in writing or otherwise. Both parties are mutually restrained from harassing or threatening the other party.

21. First Right of Refusal. There shall be no first right of refusal.

22. Dispute Resolution. If the parties have any future disagreement pertaining to their children generally or over the terms or implementation of this agreement, they shall seek the assistance of a mutually agreed upon third party or mediator before either of the parties initiates legal action. The parties both agree, however, that either of the parties may seek emergency relief from the court in the future should an emergency arise which would make formal negotiation not practical.

23 Activity Costs. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amount incurred for any mutually agreed-upon in writing extracurricular activities that the minor children may be involved in. The parties shall pay the providers directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. A party who incurs an expense for a child's extra-curricular activity without receiving prior consent from the other parent shall be solely responsible for that expense. If a parent enrolls a child in an activity without the other parent's consent, the activity shall not infringe on the other parent's parent-time and the enrolling parent shall pay the full cost.

24. School Fees. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket school expenses (i.e. registration, books, required supplies, lab fees, etc.) incurred on behalf of the minor children during the time leading up to and including high school. The parties agree that this does not include private school tuition. The parties shall pay the school directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of those school expense invoices, bills, receipts, and/or verification.

25. The parents should also prepare the children, both mentally and physically, for each parent-time exchange by having the children packed and ready to leave on time, and by encouraging the child to spend time with the other parent.

FINANCIAL ITEMS AND ASSET DISTRIBUTION

26. Child Support. Child Support shall be calculated according to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-107 et seq. Megan's gross monthly income is $4,333 per month. Blake's gross monthly income is $5,903 per month. Using a sole physical custody worksheet, Blake shall pay child support to Megan in the amount of $1,126 per month beginning April 1, 2026 and continuing through July 31, 2026. The child support is payable on the 20th day of each month.

27. Beginning August 1, 2026, Blake's child support obligation shall be $3,337 per month based on his gross monthly income of $22,917 and Megan's gross monthly income of $4,333 and using a sole physical custody worksheet. The child support is payable on the 20th day of each month.

28. The parties stipulate to an automatic review of the parties' income in March 2028 and the parties shall exchange all previous years' tax returns, W-2s, K-1s, 1099s, and all schedules verifying total gross income from all sources by March 1, 2028. The parties will then meet and confer to determine if the child support obligation needs to be adjusted. If there is a disagreement, either party may present this issue to the Court.

29. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for each child terminates at the time and shall automatically adjust: (1) a child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected date of graduation, whichever occurs later; or (2) a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated.

30. Medical/Dental Expenses. The party who can obtain the best coverage at the most reasonable cost will obtain insurance for the medical expenses of the minor children in accordance with U.C.A. §81-6-208. The parent who maintains health insurance should provide verification of cost and coverage to the other parent, upon initial enrollment of the dependent children, and thereafter, upon open enrollment each year and/or on or before January 2nd of each calendar year as set forth in Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208. Each parent shall have copies of the front and back of the health insurance cards and knowledge of the plan terms which shall also be provided within 24 hours upon enrollment.

- a. Each parent shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the minor children's portion of insurance. The children's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the children shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case. This amount shall be automatically deducted from or added to the monthly child support obligation.

- b. Each parent shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments, incurred for the dependent children and actually paid by the parents.
- c. The parent who incurs medical and dental expenses may provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The other parent will remit payment within 30 days of receipt of the verification. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party should be responsible for the payment of one-half of all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor children as indicated.
- d. The parent who incurs medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses, or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses, if that parent fails to provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses within thirty (30) days of payment, as set forth in Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208.
- e. The Parties should cooperate in exchanging all claim forms and statements in order to coordinate the payment of all medical and dental expenses, as set forth in Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208.
- f. If, at any point in time, the dependent children are covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Blake shall be primary coverage for the dependent children and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Megan shall be secondary coverage for the dependent children. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent children are not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent children.

- g. If the parties have double coverage for insurance, each party shall pay their own insurance policy premium.

31. Childcare Expenses. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-209, the parties shall equally share any reasonable out-of-pocket childcare costs incurred solely for the purpose of either party working.

- a. If an actual expense for childcare is incurred, a parent should begin paying his or her share on a monthly basis immediately upon presentation of reasonable but verifiable proof of the out-of-pocket childcare expense.
- b. The parent incurring the childcare expense should provide written verification of the cost and identity of a provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of a provider. The custodial parent should notify the other parent of any change in provider or expense within 30 calendar days of the change.
- c. The parent incurring childcare expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if the parent incurring the expenses fails to comply with this section.

Megan will be entitled to claim the minor child as a dependency exemption for odd-numbered tax years, and the Blake will claim the minor child as a dependency exemption for even-numbered tax years.
- d. Blake is entitled to claim the dependency exemptions indicated herein as long as he is current on his child support obligations by December 31st of any tax year.

33. Taxes. The parties shall file joint tax returns for 2025 and split any refund or liability equally. The parties shall cooperate and exchange all information and documents associated with the preparation of their 2025 return and shall direct the payment be automatically split equally and deposited into their respective accounts. If that cannot be achieved, then the parties shall exchange verification of refund, bank statements and checks issued to confirm the equal split of the refund.

34. Real Property. The marital property located at 24336 West Illini Street, Buckeye, AZ 85326 shall be awarded to Blake, free and clear of any claim of Megan, together with all debts and liabilities associated with the same, including but not limited to the mortgage and Mountain America HELOC. Blake shall remove Megan's name from the mortgage and the HELOC by December 31, 2026.
