

RED LAW PLLC

1Trevor D. Osborn #14742
2666 North 400 East
North Ogden, Utah 84414
Telephone: (801) 477-0733
Email: trevor@redlawutah.com

PRIVATE RECORD

Attorney for Katrin Martin

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT IN AND FOR DAVIS COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of:
KATRIN MARTIN,
Petitioner,

and

CLINTON MARTIN,
Respondent.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Case No. 264700267

Judge: Joseph Bean
Commissioner: Julie Winkler

The above-captioned matter has come before this court on Petitioner's Petition for Divorce. Both parties have stipulated to entry of this Decree of Divorce pursuant to the Stipulation for Divorce filed with this court on April 22, 2026. The court, after having reviewed this stipulation and finding the same to be fair, just, and equitable, does HEREBY ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE AS FOLLOWS:

JURISDICTION

1. The parties are both bona fide residents of Davis County, State of Utah, and have been for three (3) months immediately prior to the filing of this action in accordance with Utah Code §81-4-402(1).
2. Katrin and Clinton are husband and wife, having been married on June 30, 2006 in Bountiful, Utah.

GROUND

3. The parties shall be awarded a divorce from one another on the grounds of irreconcilable differences because the parties have been unable to resolve their marital problems, making continuation of the marriage impossible.

CHILDREN

4. The parties have one (1) minor child together. Namely:

a. L.M.M., born 03/20/2012

5. The parties' minor child has resided in the State of Utah for more than six (6) months prior to the commencement of this action and Utah is the home state of the minor child pursuant to Utah Code §78B-13-201(1)(a).

6. The parties do not have knowledge of any custody proceeding concerning the minor child, other than this divorce proceeding, in a court of Utah or any other state or jurisdiction.

7. The parties do not know of any other person not a party to these proceedings who has physical custody of the minor child or who claims to have custody or visitation rights with respect to the minor child.

CUSTODY

8. Legal Custody: Katrin and Clinton shall each be awarded joint legal custody of the parties' minor child. Each parent may make routine day-to-day decisions during their time with the children. It is anticipated that parental decisions shall be required for major issues in raising the parties' child and in meeting their ongoing needs including, but not limited to, healthcare, education, and religious upbringing. If and when they arise, the parents shall address the issues.

Each parent shall give good faith consideration to the views of the other. If the decision involves medical or schooling issues, the parties may further elect to seek input from treating physicians or educators. Both parents shall be provided with such input. If the parties cannot agree upon an appropriate course of action then they shall participate in at least one session of mediation and share the cost equally. If a party delays in scheduling mediation or if mediation does not yield a consensus, either party may take the issue before the Court and the Court shall have final decision-making authority. Either party can schedule the child's medical appointments, take the child to his medical appointments, but both parties shall be notified of medical appointments and kept up to date on what occurs at each appointment if they are unable to attend.

9. Physical Custody: It is in the best interests of the parties' minor child that Katrin and Clinton exercise joint physical custody on an equal parent-time schedule pursuant to Utah Code §81-9-305, except the parties' overnight schedule shall be as follows:

	Mon	Tues	Wed	Thur	Fri	Sat	Sun
Week 1	Clinton	Clinton	Clinton	Clinton	Clinton	Clinton	Katrin
Week 2	Katrin	Katrin	Katrin	Katrin	Katrin	Katrin	Clinton

10. Given the child's age and maturity, the parties agree that the child will be granted some discretion, but not ultimate freedom, to decide which parent's home he goes to for parent-time. Neither parent shall pressure, influence, or attempt to persuade the child in any way whatsoever regarding his parent-time decisions, including but not limited to making comments, asking leading questions, offering incentives, expressing approval or disapproval, or otherwise involving the child in matters of custody or parent-time selection. This flexibility will not result in a material and substantial change in circumstances that justifies modification of parent-time or custody, nor shall this freedom be considered in any future petition to modify parent-time or custody.

PARENTING PLAN

11. Holidays: The parties shall exercise holiday parent-time as they may agree, but in the event that they do not agree, holiday parent-time shall be in accordance with Utah Code §81-9-303, with Katrin being designated as the custodial parent and Clinton being designated as the non-custodial parent.

12. Summer Parent-time: The parties shall each be awarded two-weeks of uninterrupted parent-time during the summer with the minor child. These weeks may be split. Katrin shall have first choice of weeks in even-numbered years and Clinton shall have first choice in odd-numbered years. The party with first choice shall make their selection by the May 1 preceding the summer; if they do not, the other party may make their selection. The party with second choice shall make their selection by May 15. Neither party shall interfere with the others holiday parent-time without permission. The parties may not exercise their two-weeks of summer parent-time directly before or after any existing parent-time; accordingly, neither parent shall go more than 2 weeks each summer without seeing the child. All other summer parent-time shall be according the normal parent-time schedule outlined above.

13. School: Unless otherwise agreed upon in writing, the child shall continue to attend school at High Mark and then Northridge High School. If the parties move outside said school boundaries, the parties shall follow the dispute resolution process outlined above to determine the child's new school.

14. Church: The child shall attend church in Clinton's ward boundaries for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints each and every Sunday regardless of whose parent-time it is. Clinton shall perform all ordinations, advancements, and ceremonies so long as he is eligible. If he is not eligible, then Katrin will be permitted to select who performs the child's ordinations, advancements, and ceremonies.

15. GENERAL PRINCIPLES.

- a. Court Orders Govern: The parties recognize they must follow this Decree and other applicable court orders in this case and that neither party gets to make their own rules at any point.
- b. Flexibility in Co-Parenting: The parties understand that flexible co-parenting reduces conflict and creates a healthy environment for the child. Therefore, the parties agree to be reasonably flexible in co-parenting the child.
- c. Speaking Positively about the Other Parent: The parties acknowledge that speaking negatively of the other parent only harms and confuses the child. The child views themselves as half of each parent. Therefore, the parties will speak well of the other parent in front of the child. The parties will not malign or speak negatively of the other parent to the child, nor will they speak negatively of the other parent to any third party where there is any risk of the child hearing what is being said. Children do not need to hear about character flaws of the other parent.
- d. The Child is Not a Tool for Discovery: The Parents shall not question the child about each other's personal relationships, financial spending, or otherwise use the child as a tool for discovery.

e. The Child is Not a Counselor: The Parents shall not use the child as a confidante to counsel with about their own personal problems, especially if the problem is related to the other parent.

f. The Child is Not a Messenger: The parties shall not use the child as a messenger. Any issues that need to be discussed must be discussed between the parties outside the presence of the child.

g. Increased Flexibility as the Child Grows: As the child grows up and matures, their needs and interests will change. The parties will use their best efforts to coordinate with the other parent to ensure the child can engage in those appropriate activities they find most fulfilling. The parties understand that as the child gets older they may require more freedom and the parties may need to be more flexible, avoiding placing the child in the middle of a tug-of-war between parents. Nevertheless, absent an agreement between the parties, the parties must follow this Decree and other applicable court orders, if any.

h. Maintaining Similar Schedules: The parties should try to maintain similar schedules for the child in order to create continuity for them, including mealtimes, homework schedules, bedtimes, curfews, and other routines. Similarly, the parties shall ensure that they provide as much or more emotional support, time, and affection to the child as they were used to prior to the commencement of this case.

i. Maintaining Similar Methods of Discipline: The parties should try to maintain similar styles of discipline for the child so as to allow the child predictability.

j. Exposure to Media: Neither party shall expose the child to media that is inappropriate for them.

k. Advisory Guidelines: The Advisory Guidelines of Utah Code §81-9-202 shall be binding upon the parties unless otherwise conflicting with terms herein.

16. COMMUNICATION & INFORMATION.

a. Communication with the Child: Both parties shall be entitled to reasonable, uninterrupted and unmonitored telephone, virtual, text, or other reasonable contact with the minor child at reasonable hours and for reasonable durations (which shall be based upon the child's abilities, interests, schedules, and willingness to participate) while the other party is exercising parent-time with the child. Similarly, each party shall enjoy unmonitored mail and email contact with the child. Neither party shall use communication with the children to unreasonably disrupt the other parent's exercise of parent-time.

b. Communication Between Parents: Communication about adult issues shall occur between the parties only. This means that in the event that one or both of the parties remarries or finds a significant other, the parties will continue to communicate with one another and not communicate instead through their new spouse, a significant other, or any other third party. Similarly, the parties shall not include their spouse, significant other, or a third party in the discussions between the parties about the child. Communication between co-parents shall be peaceful, civil, and nonabusive.

c. Method of Communication: The parties shall communicate as they both feel comfortable; however, either parent may limit communication to email or text message and the other parent must comply.

d. Relationships with the Child's Support Personnel: Each parent is responsible for creating their own relationships with the child's teachers, doctors, coaches and friends, and shall not rely on the other parent's relationship with these individuals. Each party shall reasonably provide the other with contact information regarding schools or other educational programs, teachers, leaders of religious training, coaches or leaders of extra-curricular activities, and other contact information that allows the other parent to fulfill this provision. However, the parties shall freely exchange information pertinent to the child consistent with this Parenting Plan, or when asked by the other parent.

e. Child's Illnesses: The parties shall notify the other parent immediately in the event of a medical emergency or when the child is ill. The parties shall not use the child's illnesses as an excuse to interfere with parent-time. Both parents are competent to care for the child during illness. Nevertheless, the child's comfort shall be placed ahead of the parties own desires. The parties will give details on medication for the child and any dosages necessary. Each party shall administer medicine as instructed by the child's medical or other professional.

f. Access to Information: Each party shall have absolute and complete access to all educational and medical records of the child. Each party shall be listed as a parent on the child's school, medical, extracurricular, religious, and all other records.

17. ACTIVITIES

a. Attending the Child's Activities: Both parties have the right to know about and attend all school, religious, and extra-curricular activities of the child, regardless of whether such activities occur during their parent-time schedule.

b. Calendaring Activities: The parties shall use a shared calendar (i.e. the calendar in the coparenting app if the parties are using such an app, Google Calendar, etc.) to track the child's school, religious, extra-curricular, or any other activity parents typically attend, as well as the child's doctor, dental, or other similar appointments. These events shall be calendared by the parent within 24 hours of receiving notice.

c. Child's Attendance at Special Events: The parties shall make reasonable efforts for the child to attend special family functions. Neither party shall abuse this privilege by making excessive requests or unreasonably withholding permission. This typically includes functions unalterable by a parent (i.e. weddings, extended family reunions, or important ceremonies). The party requesting an accommodation shall provide options for make-up parent-time with their request so the other parent does not lose parent-time.

d. Listening to the Child's Interests Regarding Activities: It is both parents' responsibility to ensure that the child has the opportunity to be exposed to many good activities. Where either parent withholds exposure because they don't want to lose their child to such activities, it is ultimately the child who loses.

Therefore, it is encouraged that both parents cooperate and listen to the child's wishes and desires regarding the activities the child would like to participate in. Both parties recognize that the activities the child is involved in must be comfortable for the child and that the parent's preferences, interests, and needs are inferior.

e. Parents' Discussion about Potential Activities: Where a conflict in parent-time is likely to arise because of the child's enrollment in an activity, the parents shall discuss any proposed changes to the parent-time schedule with the other parent prior to talking with the child about such activity that they want them to be involved in.

f. Unilateral Enrollment of the Child in Activities: Either parent can enroll the child in activities that do not require involvement of the other parent. By doing so, the parties recognize the other parent will not be sharing the cost and the activity shall not interfere with their parent-time.

g. Homework: Both parties shall help the child complete any homework the child has received during their parent-time.

18. TRANSPORTATION, TRAVEL, AND LOCAL RELOCATION.

a. Pick Up and Drop Off: Exchanges shall take place as the parties can agree. If they cannot agree, during normal parent-time exchanges shall take place at 6:00 p.m. on Sunday with the party whose parent-time is commencing being responsible for transportation. For holiday and extended parent-time the party whose parent-time is commencing shall be responsible for transportation.

Exchanges shall take place curbside at the parties' respective residences unless a school to school exchange is possible. The parties shall make every effort to be on time for parent-time exchanges; on the rare occasions they are going to be late, they shall let the other party know in advance via phone call or text message.

b. Importance of Being On Time: The parties recognize and understand that the other parent has plans, schedules, and other constraints on their time. Each party shall be considerate of this by demonstrating routine timeliness.

c. Behavior During Parent-Time Exchanges: Parents shall keep communications positive during parent-time exchanges. The parents recognize that it is healthy for the child to see their parents have positive interactions with each other. Parent-time exchanges should be brief and without fanfare or drama. Parent-time exchanges are not the place to resolve disputes or discuss substantive issues regarding the child, regardless of whether the child can hear the conversation.

d. Traveling with the Child: The parties shall follow §81-9-202(19) of the Utah Code in regards to travel and vacations with the child. Namely, whenever the child travels with either parent, all of the following will be provided to the other parent: (a) an itinerary of travel dates; (b) destinations; (c) places where the child or traveling parent can be reached; and (d) the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the child's location. When travelling, the parent will make reasonable efforts to facilitate communication with the other parent. If the child requires a passport for travel, both parties will assist in obtaining such passports.

e. Change of Contact Information: The parties shall provide one another with current contact information within 24 hours of any local change of address, a new telephone number, or new email address.

19. MUTUAL RESTRAINING ORDERS

a. Communication: Both parties shall be prohibited from doing or saying anything to the detriment, harm, or injury of the other party. This includes, but is not limited to, (a) insulting the other parent, pointing out the other parent's weaknesses or flaws, or speaking derogatorily about the other parent in the presence of the child or anywhere near the child's presence; (b) speaking to the child about the issues in this case; (c) attempting to influence the child's preferences regarding custody or visitation; (d) or attempting to diminish the love and affection of the child for the other parent or the other parent's family members.

b. Harassment: Both parties shall be mutually restrained from harassing, annoying, or otherwise bothering the other party, or from committing any domestic violence or abuse against the other party.

c. Drugs and Alcohol: Both parties shall be mutually restrained from using illicit drugs, prescription drugs except as prescribed, or drinking alcohol to the point of intoxication during the exercise of parent-time.

d. Physical Presence: Both parties shall be mutually restrained from driving by one another's residences except for a purpose outlined under this Decree, entering one another's residences, or coming onto the property of one another's residences without express permission.

e. Third Parties: Both parties shall be mutually restrained from inducing or allowing a third party to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under this Parenting Plan and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from committing such violations, or shall remove the child from such circumstances. Each party shall control their own extended family and ensure that their conduct and behavior around the child are consistent with these terms.

20. SIGNIFICANT OTHERS

a. The parties understand that it can be detrimental to the child to introduce them to multiple significant others. The parties shall not introduce the child to their significant others until appropriate, and until they have established a committed relationship with such significant other. Significant others are not parents and shall not assume any role in the parenting of or the discussing of the child with the other parent.

21. RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL

a. Both parties shall be awarded the right of first refusal if there is surrogate care for the minor child for an overnight period. The ROFR shall not prevent the child from having occasional sleepovers with friends and family members.

RELOCATION

22. If either party moves more than 150 miles from the other parent they must follow all provisions outlined in Utah Code §81-9-209.

CHILD SUPPORT

23. The parties shall be ordered to pay child support as calculated and determined pursuant to the Uniform Child Support Guidelines and the laws of the State of Utah.

24. At present, Katrin is employed earning $18 per hour, and therefore based on a 40 hour work week, has a gross monthly income of $3,120.00.

25. Clinton is employed and based on his W-2 divided by 12, his monthly income is $9,230. Clinton's 1099 also demonstrates he made $35,835.00, or $2,986.25 per month. Based on these two figures combined, Clinton's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $12,216.25.

26. Based on a joint physical custody schedule with Katrin exercising 183 overnights and Clinton 182 overnights each year, Clinton's child support obligation shall be $417.00.

27. Child support shall commence April 01, 2026.

28. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-211, there shall be an automatic reduction for extended parent-time.

29. The parties shall have the right to adjust child support depending on substantial changes in circumstances, including increases or decreases in either party's incomes, as is set forth in Utah Code §81-6-202.

30. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for a child shall terminate at the time: (1) the child becomes 18 years of age, or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or (2) the child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated in accordance with Utah Code §78A-6-801.

MEDICAL EXPENSES & INSURANCE COVERAGE

31. The parties shall ensure the child is covered with adequate medical insurance. In the event health insurance is or becomes available to either party through employment as a benefit or at reduced cost, that party shall be ordered to purchase and maintain medical insurance for the benefit of the parties' minor child.

32. Each party shall pay one-half of the out-of-pocket cost of the medical, dental and orthodontic insurance premium or costs actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of the medical and dental insurance as provided in Utah Code §81-6-208. If the parties each cover the children with insurance coverage and incur an actual cost for such insurance, they shall each pay their own insurance premiums and contribute nothing to the other.

33. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-208(9), at any time when the parties are sharing the cost of a health insurance premium, the child's portion of the premium is a per capita share calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in coverage.

34. Both parents shall share equally in all routine medical and dental expenses actually paid, whether covered or only partially covered by insurance (including but not limited to one-half of expenses for copays, prescriptions, surgery, orthodontic care, psychological or psychiatric care, hospitalization, therapy, physical therapy, ophthalmology, optometry, broken limbs, and continuing illnesses or allergies such as diabetes or asthma, etc.) as well as other reasonably necessary uninsured medical and dental expenses of the minor child, in accordance with Utah Code §81-6-208.

35. The party incurring a healthcare expense on behalf of the parties' minor child shall provide written verification of the cost and payment to the other party within thirty (30) days of the payment. Written verification may be sent via text message or email.

36. The other party shall have thirty (30) days from receiving written verification to reimburse the party who incurred the expense.

37. A parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to provide the above verification within the thirty day time period.

38. Pursuant to Utah Code §15-4-6.7 and §81-4-406, when a court order has been entered providing for payment of medical expenses of a minor child, a creditor who has been provided with a copy of the order may not make a claim for unpaid medical expenses against a parent who has paid in full that share of medical and dental expenses required to be paid by the parent under the order. Therefore, the parties shall cooperate in providing a copy of this Decree to any creditors, notify the creditors of their current address, and inform the creditor that they cannot make a claim for unpaid medical expenses or make a negative report against a party who has paid their one-half share of the child's medical expenses.

39. Katrin and Clinton shall cooperate in exchanging all claim forms and statements in order to coordinate the payment of all medical and dental expenses.

40. The parent who maintains health insurance shall provide verification of the coverage to the other parent, upon initial enrollment of the child, and thereafter on or before January 2nd of each calendar year.

41. The parent who maintains insurance shall provide written notice to the other parent of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within thirty (30) days of any change.

CHILDCARE

42. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-209, the parties shall share equally the actually-incurred, reasonable work-related childcare expenses performed by a childcare provider.

43. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-209(2)(a), if a party incurs a childcare expense for the parties' minor child, they shall provide written verification of the childcare provider and the cost and payment of the childcare expense to the other parent within thirty (30) days of incurring such expense. If written verification of the cost and identity of the provider are not provided within 30 calendar days, the party incurring childcare expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other party's share of the expenses. Written verification may be sent by text message or email.

44. The other party shall have thirty (30) days from receiving notice to reimburse the party who incurred the expense.

45. Family care shall be assumed to be free of charge.

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES AND SCHOOL EXPENSES

46. The parties shall pay one-half of any and all school expenses (registration fees, testing fees, field trips, school supplies, class fees, school activity or sports fees, school clothes, etc.) and reasonable extracurricular activities. The children shall continue to participate in the same extracurricular activities they've been historically involved in. For a new extracurricular activity, both parties must agree in writing to the activity for it to be subject to reimbursement, but neither parent shall unreasonably withhold permission for the children to participate in such activities. Written verification may be sent by text message or email. It is anticipated that the child will participate in at least one extracurricular activity per season that each parent will be financially obligated for, and that there may be some overlap in extracurricular activities from one season to the next. The parties are obligated to take the children to all practices, games, or events associated with the extracurricular activity they are participating in, so long as their participation is consistent with this paragraph. The party incurring a school or extracurricular expense on behalf of the parties' minor child shall provide written verification of the cost and payment to the other party within thirty (30) days of the payment. Written verification may be sent via text message or email. The other party shall have thirty (30) days from receiving written verification to reimburse the party who incurred the expense.

ASSETS AND DEBTS

47. Real Property: During the parties' marriage, the parties acquired interest in certain real property located at 2465 E. 2750 N. Layton, Utah 84040. The parties have already obtained an appraisal of the home. Based on this appraisal, the value of the home is $575,000. The remaining mortgage on the home is $295,000. Therefore, there is $280,000 of equity in the home and each party is entitled to one half, or $140,000. By July 21, 2026, Clinton shall pay Katrin $140,000 for her share of equity in the home, plus an additional $8,500 to equalize the parties' share of equity in the vehicles, as described below. Within 10 days of receiving her share of equity, Katrin shall sign a quit claim deed transferring her interest in the home to Clinton. Katrin will vacate the home by July 1, 2026. Thereafter, Clinton shall receive the home and all remaining equity therein free and clear of any claim from Katrin and be solely and independently responsible for all debts, obligations, and encumbrances associated with the home holding Katrin entirely harmless thereon. It is not believed that Katrin's name is on the mortgage or any other obligation associated with the home; if in fact Katrin's name is associated with any such obligation, Clinton shall remove her name from such obligation by July 21, 2026,. Clinton shall be responsible for paying the mortgage and all encumbrances associated with the home going forward.

48. If Clinton is unable to pay Katrin her share of equity by July 21, 2026, as described above, the home shall be sold. The parties shall agree upon a real estate agent to help them sell the home. If they cannot agree upon a real estate agent, then Clinton shall propose the names of three potential real estate agents to Katrin and Katrin shall select one of the three within 5 business days. If Katrin does not select within this time frame, Clinton may select the agent of their choice. The parties shall follow the advice of the real estate agent in making repairs, staging, pricing, accepting offers, and otherwise getting the home sold as soon as practicable. The parties shall share equally in all costs of repairs necessary to get the home in a saleable condition. The parties shall cooperate without delay with the real estate agent, the title company, and in any other way necessary to get the home sold. Commissions, fees, closing costs, and all other expenses associated with the sale of the home shall be shared equally between the parties, paid out of the proceeds from the home; thereafter, the parties shall each be awarded 50% of the remaining proceeds.

49. Personal Property: The parties shall work together to equitably divide all remaining items of personal property. If they cannot reach an agreement on how to divide personal property, they shall make a comprehensive list of all remaining personal property items and take turns selecting items from that list until no personal property remains. The parties shall not influence, pressure, threaten, or otherwise try to persuade the other party in regards to what property they do or do not select from this list.

50. Notwithstanding the above paragraph, the parties agree to the following:

a. Clinton shall be awarded the 2010 Toyota Tacoma, which has $17,000 worth of equity, and Katrin will be awarded the 2020 Jeep Compass which has no equity in it. As an offset to Katrin's share of equity in the Toyota Tacoma, she shall receive an additional $8,500 in home equity.

b. The parties' camper shall be sold and the negative equity shall be divided equally between them.

c. The money market account with approximately $17,000 will be used to pay the negative equity on the camper sale. If there is money left over after paying the negative equity on the camper, it shall be divided equally between the parties.

51. The parties shall refinance vehicles and sign titles or other appropriate documentation by July 21, 2026 to ensure vehicles are awarded to the proper party and the other party's name has been removed from any ownership or responsibility associated with the vehicle.

52. The parties shall equally divide any and all joint checking, savings, credit, or other accounts, and shall not incur any additional charges on such joint accounts. After dividing the balance of such accounts, the accounts shall be closed.

53. Debts: The parties shall be solely responsible for the following debts and approximate amounts, including any ongoing payments or costs associated with such debts, holding the other harmless thereon:

a. Katrin

i. The Chase Visa credit card with approximately $5,767 in debt.

b. Clinton

i. The Citi credit card with approximately $6,553 in debt.

- ii. The Visa credit card with approximately $4,000 in debt (which will be offset by Katrin taking $4,000 less out of Clinton's retirement, as detailed below)

54. Each party shall be responsible for any debt individually incurred after the date of separation.

55. Neither party shall incur any further charges or debt on any joint account, credit card, or in the other party's name.

56. The parties shall be ordered to notify their respective creditors in a reasonable and timely manner regarding their respective assumption and liability of their separate debts and obligations.

RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS

57. The parties are entitled to an equal division of all retirement generated during the marriage. Presently, Clinton has a retirement account with approximately $137,581 in it. Katrin shall be awarded 50% of the value of this account as of the date of entry of the Decree of Divorce less $4,000.00, including any gains or losses attributable to her share up to the date of distribution. The parties shall use the services of Jay Woodall to prepare a QDRO or any other necessary order to award Katrin her share of Clinton's retirement. The parties shall share equally in the fees and costs associated with the preparation of any necessary court orders and any administrative costs associated with the division of the retirement.

ALIMONY

58. Katrin shall be awarded a sum of $1,500.00 per month as alimony from Clinton. Clinton's alimony obligation shall terminate upon Katrin's remarriage, cohabitation, death, Clinton's death, or after 10 years (120 monthly payments), whichever occurs first.

59. Alimony payments shall begin April 1, 2026. Alimony shall be collected by ORS, along with child support. If ORS is not collecting alimony, then monthly alimony support shall be paid one half on or before the 5th day of each month, and the other half on or before the 20th day of each month. Alimony due and not paid on or before the 5th day of the month is delinquent on the 6th day of the month. Alimony due and not paid on or before the 20th day of the month is delinquent on the 21st day of the month.

TAXES

60. The parties shall rotate claiming the minor child for tax purposes each year, with Katrin claiming for even numbered years and Clinton claiming for odd numbered years. The parties shall cooperate and ensure that any stimulus payments, advance child tax credits, or other payments associated with the child they are claiming for tax purposes in a given year is given to the intended parent, regardless of which address the money is sent to or what bank account it is deposited in.

61. If either party is not current on their child support or other obligations, they shall not be entitled to claim the exemption.

62. The parties will file their taxes for the 2025 tax year as “Married Filing Jointly” and any refund or obligation is to be shared equally between the parties.

MISCELLANEOUS

63. Cooperation: Katrin and Clint shall cooperate with each other, through counsel or otherwise, to effect change in titles to property agreed to be divided herein, to change the names and responsibilities for payment upon the charge accounts and other debts divided herein, and to cooperate in each and every other way necessary or proper to ensure that the Decree of Divorce is carried out in every detail.

64. Last Name: Katrin may be restored to her maiden name, if she so desires.

65. Attorney Fees and Costs: The parties shall each be responsible for their own attorney fees and costs.

66. Mediation: The parties understand that future modifications to the Decree of Divorce may become necessary and that prior to filing any petition to modify the parties are required to first attempt in good faith to reach an agreement concerning their issues through a court approved mediator.

END OF ORDER**

ORDER BECOMES EFFECTIVE ON THE DATE OF THE ELECTRONICALLY ADDED SIGNATURE AND SEAL AT THE TOP RIGHT-HAND CORNER OF PAGE ONE.

Approved as to Form and Content:

/s/ Ally Jamerson (signed electronically with permission via email dated 05/07/2026)
Ally Jamerson
Attorney for Clinton Martin

CERTIFICATE OF DELIVERY

I hereby certify that on this 11th day of May, 2026, I served a true and correct copy of the foregoing to the following via efile:

Ally Jamerson
ally@utahlawpro.com

/s/ Lizette Rodriguez