Decisions Regarding Raising the Children

8. The Parties shall discuss with each other major decisions involving the children's health and medical care, education, religious participation, and attempt to come to an agreement.

9. Both Parties will have access to the children's school, church, health and other records and will include the other party as the parent on such records. The Parties shall consult with and share information from any subject matter experts, professionals who are knowledgeable about the issue, or who have a substantial connection to the children.

10. After having obtained and exchanged all of the relevant information and received the opinion of any relevant subject matter experts, if they still can't agree, the parties shall mediate with each party paying 50% of the mediator's cost. If the Parties are unable to agree after mediation, then Breanne shall have the presumptive decision-making authority regarding medical decisions (which encompasses therapy, dental, vision, and the like) and Chad shall have the presumptive decision-making authority regarding education decisions, except as it pertains to choice of school or the education plan section below. Either party may return to court if they believe the decision is not in the best interests of the children.

12. Urgent and after-hours-sick care shall be attended to by the parent who is exercising the parent time. The scheduling parent shall notify the other parent of any and all scheduling of after-hours sick or urgent care for any medical, therapy or dental appointment within 60 minutes or as soon as practical of scheduling or walking in. In the event that Breanne moves out of the school district and cannot get a boundary exemption, the issue of choice of school and primary residency for school enrollment purposes shall be discussed and agreed between the parties and if no agreement, the parties may proceed to court. Neither party shall have final/presumptive decision making on this issue.

15. Both Parties shall be listed for any emails given by teachers or respective school administrators. Communication Between Parties

25. Communication shall be in writing via text or email (or agreed upon co-parenting app) only and only concerning the children, unless there is an emergency or time necessitates. Communication shall be peaceful, civil, and non-abusive. The Parties shall utilize a shared calendar for scheduling and notifying of child related events, schedules.

Activities, Events, and Information

36. Both Parties shall be entitled to participate in all social, extracurricular and school functions their children attend. Each party shall be entitled to know about all important events in children's lives, including the right to have relationships with and access to third parties and information having to do with the children. This shall include health care providers, coaches, instructors, and educators as well as medical and school records.

37. The parties shall utilize friends and family members known by both parents to assist in preparing a child for any extracurricular activity on their respective time. The parties should work together to coordinate a family member to assist in this regard.

38. The Parties shall never schedule or promote to a child any special events or activities occurring during the other party's parent-time without first obtaining permission from that party.

39. Neither parent shall attempt to restrain or control the activities of a child during the other parent's parent-time.

Surrogate Care

40. Direct care by either parent as opposed to surrogate care shall be presumed to be in the child's best interest. As such each party is awarded the right of first refusal such that if one party cannot be present with the children during their respective parent time of an overnight or more, then that parent must offer that time to other parent prior to seeking surrogate care.

41. If the other party is not available to care for the children, then the Parties shall utilize family members, friends known by both parties, or approved significant others of both parties for care of the children.

Special Events

42. Each party shall make reasonable efforts for the minor children to attend special family functions. Neither party shall abuse this privilege by making excessive requests or unreasonably withholding permission. This typically includes functions unalterable by a parent (i.e. weddings, extended family reunions, or important ceremonies).

Relocation of a Parent

43. As the Parties are exercising joint physical custody, if a party intends to seek a relocation outside of 30 miles from their current residence, the party seeking relocation shall abide by the notice requirements of Utah Code Ann. §81-9-209 and file a Petition to Modify if there is no agreement to a new parent time schedule.

44. Upon the filing of a petition to modify, the Parties will mediate and attempt to establish a new parent time schedule.

Adjustments or Modifications

45. All permanent adjustments or modifications to this Parenting Plan shall be made in writing, signed by both Parties, notarized, and filed with the Court. Temporary or minor changes may be made whenever the Parties agree.

Failure to Comply

46. If a parent fails to comply with any of the provisions set forth above under this Parenting Plan, the other parent's obligations under said section shall not be affected.

[End Parenting Plan.]

Child Support

47. Child support shall be based upon Petitioner earning $6,250 gross per month and Respondent earning $10,833 gross per month from full-time employment. For child support purposes, Petitioner is awarded 183 overnights and Respondent 182 overnights. Child support on a joint custody worksheet is $374 per month paid by Respondent to Petitioner. Child support shall begin May 1, 2026.

48. The child support obligation shall continue through the end of the month a child becomes 18 years of age, or through the end of the month of the child's normal and expected date of graduation from high school, whichever occurs later. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-213, there shall be an automatic adjustment to child support if and when a child becomes emancipated.

49. Child support shall be paid in full by the 5th day of each month.

50. Under Utah Code Ann. §81-6-212(5), the Parties have a right to adjust the child support order by motion after three (3) years from the date of its entry if (1) upon review there is a difference of 10% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah Child Support Guidelines, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet; (2) the difference is not of a temporary nature; and (3) the amount previously ordered does not deviate from the child support guidelines. Under Utah Code Ann. §62A-11-306.2, if a child receives TANF benefits at the time an adjustment is sought, the Office of Recovery Services shall review the order, and if appropriate, move the court to adjust the amount.

51. Under Utah Code Ann. §81-6-212(3) and (4), the Parties have a right to modify the child support order at any time by petition if there has been a substantial change in circumstances because of (i) material changes in custody; (ii) material changes in the relative wealth or assets of the Parties; (iii) material changes of 30% or more in the income of a parent; (iv) material changes in the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn; (v) material changes in the medical needs of the child; (vi) material changes in the legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others; and, the change in (i) through (vi) results in a 15% or more difference between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, and the difference is not of a temporary nature. In a proceeding to modify an existing award, consideration of natural or adoptive children other than those in common to both Parties may be applied to mitigate an increase in the child support award, but may not be applied to justify a decrease in the award.

Extracurricular Activity and School Fees

52. In addition to child support, the Parties shall share equally any expenses related to the children's extracurricular activities that they both agree to in writing, and mandatory school fees. In the event that a party desires to have a child participate in an extracurricular activity that the other party refuses to agree to, that party may still enroll the child in the activity, as long as that party pays for the activity and the activity does not interfere with the other party's parent-time.

53. The Parties shall pay the providers directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the extracurricular activity or school out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses.

57. Both parents shall equally pay for one-half of any non-covered medical or dental costs that are out-of-pocket. This includes medical, dental, orthodontic, optical and mental health expenses incurred for the dependent children, including deductibles and copayments.

58. The parent who incurs necessary medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within thirty (30) days of payment, as set forth in Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208. The other parent shall then reimburse the parent incurring the expense within thirty (30) days after receiving the verification.

59. The Parties shall cooperate in exchanging all claim forms and statements in order to coordinate the payment of all medical and dental expenses, as set forth in Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208.

63. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-210, a party's right to claim a child on taxes shall be based on the obligor parent being current in the payment of all child support and child-related expense obligations by December 31st of the tax year in question. If Petitioner believes Respondent is delinquent, Petitioner shall provide written notice to Respondent by December 15 of the year and Respondent shall have until the 31 to cure the deficiency.

Alimony

64. Respondent shall pay to Petitioner the sum of $1,626 per month in alimony for the period of 5 years at which time alimony will terminate.
