IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT IN AND FOR DAVIS COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of
SPENCER JAMES EVANS,	DECREE OF DIVORCE
Petitioner,	Case No. 254700107
and	Honorable Judge Joseph Bean
BREA DANNE EVANS,	Commissioner Christina Wilson
Respondent.

The above entitled matter having come before the Court; Petitioner having heretofore filed her Declaration as to Jurisdiction and Grounds for Divorce and Declaration of Military Service; the parties having executed a Stipulation and Settlement Agreement dated March 11, 2026; the Court having heretofore made and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law; and upon motion of Mitchell J. Olsen, Jr., attorney for Respondent, and good cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED as follows:

1. Bonds of Matrimony. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between Petitioner, SPENCER JAMES EVANS, and Respondent, BREA DANNE EVANS, be and the same are hereby dissolved.

2. Children, Custody and Visitation. That Petitioner and Respondent have one (1) minor child, HE, born October 19, 2009.

PARENTING PLAN

3. The parties shall be awarded joint legal custody of the minor child. The parties shall abide by the following parenting plan provisions:

- a. The Respondent's home shall be designated the primary residence of the child for school, medical, and religious purposes.
- b. The parties will be courteous and kind in all communications.
- c. The parties will be restrained from annoying, harassing, insulting, following, monitoring, observing, or threatening the other party, or the children, in any way.
- d. The parties will be restrained from using the child as a messenger.
- e. The parties will be restrained from saying anything demeaning, derogatory, or negative, about the other party in the presence of the child, and shall restrain any third party from doing the same.
- f. The parties will be restrained from involving the child, in any way, in the divorce action, and the parties shall restrain any third party from doing the same.

g. The parties shall be restrained from consuming alcohol to the point of intoxication, prescribe medication inconsistent with the treating provider's recommendations, or illegal drugs during parent time.

4. First Right of Refusal. Each parent will have first option to provide care for the child over any other third party if the parent responsible for the child is not available to be with the Minor child overnight during their custodial time and the other parent is personally available and willing to provide the care, lodging and transportation. Sleepovers for the child when the parent is available and in town shall not trigger the first right of refusal.

5. The parties shall be awarded joint physical custody of HE, with Respondent designated as the primary physical custodian.

6. The parties agree that the Petitioner will exercise parent time consistent with Utah Code Ann 81-9-302 as outlined below.

	Mon	Tues	Wed	Thurs	Fri	Sat	Sun
Week 1	Spencer (from 5:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.)	Brea	Brea	Brea	Brea	Brea	Brea
Week 2	Spencer (from 5:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.)	Brea	Brea	Brea	Spencer (Starting at 5:30 p.m.)	Spencer	Spencer (until 6:00 p.m.)

7. The parties will abide by the holiday and summer parent time schedules set forth in Utah Code Ann 81-9-302.

8. Each party shall be awarded one two-week block of uninterrupted extended parent time during the summer set forth in Utah Code Ann 81-9-302.

9. Petitioner shall be awarded another two weeks of parent-time during the summer, which may be consecutive, and may be interrupted by the custodial parent for a weekday visit on the same day on which the noncustodial parent is granted weekday day parent-time.

10. Notification of Extended Time. Both parents shall provide notification of extended parent-time of vacation weeks, with the children. In odd years, Petitioner shall notify Respondent by March 1 when Petitioner will exercise his right to his uninterrupted two-week block of extended parent time as well as Petitioner's two-week block of extended parent time that may be interrupted. In even years, Respondent shall notify Petitioner by March 1 when Respondent will exercise her right to her uninterrupted two-week block of extended parent time as well as Respondent's two-week block of extended parent time that may be interrupted.

11. If notification is not provided timely the complying parent shall have priority.

12. Homework. Both parties are responsible to support their minor child with their homework during their respective parent time.

13. Pickup. The party commencing parent time shall be responsible for picking up the child. When possible, exchanges shall take place at school. If school is not in session, the party commencing parent time will pick the child up from the other party's residence at 9 a.m. unless otherwise mutually agreed upon. Exchanges shall be curbside, meaning that the party picking up the child will not leave their car, and the party who is exercising parent time will not leave their home during exchanges.

14. Holidays. The holidays shall be as the parties agree. The parties are intentionally excluding the following holidays: Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Day, President's Day, Juneteenth National Freedom Day, Pioneer Day, Columbus Day, Halloween, and Veterans Day. If the parties cannot agree the holidays will be awarded as follows:

15. That Petitioner is not receiving public assistance for the benefit of the minor child.

16. Legal Custody. The parties shall have joint legal custody. Both parties will have access to the child's school, church, and other records and will include the other party as the parent on such records. The major decisions concerning their child's general welfare, education, discretionary medical treatment, and religious training shall be mutually agreed to by both parties. In the event, the parties do not mutually agree regarding the child, the parties will first seek the advice of an expert in the field. If they cannot come to an agreement, Respondent shall have interim decision-making authority subject to Petitioner having the option to seek court intervention. Both parties shall have the authority to make routine decisions regarding HE's emergency and day-to-day activities when HE is in his or her care.

17. Education. HE shall remain in the school she currently attends unless mutually agreed by the parties.

18. Relocation. If either party moves more than 150 miles from the other parent, the parties will be bound by Utah Code Annotated § 81-9-209.

19. Communication. The parties will discuss all parenting concerns by e-mail, text, in person or phone at any time needed and will not use their child to deliver messages. If the parties cannot agree regarding their means of communication, all communication will be in writing through email or text.

20. Telephone and Virtual Contact with Children. Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communication with the child.

21. Travel. When the child travels with either parent out of State, all of the following will be provided to the other parent:

- a. An itinerary of travel dates;

- b. Destination;
- c. Places where the child or traveling parent can be reached; And, the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the child's location;
- d. Both parties shall have unfettered access to the child's passports and be able to travel on their respective parent time or other mutually agreed-upon times. Passports shall be exchanged within two (2) days of request.

22. Change of Address. The parties shall give notice within 30 days in advance of a move, if possible, in writing via mail or email to give the other parent the new contact information. The parties shall also give new telephone numbers and emails within 24-hours of a change.

23. Notification of Children's Events. Both parties shall have an affirmative duty to review the school calendar. Both parties have an obligation to ensure they are on email chains, text threads, or other social media apps where information about the child is disseminated. If the child has an event that was not previously scheduled, the parties shall use best efforts to ensure the other party is aware of the event.

24. Special Events. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the child available to attend family functions, including funerals and weddings, and other significant events in the life of the child or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the visitation schedule

FINANCIAL ITEMS AND ASSET DISTRIBUTION

25. Child Support. That Petitioner is employed and agrees to his income being imputed at $120,000/yr or $10,000.00 a month.

26. Respondent is employed part-time but agrees to having her income imputed at $30,000/yr or $2500.00 a month.

27. The parties agree to calculate child support based upon a joint physical custody worksheet with Petitioner exercising 111 overnights and Respondent exercising 254 overnights.

28. That based upon the parties' incomes and number of overnights, Petitioner shall pay Respondent monthly child support in the amount of $950.00 per month

29. That said obligation shall commence the month after the marital home is sold.

30. Said support shall be paid one half on the 5th of each and every month, and one half on the 20th of each and every month. That said payment shall be made by Venmo or other electronic funds transfer and shall continue until HE turns 18 and graduates from high school.

31. Child Care Expenses. That HE is of age that no childcare expenses will be incurred. If a party incurs childcare expenses for whatever reason, said party will be solely responsible for said costs.

32. Medical Insurance. The parties shall maintain and pay for health insurance on behalf of the minor child. If only one party provides insurance, the parties will equally divide the monthly premium. If both parties provide insurance, in whatever form, the parties shall be responsible for their own premium costs with no reimbursement from the other party.

33. Petitioner and Respondent shall divide equally all medical, dental, orthodontic, optical, and counseling expenses of the child which are not covered by insurance. The parent who incurs medical and dental expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses, to the other parent, as set forth in Utah Code Annotated 81-6-208.

34. The parent who incurs medical and dental expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses, or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses, if that parent fails to provide written verification of payment within thirty (30) days of payment, as set forth in Utah Code Annotated 81-6-208.

35. The parent who incurs the medical and dental expenses shall be reimbursed within thirty (30) days of the verification of the cost and payment to the other parent, as set forth in Utah Code Annotated 81-6-208.

36. Petitioner and Respondent shall cooperate in exchanging all claim forms and statements in order to coordinate the payment of all medical and dental expenses, as set forth in Utah Code Annotated 81-6-208.

37. The parent who is ordered to maintain insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent, upon initial enrollment of the dependent child, and thereafter on or before January 2nd of each calendar year, as set forth in Utah Code Annotated 81-6-208.

38. The parent who is ordered to maintain insurance shall provide written notice to the other parent of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within thirty (30) days of any change, as set forth in Utah Code Annotated 81-6-208.

39. If the parties have double coverage for insurance, each party shall pay their own insurance policy premium.

40. Therapy for Minor Child. Petitioner and Respondent agree that HE will be enrolled in individual, safe-harbor, counseling. The goal of said therapy is to assist HE in mending her relationship with Petitioner. Neither party shall participate in said therapy unless recommended by the therapist. The parties shall follow the recommendation of the therapist as it relates to frequency of visits. The cost of the minor child's said therapy will be jointly shared.

The parties will work with one another to select a therapist. If the parties cannot agree on a therapist, Respondent will provide Petitioner with three names, and Petitioner will choose one. The parties recognize the importance of the relationship between HE and the therapist and agree to use best efforts to find a therapist who fits well with HE.

41. Extra-curricular Activities. Petitioner and Respondent shall pay one-half of all HE's volleyball costs so long as HE stays with her current club or a club at a comparable price, which is equal to or less than the prices of the current club. All other mutually agreed-upon in writing extra-curricular activities of HE shall be equally divided between the parties. The parties shall pay the providers directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. A party who incurs an expense for a child's extra-curricular activity without receiving prior consent from the other parent shall be solely responsible for that expense. If a parent enrolls a child in an activity without the other parent's consent the enrolling parent shall pay the full cost. Both parents shall be able to attend all of the child's extra-curricular activities and the parent who signs up the child shall put the event on the Calendar within 24 hours of receiving the calendar or any change.

42. School Costs. Petitioner and Respondent shall pay one-half of all HE's school related costs, such as required fees to play volleyball for Davis High School. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket school expenses (i.e. registration, lunches, books, required supplies, lab fees, high-school sport fees, etc.) incurred during the time leading up to and including high school. This does not include private school tuition. The parties shall pay the school directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of those school expense invoices, bills, receipts, and/or verification.

43. Cell Phones and Cell Phone Costs: Petitioner and Respondent shall equally divide all cell phone and cell phone related costs of HE. Petitioner's ability to track HE through her phone will be addressed by HE's therapist.

44. Tax Exemptions. Petitioner shall claim HE in all odd years, so long as he is current on all support obligations by December 31 of said year, and Respondent shall claim HE in all even years.

45. 2025 Taxes: The parties agree to hire a third-party accountant to review and determine whether filing separately or jointly will produce the most financial benefit. The parties agree to follow the third-party accountant's filing recommendation, and file as married filing separate or married filing jointly, which will be determined based on which filing method for tax year 2025 will produce the largest net financial benefit for the parties and least financial benefit to the IRS and the Utah State Tax Commission. Both parties shall be responsible for one-half of the accountant's fees. If the parties file jointly, then each shall be responsible for one-half of the liability and will be entitled to one-half of any return. However, any refund(s) issued for tax year 2025, will be applied to the 2024 federal tax liability if not already paid through the sale proceeds of the home. If the parties file separately, they shall be responsible for their own tax liability and be entitled to the entire return. If the parties can not agree on an accountant, Petitioner will provide Respondent with three names, and Respondent will choose one.

46. Alimony/Total Support. Petitioner shall pay Respondent monthly alimony/total support as follows:

- a. $3500 for 12 months. $950 will be attributed to child support and $2,550 will be attributed to alimony.
- b. $3000 for 12 months. $950 will be attributed to child support and $2,050 will be attributed to alimony until HE turns 18 and graduates from high school at which point all payments will be attributed to alimony.
- c. $2500 for 48 months
- d. $2200 for 72 months.
- e. Alimony shall be paid so long as Respondent does not remarry or cohabitate.

47. Alimony/total support shall be paid one half on the fifth of the month and one half on the 20th of the month.

48. Alimony/total support payments shall be made through Venmo or other electronic funds transfer.

49. Alimony/total support shall commence the month after the home sells.

50. The foregoing alimony shall be awarded to Respondent in full and final resolution of all financial disputes after all joint marital debts and obligations are paid in full and completely satisfied. Both parties waive and relinquish the right to receive any different alimony amount from the other party, both now and in the future.

51. Real Property. That the parties agree to list the home and real property for sale. Before doing so, the parties will accomplish the following: the shed needs to be cleaned and emptied out (Spencer), the yard needs to be cleaned and excess items and materials need to be removed (Spencer and Brea), the office needs to be cleared out (Spencer and Brea), closet doors need to be rehung (Spencer), new blinds need to be hung (Spencer), all plumbing issues need to be repaired (Spencer and Brea), all light switch and outlet covers need to be put back (Brea), home needs to be cleaned (Spencer and Brea). These tasks shall be completed no later than April 15, 2026.

52. The parties will agree on a realtor no later than March 18, 2026. If no agreement is reached, Respondent will provide 3 names to Petitioner by March 25, 2026, and Petitioner shall choose one by April 1, 2026. The home shall be listed no later than April 15, 2026.

53. The parties shall cooperate and equally share the costs and expenses of any repairs/improvements suggested by the realtor to expedite the sale of the home, if the parties have the money available. If no money is available, either the repair will not be made, or one party may borrow from family or friends. If a party borrows from family or friends, said money shall be reimbursed with the sale proceeds. If the parties do not have the funds to be able to make the improvements, then the parties will simply sell the home “as-is” without being able to make that improvement.

54. Respondent and HE will continue to live in the home and real property until it is sold. Petitioner may come to the home every other weekend (from Friday to Sunday at 6:00 pm - first weekend will be March 20-22). Petitioner may come to the home at other times if agreed to in writing. Respondent will not unreasonably withhold consent from Petitioner coming to the home. Petitioner shall continue to pay the mortgage, utilities, insurance (including car insurance), and other payments he has been making during the pendency of this action until the home sells and his support obligations commence.

55. The proceeds from the sale of the home will be placed in an escrow account which will have clear instructions to pay the joint debts and obligations, as set forth below in paragraph 60 et al, in full within 5 days after the home is sold. Any remaining equity will be equally divided between the parties.

56. The parties will agree on a listing price, any reductions in listing price, and the acceptance or rejection of any offers. If the parties cannot agree on one of these items, then they will be obligated to follow the recommendation of the realtor. If an offer is made within 3% of the listing price, or above the listing price, then the parties will be obligated to accept said offer.

57. That upon the sale of the home, the proceeds shall be distributed as follows:

- a. Pay off mortgage;
- b. Pay all closing costs, escrow and realtor fees;
- c. Pay the following joint debts and obligations:
 - i. Joint Arvest Mortgage debt estimated to be approximately $235,000;
 - ii. Joint America First Credit Union debt estimated to be approximately $37,000;

- iii. Joint American Express debt estimated to be approximately $10,000;
 - iv. Joint Bank of America debt estimated to be approximately $7,000;
 - v. IRS tax debt estimated to be approximately $12,000;
 - vi. HE's medical bills;
 - vii. Respondent medical bills estimated to be approximately $20,000;
 - viii. Petitioner's medical bills estimated to be approximately $500.
- d. The remaining proceeds will be divided evenly between the parties, with Petitioner receiving $1093.17 out of Respondent's portion of the proceeds to reimburse Petitioner for one-half of the 2024 state tax debt he paid by credit card in January 2025 . Petitioner and Respondent agree that any attorney fees due to their respective attorneys, current or past, will only be due and payable of their own remaining one-half interest in the divided property. Petitioner and Respondent expressly acknowledge that they alone will be liable for their own attorney fees and that they will indemnify and hold harmless the other for any present or future claim for attorney fees against their one-half ownership interest in the real property or any other property.

58. The parties are aware of no other joint debts not otherwise addressed herein and each shall pay any and all separate debts in their own names. Should other joint debts be later discovered, it is just and proper that the person responsible for incurring the debt shall be responsible for paying it. Furthermore, the parties shall hold the other harmless in the event of their refusal in payment of any joint obligation.

59. Personal Property. That during the course of the marriage, Petitioner and Respondent have acquired certain items of personal property.

60. Petitioner shall be awarded the following items of personal property, free and clear of any claim by Respondent.

- a. Any items Petitioner brought into the marriage;
- b. Any items received by gift or inheritance during the marriage;
- c. His personal effects;
- d. His 2017 Honda Ridgeline, which must be refinanced into Petitioner's own name within 12 months of entry of the Decree of Divorce holding Respondent harmless therefrom;
- e. His jewelry.
- f. Woodworking and guitar making tools and supplies;
- g. Yard tools.
- h. Bikes and skis and other athletic equipment and outdoor gear such as tents and sleeping pads, backpacks and other associated equipment;
- i. Copy of all digital images;
- j. One half of all remaining property;
- k. Indy the dog. If Petitioner can not keep Indy, he shall give Respondent the right of first refusal before giving Indy away.

61. Respondent shall be awarded the following items of personal property, free and clear of any claim by Petitioner:

- a. Any items Respondent brought into the marriage;
- b. Any items received by gift or inheritance during the marriage;
- c. Her personal effects;

- d. Her 2015 Honda Odyssey, which must be refinanced into Respondent's own name within 12 months of entry of the Decree of Divorce holding Petitioner harmless therefrom ;
- e. The 2005 Ford Focus which she unilaterally drove home on Christmas Eve as a present for HE, which must be refinanced into Respondent's own name within 12 months of entry of the Decree of Divorce holding Petitioner harmless therefrom;
- f. Kitchen Table, bedroom set, hutch, armoire stand in kitchen, two tables in the kitchen, holiday decor, home decor, original set pictures after sharing the duplicating costs for any requested photos from with Petitioner, copy of all images in digital format, scrapbooks, original set of videos after sharing the duplicating costs for any requested videos after sharing the duplicating costs with Petitioner, Thrive food storage;
- g. Her jewelry;
- h. Forest the dog;
- i. One half of all remaining property.

62. Financial Accounts. That with the exception set for below the parties shall be awarded all accounts in their own names. The parties shall equally divide the accounts below. If QDRO's are required to divide said accounts, the parties will equally divide the costs associated with having the QDROS's prepared. The parties shall use best efforts to have any QDRO's prepared and submitted no later than 30 days after the entry of the Divorce Decree and after the equity from the sale of the home is split after all joint debts and obligations have been paid.

- a. Petitioner's Deloitte Pension Account
- b. Petitioner's Vanguard Account

63. Debts and Obligations. That during the course of the marriage, Petitioner and Respondent have acquired the following joint debts and obligations which will be paid off with the proceeds of the sale of the marital home:

- a. Joint Arvest Mortgage debt estimated to be approximately $235,000;
- b. Joint America First Credit Union debt estimated to be approximately $37,000;
- c. Joint American Express debt estimated to be approximately $10,000;
- d. Joint Bank of America debt estimated to be approximately $7,000;
- e. IRS tax debt estimated to be approximately $12,000;
- f. HE's medical bills.
- g. Respondent's medical bills estimated to be approximately $20,000;
- h. Petitioner's medical bills estimated to be approximately $500.

64. That Petitioner will be responsible for all other debts solely in his name:

- a. Firstmark Student Loan $2,000
- b. AES Student Loans $35,000
- c. Chase Marriott Bonvoy Credit Card $10,000;

65. That Respondent shall be solely responsible for all other debts solely in her name.

66. The parties will indemnify and hold one another harmless on all debts and obligations they are ordered to pay. Such hold-harmless agreement is a debt to a spouse within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. §523(a)(15).

67. That if either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt must remain current. In the event that a payment is not made in a timely manner, the secured asset shall be placed for sale in order to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes payments on a delinquent debt, which the other party is ordered to pay, may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney fees from the other party who failed to timely pay the debt.

68. That the allocation of joint debts is an integral part of the financial settlement and support payments in this proceeding and is considered in the nature of support to the other party. As a result, the parties shall not discharge the debts in bankruptcy if it causes the non-bankrupt party to be liable for the debt.

69. Each party shall remove each other from any joint debts, obligations, loans, etc., by refinancing the debt, obligation, loan, etc., into their sole name within 12 months after entry of the Decree of Divorce and the sale of the primary residence.

70. If either party files bankruptcy, it shall not constitute a material and substantial change in circumstances for any subsequent petition to modify the Decree of Divorce on any financial issues.

71. Name Change. Respondent will be able to restore her maiden name of if she so chooses.

72. Attorney Fees and Court Costs. The parties shall be responsible for all attorney fees they have incurred throughout this litigation. The Respondent shall solely be responsible for all attorney fees and costs Respondent has incurred with Mitchell J. Olsen and her previous lawyers: Steven S. Christensen and Wesley D. Hutchins. Any attorney's liens, or similar liens, placed on the marital home or other marital assets by one, or more, of Respondent's attorneys shall be the sole debt of the Respondent. The Petitioner shall solely be responsible for all attorney fees and costs Petitioner has incurred with Ashley Wood. Any attorney's liens, or similar liens, placed on the martial home or other marital assets by any of Petitioner's attorneys shall be the sole debt of the Petitioner.

73. Default. That in the event either party fails to comply with any of the terms and conditions set forth in the Decree of Divorce, it is fair and reasonable that the party in default be liable to the other party for all reasonable expenses, including attorney fees, incurred in enforcing the terms and conditions of the Decree of Divorce.

74. Cooperation. That it is fair and reasonable that Petitioner and Respondent cooperate with the other, through counsel or otherwise, to effect changes in titles to property agreed to be divided herein, to change the names and responsibilities for payment upon the charge accounts and other debts divided herein, and to cooperate in each and every other way necessary or proper to ensure that the Decree of Divorce is carried out in every detail.

In accordance with the Utah R. Civ. P. 10. (e), the official signature of the court authority who has hereto attached a signature to this order of the court will appear at the top of the first page.
