Attorneys for Petitioner

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
IN AND FOR FARMINGTON COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of: GOLDEN WELCH and KERILYN WELCH	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No. 264700546 Hon. Judge: JOSEPH BEAN

Petitioner, Golden Welch has filed a Declaration of Jurisdiction and Grounds, wherein he provided testimony verifying his residency status, marriage statistics, and grounds for divorce.

The Court has reviewed said declaration, along with the Parties' Stipulated Settlement Agreement. The Court has also reviewed all other necessary documents on file in this matter, including the Acceptance of Service, Appearance, Consent and Waiver, wherein Kerilyn Welch agreed to her default being entered and to the Court granting a divorce consistent with the terms of the parties' Stipulated Settlement Agreement.

The Court, being fully advised in the premises, and for good cause appearing, having previously entered its written Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law.

NOW, THEREFORE,
IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREE:

Provisions Relating to Jurisdiction

1. Golden presently lives in Bountiful, Utah. He has resided in Davis County for over three (3) months prior to the commencement of this action.
2. Keri presently lives in Bountiful, Utah. She has resided in Davis County for over three (3) months prior to the commencement of this action.
3. The parties were married on March 20, 2009, in Las Vegas, Nevada and have remained husband and wife since that date.
4. Venue is proper before this Court pursuant to U.C.A. §78B-3-205, as both parties and the children reside in Davis County.

Grounds for Divorce

5. During the course of the marriage, irreconcilable differences have arisen, making a continuation of the marriage impossible.

Children

6. The parties have three minor children born as issue of this marriage, to wit: S.W.W. born February of 2010, M.B.W. born March of 2015 and G.G.W. born August of 2017.

7. Neither party receives public assistance for the benefit of the minor children.

8. Pursuant to U.R.C.P.100(a), Petitioner states, upon information and belief, that there are no proceedings for custody, child support or parent-time, a protective order or criminal or delinquency case in regard to the above-named minor children filed or pending in this or any other state.

9. Utah is the home state of the minor children, as the children have resided in Utah for over six months immediately prior to this action being filed.

PARENTING PLAN

Custody

10. The parties should be awarded joint legal custody of the minor children and joint physical custody of the children as set forth herein.

Weekly Parenting Plan

11. The parties agree that sharing joint physical custody is in the best interests of the minor children. Unless the parties agree otherwise, the children will spend every Monday and Tuesday with Golden, every Wednesday and Thursday with Keri, and shall alternate the weekends. On days when school is not in session, the parents shall exchange the children at 10:00 a.m.

Extended Parent-time

12. For the extended parent-time in the summer, the parties shall each be entitled to up to 14 days of uninterrupted parent-time. The parties shall provide at least 30 days' advance written notice to each other of their intended use of this extended time.

Holiday Parenting Plan

13. Unless the parties agree otherwise, they shall utilize the statutory schedule found in Utah Code Annotated 81-9-302(12) and share all holidays in a fair and equitable manner.

14. For the purpose of interpreting and applying this schedule only, Golden shall have the holidays normally assigned to the custodial parent, and Keri shall have the holidays normally assigned to the non-custodial parent.

Transportation Plan

15. The parents who is beginning their time with the children shall provide the transportation. The parents shall strive to fairly and equally share all transportation duties, and shall be flexible in accommodating each other's schedules where needed.

Right to Move

16. Should either party relocate a distance of 50 miles or more from the other party, then the parties agree to adopt the schedule found at Utah Code Annotated 81-9-209.

Parenting Behavior Expectations

17. The parents' parenting relationship will continue for many years, and it is in the best interests of their children to have a meaningful and quality relationship with each parent. In furtherance of that goal, the parents agree as follows:

- a. To respect each other's need for personal space and independence;
- b. To establish a "united front" of parenting by supporting each other as parents and establishing reasonably consistent rules, curfew, and discipline philosophies that will foster a feeling of continuity and a sense of security for the child(ren) as to homework, lessons, school projects, and motivation to work and succeed;
- c. To consult with each other if a child is experiencing school problems, emotional concerns, or other problems and share options and ideas for meeting the child's needs;
- d. To affirmatively support each other as parents and hold the other in high esteem as a parent in their respective conversations with the children throughout their lives and to give the children permission to love each of them;
- e. To endeavor to make joint decisions regarding the children on significant issues, such as education, health care, and religious upbringing, by focusing on the children's needs and interests, and seeking win-win rather than win-lose solutions in their parenting decisions;
- f. To attend a mediation session before pursuing any court action to resolve the dispute.
- g. To respect each other's parenting style, personal beliefs, and values, to eliminate the emotional trauma and pain to their children, which results from conflicts between them;

- h. To communicate directly with each other regarding their children, to remain civil in all of their future dealings as they relate to each child, to avoid making harmful, insulting, or degrading comments regarding the other parent in a child's presence, and to use their best efforts to prevent others from doing so;
- i. To accommodate each child's need to have quality relationships with extended family members, and to facilitate the children's attendance at family reunions, birthday and/or anniversary parties, etc.;
- j. To educate their new spouses, should they remarry, as to their parenting agreement, and to view new spouses as additional sources of emotional support for their children rather than as competitors;
- k. To share all school work, report cards, school pictures, and other information relating to the schooling and extracurricular activities of their children;
- l. To enable each of them to have access to their children's school, medical, dental, and psychological records;
- m. To take affirmative steps to share information regarding times and locations of parent-teacher conferences, school programs, church programs, sporting events, recitals, performances, practices, and other events involving their children;

18. The parents agree that the children should not be introduced to every individual each of them dates. Rather, a child should only be introduced to a romantic interest when the parent feels the relationship is becoming serious and somewhat exclusive. The parents agree that this should not be earlier than 6 months into the dating relationship;

19. The parents agree that neither of them should have an individual in whom they are romantically interested live in the home with a child until at least 12 months after the parties' separation and 12 months after the children have met that individual.

20. Both parents agree that the children will remain in their respective schools and future feeder schools. In the event of an opportunity, both parents agree to discuss the opportunity with the children, consider the children's input and make a decision based on the best interest of the children.

21. The parties shall work together to make major decisions in the best interests of the children. If, after discussing the issue, the parties are unable to reach an agreement, then they shall attend a mediation session before pursuing any court action to resolve the dispute.

Child Support

22. Golden is self-employed. Golden's gross monthly income is $9,000.00 per month.

23. Keri is self-employed. Keri's gross monthly income is $1,000.00 per month.

24. The base child support award is $749.00 per month. Golden will pay $749.00 per month in child support. Payments will be made on the 15th of each month.

Children's Insurance and Other Expenses

25. Golden carries medical insurance for the children through his employer.

26. The parties agree to provide medical insurance for the minor children. To the extent that Golden can provide insurance through his employer, that is the preference of the parties. In that case, Golden will be responsible for 100% of the monthly premium costs. Otherwise, the parties shall work together to ensure that the children are covered by an appropriate health plan at all times and shall share equally the cost of any such coverage.

Uninsured Medical Expenses

27. The parties agree that Golden shall cover all out of pocket costs for the children, such as office visits, copays, coinsurance and prescriptions.

Payment of Extra-curricular Expenses

28. The parties agree that Golden shall pay for 100% of all costs for agreed-upon extracurricular activities for the children.

Dependency Deduction Agreement

29. For 2026, Golden will claim the two older children, and Keri will claim the youngest child for the purpose of tax filings. The parties will then alternate claiming two (2) or one (1) children every other year.

Child Care Arrangement Agreement

30. The parties do not have any need for third-party childcare.

END OF PARENTING PLAN

Real Property

31. The parties have a marital home located 147 E 750 N, Bountiful, UT 84010. It is currently encumbered by a mortgage in the amount of $202,459 payable to Lakeview Mortgage.

32. The parties agree that each of them is entitled to 50% of the equity in this home. Possession of the home shall be awarded to Golden, with both parties retaining their names on the title.

33. At a date no later than December 31, 2036, the home will be either refinanced or sold, and the parties' equity distributed.

Retirement Accounts

34. Golden has a retirement plan through his former employer, ARUP, with a current value of approximately $645,980.00.

35. The parties agree to award the entirety of this account to Golden, free and clear of any claim by Keri.

Personal Property

36. The parties have acquired certain vehicles during the course of the marriage.

37. The 2020 Subaru Ascent shall be awarded to Keri free and clear of any claim by Golden. Golden will pay the remaining $2,876.00 on the Ascent to Chase Bank.

38. The 2015 Subaru Forester shall be awarded Golden free and clear of any claim by Keri.
