Attorneys for Petitioner

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT

IN AND FOR DAVIS COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of:	DECREE OF DIVORCE
ANGELIA MARIE MURDOCK,
Petitioner,	Civil No. 254701729
and
JOHN JACOB MURDOCK,	Judge David J. Williams
Respondent.	Commissioner Julie Winkler

This matter came before the Court on the parties' Stipulation and Settlement Agreement ("Stipulation") entered into by Petitioner, Angelia Marie Murdock ("Mother"), and Respondent, Father Jacob Murdock ("Father") following mediation with Tamera Fackrell from Fackrell & McLean Law on April 28, 2026. The Court, having reviewed the Stipulation, having entered written and detailed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and having being fully advised in the premises, and good cause appearing therefore,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. Decree: The parties are granted a Decree of Divorce upon the grounds of irreconcilable differences, and the marriage between Mother and Father be and the same is hereby dissolved. The parties are hereby free and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony with said Decree to become final upon signing and entry.

2. Child: The parties have the following child who remains a minor:

1.	Name	2.	Date of Birth
3.	A.M.	4.	07/2012

PARENTING PLAN

3. Custody/Parent-Time: The parties are awarded joint physical and legal custody of their minor child. Parent-time with the child shall be at reasonable times and places as the parties may agree. If the parties cannot agree, the parties' reasonable rights of parent time shall be defined as outlined below, effective when Father moves back into the marital residence. Until then, Father shall have the below schedule but not overnights due to housing restraints. Instead, Father's parent-time will be from 3:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. every Wednesday, Thursday, and every other weekend, until he moves back into the marital residence.

	Mon	Tues	Wed	Thurs	Fri	Sat	Sun
Week 1	MOM	MOM	DAD	DAD	MOM	MOM	MOM
Week 2	MOM	MOM	DAD	DAD	DAD	DAD	DAD

a. Once Father moves back into the marital residence, the parties shall have 50/50 custody such that Mother exercises parent-time every Monday overnight and Tuesday overnight with the exchange at school on Wednesday morning or 9 a.m. when school is not in session. Father shall exercise parent-time every Wednesday overnight and Thursday overnight with the exchange at school on Friday morning or 9 a.m. when school is not in session. The weekends shall alternate between the parties with each party receiving every other Friday until Monday morning with the exchange at school or 9 a.m. when school is not in session.

b. Each party will receive two uninterrupted weeks in the summertime, not to interfere with holiday parent-time awarded to the other party and subject to the below “Notification of Extended Time.”

4. Notification of Extended Time: Both parents shall provide notification of extended parent-time or vacation weeks with the child by May 1 each year for first option parent and May 15 for second option parent. Father shall have first choice of extended time in odd numbered years, and Mother shall have first choice of extended time in even numbered years. For 2026 only, the notification is pushed out one month, such that Mother shall provide notice by June 1 and Father shall provide notice by June 15. If notification is not provided timely, the complying parent may determine the schedule for extended parent-time for the non-complying parent.

5. Holidays: The holidays shall be as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree the holidays will be according to Utah Code § 81-9-303 as follows:

Mother	Mother	Mother's Day 9:00 a.m. on the holiday to the day after with the exchange at school

6. Legal Custody: The parties shall have joint legal custody, subject to the below terms. Both parties will have access to the child's school, medical, church, and other records and will include the other party as the parent on such records. Major decisions concerning medical, education, and religion will be mutually agreed upon by both parties, and if they cannot agree, then the parties must mediate with a mutually agreed upon mediator and equally share the costs before seeking court intervention. If the parties cannot agree to a mediator, it shall be through Fackrell & McLean Law. The more specific provisions outlined below trump the more general legal custody provision herein. Both parties shall have the authority to make routine decisions regarding the child's day-to-day activities when the child is in his or her care.

a. Separate Accounts: According to Utah Code § 15-4-6.7 each party will elect for dental, medical and school expenses to be created in separate accounts prior to service being initiated.

b. Educational Plan: If a parent requests that the child moves schools, the parties shall first mediate if it is not mutually agreed to. If the parties cannot come to an agreement in mediation, Mother shall have final say about school choice as long as the child remains in the Davis School District. Otherwise, this issue of school choice can go before the court. Both parties shall be listed on school records. Both parties shall be listed for any emails given by teachers or respective school administrators.

c. Medical: The parties will continue to use their current provider Keri L. Page. The parties will utilize a new pediatrician and other specialists that Keri L. Page recommends. The parents shall make decisions mutually regarding the child's medical care. If the parties cannot come to an agreement, they shall abide by the recommendation of the attending provider as outlined herein. Except in the case of the emergency, the parties cannot select providers that were not recommended by Keri L. Page or by those she referred the parties to. If there is a dispute, the parties shall return to mediation. If that is unsuccessful either party can file a motion with the court.

d. Religion: At the child's option, the child should be able to attend services or participate in religious education. If there is a disagreement about participation in a religious activity or ordinance, the parties should mediate.

7. Relocation: If either party moves more than fifty (50) miles from the other parent, the parties will be bound by the 60-day notice requirements of Utah Code § 81-9-209.

8. Our Family Wizard: The parties will utilize Our Family Wizard to communicate and calendar and exchange receipts. The parties will each pay their respective costs for Our Family Wizard. The parties will not use their child to deliver messages. The parties will use text contact only for emergencies and changes on the day of the exchange. Each party shall set up and pay for their portion of Our Family Wizard by May 15, 2026. The parties shall respond within 48 hours of any communication. The parties will exchange receipts, calendar, and communicate through Our Family Wizard. The parties will not use Our Family Wizard to harass or annoy the other parent. The communication shall be civil and limited to issues regarding the child.

9. Telephone and Virtual Contact with Child: Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communications with the child, in the form of mail privileges and virtual parent-time if the equipment is reasonably available. Telephone contact shall be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration. The child shall be able to contact the parents at any time.

10. Travel: When the child travels with either parent out of State, all of the following will be provided to the other parent at least 24 hours prior to departure or 21 days for international travel:

a. An itinerary of travel dates;

- b. Destination;
- c. Places where the child or traveling parent can be reached;
- d. The name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the child's location.
- e. Both parties shall have unfettered access to the child's passports and be able to travel on their respective parent time or other mutually agreed upon times. All out of country travel shall be done through notarized documentation between the parties and consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

11. Change of Information: Each parent shall provide the other with the parent's current address and telephone number, email address, and other virtual parent-time access information within 24 hours of any change.

12. Notification of Child's Events: The parties shall take affirmative steps to share school and activity information concerning their child with each other on a frequent basis that is not available through the school calendar or school email. The parties shall notify each other of any school programs, extracurricular activities and sporting events their child may be involved in that is not available online or through emails of the program. Placing information on the calendar shall constitute notice.

13. Special Events: Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the child available to attend family functions, including funerals and weddings, and other significant events in the life of the child or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the visitation schedule. Based on the both parties' large family sizes, each party is entitled to three special events per year with sufficient notice; if more special events are requested, the party losing parent-time for such a special event shall be given make-up parent-time within thirty (30) days of equal duration of the parent-time taken for the special event. A party will not seek to interrupt parent-time for routine, non-significant events.

14. Mutual Restraining:

a. Unless for curbside exchanges of the minor child, the parties will not go to the other party's residence or their place of work. If there is a mutual event involving the minor child, the parties shall keep the peace, honor requests for privacy, honor requests for space, and remain strictly civil with one another.

b. Both parties shall be supportive of the other party's role as a parent. Neither parent shall attempt to alienate the child in any way from the other parent. Both parents have an affirmative duty to co-parent the child in a way that promotes their best interest.

c. Both parties are restrained from discussing adult issues in front of the child or allowing a third party to do so. The parties are also restrained from discussing the child's relationship with the other parent in front of or with the child, or from questioning, interrogating, or otherwise "pumping" the child for information regarding what occurs when the child is with the other parent and from allowing any other person to do so.

d. The parties will not use their child to deliver messages. Thus, the parents will not discuss any issues regarding co-parenting in front of the child or at any child's activity.

e. The parties shall not make disparaging remarks to one another or to their child about one another or in the child's presence, either verbally, in writing or otherwise. Both parties are mutually restrained from harassing, stalking or threatening the other party.

f. Both parties are restrained from using the likeness, image or credit of the other party for any purpose.

g. Both parties are mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or shall remove the minor child from such circumstances.

15. First Right of Refusal: Each parent will have first option to provide care for the children over any other third party if the parent responsible for the children is not available for 72 hours or more during their custodial time and the other parent is personally available and willing to provide the care and the transportation, after a third party has the ability to watch the minor children for the first 72 hours.

16. Dispute Resolution: If the parties have any future disagreements pertaining to their child generally or over the terms or implementation of this agreement, they shall seek the assistance of a mutually agreed upon third party or mediator before either of the parties initiates legal action. Either of the parties may seek emergency relief from the court in the future should an emergency arise which would make formal negotiation not practical or to file a motion to enforce terms herein.

17. Activity Costs: Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amount incurred for any mutually agreed-upon in writing extracurricular activities that the minor child may be involved in. The parties shall pay the providers directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. A party who incurs an expense for a children's extra-curricular activity without receiving prior consent from the other parent shall be solely responsible for that expense. If a parent enrolls a child in an activity without the other parent's consent, the activity shall not infringe on the other parent's parent-time and the enrolling parent should pay the full cost. Both parents shall be able to attend all of the children's extra-curricular activities and the parent who signs up the children should put the event on the Calendar within 24 hours of receiving the calendar or any change.

18. School Fees: Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket school expenses (i.e. registration, books, required supplies, lab fees, etc.) incurred during the time leading up to and including high school. This does not include private school tuition. The parties shall pay the school directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of those school expense invoices, bills, receipts, and/or verification.

19. Transportation for the Child: The parties will utilize school-to-school exchanges when school is in session. If school to school exchanges are not possible because school is not in session, the receiving parent will provide the transportation from the other parent's residence unless otherwise mutually agreed upon. Such exchanges will be curbside. If a parent is exercising a mid-week with a return the same day, the parent exercising parent-time will provide all of the transportation.

20. Third Party Transportation: A step-parent, grandparent, or other responsible individual designated by the receiving parent, may pick up the child if the other parent is aware of the identity of the individual, and the receiving parent will be with the child by overnight.

FINANCIAL ITEMS AND ASSET DISTRIBUTION

21. Medical/Dental Expenses: The party who can obtain the best coverage at the most reasonable cost will obtain insurance for the medical expenses of the minor child in accordance with Utah Code § 81-6-208.

a. Each parent shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the children's portion of insurance. The children's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the child shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case. This amount shall be automatically deducted from or added to the Family Support paid or owed.

b. Each parent shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments, incurred for the dependent child and actually paid by the parents.

c. The parent who incurs medical and dental expenses may provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The other parent will remit payment within 30 days of receipt of the verification. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party shall be responsible for the payment of one-half of all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor child as indicated.

d. If, at any point in time, the dependent child is covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Father shall be primary coverage for the dependent child and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Mother shall be secondary coverage for the dependent child. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent child.

e. Double coverage shall not be required. However, if the parties have double coverage for insurance, each party shall pay their own insurance policy premium with no compensation from the other party.

f. Verification of health insurance coverage shall be provided within 7 days of request. The parties shall notify the other in event of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within fifteen calendar days of the date he or she knows of the change.

22. Child Care Expenses: The parties shall each pay their own respective child care costs on their own time.

23. Dependency Exemption: The parties will share the dependency exemption/tax credit for the minor child as follows:

a. When there is only one minor child, the parties will alternate the dependency exemption/tax credit for the minor children. Mother will be entitled to claim the minor children as a dependency exemption/tax credit for odd-numbered tax years, and Father will claim the minor children as a dependency exemption/tax credit for even-numbered tax years.

24. Taxes: The parties will file joint tax returns for 2025. The parties will equally share in any cost of preparation of taxes. The parties will equally share any tax refund or tax liability.

25. Real Property: The marital property located at 1278 Canyon Park Road, Bountiful, Utah 84010 will be awarded to Father with all debts and liabilities commencing on September 1, 2026. Mother shall move from the residence no later than August 31, 2026. Father shall pay the mortgage and utilities while Mother resides in the home but reduce it from her support obligation and will provide proof of the receipts if requested. Father shall pay the reasonable moving costs incurred for Mother. Mother will choose two (2) moving companies and Father shall choose one of the providers. Father will get the utilities solely in his name by September 1, 2026. Father will refinance or assume the home by July 1, 2026. Mother shall be paid $289,994 no later than July 1, 2026, for the home equity, based on the current appraisal of $800,000 and a mortgage balance of $220,011. In the event that Mother elects to get an appraisal at her cost from a certified licensed appraiser prior to May 27, 2026, her appraisal amount shall be averaged with $800,000, with Mother receiving one-half of the difference or any amount over $800,000.

26. Personal Property: During the course of the marriage relationship, the parties have acquired personal property. Said personal property of the parties shall be distributed such that the person receiving the item shall be responsible for any associated debt with the item. The division shall be as follows:

Item Description:	Awarded to:
2020 Tesla Model Y	Father
2023 Toyota Tacoma	Father/Child
2023 Subaru Crosstrek	Father/Child
2024 Tesla Y (in Roxie's name, loan and title)	Mother

a. Personal property shall be equitably divided. For personal property remaining in the marital home, before Mother's move-out date, Mother will provide a list of personal property she desires to take from the home. In the event Father does not agree, the parties will utilize a "flip the coin" option, with the person winning the coin toss to go first in selecting his/her most desired personal property item, and the person losing the coin toss to go second in the selection process, and then rotating back to the person who won the coin toss. This process will be repeated until all the desired items have been claimed. Each party is awarded their own personal property and effects, gifts from third parties, premarital property, and inherited items.

27. Debts: The parties acquired debts during the marriage. Each party will assume, indemnify, and hold the other harmless from liability on, the following debts:

Debt Description:	Obligation of:
Debts in Father's Name as Primary, including Wells Fargo -8864, Wells Fargo -4986, UCCU -9171, Amex -2023, Amex -3002, Apple Card -3980, CareCredit through Synchrony -4261, Dental Bills (Brian Rigby), and Orthodontics (Defay Orthodontics)	Father
Debts in Mother's Name as Primary, including Wells Fargo -6270	Mother

a. Accumulation of Debt: Neither party will incur any additional liability on joint credit cards.

b. Other Debts: The parties are aware of no other joint debts not otherwise addressed herein and each shall pay any and all separate debts in their own names.

Should other joint debts be later discovered, it is just and proper that the person responsible for incurring the debt shall be responsible for paying it. Furthermore, the parties shall hold the other harmless in the event of their refusal in payment of any joint obligation.

c. Delinquency in Payments: If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt must remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset must be placed immediately on the market for sale in order to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes payment on a delinquent debt in order to protect his or her credit rating, may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party.

28. Financial Accounts:

- a. The following accounts are awarded to Mother:
 - i. Goldenwest - 0001 (Angel)
 - ii. Zions Bank - 7174 (Angel)
 - iii. Wells Fargo - 4311 (Angel)
- b. The following accounts are awarded to Father:
 - i. Utah Community CU - 4917 (Jake)
 - ii. Health Savings Account ($348)
 - iii. Wells Fargo 1894 ($6.31) and 8333 ($3,642)
- c. The following accounts shall be divided as designated below:
 - i. The $348.00 in the Health Savings Account shall be utilized for the minor child's orthodontia.
- d. Each party will be awarded monies in their own separate checking and savings accounts.
- e. For all the children's 529 plans, -0520, 0521, and -0522, Mother shall be added to the accounts if possible, and if not, then the parties shall mutually agree to any disbursements, only to be utilized for the minor children.

29. Retirement Accounts:

- a. The parties will each keep their own pension. Father shall pay Mother $95,544 no later than July 1, 2026, as a full payout of the pensions.

- b. The following accounts are awarded to Father:
 - i. Schwab 1748 (Jake) $21
 - ii. IHC Pension (Jake) $315,392
 - iii. Intermountain 403b- 1007 $84,542
- c. The following accounts are awarded to Mother:
 - i. IHC Pension (Angel) $42,408
 - ii. Vanguard 6954 (Angel) $12,614
 - iii. T. Rowe Price (Angel) $348,472
- d. Mother will be awarded $330,383 sum certain of Father's Intermountain 401k ending in 0107, and Father is awarded the remaining account funds of $394,314.
- e. In consideration of the global agreement herein, Mother is awarded her own Roth account and all of Father's Roth account ending in 8173 (which is currently in the amount of in the amount of $166,657 as of April 27, 2026). Mother desires Father's Roth to be transferred into her currently-existing Vanguard Roth -6954 if administratively possible.
- f. The parties shall equally split the cost associated with splitting the accounts or QDRO, if any. The parties will jointly hire Connor Fackrell to complete the QDROs or Letters of Instructions.

30. Life Insurance: Father will carry life insurance on his life in the face amount of $1,000,000 (or the amount of alimony owing, whatever is less) until such time as there is no longer an alimony obligation. During such period, Father will name Mother, as long as there is an alimony obligation, for the said life insurance policies. Father shall provide proof yearly within 14 days of request, providing proof of the beneficiary designation and the beneficiary designation amount.

31. Name: Mother will have the option of restoring her name to Angelia Weinstein.

32. Family Support: Father shall pay Mother the following alimony which shall be terminated by the receiving party's remarriage, cohabitation, or the death of either party. This shall be done through an electronic transfer:

a. From May 1, 2026, and continuing for 14.5 years, until Father turns 67.5 years old, the combined support of child support and alimony shall be $11,000 per month, due on the first day of the month. Father shall pay the mortgage and deduct the mortgage payment from Mother's support obligation until she moves out.

b. With the monthly sum of $11,000, this is combined child support and alimony. When the minor child reaches the age of majority and child support goes away, alimony will increase, such that support of $11,000 per month will remain, regardless of child support obligations terminating, for the remaining alimony duration, subject to termination factors above.

c. If alimony terminates while there is still child support owing, child support shall be recalculated.

33. Deeds and Titles: Both parties shall sign whatever documents are necessary to transfer title and quit claim deeds or any other documents necessary that are outlined in the Decree of Divorce and are necessary to implement the Decree of Divorce.

34. Divorce Education: The parties will take the Divorce Education Class and Divorce Orientation Class within 30 days of the date the Stipulation is signed.

35. Drafting: Both parties attended mediation with their respective counsel and have participated actively in the drafting and revising of the provisions herein. Both parties and their counsel have had an opportunity to read the provisions herein and to make suggested changes to the draft and this is a complete understanding of all of issues negotiated and agreed to by the parties within the mediation session. Each of the parties understands, acknowledges, and agrees that each of the parties hereto has contributed to the drafting of the provisions herein, and no provision shall be construed against any party as being the draftsman thereof. The provisions herein shall therefore be construed without regard to any presumption or other rule requiring construction against the party causing the provisions herein to be drafted. The parties have specifically, intentionally, and knowingly waive any right to allege, assert, or claim the benefit of any rule requiring construction against the drafting party.

36. Full Disclosure: There has been a complete accurate and current disclosure of all income, assets, and liabilities. Any failure to provide complete disclosure may constitute perjury. Failure to disclose an asset will result in the other party (the party who should have received notice of the asset during this lawsuit) being awarded that asset, free and clear, to be transferred over within thirty (30) days of written demand. The parties have stipulated to issuing subpoenas after the date of the Stipulation to verify full disclosure. The property referred to herein represents all the property which either party has any interest in or right to, whether legal or equitable, owned in full or in part by either party, separately or by the parties jointly.

37. Attorney's Fees and Costs: Each party shall assume his or her own costs and attorney's fees incurred in this action, with the exception of attorney fees put on the credit cards through April 27, 2026. which Father agrees to pay. For mediation, Father shall pay the first

$3,650 and each party will pay one-half thereafter. If a party files a Motion to Enforce and prevails therein, that party shall be awarded all reasonable attorney fees.
