The above-entitled matter has been presented to the Court. Petitioner is represented by attorney John S. Larsen. Respondent is represented pro se. Upon the Stipulation and Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, the court therefore enters this Decree of Divorce. The Court, having found and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law and being otherwise fully advised, it is hereby:

ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. Residence. The Petitioner is a resident of Davis County, State of Utah, and has been for at least three (3) months immediately prior to the commencement of this action.
2. Marriage Information. Michael and Annica were married on October 16, 1997, and are currently married. The parties have since separated from one another.

3. Grounds for Divorce. During the course of this marriage, the parties have experienced irreconcilable differences, making continuation of the marriage relationship impossible. A Decree of Divorce is hereby entered, dissolving the bonds of matrimony.

4. General Jurisdiction. This Court has general jurisdiction over this matter, pursuant to Utah Code §78A-5-102(1).

5. Personal Jurisdiction. This Court has personal jurisdiction over the parties, pursuant to Utah Code §78B-3-205 and Utah Code §78B-15-604.

6. Venue. Venue is proper in this Court, pursuant to Utah Code §78B-15-605.

7. Home State Jurisdiction. The minor children have lived in Utah for at least six (6) consecutive months immediately before the commencement of this child custody proceeding, and Utah is the minor children's home state, pursuant to the Utah Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act. Accordingly, this Court has jurisdiction to make initial child custody determinations with respect to the minor children.

8. Child Support Jurisdiction. This Court has jurisdiction to enter child support orders, pursuant to Utah Code §§78B-12-102 et seq. (Utah Child Support Act) and Utah Code §§78B-14-101 et seq. (Utah Uniform Interstate Family Support Act).

CHILDREN

9. Minor Children. The parties have two (2) children in common as follows:

| Minor Children's Initials | Month & Year of Birth |
|---------------------------|-----------------------|
| A.M.J.                    | September 2009        |
| D.R.J.                    | September 2013        |

10. 1Custody. The parties shall share joint legal and physical custody of the minor children subject to the parent time schedule found herein. Annica shall be deemed the primary residential parent.

11. Missed/Modified Parent Time. The parties shall make reasonable efforts to exercise all of their scheduled parent time. If a party cannot exercise schedule parent time, he/she must notify the other party in writing with as much notice as possible. If a parent misses three parent time visits within two (2) months, the other parent may request a review of the parent time schedule through mediation. The parents may agree in writing (text or email) to temporarily change the schedule. Temporary changes do not permanently modify the schedule, unless ordered by the court. The parties shall review the parent time schedule found herein after three (3) months from the date the decree is entered. Any mutually agreed upon changes will be submitted to the court in a signed stipulation and proposed order.

12. Parent-Time. Michael's parent time shall be as follows:

a. Midweek Parent-time. Michael shall have a midweek visit with the children every Thursday beginning from the time they are released from school, or at 5:30 p.m. when school is not in session, until Friday morning at the time the children are due at school, or until 9:00 a.m. if school is not in session.

b. Weekend Parent-time. Michael shall have weekend parent time with the children every other weekend beginning Thursday from the time they are released from school until Sunday at 6:00 p.m. If school is not in session, Michael's parent time shall begin on Thursday at 5:30 p.m. and end on Sunday at 6:00 p.m.

c. Holiday Parent-Time. Holidays take precedence over regularly scheduled parent time. Holidays do not disrupt the regular weekend parent time rotation. The parties shall follow the holiday parent-time schedule set forth below, which takes precedence over regular parent-time:

| Holiday      | Holiday Time Period                                                                                                                                                     | Father             | Mother             |

d. All Other Holidays. All other holidays, including the children's birthdays, not specifically listed above shall be awarded to the parent who is scheduled to have the children during the time the holiday occurs, unless the parties agree otherwise.

e. Summer Parent-Time. During the summer, the parties shall follow their regular parent time schedule as stated herein, except for the following weeks: each party shall have two (2) weeks of uninterrupted consecutive summer parent-time during the summer months, when school is not in session. Michael shall have one (1) additional week of summer parent time, not to be consecutive with the stated two-week uninterrupted consecutive summer parent time stated herein. Annica shall always be awarded the weekend immediately before school starts. The parties will agree on the summer parent time schedule on or before March 31st of each year. If an agreement on summer parent time cannot be reached then in calendar years ending in an even number, Michael shall notify Annica in writing of the dates he will be exercising his summer parent-time by April 1st and Annica shall notify Michael in writing of the dates she will be exercising her summer parent-time by April 15th. In calendar years ending in an odd number, Annica shall notify Michael in writing of the dates she will be exercising her summer parent-time by April 1st and Michael shall notify Annica in writing of the dates he will be exercising his summer parent-time by April 15th. If the party with first option doesn't provide written notice by April 1st, the other parent shall be entitled to first option. The summer parent-time cannot interfere with the other parent's holiday parent-time.

13. First Right of Refusal. Each parent shall have first option to provide care for the minor children over any other third party if the parent responsible for the minor children is not otherwise personally available for a period of four (4) hours or longer during their custodial time and the other parent is personally available and willing to provide the care and the transportation. Once this right is offered, the parent receiving the offer must confirm whether he/she wants to exercise this right within a reasonable amount of time (no more than two hours).

14. Transportation. Transportation for parent-time exchanges shall be as the parties agree. If the parties are unable to agree, parent-time exchanges shall be as follows:

a. A party exercising the first right of refusal shall provide the transportation both directions.

b. Parent-time exchanges shall occur at the minor children's school when school is in session if possible. When school is not in session or when doing exchanges at school is not possible, the party beginning parent-time shall provide the transportation for the parent-time exchange, which shall occur at the other parent's residence.

15. Parenting and Educational Plan. The parties shall adopt the following Parenting and Educational Plan provisions:

a. The children will attend school based on Annica's residence, unless the parties agree otherwise.

b. Both parties shall be listed on and have access to the minor children's school, church, medical and other records and both parties shall be included as the parents on such records. As joint legal custodial parents, it is the responsibility of each parent to contact the minor children's school, coaches, teachers, doctors, dentists, church leaders, etc. in which the minor children are involved to establish their own relationship and have notices of significant school, social, sports, and community functions in which the minor children are participating or being honored sent directly to each parent. Both parties shall be entitled to attend and participate fully. If one parent receives notice that the other parent would not have access to, the party receiving said notice shall notify the other parent within twenty-four (24) hours of receiving the notice;

c. The parties shall each obtain their own information regarding the minor children's schoolwork, school schedule, medical and dental treatment, counseling, emotional needs, accomplishments, and other information;

d. The parties shall notify the other parent of injury or illness as soon as reasonably possible involving the minor children;

e. The parties shall provide each other with the names and telephone numbers of teachers and others who work with the minor children at school, medically, or otherwise so that each party can initiate their own relationship with these professionals;

f. The parties shall share information relating to doctor or dentist appointments, sports, special lessons, new skills, new language development, discipline challenges, etc., regarding their minor children;

g. Neither party shall use corporal punishment towards the children. Corporal punishment for purposes of this order shall mean any form of physical contact during disciplinary actions.

h. When a parent leaves the minor children in the care of a third-party caregiver, the name and contact information of the other parent will be provided to the caregiver. Additionally, the other parent shall be provided the name and contact information of the caregiver;

i. The parties shall notify the other parent of any change of address, email address, cell phone number and telephone number within twenty-four (24) hours of the change;

j. The parent who has the minor children in his/her care may make minor day-to-day decisions regarding the minor children without having to consult with the other parent;

k. For emergency purposes, whenever the minor children travel overnight or longer, the parent arranging the travel shall provide the other parent with an itinerary of travel dates, destinations, and places where the minor children can be reached;

- l. The parties shall work together in a reasonable manner to accommodate each other and to provide the minor children consistency and stability;
- m. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the minor children available to attend family functions including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the minor children or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the parent-time schedule;
- n. Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communication/virtual parent-time with the minor children. The parent with the minor children in his/her care will not interfere with the virtual parent-time;
- o. The parties shall communicate with one another through text, email or another mutually agreed upon method. All communication shall be respectful and civil and shall be limited to issues related to the children.
- p. The parties agree that they will not put the minor children in the middle of their disputes;
- q. The parties will not discuss with the minor children or in the minor children's presence adult issues, including the parties' legal proceedings or financial related issues of the parties;
- r. The minor children will not be used as messengers between the parents;
- s. The parties shall maintain safe and appropriate sleeping and living accommodations for the minor children;
- t. Each party shall have adequate clothing for the minor children at his/her residence;
- u. Neither parent shall question the minor children about the other parent's activities, personal relationships or how the other parent spends his/her time or money;
- v. The parties shall not ask the children to keep secrets from the other parent;

- w. Each parent shall be supportive and respectful of the other parent in the presence of the minor children;
- x. Both parties shall be restrained from saying or doing anything that would tend to diminish the minor children's love and affection for the other parent. This includes any comments about the other parent's actions that may be construed as having a negative impact on the other parent's relationship with the minor children;
- y. The party with the minor children in his/her care shall be responsible for ensuring the minor children's homework is complete and transporting the minor children to and from school on time;
- z. Communication regarding the minor children shall be directly between the parents and shall not involve third parties;
- aa. Neither party will relocate more than 50 miles from the current residence of the other party without first providing at least a 60-day written notice to the other party. The parties acknowledge that sharing joint physical custody requires them to live in close proximity to one another and that the court can choose to modify the parent time schedule found herein if one party moves too far from the other party.
- bb. Both parents shall have access to the minor children during school hours and the authority to check the minor children out of school during his/her custodial time for emergency purposes or necessary appointments; and,
- cc. The parties shall make joint decisions regarding substantial or significant issues affecting the minor children including but not limited to the minor children's education, medical care, dental care, counseling, and other major parenting issues. After discussing the issue and researching solutions, if the parties cannot reach an agreement on a major issue regarding the minor children, they shall meet with an expert in the field of the dispute. After meeting with an expert in the field of the dispute, if the parties are still unable to agree, the parties will schedule and attend mediation before addressing the issue with the court. Each party will pay one-half the cost of the mediation.

16. Divorce Education and Orientation Class. The parties shall each complete the Divorce Education and Orientation Class as required by the State of Utah within fourteen (14) days of the signing of the Stipulation, if they have not already done so and shall provide one another with a copy of the certificate of completion of the class.

17. Child Support. Michael's gross monthly income is $8,750.00. Annica's gross monthly income is $2,500.00. Based on the joint custody child support worksheet for two (2) minor children, awarding Michael 145 overnights with the children each year and Annica 220. Michael is required to pay Annica $1,088.00 each month for the use and benefit of the minor children beginning April 1, 2026. The monthly reimbursement from the State of Colorado for D.R.J.'s maintenance will be awarded to Annica each month.

18. Michael will pay the full amount of the child support payment on the second Friday of each month. The parties will open an account with The Office of Recovery Services ("ORS") to pay and/or collect child support. Once an account with ORS is established, ORS shall collect the full amount of child support from Michael on the second Friday of each month.

19. Upon request, the parties will exchange their income information (pay stubs, tax returns, etc.) with one another each year by no later than April 15th. Child support may be modified at any time pursuant to applicable Utah State Laws.

20. The parties acknowledge that the child(ren) has disabilities and may not be able to function as a regular adult once emancipated. If a child is unable to support him/herself due to a disability, the parties will be obligated to provide financial support to the child even after the child has emancipated.

21. Child Care Expenses. Given the age of the children, no child care is necessary.

22. Medical/Dental Expenses. In accordance with Utah Code §81-6-208, a parent shall provide and maintain medical and dental insurance for the minor children if it is available to them at reasonable cost and is accessible to the children. D.R.J. is currently on Medicaid and will remain on it as long as he is eligible. Annica will apply for Medicaid on behalf of A.M.J. If A.M.J. does not qualify for Medicaid, Michael will add her to his private health insurance policy.

a. Each parent shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the minor children's portion of insurance. The minor children's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the minor children shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of minor children in the instant case.

b. The parent who provides the insurance coverage may receive credit against the base child support award or recover the other parent's share of the minor children's portion of the premium. In cases in which the parent does not have insurance but another member of the parent's household provides insurance coverage for the minor children, the parent may receive credit against the base child support award or recover the other parent's share of the minor children's portion of the premium.

- c. Each parent shall equally share all reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses incurred for the minor children, including but not limited to deductibles and copayments.
- d. The parent who is maintaining insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent upon initial enrollment of the minor children, and thereafter on or before January 2 of each calendar year. The parent shall notify the other parent of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within thirty (30) calendar days of the date the parent first knew or shall have known of the change.
- e. A parent who incurs medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within thirty (30) days of payment with reimbursement to take place within the following thirty (30) days.
- f. In addition to any other sanctions provided by the court, a parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply with Subsections (d) and (e) of this paragraph.
- g. If, at any point in time, the dependent minor children are covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, Michael's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan shall be primary coverage for the dependent minor children and Annica's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan shall be secondary coverage for the minor children. If a parent remarries and the minor children are not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the minor children.

h. School Registration and Fees. The parties will equally divide all reasonable and necessary school registration and school fees for the minor children, including school lunches. The parties will also equally divide all costs related to the children's school clothes. Proof of payment shall be provided by the party incurring the cost to the other party within thirty (30) days of the payment with reimbursement to take place within the following thirty (30) days.

23. Collection and Billing for Expenses of Minor Children. Pursuant to Utah Code §15-4-6.7, collection and billing pursuant to court or administrative order of child support:

1. When a court enters an order that provides for the payment of medical and dental expenses of a minor child under Section 30-3-5, 30-4-3, or 78B-12-111, or an administrative order under Section 62A-11-326, a provider who receives a copy of the order:

- a. at or before the time the provider renders medical or dental services to the minor child shall, upon request from either parent, separately bill each parent for the share of the medical and dental expenses that the parent is required to pay under the order; or
- b. within 30 days after the day on which the provider renders the medical or dental service, may not:
  - (i) make a claim for unpaid medical and dental expenses against a parent who has paid in full the share of the medical and dental expenses that the parent is required to pay under the order; or

(ii) make a negative credit report under Section 70C-7-107, or report of the debtor's repayment practices or credit history under Title 7, Chapter 14, Credit Information Exchange, regarding a parent who has paid in full the share of the medical and dental expenses that the parent is required to pay under the order.

2 a. When a court enters an order that provides for the payment of school fees of a minor child under Section 30-3-5 or 30-4-3:

(i) a provider who receives a copy of the order before the day on which the provider first issues a bill for a school fee shall, upon request from either parent, separately bill each parent for the share of the school fee that the parent is required to pay under the order;

(ii) a provider who receives a copy of the order, regardless of whether the provider receives the copy before, on, or after the day on which the provider first issues a bill for the school fee may not make a negative credit report under Section 70C-7-107, or report of the debtor's repayment practices or credit history under Title 7, Chapter 14, Credit Information Exchange, regarding a parent who has paid in full the share of the school fee that the parent is required to pay under the order; and

(iii) each parent is liable only for the share of the school fee that the parent is required to pay under the order.

b. A provider may bill a parent for the parent's share of a minor child's school fee under an order described in Subsection (2)(a) regardless of whether the provider grants the other parent a waiver for all or a portion of the other parent's share of the minor child's school fee.

24. Extracurricular Activities. The parties shall equally divide the cost of extracurricular activities, including therapy and tutoring, for the minor children so long as the parties have mutually agreed to the activity in writing prior to the minor children being enrolled in the activity. If the parties have agreed to divide the cost of the activity in advance, proof of payment shall be provided by the party enrolling the minor children in the activity to the other party within thirty (30) days of the payment with reimbursement to take place within the following thirty (30) days. Any party unilaterally enrolling the minor children in extracurricular activities will do so at their own expense and the activity will not interfere with the other party's parent-time. All mutually agreed upon expenses costing more than $500.00 will be paid for as follows: Michael will pay 67% and Annica will pay 33%.

25. Tax Return/Tax Benefits. Beginning with the 2026 tax year, the parties shall file their own individual tax returns. Each party will be solely responsible for any tax liability incurred through filing their own individual tax returns and will be awarded any refund that may be obtained. Annica will be awarded the child tax credit for both children every year. Annica will keep all benefits that she may receive from claiming the children on her personal taxes.

MEDICAL/AUTO INSURANCE

26. The parties shall be responsible for their own medical and auto insurance upon entry of the Decree of Divorce herein.

ALIMONY

27. Given the disparity in the party's incomes, Michael shall pay Annica $1,300.00 each month in alimony beginning April 1, 2026, and ending April 30, 2040, or until Annica remarries, cohabitates as defined by law, or either party deceases, whichever occurs first.

ASSETS

28. Real Property. 4During the marriage, the parties did acquire real property (“Home”) but the Home has previously been sold and all proceeds were equally divided between the parties. The parties do not need further orders regarding the Home or the division of equity.

29. Vehicles. The parties acquired vehicles during the marriage, which shall be awarded as follows:

| Vehicle Description | Awarded to: |
|----------------------------|--------------------|
| 2018 Dodge Caravan         | Annica             |
| 2022 Nissan Frontier       | Michael            |

a. The parties shall cooperate in signing the title(s) on the vehicle(s) the other party is awarded within thirty (30) days from the date the decree of divorce is entered by the court.

b. Each party shall be responsible for the debt, maintenance and insurance on the vehicle(s) he/she is awarded, holding the other harmless therefrom.

30. 5Personal Property. The parties acquired personal property during the marriage. Each party shall be awarded their items of personal property and effects and any item of personal property acquired after the parties separated. All marital property has been divided and the party currently in possession of any item of property is awarded that item free and clear of the other party. If there is a dispute over any item of marital property, the parties will schedule and attend mediation before submitting the issue to the court.

31. Bank Accounts. Each party shall be exclusively awarded any and all bank accounts held solely in his/her name, free and clear from any claim by the other party. All joint bank accounts will be equally divided and then immediately closed.

32. 6Retirement Accounts. Neither party acquired retirement and/or other investment type accounts during the marriage.

33. Family Dog. “Chloe,” the family dog, shall be awarded to Michael but the children will take the dog with them during Annica’s scheduled weekends. Michael will drop Chloe off to Annica’s house on her scheduled weekends Friday at 4:00 p.m. and will then pick Chloe up on Sundays at 6:00 p.m.

DEBTS

34. The parties acquired debts during the marriage. Each party will assume, and hold the other harmless from liability on, the following debts:

| Creditor       | Approx. Balance | Obligation of: |
|------------------------------|-------------------------------|------------------------------|
| Mountain America Auto Loan   | $39,071.05                   | Michael                      |
| Chase Credit Card            | Unknown                       | Michael                      |
| Mountain America credit card | $00.00                       | Annica                       |

a. Refinancing Loans. Each party will refinance the loan attached to the vehicle awarded to him/her, removing the other party’s name therefrom, within thirty (30) days from the date this Stipulation is signed.

b. Joint Accounts. Neither party shall incur any additional liability on joint credit cards or any joint accounts. The parties shall cooperate in closing joint credit card accounts or removing the name of the party not assuming the account within thirty (30) days of the signing of the Stipulation.

c. Other Debts. Any and all other debts and obligations shall be the sole and exclusive responsibility of the party who incurred the particular debt.

d. Creditors. The parties understand that for joint debts, upon the entering of the Decree of Divorce, the claim of a creditor remains unchanged unless otherwise provided by the contract, or until a new contract is entered into between the creditors and the debtors individually.

e. Notification to Creditors. For any joint debts, the parties may notify their respective creditors regarding the court's division of debts, obligations, or liabilities, and regarding the parties' separate current addresses.

f. Delinquency in Payments. If either party is obligated on a joint debt, the payment of that debt must remain current. A party who makes payment on a delinquent debt in order to protect his/her credit rating, may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party.

LIFE INSURANCE

35. Life Insurance. Michael shall maintain his current life insurance policy through his employer, naming the children as beneficiaries, for as long as he has a child support and/or alimony obligation. Michael shall provide Annica proof that the policy is current upon request.

MISCELLANEOUS

36. Mediation. With the exception of enforcement issues, the parties shall attend mediation concurrently with filing a Petition to Modify. Each party shall pay one-half of the mediation fees.

37. Deeds and Titles. Both parties shall sign whatever documents are necessary to transfer title and quit claim deeds or any other documents that are necessary to implement the terms of the Stipulation.

38. Financial Claims. The Stipulation resolves all financial claims either party has against the other, including but not limited to past alimony, child support, out-of-pocket medical expenses, out-of-pocket medical premiums extracurricular activities, and any other financial claims through the date of the signing of the Stipulation.

39. Mutual Restraining Order. Both parties shall be restrained from making disparaging or derogatory remarks to one another or to their minor children about one another or in the minor children's presence, either verbally, in writing or otherwise. Both parties are mutually restrained from annoying, stalking, harming, harassing or threatening the other party. The parties shall not enter the residence of the other party without permission from that party. Each party is restrained from posting any stories, pictures, statements about the other party on any social media sites. Both parties are mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under this paragraph and shall have the affirmative duty to use his/her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations, or shall remove the minor children from such circumstances. As used in this paragraph, disparage and derogatory mean to say anything ill of the other whether they believe it to be true or not.

40. Former Name. Annica is restored to her former name of Annica "Flanders," shall she so desire.

41. Attorney Fees and Costs. Each party shall assume and pay his/her own costs and attorney fees incurred in this action.

42. Identity. Neither party shall use the other party's likeness, picture, name, identification, or credit of the other party to obtain credit, open an account for any service, or obtain any other service.

43. Execution of Final Documents. A final Decree of Divorce may be entered reflecting the terms of the Stipulation. Both parties shall sign and fully execute the final documents that are necessary to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce.
