2. Residency: Jodi is a bona fide resident of Davis County, State of Utah, and has been for three months immediately prior to the filing of this action.
3. Marriage Statistics: The parties were married on July 6, 2005, in Ogden, UT,
4. Grounds: Irreconcilable differences have arisen between them, which differences have made the continuation of their marriage impossible.

Week 1	J	J	J	J	C	C	C
Week 2	C	J	J	J	J	C	C
Week 3	C	C	J	J	J	J	C
Week 4	C	C	C	J	J	J	J

- i. Should Casey's work schedule change in the future, the parties agree to meet and confer regarding a potential change to the schedule to allow for more consistency. If the parties cannot agree, either party may request mediation before bringing the matter before the Court.

B. Holiday and extended summer parent-time shall be awarded as the parties can agree. If the parties cannot agree, then holiday and extended parent-time shall be pursuant to 81-9-302. For purposes of the holiday and extended parent-time schedule only, Jodi shall be the custodial parent and Casey shall be the non-custodial parent. 8. PARENTING PLAN:

A. Decision-making process: The parties shall work together, in good faith, to come to a mutual agreement on legal custody decisions including, but not limited to, major decisions relating to the children's education, health care, and religious upbringing. If the parties cannot agree after making a good faith effort to come to an agreed upon decision, they shall consult a relevant expert (i.e. a child's doctor regarding medical decisions, the teacher/school for education decisions, etc.). The parties agree that the clothing purchased for the minor child belongs to the minor child and shall be freely shared between the parties' respective homes.

I. Conduct. The minor child shall not be used as a messenger or problem-solver. Any and all communication regarding the child shall be between the parents, and neither parent shall use the child to convey information or finances, or to schedule visitation/parent-time changes or other modifications.

J. Neither party will discuss any issues related to any current or future litigation with, or in the presence of, the minor child.

K. Neither party may disparage, demean, or disrespect the other or their respective family members to or in the presence of the minor child. Each party shall speak positively and respectfully about the other party. Each party shall use his or her best efforts to prevent third persons from speaking negatively about the other party or respective extended family members in the presence of the minor child. If such disparaging remarks are being made, the parent with the child must remove him from the area.

b. The party incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to provide written verification as required herein.

12. EXTRA-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES AND SCHOOL EXPENSES: The parties shall share, equally, the costs of any school fees and expenses, as well as any extracurricular activities in which the child participates, provided that both parties give prior written consent to such activities. In the absence of prior written consent, the party enrolling a child in an extracurricular activity shall be solely responsible for the cost of that activity, and the activity cannot interfere with the other party's parent-time.

13. TAX EXEMPTIONS: The parties shall alternate claiming the minor child as a dependent for Federal and State income tax purposes. Jodi shall be entitled to claim the minor child as a dependent for Federal and State income tax purposes in even-numbered years. Casey shall be entitled to claim the minor child as a dependent for Federal and State income tax purposes in odd-numbered years.

A. Pursuant to Utah Code 81-6-210, Casey must be current on his child support obligation by December 31st of the tax year in order to be able to claim a minor child for income tax purposes. If he is not current on his child support obligation, then Jodi shall be entitled to claim the child for that tax year.

14. Taxes. The parties shall file their 2025 taxes as “married filing jointly” and evenly divide any resulting refund 50-50. The costs of tax preparation for the parties’ 2025 taxes shall be shared equally. The parties will file their 2026 taxes separately.

15. Real Property. The parties own a home located at 592 West 1350 W., Clinton, UT 84015 (Property”). Presently both parties’ names are on the mortgage and deed.

16. Jodi is awarded the home, free and clear of any claim by Casey, together with all equity therein.

17. Jodi will either refinance or assume the existing mortgage within 24 months of the entry of the Decree of Divorce. If she cannot remove Casey’s name from the mortgage, then the home shall be sold and Jodi shall retain all proceeds from the sale of the home. If the home is to be sold, Jodi shall be responsible to select the realtor and Jodi shall follow the advice of the realtor regarding listing price, repairs, and so forth.

This amount shall be transferred via Qualified Domestic Relations Order (QDRO) to a similar retirement account for Jodi. The parties will work together to effectuate this transfer promptly after the entry of the Decree in this matter. The parties will utilize either Rori Hendrix or Connor Fackrell for the QDRO. If the parties learn that a QDRO is not necessary to transfer the funds to Jodi's retirement account, the parties shall cooperate in effectuating the transfer in the most efficient means possible. Casey shall be responsible for any and all fees and costs associated the QDRO/transfer of funds.

B. Casey shall not make any changes, withdrawals, distributions, change of beneficiary, etc., to any of his retirement accounts until Jodi is paid the sum outlined above.
