The Petitioner filed his Petition for Divorce on the 13th day of June 2023. The Respondent filed her Answer on the 11th day of July 2023. The parties signed a Stipulation and Property Settlement agreement on file herein. The Court having reviewed the Respondent's Affidavit of Jurisdiction in Support of the Decree of Divorce, having previously entered its written Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for good cause appearing, does hereby ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE AS FOLLOWS:

DECREE OF DIVORCE

The bonds of matrimony and the marriage contract between the parties are now dissolved and the parties are awarded a mutual Decree of Divorce from each other, the same to become final upon entry by the Court.

Additionally, the Court enters the following orders:

CUSTODY AND PARENT-TIME

1. There have been two (2) children born as issue of this relationship and marriage, to wit: L.R.E., born August, 2016; and L.S.E., born June, 2019.
2. The parties are awarded joint physical and legal custody of the minor children with the parties exercising parent-time as they may agree, and at minimum on an equal parent-time schedule as set forth in Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-305. Respondent shall exercise parent-time every Monday and Tuesday and alternating weekends. Petitioner shall exercise parent-time every Wednesday and Thursday and alternating weekends.
3. The parties shall exercise holiday parent-time with the parties' minor child(ren) as the parties may agree, and if the parties cannot agree, at a minimum as outlined in the agreed schedule attached to their Stipulation as Exhibit 1 and on file with the court (D.E. 236). For the sole purpose of dividing holiday parent-time, the Petitioner shall be deemed the non-custodial parent, and the Respondent shall be deemed the custodial parent. Pursuant to Utah Code§ 81-9-302 (6)(a), holiday parent-time takes precedence over the regular ongoing parent-time schedule.
4. Each parent is entitled to a two-week period of uninterrupted parent-time with the minor child(ren) during the summer months. The Petitioner shall have the first choice of uninterrupted parent-time in calendar years ending in an odd number and the Respondent shall have the first choice of uninterrupted parent-time in calendar years ending in an even number. The party with the first choice of uninterrupted summer parent-time shall provide written notice of the dates for uninterrupted parent-time to the other parent on or before May 1st. The party who does not have the first choice shall provide written notice of the dates for uninterrupted parent-time to the other parent on or before May 15th. The designations under this section shall be made at least thirty (30) days before the day on which the designated two-week period begins. Uninterrupted parent-time shall not interfere with the other parent's holiday parent-time pursuant to paragraph 3 herein. At the election of a parent exercising uninterrupted parent-time, the time may be divided into three separate time segments not to exceed 14 days total._

5. The parties shall adopt the following parenting plan provisions in accordance with UTAH CODE ANN § 81-9-203:
 - a. Either parent may make emergency decisions regarding the health or safety of the child(ren).
 - b. Day-to-day decisions regarding the care, control, and discipline of the parties' child(ren) will be made by the parent with whom the child(ren) reside at the time.
 - c. Any parental duties or rights not specifically addressed in the parties' Joint Parenting Plan shall be discussed and mutually decided by both parents.
 - d. Major Decisions: It is anticipated that parental decisions will be required for major decisions in raising the child(ren), including, but not limited to: Medical, Dental, Psychological treatment or counseling, Education, Surrogate or Alternative Care Providers and Religious Affiliation.

When these issues arise, the parents shall address these issues. Each parent shall give good faith consideration to the views of the other. If the decision involves medical or schooling issues, the parties may further elect to seek input from the treating physicians or educators. Both parents shall be provided with such input.

If the parents cannot agree after making a good faith effort to come to an agreed upon decision, the parties shall engage in mediation prior to bringing the issue before the court for resolution. The parties shall equally share the cost of mediation.

If the parties are unable to resolve the issue in mediation, either party may bring the disputed issue before the court for resolution based on the best- interest of the child.

e. Extra-Curricular and Recreational Activities: The parties shall each pay one half of the costs and fees for the extra-curricular and recreational activities a child is enrolled in so long as both parties agree in writing prior to the enrollment of a child in the activity. If a party unilaterally enrolls a child in an activity or event without the written consent of the other parent, the enrolling parent shall be solely responsible for the costs associated with the activity and shall ensure the activity will not interfere with the other party's parent-time. If the parties agree to an activity, each parent shall cooperate and support the agreed activity and ensure a child is available to participate during his or her parent-time and will provide the necessary transportation.

f. Other Expenses: It is anticipated that the parties will incur additional expenses for the minor child(ren) beyond the basic necessities of food, clothing, and shelter which are generally covered by child support. Such expenses may include, but are not necessarily limited to, school registration and activity fees, school supplies, driver license, and car insurance fees and any other fee or expense incurred by the minor child(ren) in addition to their basic necessities. It is fair and equitable that the parties share and divide these fees equally. The party incurring such an expense shall discuss the expense prior to being incurred if possible and shall provide invoice, receipt, or other proof of payment within 30 days of the expense being incurred. The other parent shall reimburse the expense within 45 days after receiving notice of the cost.

- g. The advisory guidelines found in U.C.A. § 81-9-202, as amended, shall be adopted by the parties, and included in their parenting plan to the extent they do not conflict with the provisions of the parties parenting plan and Decree of Divorce. If there is a conflict, the terms of the parties' parenting plan and Decree shall govern.
- h. Limitations and Conduct: During parent-time with the minor child(ren), a parent shall not engage in, nor permit the presence of any excessive alcohol consumption to the point of impairment, unlawful drug use, sexually explicit activities, violence, abuse, or neglect of the child(ren), or illicit activity, or disrespect for law and order.
- i. Right of First Refusal: The parties are each granted the right of first refusal to care for the minor child(ren) based on the best interest of the child and a preference that a parent provide care rather than a third-party surrogate. The right of first refusal shall apply anytime a party is unavailable to provide the primary care of the children for more than three (3) hours. The party exercising the right of first refusal shall be responsible to pick up and return the child(ren) unless the parties agree otherwise in writing (including email or text).

j. Virtual and Telephonic Communication: Each party may have uncensored, and unmonitored virtual and telephonic contact with the children while they are with the other parent through OurFamilyWizard or directly through any device the children may have (i.e. table, ipad, or cell phone) at reasonable times and for reasonable durations not to exceed fifteen minutes. The parties shall provide at least 24 hours' notice prior to their weekly phone call. The children may call the other parent at the discretion of the custodial parent._

k. Communication: The parties shall maintain and limit their communication to civil and relevant information pertaining to the minor children. Communication shall occur through the OurFamilyWizard app, or other mutually agreeable app, with each parent paying their individual subscription fees. In the event of an emergency involving a minor child, the custodial parent shall notify the other parent of the emergency by calling the other parent through the parenting app. The parties shall disclose information regarding a minor child's activities, education, and non-emergency medical or health related issues, including appointments and billing in writing through the app. The parties shall use a shared calendar through the app when scheduling appointments or activities for a minor child.

6. The parties shall take note that UTAH CODE ANN. § 81-9-202 contains additional advisory guidelines which are to govern all parent-time arrangements between the parties, unless otherwise agreed upon by the parties, or if such provisions are not congruent with the provisions outlined in Respondent's Proposed Parenting Plan.

7. Pursuant to UTAH CODE ANN § 81-9-202(19), for emergency purposes, whenever a minor child travels with either parent more than 150 miles from their residence, all of the following shall be provided to the other parent: (1) an itinerary of travel dates; (2) destinations; (3) places where the child or traveling parent can be reached; and (4) the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the child's location.
8. In the event either party moves 150 miles or more from the residence of the other parent the parties shall abide by Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-209, including its notice provisions.

CHILD SUPPORT

9. Petitioner is currently employed at EA Resig, LLC as Assistant Vice President and is earning a gross monthly income of approximately $10,416.00 per month.

Respondent is currently employed as a server at The Coop, earning a gross monthly income of approximately $1,828.00 working 15 hours each week. In addition, the court imputed Respondent with an additional income of $1,625.00 based on an additional 25 hours at $15.00 hourly. Wherefore, Respondent is earning or capable of earning a gross monthly income of approximately $3,445.00 per month. The parties shall file updated income verification with the court within seven (7) days of signing the Stipulation and Property Settlement Agreement.
10. Petitioner shall be designated with 182 overnights and the Respondent with 183 overnights for the purpose of determining child support using a joint custody calculation pursuant to the "Uniform Civil Liability for Support Act", UTAH CODE

ANN § 81-7-102. Petitioner is ordered to pay child support in the amount of $536.00 per month. Commencing June 1, 2026, child support is payable one-half by the fifth of the month and the second half by the twentieth of each month. The parties expressly waive any claims for child support arrears or credits prior to June 1, 2026.

11. Child support is due each month until a child becomes 18 years of age or graduates from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or if the child becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated in accordance with UTAH CODE ANN. § 81-6-213 at which time child support shall be re-computed given the remaining number of minor children.
12. Public Assistance. The Petitioner shall pay child support to the Respondent unless Respondent is receiving public assistance from the State of Utah or the Respondent elects to apply for withholding services with the Office of Recovery Services. Pursuant to UTAH CODE ANN § 81-7-102, If Respondent is on public assistance the child support obligor shall pay child support, other than any Court ordered childcare costs, on or before the 1st day of each month to the Utah State Office of Recovery Services (P.O. Box 45011, Salt Lake City, Utah 84145-0011), unless the Office of Recovery Services notifies Petitioner that payments should be sent elsewhere. At any time when public assistance is being provided for the parties' minor child(ren), the ongoing child support shall be awarded to the State.
13. Petitioner shall pay his child support obligation directly to the Respondent. Pursuant to UTAH CODE ANN § 26B-9-403 and/or 26B-9-304, Petitioner may request that the Office of Recovery Services implement income withholding procedures for payment of child support obligations if the Petitioner fails to make timely payments as set forth herein. If withholding procedures are implemented under this paragraph due to noncompliance with payment amounts and/or deadlines, the Petitioner shall be liable for any withholding fees assessed by ORS.

14. It is proper that any federal and state tax refunds and rebates due to the child support obligor may be intercepted and applied to any then-existing child support arrearages.
15. Pursuant to UTAH CODE ANN § 26B-9-206 and/or 26B-9-207, if either party is on public assistance, the parties shall notify the Office of Recovery Services of any changes in their residence, employment, income or medical or dental insurance premiums or coverage, or change in custody, not including periods of court-ordered visitation.
16. Future Modification of Child Support: Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-212, the parties are hereby notified of the opportunity to adjust a child support order under any of the following circumstances:
 - a. Under Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-212(5), the parties have a right to adjust this child support order by motion after three years from the date of entry if (1) upon review there is a difference of 10% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah child support guidelines, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, (2) the difference is not of a temporary nature, and (3) the order adjusting the payor's ordered support amount does not deviate from the guidelines.
 - b. Under Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-212(4), the parties have a right to modify this child support order at any time by petition if there has been a substantial change in circumstances because of: (i) material changes in custody; (ii) material changes in the relative wealth or assets of the parties; (iii) material changes of 30% or more in the income of a parent; (iv) material changes in the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn; (v) material changes in the medical needs of the child; or (vi) material changes in the legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others. The Court shall adjust the payor's ordered support amount to that which is provided for in the guidelines if it results in a 15% or more difference between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, and the difference is not of a temporary nature. In a proceeding to modify an existing award, consideration of natural or adoptive child(ren) other than those in common to both parties may be applied to mitigate an increase in the child support award but may not be applied to justify a decrease in the award.

If both parents provide health, medical, and dental insurance simultaneously, then each parent shall be responsible to pay their individually incurred insurance premiums.

- b. If there is no secondary insurance, each party shall pay one-half of the minor child(ren)'s premium for the child(ren)'s portion of insurance. The child(ren)'s portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. Pursuant to UTAH CODE ANN § 81-6-208(8), the parent who provides insurance may receive credit against the base child support award or recover the other parent's share of the child's portion of the premium.
