

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT,
DAVIS COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of:

MARIANNE HOLMAN PRESCOTT,

Petitioner,

v.

IAN KEITH PRESCOTT,

Respondent.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Civil No. 264700682

Judge Joseph Bean

Comm. Julie Winkler

The above-entitled matter came on before the Honorable Joseph Bean, District Court Judge, for the entry of Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law and the Decree of Divorce, without a hearing and based upon the Stipulation and Settlement Agreement ("Stipulation"), Docket Entry # 4, being fully informed in the premises and for good cause shown, the Court having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law:

NOW, THEREFORE, HEREBY ORDERS, ADJUDGES AND DECREES:

A. Petitioner Marianne Holman Prescott should be and is hereby awarded a Decree of Divorce from Respondent Ian Keith Prescott to become final upon signature by the Court and entry into the registry of judgments.

B. The parties entered into the Stipulation resolving all pending issues in this matter, which is already on file with the Court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

1. Residency: The Petitioner is a bona fide resident of Davis County, State of Utah, and has been for three months immediately prior to the filing of this action.

2. Marriage Statistics: The parties were married on January 4, 2014 in Utah, United States and are presently married.

3. Grounds: The parties are presently married and are obtaining a divorce. Irreconcilable differences have arisen between them, which differences have made the continuation of their marriage impossible.

4. Children. The parties have the following children.

1.	Name	2.	Date of Birth
3.	T.P.	4.	December 2018
5.	A.P.	6.	December 2022

PARENTING PLAN

5. 1Custody/Parent time. The parties are awarded joint physical custody of their minor children with Mother being designated as the primary and residential parent. Parent-time with the children shall be at reasonable times and places as the parties may agree. If the parties cannot agree, the parties' reasonable rights of parent time shall be defined as follows:

	Mon	Tues	Wed	Thurs	Fri	Sat	Sun
Week 1	MOM	MOM	DAD	MOM	MOM	MOM	MOM
Week 2	MOM	MOM	DAD	MOM	DAD	DAD	DAD

a. The Father's alternating weekend shall extend Friday after school (or 9 a.m. if school is not in session) until Monday morning with the exchange at school (or 9 a.m. when school is not in session. Until the youngest child begins first grade, the weekend shall end on Sunday at 7:30 p.m. After first grade, the Sunday overnight shall be Father's option, the children can return to Mother at 7:30 p.m. and Mother shall provide the Sunday Transportation. This shall be requested by Father at least 48 hours in advance.

b. The Father shall have a midweek overnight after school or 3:30 p.m. for the non-school aged child (or 9 a.m. if school is not in session) on Wednesday until Thursday morning the exchange at school (or 9 a.m. when school is not in session). The Wednesday overnight shall be at Father's option, and the children can return to Mother on Wednesday at 8:30 p.m. If elected, Mother shall provide the transportation on Wednesday evening. This shall be requested at least 48 hours in advance.

c. The Father shall receive up to four weeks when school is not in session at the option of the Father, including weekends normally exercised by the Mother, but not holidays; two weeks shall be uninterrupted time for the Father; and the remaining two weeks shall be subject to parent-time for the Mother for weekday parent-time on Wednesday from 9 a.m. until 8:30 p.m. but not weekends, except for a holiday to be exercised by the other parent. The Mother shall also have two uninterrupted weeks in the summer.

d. For 2026 summer, each parent will have two uninterrupted weeks which shall be elected by May 20, 2026, with Mother getting first choice and Father getting second choice.

6. Notification of Extended Time. Both parents shall provide notification of extended parent-time or vacation weeks, with the children by May 1 each year for first option parent and May 15 for second option parent. The Father shall have first choice of extended time in odd numbered years and the Mother shall have first choice of extended time in even numbered years. If notification is not provided timely the complying parent may determine the schedule for extended parent-time for the non-complying parent.

7. Holidays. The holidays shall be as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree the holidays will be according to Utah Code§81-9-303 modified as follows:

Mother	Mother	Mother's Day the day before the holiday at 6 p.m. to the day after with the exchange at school

8. Legal Custody. The parties shall have joint legal custody. Both parties will have access to the children's school, medical, church, and other records and will include the other party as the parent on such records. The major decisions concerning their children's general welfare, education, discretionary medical treatment, and religious training shall be mutually agreed to by both parties. In the event the parties do not mutually agree regarding the children, the parties will first seek the advice of an expert in the field. If they cannot come to an agreement, the parties will mediate before court intervention. Both parties shall have the authority to make routine decisions regarding the children's day-to-day activities when the children are in his or her care.

a. Medical.

- i. The parties will continue to use their current pediatrician as the pediatrician for the children and specialists that their pediatrician recommends, when needed. The parents shall make decisions mutually regarding the children's medical care. If the parties cannot come to an agreement, they shall abide by the recommendation of the attending doctor.
- ii. The parties will use their current dentist as the dentist for the children and specialists that their dentist recommends, when needed. The parents shall make decisions mutually regarding the children's dental care.

If the parties cannot come to an agreement, they shall abide by the recommendation of the attending dentist.

iii. Emergency and sick care shall be attended to by the parent who is exercising the parent time. The parent shall notify the other parent within 30 minutes of scheduling for emergency or same day-care. The parent shall notify the other parent within 24 hours of scheduling for any regular medical or dental appointment so that each party may be able to attend the appointment if possible.

b. Separate Accounts. According to Utah Code§15-4-6.7 each party will elect for dental, medical and school expenses to be created in separate accounts prior to service being initiated.

c. Educational Plan. Both parties shall be listed for any emails given by teachers or respective school administrators.

d. Religion:

i. The children can be baptized at the age of 8 into the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and all other ordinances will be performed at the customary age. The ordinances shall be performed by the Father, if he is deemed worthy by his ecclesiastical leader. Both parties shall be able to attend the ordinances. The parents will give written consent for ordinances to the ecclesiastical leader within 7 days of request. The parties shall attend religious services with the children on their own respective parent-time as the parent chooses.

ii. The parties agree that the children shall attend church at Mother's ward. If Father is unable to take the children to church, Mother shall be able to provide transportation both directions and shall pick up the children 30 minutes prior to the commencement of the two-hour block and shall return the children 30 minutes after the meetings conclude.

9. Relocation. If either party moves more than 40 miles from the oldest minor child's school, the parties will be bound by the 60-day notice requirements of Utah Code §81-9-209.

10. Communication. The parties will discuss all parenting concerns by text or e-mail at any time needed and will not use their children to deliver messages. The parties will use phone or text contact for emergencies or changes on the day of the exchange.

11. Telephone and Virtual Contact with Children. Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communications with the children, in the form of mail privileges and virtual parent-time if the equipment is reasonably available. Telephone contact shall be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration. The children shall be able to contact the parents at any time.

12. Travel. When the children travel with either parent out of State, all of the following will be provided to the other parent at least 24 hours prior to departure or 21 days for international travel:

- a. An itinerary of travel dates;
- b. Destination;
- c. Places where the children or traveling parent can be reached;

d. And, the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the children's location.

e. Both parties shall have unfettered access to the children's passports and be able to travel on their respective parent time or other mutually agreed upon times. All out of country travel shall be done through notarized documentation between the parties and consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

13. Change of Information: Each parent shall provide the other with the parent's current address and telephone number, email address, and other virtual parent-time access information within 24 hours of any change.

14. Notification of Children's Events. The parties shall take affirmative steps to share school and activity information concerning their children with each other on a frequent basis that is not available through the school calendar or school email. The parties shall notify each other of any school programs, extracurricular activities and sporting events their children may be involved in that is not available online or through emails of the program. Placing information on the calendar shall constitute notice.

15. Special Events. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the children available to attend family functions, including funerals and weddings, and other significant events in the life of the children or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the visitation schedule. In the event the special event extends overnight, reasonable makeup parent-time will be offered.

16. Mutual Restraining.

a. Both parties shall be supportive of the other party's role as a parent.

Neither parent shall attempt to alienate the children in any way from the other parent. Both parents have an affirmative duty to co-parent the children in a way that promotes their best interest.

b. Both parties are restrained from discussing adult issues in front of the children or allowing a third party to do so. The parties are also restrained from discussing the children's relationship with the other parent in front of or with the children, or from questioning, interrogating, or otherwise "pumping" the children for information regarding what occurs when the children are with the other parent and from allowing any other person to do so.

c. The parties will not use their children to deliver messages. Thus, the parents will not discuss any issues regarding co-parenting in front of the children or at any children's activity.

d. The parties shall not make disparaging remarks to one another or to their children about one another or in the children's presence, either verbally, in writing or otherwise. Both parties are mutually restrained from harassing, stalking or threatening the other party.

e. Both parties are restrained from using the likeness, image or credit of the other party for any purpose.

f. Both parties are mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or shall remove the minor children from such circumstances.

17. First Right of Refusal. Each parent will have first option to provide care for the child over any other third party if the parent responsible for the child is not available four hours or more during their custodial time and the other parent is personally available and willing to provide the care and the transportation.

18. Limitations.

- a. The parties will not use illegal drugs, prescription drugs in a non-prescribed manner, or alcohol in excess while they are exercising parent-time.
- b. The parties will not view pornography while they are exercising parent-time.
- c. Neither parent shall introduce the child to paramours until they have been in an exclusive committed relationship for 3 months.
- d. The parties shall not have the child around any person with felony charges.

19. Dispute Resolution. If the parties have any future disagreement pertaining to their children generally or over the terms or implementation of this agreement, they shall seek the assistance of a mutually agreed upon third party or mediator before either of the parties initiates legal action. The parties both agree, however, that either of the parties may seek emergency relief from the court in the future should an emergency arise which would make formal negotiation not practical.

20. Activity Costs. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amount incurred for any mutually agreed-upon in writing extracurricular activities that the minor children may be involved in. The parties shall pay the providers directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. A party who incurs an expense for a child's extra-curricular activity without receiving prior consent from the other parent shall be solely responsible for that expense. If a parent enrolls a child in an activity without the other parent's consent, the activity shall not infringe on the other parent's parent-time and the enrolling parent shall pay the full cost. Both parents shall be able to attend all of the child's extra-curricular activities and the parent who signs up the child shall put the event on the calendar within 24 hours of receiving the calendar or any change.

21. School Fees. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket school expenses (i.e. registration, books, required supplies, lab fees, etc.) incurred during the time leading up to and including high school. The parties agree that this does not include private school tuition. The parties shall pay the school directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of those school expense invoices, bills, receipts, and/or verification.

22. Transportation for the Children. The parties will utilize school-to-school exchanges when school is in session. If school-to-school exchanges are not possible because school is not in session, the receiving parent will provide the transportation from the other parent's residence unless otherwise mutually agreed upon. If a parent is exercising a mid-week with a return the same day, the parent exercising parent-time will provide all of the transportation.

23. Third Party Transportation. A step-parent, grandparent, or other responsible individual designated by the receiving parent, may pick up the children if the other parent is aware of the identity of the individual, and the receiving parent will be with the children by 7 p.m.

FINANCIAL ITEMS AND ASSET DISTRIBUTION

24. Child Support. Child Support shall be calculated as according to Utah Code§81-6-201 et seq. The Mother's gross monthly imputed income is $2,600 per month. The Father's gross monthly income is $17,916 per month. The Mother has 220 overnights and the Father has 145 overnights for the purpose of child support calculation on the Joint Physical Custody Worksheet. The Father's child support obligation should be $1,909 per month. Child support shall commence June 1, 2026. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for each child terminates at the time and shall automatically adjust: (1) a child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected date of graduation, whichever occurs later; or (2) a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated. The child support is payable one-half on the 7th day of each and every month, and one-half on the 22th day of each month.

25. Interim Expenses. The parties shall continue to do the finances as they have historically done in the past through May 31, 2026. In the event that a person makes an unreasonable charge that is not historical during this period of time, they shall be responsible for the cost.

26. 2Medical/Dental Expenses. The party who can obtain the best coverage at the most reasonable cost will obtain insurance for the medical expenses of the minor children in accordance with Utah Code §81-6-208.

a. 3Each parent shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of insurance. The child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the children shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case. This amount shall be automatically deducted from or added to the child support paid or owed.

b. 4Each parent shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments, incurred for the dependent children and actually paid by the parents.

c. 5The parent who incurs medical and dental expenses may provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The other parent will remit payment within 30 days of receipt of the verification. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party should be responsible for the payment of one-half of all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor children as indicated.

d. If, at any point in time, the dependent children are covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Father shall be primary coverage for the dependent children and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Mother shall be secondary coverage for the dependent children. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent children are not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent children.

e. Double coverage shall not be required. However, if the parties have double coverage for insurance, each party shall pay their own insurance policy premium with no compensation from the other party.

f. Verification of health insurance coverage shall be provided within 7 days of request. The parties shall notify the other in event of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within fifteen calendar days of the date he or she knows of the change.

27. Childcare Expenses. The parties shall each pay their own respective childcare costs on their own time. The other parent will be given the first right of refusal to watch the children before paid care.

28. Dependency exemption. The parties will share the dependency exemption/tax credit for the minor children as follows:

a. While there are two minor children, the parties will each receive one child as a dependency exemption/tax credit. Father will claim the oldest child and Mother will claim the youngest child.

b. When there is only one minor child, the parties will alternate the dependency exemption/tax credit for the minor child. The Mother will be entitled to claim the minor child as a dependency exemption/tax credit for odd-numbered tax years, and the Father will claim the minor child as a dependency exemption/tax credit for even-numbered tax years.

c. A parent is entitled to claim the dependency exemption/tax credits indicated herein as long as he or she is current on his child support obligation by December 31st of the applicable tax year.

d. If a parent does not realize a benefit, then the other parent shall be able to claim the children.

29. Taxes.

a. The parties will file joint tax returns for 2025. The Father will pay any liability and receive any tax refund.

b. The parties will file separate tax returns for 2026. The Father will pay any liability and receive any tax refund. If a tax refund is received, it shall be applied directly to the marital debt credit line ending in U.S. Bank ending in 0690.

c. Thereafter, each party will file separately and pay for their own tax liability

30. Real Property. The marital property located at 1572 Pinehurst Lane Farmington, Utah 84025 will be awarded to the Mother with all debts and liabilities commencing on June 1, 2026. The Mother shall hold the other party harmless on all debts and liabilities associated with the home. The Mother will get the utilities solely in her name by June 1, 2026. Mother shall pay Father $60,000 no later than the time alimony ceases. The Mother will refinance or assume the home no later than the time alimony ceases. If Mother assumes the mortgage, she shall not have the obligation to pay Father's $60,000 of equity until alimony ceases. In the event that the refinance or assumption does not occur or Father is not paid his $60,000 by the time alimony ceases, the parties agree to immediately put the home for sale with a mutually agreed upon Real Estate Agent. Mother shall give Father three names for Real Estate Agents and Father shall choose one within 14 days of receipt. The parties shall follow the advice of the Real Estate Agent. Upon the sale of the home at a reasonable market value price, the proceeds of the home shall be distributed as follows:

- i. First, the parties shall pay the cost of sale;
- ii. Second, the mortgage shall be paid;

iii. Third, Father shall be paid any amounts owing on the $60,000 equity.

iv. Thereafter, the Mother is awarded the remaining equity in the home.

31. Personal Property. During the course of the marriage relationship, the parties have acquired personal property. Said personal property of the parties should be distributed such that the person receiving the item shall be responsible for any associated debt with the item and shall refinance within 6 months of the entry of the Decree of Divorce. The division shall be as follows:

Item Description:	Awarded to:
Telluride	Mother
Honda	Father
Personal Items	Each own
BYU Memorabilia	Father

a. The parties will work together within 30 days of the entry of the Decree of Divorce to equitably divide their personal property.

32. Debts. The parties acquired debts during the marriage. Each party will assume, indemnify, and hold the other harmless from liability on, the following debts:

Debt Description:	Obligation of:
Tax Debt (approximately $50,831)	To be paid by the 401k funds and Father shall service the debt until it is paid in full
U.S. Bank ending in 0690(approximately $87,531)	To be partially paid by the 401k funds, and Father shall service the debt until it is paid in full
Other debts in Mother's Name	Mother
Other debts in Father's Name	Father

a. Accumulation of Debt: Neither party will incur any additional liability on joint credit cards. The Costco Visa ending in 0836 shall be used through May 31, 2026 and thereafter Father will remove Mother's name as an authorized user and shall assume the debt and hold the Mother harmless therefrom.

b. Other Debts: The parties are aware of no other joint debts not otherwise addressed in this agreement and each shall pay any and all separate debts in their own names. Should other joint debts be later discovered, it is just and proper that the person responsible for incurring the debt should be responsible for paying it. Furthermore, the parties shall hold the other harmless in the event of their refusal in payment of any joint obligation.

c. Delinquency in Payments: If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt must remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset must be placed immediately on the market for sale in order to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes payment on a delinquent debt in order to protect his or her credit rating, may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party.

33. Financial Accounts.

a. The following accounts shall be equally divided:

i. The U.S. Bank account shall be divided equally as May 31, 2026.

34. Retirement Accounts:

a. The Mother is awarded 100% of Father's 401k accounts as of the date that the account is divided:

- i. Fidelity for The Get Richey if you May with our Safe Harbor 401k Plan
- ii. Voya for Trove FS LLC 401k Plan
- iii. The parties shall use Fackrell & McLean to prepare their necessary documentation for division with Father paying the cost

35. Name: Mother will have the option of restoring her name to Holman.

36. Alimony The Father shall pay Mother the following alimony which shall be terminated by the receiving party's remarriage, cohabitation, or the death of either party. This shall be done through an electronic transfer:

- a. From June 1, 2026 through May 31, 2029, the Father shall pay the Mother $4,091 per month.
- b. From June 1, 2029 through May 31, 2033, the Father shall pay the Mother $3,591 per month.
- c. The alimony is payable one-half on the 7th day of each and every month, and one-half on the 22th day of each month.

37. Property Settlement. The Mother shall cash out the retirement in a one-time cashout, and all of those realized funds shall be applied to marital debts:

- a. First, the tax debt shall be paid.
- b. Second, the remaining balance shall be paid to Line of Credit at U.S. Bank ending in 0690.

38. Deeds and Titles: Both parties shall sign whatever documents are necessary to transfer title and quit claim deeds or any other documents necessary that are outlined in the Decree of Divorce and are necessary to implement the Decree of Divorce.

39. Divorce Education: The parties will take the Divorce Education Class and Divorce Orientation Class within 30 days of the date the Stipulation is signed.

40. Drafting. Both parties attended mediation with their respective counsel and have participated actively in the drafting and revising of the Stipulation. Both parties and their counsel have had an opportunity to read the Stipulation and to make suggested changes to the draft and this is a complete understanding of all of issues negotiated and agreed to by the parties within the mediation session. Each of the parties understands, acknowledges, and agrees that each of the parties hereto has contributed to the drafting of the Stipulation, and no provision shall be construed against any party as being the draftsman thereof. The Stipulation shall therefore be construed without regard to any presumption or other rule requiring construction against the party causing the Stipulation to be drafted. The parties specifically, intentionally, and knowingly waive any right to allege, assert, or claim the benefit of any rule requiring construction against the drafting party.

41. Full Disclosure: The parties each indicate that there has been a complete accurate and current disclosure of all income, assets, and liabilities. Both parties understand and agree that any failure to provide complete disclosure may constitute perjury. The property referred to in this agreement represents all the property which either party has any interest in or right to, whether legal or equitable, owned in full or in part by either party, separately or by the parties jointly.

42. Attorney's Fees and Costs: Each party should be ordered to assume his or her own costs and attorney's fees incurred in this action.

43. Final Stipulation: The Stipulation is entire and complete and embodies all understandings and agreements between the parties. No prior or contemporaneous oral or written agreements or matters outside of the Stipulation shall have any force or effect.

The parties are aware that they have a right to proceed to trial in this matter to present all of their evidence and witnesses but waive this right. The parties are satisfied that the Stipulation is fair and reasonable. There are no questions the parties have to ask or unresolved issues that need to be addressed. All issues either party wishes to raise have been incorporated in the Stipulation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

 In accordance with the Utah State District Courts E-filing Standard No. 4, and URCP Rule 10(e), this Order does not bear the handwritten signature of the Judge, but instead displays an electronic signature at the upper right-hand corner of the first page of this Order. **
