IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT IN AND FOR DAVIS COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of SELA MARYSA LANGI NAKAI, and PRESTON THOMAS NAKAI.	DIVORCE DECREE Case No.: 244701065 Judge: Michael Edwards Commissioner: Christina Wilson

This matter came before the Court on the Verified Petition for Divorce filed by SELA MARYSA LANGI NAKAI (“Sela”) against Respondent PRESTON THOMAS NAKAI (“Preston”). The parties have reached an agreement regarding all issues in this matter. The Court having reviewed the pleadings and having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, for good cause appearing, ORDERS, JUDGES, and DECREES as follows:

The parties are hereby granted a divorce, and their marriage is hereby dissolved upon the entry of this Decree, on the ground that the parties have experienced irreconcilable differences in the marriage, rendering the continuation of the marriage impossible.

JURISDICTION AND GROUNDS

1. Sela has been an actual and bona fide resident of Davis, State of Utah, for at least three (3) months immediately prior to the filing of this action.
2. The parties were married on July 16, 2009, and have been husband and wife since that date.
3. The parties have experienced irreconcilable differences in the marriage, rendering the continuation of the marriage impossible, and the parties should be granted a divorce on those grounds.

MINOR CHILDREN

4. The parties have one minor child as issue of this marriage ("Minor Child").
 - a. P.L.L.N. born 7/6/2018
5. No other children are expected as issue of this marriage.

12. Holidays are periods of time that take precedence over, but do not break the continuity of, the regular parenting schedule, as stated herein.

13. Summer parent-time shall be as the parties agree. If the parties do not agree, each party is allowed two consecutive weeks to exercise uninterrupted parent-time during the summer when school is not in session. In odd-numbered years, Sela may designate her extended time at any time, and Preston shall designate his extended time any time after May 1. In even numbered years, Preston may designate his extended time at any time, and Sela shall designate her extended time any time after May 1. A parent shall make a designation at least 30 days before the day on which the designated two-week period begins.

14. As joint legal custodians, the parties shall follow the following decision-making provisions for major decisions regarding the Minor Child (i.e., health, education, religion, etc.).

a. They must consult with one another on substantial, nonemergency decisions concerning the child.

b. Each parent may independently make decisions regarding the child's day-to-day care during the time they care for the child

c. Each parent may independently make decisions concerning the child in emergencies. A parent who makes an emergency decision they do not ordinarily have the authority to make must inform the other parent as soon as reasonably possible. This does not permit either parent, acting alone, to violate the physical custody agreement except when necessary in an emergency

15. If either parent wishes to relocate more than 150 miles from the other parent, the parties shall comply with Utah Code 81-9-209.

16. Homelessness: If at any point a parent does not have a home, they must forfeit all overnight time with the child until they have a stable living environment.

17. The location for parent time exchanges shall be as the parties agree. Neither parent (nor their proxy, if this plan permits proxies) will display anger or use profanity or sarcasm during exchanges. The parent whose time to care for the child is ending must ensure the child has adequate belongings packed for the parenting time period that is beginning, including:

- a. Clothing
- b. Medicine in its original packaging
- c. School supplies and homework
- d. Uniforms/equipment for extracurricular activities

18. Each parent (or their proxy, if this plan permits proxies) must arrive on time to exchanges. Each parent must ensure the child is clean, fed and ready when their time to care for the child ends. Should a parent (or their proxy, if this plan permits proxies) become delayed, that parent must immediately advise the other parent of the estimated time of arrival.

19. Exchanges by flight: Before they reach the age of 10, the child will fly accompanied by either parent. Only once they reach the age of 10 will the child be permitted to fly unescorted. The child will take direct flights when not accompanied by a parent. The parent taking the child to the airport must witness the child board the plane and immediately notify the other parent upon takeoff. The parent picking the child up from the airport must meet the child at the flight's gate and immediately notify the other parent upon the child's arrival. If a parent flies in to drop off or pick up the child at the airport, they must notify the other parent of any flight delays.

20. When the child falls ill, the parent with them must care for the child until the child feels well enough to follow the parenting time schedule again.

21. Parents must request any temporary changes to the parenting time schedule at least 1 day in advance. When an emergency or unforeseen circumstance (such as a child's illness) makes shorter notice necessary, the parents must notify each other as soon as possible. When Sela requests a temporary change to the parenting time schedule, they must provide evidence (e.g., a doctor's note or work schedule) of the reason they give.

22. If the parenting time schedule cannot be kept due to illness or other unavailability of the child, Sela must nevertheless receive at least 2 overnights of parenting time during each calendar month, and Preston must nevertheless receive at least 2 overnights of parenting time during each calendar month. If necessary, the parents must coordinate makeup parenting time, which may occur in the following month if it's not possible to schedule sufficient makeup time for the month when the violation of the parenting time minimum occurred.

23. Each parent will be allowed to take the child to funerals, births, weddings, graduations, or events of similar significance during the other parent's parenting time, as reasonable.

24. Both parents will share the parenting time schedule with their respective employers. If either parent has a work obligation during their parenting time, that parent will try to adjust their work schedule by coordinating with their employer or a coworker.

25. If a parent has not had frequent contact with the child for 1 month and wishes to begin interacting with the child more, the parent will restart contact with the child according to the following schedule: Every other weekend he parent will attend counseling to help with the transition, both parents will separately attend counseling to help with the transition, and the child will attend counseling to help with the transition.

26. Both parents will have access to the following:

- a. The child's school records
- b. The child's medical, dental or other health records
- c. The child's psychiatric, psychological, or other mental health counseling or treatment records
- d. The child's government or law enforcement records

27. When only one parent has information required to access records that this parenting plan permits the other parent to access, the parent with the information must promptly supply it to the other parent.

28. Neither parent will change the child's legal names or have different names used for the child on school, medical, or other records without the written consent of the other parent.

29. Both parents will have access to the following:

- a. The child's bank and investment accounts

- b. The child's school accounts
- c. The child's phones, computers and other electronic devices
- d. The child's email accounts
- e. The child's social media and messaging accounts
- f. The child's video gaming accounts

30. Sela will keep the child's original documents for identification and travel, including the child's birth certificates, Social Security card, passports and ID cards. Sela will provide photocopies to the other parent within 30 days of the divorce decree's entry. Sela will lend the original documents as necessary to the other parent, who must return the documents within 1 day of completing use.

31. Sela must share with the other parent any mail or email pertaining to the child within 14 days of receiving it.

32. Both parents will have the right to consult with the following professionals who work with the child: the child's teachers, school counselors, or school administrators; professionals who provide medical, dental or other such health services to the child; and professionals who provide psychiatric, psychological or other mental health services to the child.

33. Sela may track the location of the child using the child's electronic devices. Preston must take all reasonable steps to ensure the following device(s) are with the child and sharing location information with the other parent at all times: Tablet, Laptop, Mobile Phone, Smartwatch.

34. Preston may track the location of the child using the child's electronic devices. Sela must take all reasonable steps to ensure the following device(s) are with the child and sharing location information with the other parent at all times: Tablet, Laptop, Mobile Phone, Smartwatch.

35. Parents will comply with all instructions from medical professionals related to the child.

36. The parents must advise any health practitioners who examine or treat the child of the parenting arrangement and of each parent's name and contact information. They must share the information at the child's first interaction with each practitioner.

37. The parents must give each other the name and contact information of each health practitioner who examines or treats the child. They must share the information within 7 days of the child's first interaction with that practitioner.

38. The parents must give each other information on any health examinations or procedures the child undergo within 7 days of an examination or procedure beginning.

39. Each parent will ensure the other has the child's health insurance cards, vaccination records and essential health information (e.g., blood type, allergies).

40. Both parents are required to administer medications to the child as prescribed by a health practitioner. Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, before participating in any out-of-home activities, the child must be symptom-free for at least 12 hours.

41. If a member of a parent's household has an illness or infestation that could spread (e.g., influenza, head lice, bed bugs), that parent must promptly notify the other parent.

42. The provisions in this section apply only while the country the child lives in has declared a public health emergency due to illness.

43. The parents must advise each other promptly if anyone in their household is exposed to the illness or exhibits symptoms of it. If testing is available, the affected person(s) and anyone in the household who was exposed to them must be tested for the illness and receive results before the next exchange of the child.

44. Each parent will pay for their own tests and for the child's tests that occur during their parenting time. When under lockdown orders, the child will not travel beyond their home state, and no one besides the parents will take care of the child.

45. Each parent will require the child to attend all regular sessions of school until graduation from high school, unless excused by the school or for medical reasons.

46. Each parent must notify the school as soon as possible if the child will arrive late, leave early, or be absent from school during that parent's parenting time. If any of these situations affect a custody exchange, the parent must also notify the other parent as soon as possible.

47. The parent who enrolls the child in a new school must advise the school of the parenting arrangement and of each parent's name and contact information by the end of the child's first day.

48. Neither parent may remove the other parent from a school's list of people who can check the child out or list of people who can enter campus. Nor may either parent add a third party to such a list without the other parent's permission.

49. The parent who enrolls the child in a new school must give the other parent contact information for the school by the end of the child's first day. The parents must advise each other of any updates regarding the child's academic performance, behavior or school activities within 3 days of getting that information. The parents must give each other copies of the following within 3 days of receiving the original: report cards or progress reports, notes from teachers, school announcements and order forms for school pictures.

50. Each of the parents will be designated as a person the child's school will contact in the event of an emergency.

51. Parents should discuss any conflicts with the school calendar each year by the 10 day of August.

52. If the child will attend summer school, Sela will enroll them. If the other parent requests proof of enrollment, the enrolling parent will provide it promptly. If summer school limits a parent's time with the child, that parent will be entitled to an equivalent amount of make-up time over the following twelve months.

53. Parents will make an effort to ensure the child arrives to school in a timely manner, within reason.

54. During their parenting time, each parent must have the child in attendance at the extracurricular activities the child is enrolled in, providing all necessary uniforms and equipment in the parent's possession.

55. Both parents may attend and participate in the child's extracurricular activities, such as sports events, performances, practices, school meetings, field trips, etc.

56. The parent who enrolls the child in an extracurricular activity must explain the parenting arrangement and provide each parent's name and contact information to the organizers by the end of the child's first day in attendance.

57. The parent who enrolls the child in an extracurricular activity must give the activity organizer's contact information to the other parent by the end of the child's first day in attendance.

58. The parents must advise each other of any updates regarding the child's extracurricular activities within 3 days of getting that information.

59. The parents shall obey all vehicle and traffic laws while driving the child. They must ensure the child uses age-appropriate restraint devices, such as seat belts or child car seats.

60. Parents will not permit the child to use local public transportation, such as a bus or train, without a parent present before the child is 15 years old.

61. Sela must give the other parent the following before traveling overnight with the child:

- a. Advance notice of 1 day.
- b. The child's travel itinerary.
- c. Addresses and phone numbers where the child can be reached at all times.

62. Preston must give the other parent the following before traveling overnight with the child:

- a. Advance notice of 1 day.
- b. The child's travel itinerary.

c. Addresses and phone numbers where the child can be reached at all times.

63. Grandparents will be allowed to visit the child as reasonable during the time their son or daughter is caring for the child. In order for grandparents to visit the child at other times, both of the child's parents must agree in advance.

64. Parents must not introduce their romantic partners to the child or bring romantic partners around the child unless the relationship is stable and long-term. Parents must not leave the child without a caregiver until the child reaches the age of 12.

65. Each parent must communicate the child's normal routines, rules and discipline practices to any caregiver they arrange.

66. The parent who arranges a caregiver must explain the parenting arrangement to them and give them the other parent's name and contact information the first time the caregiver watches the child.

67. The parent who arranges a caregiver must give the caregiver's name and contact information to the other parent before the caregiver's first time watching the child.

68. Each parent will be responsible for discipline during the time they care for the child. If a problem requires further discipline, the parent who was first made aware must contact the other parent to agree on a course of action.

69. No disciplinary measure will override the parenting schedule unless both parents agree.

70. Each parent must provide a healthy, balanced diet while caring for the child, including appropriate meals and snacks. Each parent must encourage and enable the child to get a healthy amount of physical activity. During their parenting time, each parent must ensure the child practices proper hygiene, including regular bathing, teeth brushing and hair combing as applicable.

71. Each parent's residence must have the following when that parent houses the child:

- a. Basic necessities, such as running water, electricity, and heat.
- b. Single-gender sleeping quarters for the child separate from the adults.
- c. All medications and other items that could pose a danger stored in a location inaccessible to the child.
- d. Active smoke and carbon monoxide alarms by each sleeping area and on each level of the residence.

72. Parents must require the child to wear a helmet when riding on a personal transportation method (e.g., bike, skateboard, scooter, motorcycle), recreational vehicle (e.g. all-terrain vehicle, snowmobile) or animal. Parents must ensure the child has adult supervision while in or near a swimming pool until the age of 10.

73. Each parent must keep all firearms and other weapons in a locked safe while caring for the child.

74. The parents will require the child to wear clothing that is age- and weather-appropriate. The child will be allowed to leave a reasonable amount of clothing, toys, and other possessions of their choosing at each parent's home. At each parent's home, the child will be allowed to display photos of the other parent and of the other parent's family and friends.

75. Neither parent will sell, give away, take away or intentionally damage gifts given to the child by the other parent, unless the child or the gifting parent consent or a gift is inappropriate for the child.

76. Each parent must provide sufficient time for the child to study and complete school assignments, even if this interferes with the parent's plans with the child.

77. Both parents will support the child in learning and using the following languages: Tongan, Spanish, and Diné Bizaad.

78. Each parent must monitor the child's use of the internet.

79. Until the child reaches the age of 12, parents must activate parental controls on any electronic devices the child regularly.

80. During their parenting time, neither parent will use pornographic material, and each parent must prevent the child from being exposed to pornographic material.

81. Sela and Preston must not consume alcoholic beverages while with the child or within the 4 hours before they are with the child. Nor may they permit any third party to consume alcoholic beverages in the presence of the child.

82. Except by prescription, the parents will not use narcotics or restricted dangerous drugs while with the child or within the 4 hours before they are with the child. Nor may they permit any third party to use narcotics or restricted dangerous drugs in the presence of the child, except by prescription.

83. The parents will not expose the child to tobacco or marijuana smoke or to aerosol from vaping. The parents must keep any marijuana products or by-products in a locked, secure location when caring for the child.

84. The parents will not permit the child to be present at places or events where alcohol is served in abundance, except with permission from the other parent.

85. For the 6 months after this plan takes effect, both parents will participate in a drug-testing program.

86. The details of how the tests will be administered are as follows:

a. Hair follicle drug test will be taken at Labcorp.

b. If the parent passes a drug test, the following will happen: Parent time will begin or resume if it was forfeited from a previous positive drug test.

c. If the parent fails a drug test, the following will happen: Parent time is forfeited until a negative drug test can be obtained.

87. The parents must communicate about important issues related to the child, including schooling, behavior, and health. The parent who first learns of a school assignment or assessment must inform the other parent in a timely manner if the child will need to work on or prepare for it when the other parent cares for the child.

88. Except in an emergency, the parents may communicate with each other using only the following methods: in person, phone call, text messaging, and email.

89. Each parent must keep their devices and services on and working so they can communicate via these methods. They must each check their messages regularly.

90. All communication between the parents must be respectful. The parents must not use the child as messenger between them. Neither parent may record video or audio of the other parent without first receiving consent from the parent to be recorded.

91. When any of the following information changes for a parent, that parent must notify the other parent of the new information:

- a. Residential address
- b. Mailing address
- c. Work address
- d. Email address
- e. Cell phone number
- f. Work phone number

92. Neither parent may use such information to harass the other or invade the other's privacy.

93. When a parent's contact information changes, that parent must notify the other parent of the new information within 7 days.

94. Each parent must reasonably share photos, videos, and other digital media featuring the child upon request from the other parent.

95. Neither parent will post references to, information about or photos/videos of the other parent on social media.

96. Neither parent will unnecessarily, untruthfully or maliciously share information about the other parent with a professional who works with the child. If a parent violates this provision, they must promptly correct any misinformation and reimburse the other parent for any costs the violation incurred, including attorney fees or costs related to the dispute resolution process. During their parenting time, each parent must allow the child to remotely and reasonably contact the other parent. Each parent may remotely and reasonably contact the child outside of their parenting time.

97. When contact between a parent and child is allowed, they may communicate via phone call, video call, or text messaging.

98. Each parent must keep the child's devices and services on and working to allow for communication via the designated contact methods. When the child's contact information changes for a designated method, the parent who initiated or first learned of the change must notify the other parent of the new information within 2 days. The parent with the child must help them use the communication methods if needed.

99. Neither parent may interrupt phone or other electronic communication between the child and the other parent, except in an emergency or when a limit set by this plan or agreed with the other parent has been reached. Nor may they permit another person to do so/ Neither parent may listen to, view or read communication between the child and the other parent. Nor may they permit another person to do so.

100. Each parent must encourage love and affection between the child and the other parent, and they must permit the child to express love and affection for the other parent. Neither parent will make or allow anyone to make negative comments within hearing distance of the child about the other parent or the other parent's past or present relationships, family, or friends.

101. Parents must not give the child any detail about their romantic relationships that is inappropriate for the child's age. Neither parent will unreasonably question the child about the other parent.

102. Neither parent will talk to the child or allow conversation in front of the child about issues pertaining to the parents' divorce or separation, except for age-appropriate discussion:

- a. of the parenting plan;
- b. of upcoming scheduling; and/or
- c. of the child's involvement in mediation and other Court proceedings or in a therapeutic setting with an appropriate licensed professional.

103. Parents may agree on minor or temporary changes to this parenting plan without putting the changes in writing or signing their name. However, if a parent disputes such a change, this parenting plan will remain in effect.

104. When parents agree on significant or permanent changes to this parenting plan, they must put the change in writing, each sign and date the change, and each retain a copy. The parents understand that for a change to be a Court order, it must be filed with and approved by the Court

105. If a child dies, the parents must agree on all aspects of how to lay the body to rest, including but not limited to the funeral, the final resting place, and whether to bury or cremate.

106. Both parents must agree before either one gives consent to take a child off life support equipment, to issue a do-not-resuscitate order for a child, or to donate a child's organs after the child's death.

107. If both parents become unable to physically care for the child for reasons such as the parents' death, severe injury, long-term illness, or incarceration, Samiuela Lelei Langi & Blanca Rodriguez Langi will be offered guardianship of the child.

108. If a parent who had physical custody becomes able to care for the child again, physical custody will return to that parent, and the guardianship will end as soon as possible.

109. If a parent dies, suffers severe injury or illness, or is incarcerated, their family will continue to see the children as reasonable.

110. Each parent must keep a legal will in full force and effect until the child turns 18. The will must bequeath not less than 80% of the parent's net estate to the child and name the other parent as trustee.

CHILD SUPPORT

111. Sela is employed and makes approximately $6,241 in gross monthly income.

112. Preston is employed and makes approximately $6,162 in gross monthly income.

113. Pursuant to the Utah Children Support Guidelines based on a joint physical custody worksheet, Preston shall pay Sela $7.00/month in Children support. Given the small amount of child support resulting from the guidelines, no child support is awarded.

114. Child support for a Minor Child terminates at the time: (1) a Minor Child becomes 18 years old or has graduated from high school during the Minor Child's normal and expected date of graduation, whichever occurs later; or (2) a Minor Child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated. As each Minor Child ages out of child support, the child support award will automatically adjust without the need for further court order.

115. Child support shall be payable in two equal monthly installments payable on the 5th and 20th day of each month by direct deposit.

116. The child support payor may utilize the Office of Recovery Services to collect child support upon mutual agreement of the parties.

OTHER EXPENSES FOR THE MINOR CHILD

117. The parties shall equally share the following other expenses for the Minor Child:

- a. All reasonable and necessary school fees, including public or private school tuition, books, special education, tutoring, school supplies, and other similar expenses.
- b. All extracurricular expenses
- c. Cell phone coverage
- d. All reasonably priced airline tickets for parent-time travel

INSURANCE AND MEDICAL EXPENSES

118. The parties' Minor Children need health insurance and Sela will continue to carry the Minor Children on her health insurance plan so long as it is available at a reasonable cost.

119. If the Minor Children are covered by the medical insurance plans of both parents, the insurance plan of Sela will be primary coverage for the Minor Children and the insurance plan for Preston will be the secondary coverage for the Minor Children. If a parent remarries and the Minor Children are not covered by that parent's medical insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the insurance plan of the step-parent will be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and will retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the Minor Children. Parties will provide verification of coverage upon initial enrollment of the dependent Minor Children, and thereafter, on or before January 2nd of each calendar year. Parties will be required to provide notice of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within thirty calendar days of the change.

120. Each parent will give the other parent a duplicate insurance card to present to medical providers for care.

121. The parties shall equally share the actual out-of-pocket costs of the medical, dental, or optical insurance premiums for the Minor Children, including deductibles and co-payments incurred on behalf of the Minor Children. The Minor Children's portion of the premium shall be calculated as a the pro-rata portion of the entire premium.

122. Each party is responsible for one-half of all reasonable medical, health, dental, and optical expenses not covered by health insurance and incurred for the parties' Minor Children.

123. The parent who incurs medical, dental, or optical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of the expense to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The non-paying parent is required to remit payment of their one-half share within 30 days of receipt of the verification.

FEDERAL AND STATE INCOME TAXES

124. The parties shall alternate years claiming the Minor Child as a dependent on their tax returns, with Sela claiming in odd-numbered tax years and Preston claiming in even-numbered tax years.

ALIMONY

125. Neither party is awarded alimony, now or ever.

REAL PROPERTY

126. The parties have no real property to divide.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

127. Preston is awarded the 2006 Volvo V-70 and all value therein. Preston shall be solely responsible for any outstanding or future expenses associated with this vehicle. The parties shall transfer title of this vehicle into his name within 30 days of the entry of the divorce decree.

128. Sela is awarded the 2017 Volvo V-60 Cross Country and any value therein. Sela shall be solely responsible for any outstanding or future expenses associated with this vehicle.

129. All remaining items of personal property shall be awarded as the parties can agree. The parties shall coordinate to exchange any agreed-upon personal property within 60 days of the entry of the divorce decree.

BUSINESS INTERESTS

130. The parties have no business interests to divide.

DEBTS

131. The parties have no joint debt.

132. Each party is responsible for any other debt of any kind held solely in their own respective names.

FINANCIAL ACCOUNTS

133. The parties have no joint financial accounts.

134. Each party is awarded any financial accounts in their own respective names and all funds therein.

RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS

135. Preston is awarded 50% of the funds in Sela's Empower retirement account, calculated at the time the divorce decree is entered. Preston shall bear the cost of any early-withdrawal penalties and taxes for any amounts withdrawn. Preston shall be responsible for obtaining and paying for a Qualified Domestic relations order.

COSTS AND ATTORNEY FEES

136. Each party shall bear their own attorney's fees, if any.

MISCELLANEOUS

137. Each party is ordered to execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provision of the decree of divorce entered in this case by the Court. Should a party fail to execute a document within 60 days of entry of a divorce decree, the other party may bring a Motion to Enforce at the expense of the disobedient party and seek that the Court appoint some other person to execute the document pursuant to Rule 70 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure.

138. Sela shall return to her former name of “Sela Marysa Langi” upon finalization of the divorce.
