Parent-time transfers

12. Pick-up and drop-off ("transfers") of the children for parent-time will be as described below:

The parties will make arrangements for pick up, delivery and return of the children prior to each scheduled parent-time.

Curbside transfers

13. There will not be curbside transfers. The parent/person dropping-off or picking-up a child may accompany the children to the other parent/person when parent-time transfers are made.

Decision-making

14. Each parent will make day-to-day decisions for the children during the time they are caring for the children. Either parent may make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the children. A parent who makes an emergency decision must share the decision with the other parent as soon as reasonably possible.

Joint decision-making. The parents will share responsibility for making major decisions about the children. If there is a disagreement, the parents will resolve the dispute as provided in the Resolving disputes section below.

Education plan

15. The school the children will attend is based on Naomi Candace Etheridge's home residence.

16. Naomi Candace Etheridge and John Ryan Etheridge has authority to check the children out of school. Naomi Candace Etheridge and John Ryan Etheridge has access to the children during school. If the parents cannot agree, education decisions will be made by Naomi Candace Etheridge.

Communication with each other

17. Parents will communicate with each other by any method.

Communication with the children

18. The parents agree they will:

- provide age-appropriate help to the children to communicate with the other parent.
- give the children privacy during their communication with the other parent. The parents will not interfere with or monitor communication between the children and the other parent.

19. Parents and children may communicate with each other whenever the children choose.

- By any method

20. Other terms about communication with the children: Neither parent shall use the children as messengers between the parents. Neither parent will allow any romantic partner or third party to discuss the divorce or make negative comments about the other parent to the children.

Records and information sharing

21. Both parents will have access to records and the ability to consult with providers regarding education, child care, and health care.

Travel by the children

22. During their parent-time, the parent may consent for the children to travel with a sports team, religious group, school group, relatives, friends, by themselves, or with others.

23. If the children will be travelling for more than 3 days, the parent arranging the travel will notify the other parent at least 30 days in advance. That parent will give the other parent the travel schedule, locations and phone numbers at least 30 days in advance. In case of emergency, the parent will provide as much notice as possible.

24. Other agreements about travel by the children: Neither parent will travel with children with romantic partner(s), new significant other, or third party without prior written consent from the other parent. The traveling parent must remain reachable by phone and provide daily updates if requested. No changes can be made to the travel plan without at least seven days' notice. International travel requires 60 days written notice and the other parents written consent.

Child care

25. A child care provider for our children must be:

A licensed child care provider.

Over the age of 20.

26. Other terms about child care: No romantic partner, friend, relative, or new significant other of either parent may supervise the children without prior written consent from the other parent. No person may supervise the children while under the influence of alcohol or unprescribed substances.

Relocation of a parent (Utah Code 81-9-209)

27. If either parent moves 150 miles or more from the other, the moving parent must give the non-moving parent a written Notice of Relocation. The notice must be sent at least 60 days before the planned move.

a. The written Notice of Relocation must include:

- Information about the move;
- A proposed parent-time schedule; and
- A statement that the parents will not interfere with the other parent's parent-time.

b. If the moving parent does not give the non-moving parent a Notice of Relocation, the moving parent will be in contempt of the court's order.

28. If either parent lives 150 miles or more away from the other, or if the parents live a different countries, parent-time will be as the parties agree. If they are unable to agree, the following will be the minimum parent-time for the noncustodial parent:

Relocation Schedule (Utah Code 81-9-209)

a. in years ending in odd number, the minor children will spend the following holidays with the noncustodial parent:

i.

(A) fall break if the minor child's school dismisses for fall break, beginning on the day that school dismisses for fall break and ending on the day before school resumes; or
(B) Labor Day if the minor child's school does not dismiss for a fall break, beginning on the day that school dismisses for Labor Day and ending on the day before school resumes; and

ii. the entire winter break period beginning on the day that school dismisses for the winter break and ending on the day before school resumes;

b. in years ending in an even number, the minor children will spend the following holidays with the noncustodial parent:

i.

(A) spring break, beginning on the day that school dismisses for the spring break and ending on the day before school resumes; or

(B) Presidents' Day if the minor child's school does not dismiss for a spring break, beginning on the day that school dismisses for Presidents' Day and ending on the day before school resumes; and

ii. Thanksgiving, beginning on the day that school dismisses for Thanksgiving and ending on the day before school resumes.

c. extended parent-time equal to half of the summer or off-track time for consecutive weeks with:

i. the noncustodial parent entitled to the first half of the summer or off-track time in years ending in an odd number; and

ii. the noncustodial parent entitled to the second half of the summer or off-track time in years ending in an even number; and

iii. the noncustodial parent will return the child to the custodial home no later than seven days before school begins. This week will be counted when determining the amount of parent-time to be divided between the parents for the summer or off-track period. The parties will mutually agree on this extended time each year. If they are unable to agree, the noncustodial parent will select the dates for the extended time period.

d. One weekend per month at the option and expense of the noncustodial parent. The noncustodial parent's monthly weekend entitlement is subject to the following restrictions.

i. If the noncustodial parent has not designated a specific weekend for parent-time, the noncustodial parent will receive the last weekend of each month unless a holiday assigned to the custodial parent falls on that particular weekend. If a holiday assigned to the custodial parent falls on a weekend on which the non-custodial parent normally exercises parent-time, the non-custodial parent is entitled to the weekend before the holiday.

ii. If a noncustodial parent's extended parent-time or parent-time over a holiday extends into or through the first weekend of the next month, that weekend will be considered the noncustodial parent's monthly weekend entitlement for that month.

iii. If a child is out of school for teacher development days or snow days after the children begin the school year, or other days not included in the list of holidays in this Relocation Schedule and those days are contiguous with the noncustodial parent's monthly weekend or holiday parent-time, those days will be included in the weekend or holiday parent-time.

e. The custodial parent is entitled to all parent-time not specifically allocated to the noncustodial parent.

f. In addition to the parent-time for which a non-custodial parent is entitled under the statute, the non-custodial parent is entitled to, at least two times a week:

i. brief telephone contact with the minor child at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration and

ii. virtual parent-time if the equipment is reasonably available at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration. If the parties cannot agree whether the equipment is reasonably available, the court shall decide, taking into consideration the best interest of the minor child, each parent's ability to handle any additional expense for virtual parent-time, and any other factors the court considers material.

iii. Virtual parent-time supplements, but does not replace the in-person parent-time the noncustodial parent is entitled to.

29. Other terms about relocating: 60 days written notice to for moves 150+ miles. Neither parent may relocate the children's primary residence more than 150 miles from the other parents' residence without either 1) The other parents written consent, or 2) A court order after proper notice and hearing under UT Code 81-9209.

30. If either parent lives 150 miles or more away from the other or the parents live in separate countries, costs for the children's travel expenses for parent-time will be paid by the parent who moved.

31. If a parent has been found in contempt for not being current on all support obligations, and they do not have primary physical care of the child, they will be responsible for the child's related travel expenses.

32. Reimbursement for the child's travel expenses must be made within 30 days of receipt of documents detailing those expenses.

Resolving disputes

33. If the parents need to resolve a dispute regarding the children, they will discuss the issues in good faith and try to reach an agreement based on what is best for their children. If the parents are unable to agree, they will go to the following before bringing the issue to the court:

a. Mediation

34. Other agreements about resolving disputes:

b. Any dispute between the parties regarding the children, parent-time, or this parenting plan shall first be submitted to mediation with a mutually agreed upon mediator before either party files any motion or petition with the court. The parties agree to communicate in writing regarding co-parenting issues and to attempt resolution in good faith. If mediation is unsuccessful, either party may seek relief through court. The cost of mediation shall be shared equally unless otherwise ordered from the court.

Changing the plan

This plan remains in effect until changed. A change comes from a modification of a court order.

35. A joint physical custody arrangement may result in denial of cash assistance under the Employment Support Act, Title 35A, Chapter 3, of the Utah Code.

END OF PARENTING PLAN

Income: Petitioner (Naomi Candace Etheridge) (Utah Code 81-6-203)

36. Naomi Candace Etheridge's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $12958. Naomi Candace Etheridge receives the following gross monthly income:

a. Naomi Candace Etheridge has other children that are not in common to both parties and who are not part of this case. 1227 may be subtracted from their gross monthly income for the child support calculation based on a Child Support Obligation Worksheet - Parent's Home Worksheet.

Income: Respondent (John Ryan Etheridge) (Utah Code 81-6-203)

37. John Ryan Etheridge's gross monthly income for child support purposes is

a. John Ryan Etheridge is employed at Harris and grosses $7204.17 per month. John Ryan Etheridge is voluntarily underemployed and is capable of working at a job which pays more. Based upon John Ryan Etheridge's work experience, gross monthly income should be attributed to John Ryan Etheridge in the amount of $9800 per month. (Utah Code 81-6-203)

b. John Ryan Etheridge has the following income from any of these sources:

Source: Veterans benefits, Monthly amount: $1,887.00

38. The adjusted gross monthly income for John Ryan Etheridge is $9800.

Child support (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, Parts 1 and 2)

39. Naomi Candace Etheridge believes the guideline amount for child support is unjust, inappropriate, or not in the best interest of our children for the following reasons:

The reason(s) for deviation are absence of need of the parent to receive child support and under Utah Code §81-6-208, a deviation from the guidelines base of $136.00 down to $0.00 is requested. Naomi Etheridge pays $334.98 per month for comprehensive health, dental, and vision insurance for the minor children. John Etheridge's 50% equitable share of this premium would be $167.49 per month, which offsets and exceeds the $136.00 base child support obligation. Both parents have sufficient independent incomes to directly provide for the children during their respective parent-time periods and mutually agree to the $0.00 child support obligation..

40. It is in the best interest of the parties' children that neither party be ordered to pay child support to the other. This deviates from the Utah Uniform Child Support Guidelines.

a. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for each child ends when:

- a child turns 18 or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or
- a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the United States armed forces, or is emancipated (Utah Code 78A-6-801).

41. Once a child is no longer eligible to receive child support, the support amount for the eligible children should be recalculated using the child support worksheet (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, Parts 1 and 2). The parties may not divide the base child support award by the number of children and subtract that amount from the prior child support amount.

42. Child support will be paid as follows:

If Naomi Etheridge is ordered to pay child support, she is to pay via electronic payment through CashApp, Zelle, or Venmo.

43. The issue of past-due child support may be decided by future court or administrative action.

44. Naomi Candace Etheridge and John Ryan Etheridge will each pay half of any ORS fee.

a. If a fee is withheld from payments to John Ryan Etheridge, Naomi Candace Etheridge will reimburse John Ryan Etheridge for half the fee.

45. The parties must notify each other within 30 days of any change in their income.

46. The Office of Recovery Services (<https://ors.utah.gov/>) provides services to individuals who are seeking assistance in the collection or enforcement of child support orders.

Dependent children for tax purposes

47. As long as Naomi Candace Etheridge is current on all child support and other court-ordered financial obligations, Naomi Candace Etheridge may claim the following children as dependents/exemptions for tax purposes as allowed by law:

a. Vaughn Etheridge

48. As long as John Ryan Etheridge is current on all child support and other court-ordered financial obligations, John Ryan Etheridge may claim the following children as dependents/exemptions for tax purposes as allowed by law:

b. Aria Etheridge

Child health care (Utah Code 81-6-208)

49. The parties must provide health care coverage for the medical expenses of the dependent children. Health care coverage means coverage under which medical services are provided to a dependent child through: fee for service, a health maintenance organization, a preferred provider organization, any other type of private health insurance, or public health care coverage. Utah Code 81-6-101(14),

50. Naomi Candace Etheridge must maintain medical, hospital, and dental care insurance for the dependent children if it is available at reasonable cost. If medical insurance is not available at reasonable cost then both parents must ensure the children have health care coverage. This may require applying for public health care coverage, such as CHIP or Medicaid.

a. If, at any time, a dependent child is covered by the medical, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the coverage will be as follows:

- Naomi Candace Etheridge's insurance will be primary coverage.
- John Ryan Etheridge's insurance will be secondary coverage.

b. If a parent remarries and that parent's dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the coverage will be as follows:

- Naomi Candace Etheridge's spouse's insurance will be primary coverage.
- John Ryan Etheridge's spouse's insurance will be secondary coverage.

- c. Both parties will equally share the out-of-pocket costs of the insurance premiums.
- d. Both parties will equally share all uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses that are reasonable and necessary. This includes deductibles, co-insurance, and co-payments paid by a party for the dependent children.
- e. The party who pays health care expenses must provide the other party written verification of the cost and payment within 30 days.
- f. If a party does not follow this order and provide written verification, they may not be able to receive credit for health care expenses or recover the other party's share of the expenses.
- g. On or before January 2 of each year, the party ordered to maintain coverage must provide verification of coverage to the other party, and ORS, if they are involved.
- h. If there is any change in coverage, within 30 days of the change the party ordered to maintain coverage must notify the other party and ORS, if they are involved.

Child care expenses (Utah Code 81-6-209)

51. Both parties will equally share all reasonable work, career, or occupational training-related child care expenses.

- a. The party who pays child care expenses must provide the other party written verification of the cost and identity of the child care provider. This must be done when a provider is first hired, and any time the other party asks for the information. The party incurring or paying child care expenses must notify the other party of any change of a child care provider or monthly expense. This must be done within 30 calendar days of the change.
- b. The party not directly paying for child care must pay their share of child care expenses as soon as they receive verification of the expenses.
- c. If a party does not follow the order and provide written verification, they may not receive credit for work, career, or occupational training-related child care expenses or recover the other party's share of the expenses.

Public assistance statement – Office of Recovery Services (ORS) (Utah Code 81-6-106(2)-(3))

52. Neither party has received or is receiving public assistance from the State of Utah.

Personal property (Utah Code Title 81, Chapters 1, 4, 6, and 9)

53. All personal property not addressed in the divorce should be divided as the parties have already divided it.

Additional provisions

64. The parties will adhere to the following additional provisions:

Additional Provision: Each party shall be solely responsible for the debts assigned to them in this decree. If either party fails to pay a debt assigned to them, they shall indemnify and hold the other party harmless from any resulting financial loss, collection activity, or damage to credit.

Additional Provision: Neither parent shall make or allow any romantic partner or third party to make or allow negative or disparaging comments about the other parent or their family to or in the presence of the children. No romantic partner of either parent may be introduced to the children or supervise them without the other parent's prior written consent.

Additional Provision: The parent receiving the children for parenting time, shall be responsible for transportation unless otherwise agreed.

Additional Provision: If either parent is unable to personally care for the child(ren) for more than 4 consecutive hours during their scheduled parenting time, they shall first offer the other parent the opportunity to care for the child(ren) before arranging third-party childcare. Any third-party care provider must meet the qualifications set forth in this decree (licensed provider, minimum age of 20).

Additional Provision: If either parent is unable to execute their scheduled parent time, they shall notify the other parent as soon as reasonably possible. If missed parent time is due to the fault of the parent who was scheduled to have the children, that parent shall be responsible for making up the missed time within 30 days, at a mutually agreed upon time by the parties. Make-up time shall not unreasonably interfere with the other parent's scheduled parenting time. Repeated failure to exercise parenting time without valid reason may be grounds for modification of the parenting plan.

Additional Provision: No romantic partners of either parent may spend the night in the same residence as the children. This includes any overnight stays, cohabitation, or romantic partner staying in the home while the children are present.
