9. The parents will follow the parent-time schedule in the statute(s).

Children 5-18 (expanded schedule) (Utah Code 81-9-303)

FOR CHILDREN 5 YEARS TO 18 YEARS OF AGE

Midweek – School in Session: During the time a child's school is in session, one weekday evening to be specified by the noncustodial parent, or Wednesday evening if not specified, from 5:30 p.m. and ending the following day upon delivering the child to school; or, at the election of the noncustodial parent, one weekday from the time the child's school is regularly dismissed until the following day upon delivering the minor child to school or at 8:00 a.m. if there is no school.

Midweek – School not in Session: During the time a child's school is not in session, one weekday from approximately 8:00 a.m., accommodating the custodial parent's work schedule, and ending the following day upon delivering the minor child to school or at 8 a.m. if there is no school.

Changes to Midweek Schedule: Once the weekday is designated, it may not be changed except by mutual written agreement of the parents, or court order.

Alternate Weekends: Alternating weekend parent-time shall begin the first weekend after the entry of the decree.

Alternate Weekends - School in Session: During the time a child's school is in session alternating weekend parent-time shall be from 5:30 p.m. on Friday until Monday upon delivering the minor child to school, or, at the election of the noncustodial parent, from the time a child's school is regularly dismissed on Friday until Monday upon delivering the minor child to school.

Alternate Weekends - School not in Session: During the time a child's school is not in session a noncustodial parent may elect alternating weekend parent-time to begin on Friday from approximately 8:00 a.m., if the noncustodial parent is available to be with the child and in accommodation with the custodial parent's work schedule, until 8 a.m. on Monday if there is no school.

Pick Up by Non-Parent: A step-parent, grandparent, or other responsible adult designated by a parent, may pick up the child if the other parent is aware of the identity of the individual, and the parent will be with the child by 7 p.m.

Changes to Weekends: Weekend parent-time elections shall be made by the noncustodial parent at the time of entry of the divorce decree or court order, and may be changed by mutual agreement, court order, or by the noncustodial parent in the event of a change in the child's schedule.

Holiday Parent-time: Holidays as specified below in the Special Occasion table.

Extended Parent-time: Extended parent-time with the noncustodial parent may be up to four consecutive weeks when school is not in session, at the option of the noncustodial parent including weekends normally exercised by the noncustodial parent, but not holidays;

Each parent shall provide notice to the other of their plan to exercise extended parent-time during summer break as follows:

Extended Parent-time notice - in odd numbered years, the noncustodial parent shall provide notification of extended parent-time to the custodial parent by May 1st and the custodial parent shall provide notification to the noncustodial parent of uninterrupted extended parent-time by May 15th.

Extended Parent-time notice - in even numbered years, the custodial parent shall provide notification of uninterrupted extended parent-time with a child to the noncustodial parent by May 1st and the noncustodial parent shall provide notification to the custodial parent of extended parent-time by May 15th.

Extended Parent-time notice - if not provided timely by a parent, the complying parent may determine the schedule for non-complying parent, so long as the complying parent's notification is timely.

Extended Parent-time notice - if neither parent's notification is timely, the first parent to give notice may determine the schedules of both parents for extended parent-time.

Electronic communication: Telephone contact shall be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration. Virtual parent-time, if the equipment is reasonably available and the parents reside at least 100 miles apart, shall be at reasonable hours and for reasonable duration, provided that if the parties cannot agree on whether the equipment is reasonably available, the court shall decide whether the equipment for virtual parent-time is reasonably available, taking into consideration the best interest of the child, each parent's ability to handle any additional expenses for virtual parent-time; and any other factors the court considers material.

Weekday parent-time will be Wednesday. (81-9-303)

On school days: Parent-time begins when school is regularly dismissed and ends the following day upon delivering the child to school, or at 8:00 a.m. if there is no school (Utah Code 81-9-303)

Parent-time for special occasions

10. The parents will follow the schedule for special occasions below. If there is more than one child and the children's school schedules vary for purpose of a holiday, at the option of the parent exercising the holiday or the parent's half of the holiday, the children may remain together for the holiday period beginning the first evening that all children's schools are let out for the holiday and ending the evening before any child returns to school. Communication with each other

19. Parents will communicate with each other by any method.

Communication with the children

20. The parents agree they will:

- provide age-appropriate help to the children to communicate with the other parent.
- give the children privacy during their communication with the other parent. The parents will not interfere with or monitor communication between the children and the other parent.

21. Parents and children may communicate with each other whenever the children choose.

- By any method

Records and information sharing

22. Both parents will have access to records and the ability to consult with providers regarding education, child care, and health care.

Travel by the children

23. During their parent-time, the parent may consent for the children to travel with a sports team, religious group, school group, relatives, friends, by themselves, or with others.

24. If the children will be travelling for more than 3 days, the parent arranging the travel will notify the other parent at least 14 days in advance. That parent will give the other parent the travel schedule, locations and phone numbers at least 14 days in advance. In case of emergency, the parent will provide as much notice as possible.

Child care

25. A child care provider for our children must be:
Over the age of 14.

Relocation of a parent

26. Neither parent may relocate with the minor children more than 3000 miles from their current residence without a written agreement signed by the parties or further court order.

27. If either parent lives 150 miles or more away from the other or the parents live in separate countries, costs for the children's travel expenses for parent-time will be shared equally.

28. If a parent has been found in contempt for not being current on all support obligations, and they do not have primary physical care of the child, they will be responsible for the child's related travel expenses.

29. Reimbursement for the child's travel expenses must be made within 30 days of receipt of documents detailing those expenses.

Resolving disputes

30. If the parents need to resolve a dispute regarding the children, they will discuss the issues in good faith and try to reach an agreement based on what is best for their children. If the parents are unable to agree, they will go to the following before bringing the issue to the court:

a. Mediation

Changing the plan

This plan remains in effect until changed. A change comes from a modification of a court order.

31. A joint physical custody arrangement may result in denial of cash assistance under the Employment Support Act, Title 35A, Chapter 3, of the Utah Code.

END OF PARENTING PLAN

Income: Petitioner (Raymond J Smith) (Utah Code 81-6-203)

32. Raymond J Smith's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $10000.

Raymond J Smith receives the following gross monthly income:

- a. Raymond J Smith is ordered to pay 700 per month in child support for children not part of this case. This amount is subtracted from their gross monthly income for the child support calculation.

Income: Respondent (Maria Alisa Bradley) (Utah Code 81-6-203)

33. Maria Alisa Bradley's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $8529.

Maria Alisa Bradley receives the following gross monthly income:

34. The adjusted gross monthly income for Maria Alisa Bradley is $8529.

Child support (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, Parts 1 and 2)

35. It is in the best interest of the children that Raymond J Smith be ordered to pay child support to Maria Alisa Bradley as follows:

- a. $510.00 per month base support. This amount complies with the Utah Child Support Act.

36. Once a child is no longer eligible to receive child support, the support amount for the eligible children should be recalculated using the child support worksheet (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, Parts 1 and 2). The parties may not divide the base child support award by the number of children and subtract that amount from the prior child support amount.

37. The joint custody worksheet was used to calculate child support.

38. The base child support amount using the joint custody calculation is $510 per month.

Child support reduction for extended parent-time

39. If a child lives with the non-custodial parent by court order or written agreement of the parties for:

- 25 of any 30 consecutive days, base child support will be reduced by 50% for each child who lives with the non-custodial parent during that time. (Utah Code 81-6-211(1)(a)).
- 12 of any 30 consecutive days, base child support will be reduced by 25% for each child who lives with the non-custodial parent during that time. (Utah Code 81-6-211(1)(b)).

The custodial parent's normal parent-time and holiday parent-time do not count as an interruption of the consecutive day requirement.

40. If a child receives cash assistance through the T.A.N.F. or F.E.P. programs, any agreement by the parties to reduce child support during extended parent-time must be approved by the Office of Recovery Services.

41. Maria Alisa Bradley will give Raymond J Smith the information needed to set up direct deposit through Raymond J Smith's employer. Once Raymond J Smith has the information, Raymond J Smith will have Raymond J Smith's employer set up direct deposit to an account of Maria Alisa Bradley's choice. One half of the child support is due by the 5th of each month, and the other half is due by the 20th of each month.

42. The issue of past-due child support may be decided by future court or administrative action.

43. Maria Alisa Bradley will pay any ORS fees. If Maria Alisa Bradley is the ORS applicant and the fees are withheld from payments to Maria Alisa Bradley, Raymond J Smith will reimburse Maria Alisa Bradley.

44. The parties must notify each other within 30 days of any change in their income.

45. The Office of Recovery Services (<https://ors.utah.gov/>) provides services to individuals who are seeking assistance in the collection or enforcement of child support orders.

Dependent children for tax purposes

46. The parents may claim the parties' children as dependents/exemptions for tax purposes as follows:

47. Raymond J Smith may claim the parties' children as dependents/exemptions for tax purposes in odd numbered years. Maria Alisa Bradley may claim the parties' children as dependents/exemptions for tax purposes in even numbered years.

Child health care (Utah Code 81-6-208)

48. The parties must provide health care coverage for the medical expenses of the dependent children. Health care coverage means coverage under which medical services are provided to a dependent child through: fee for service, a health maintenance organization, a preferred provider organization, any other type of private health insurance, or public health care coverage. Utah Code 81-6-101(14),

49. Parents must maintain medical, hospital, and dental care insurance for the dependent children if it is available at reasonable cost. If medical insurance is not available at reasonable cost then both parents must ensure the children have health care coverage. This may require applying for public health care coverage, such as CHIP or Medicaid.

- a. Responsibility for child medical and dental expenses will be as follows:
- b. If, at any time, a dependent child is covered by the medical, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the coverage will be as follows:
 - Maria Alisa Bradley's insurance will be primary coverage.
 - Raymond J Smith's insurance will be secondary coverage.
- c. If a parent remarries and that parent's dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the coverage will be as follows:
 - Maria Alisa Bradley's spouse's insurance will be primary coverage.
 - Raymond J Smith's spouse's insurance will be secondary coverage.
- d. Both parties will equally share the out-of-pocket costs of the insurance premiums.
- e. Both parties will equally share all uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses that are reasonable and necessary. This includes deductibles, co-insurance, and co-payments paid by a party for the dependent children.
- f. The party who pays health care expenses must provide the other party written verification of the cost and payment within 30 days.
- g. If a party does not follow this order and provide written verification, they may not be able to receive credit for health care expenses or recover the other party's share of the expenses.
- h. On or before January 2 of each year, the party ordered to maintain coverage must provide verification of coverage to the other party, and ORS, if they are involved.
- i. If there is any change in coverage, within 30 days of the change the party ordered to maintain coverage must notify the other party and ORS, if they are involved.

Child care expenses (Utah Code 81-6-209)

50. Both parties will equally share all reasonable work, career, or occupational training-related child care expenses.

- a. The party who pays child care expenses must provide the other party written verification of the cost and identity of the child care provider. This must be done when a provider is first hired, and any time the other party asks for the information. The party incurring or paying child care expenses must notify the other party of any change of a child care provider or monthly expense. This must be done within 30 calendar days of the change.

b. The party not directly paying for child care must pay their share of child care expenses as soon as they receive verification of the expenses.

c. If a party does not follow the order and provide written verification, they may not receive credit for work, career, or occupational training-related child care expenses or recover the other party's share of the expenses.

Public assistance statement – Office of Recovery Services (ORS) (Utah Code 81-6-106(2)-(3))

51. Neither party has received or is receiving public assistance from the State of Utah.

Personal property (Utah Code Title 81, Chapters 1, 4, 6, and 9)
