Attorneys for Respondent

SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT – FARMINGTON DAVIS COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH
In the Matter of the Marriage of: ADRIEN BLAKE MENDOZA, Petitioner, and ALEIKSANDER JAMES MENDOZA, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No.: 264700563 Judge: Michael D DiReda Commissioner: Julie Winkler

This matter came before the court on Petitioner’s Declaration of Jurisdiction and Grounds for Divorce in accordance with Rule 104, Utah Rules of Civil Procedure. The court, having found and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and being otherwise fully advised, it is hereby,

ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED:

The parties are hereby awarded a divorce, one from the other, on the grounds of irreconcilable differences to become final upon signature and entry of this Decree of Divorce.

MINOR CHILDREN

1. There are no minor children at issue in this matter.

SPOUSAL SUPPORT (ALIMONY)

2. Neither party should be awarded alimony from the other.

REAL PROPERTY

3. The parties did not acquire any real property and no order from this court is required regarding the same.

MARITAL PROPERTY

4. Each party shall be awarded their own personal property.
5. The remaining marital property between the parties not already divided shall be divided as follows:
 - a. Respondent shall ship to Petitioner the childhood box and Ukrainian box with Petitioner's personal childhood belongings to Petitioner. Petitioner shall reimburse Respondent the actual costs of shipping these items to Petitioner. Respondent shall provide a copy of the receipt to Petitioner and Petitioner shall reimburse Respondent within fourteen (14) days after the receipt is sent to Petitioner.
 - b. Respondent shall receive and care for the two dogs.

6. Petitioner will pay Respondent $500 as a lump sum payment within two (2) weeks after the divorce decree is entered as a personal property settlement payment. This payment may be made through Respondent's counsel to their attorney's trust account.

BANK ACCOUNTS

7. The parties have already divided any bank accounts held in their joint names, if any.

8. Any bank account held in a party's name is awarded to that party.

RETIREMENT

9. Neither party should be awarded any retirement from the other.

BUSINESS INTERESTS

10. Petitioner shall be awarded her business (self employment) in its entirety.

TAXES

11. The parties are responsible for their own taxes and entitled to their own tax refund, if any, from the date of separation forward.

DEBTS

12. The parties have no marital debt that needs to be divided by the court.

13. Any debt incurred by either party after the date of separation shall be the obligation of the party who actually incurred the debt.

ATTORNEY FEES AND COURT COSTS

14. Each party shall be responsible for their own attorney's fees.

FUTURE DISPUTE RESOLUTION

15. Prior to any Petition being filed to change any provision of the final Order, the parties must attempt to resolve the issue through mediation first.

MISCELLANEOUS

16. Both parties should be ordered by the Court to conduct themselves in a civil manner in all of their dealings with the other party.

17. Both parties should be ordered to sign and fully execute whatever documents are necessary for the implementation of the provisions in this case. Should a party fail to execute a document within 60 days of the entry of the divorce decree, the other party may bring a Motion to Enforce at the expense of the disobedient party and seek that the Court appoint some other person to execute the document pursuant to Rule 70 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure. Any document executed pursuant to Rule 70 has the same effect as if executed by the disobedient party.

18. Both parties are restrained and ordered by the Court from committing any unlawful act that would damage or otherwise interfere with any personal property belonging to or currently in possession of the other party.

19. Both parties are restrained from speaking in a derogatory, defamatory, offensive, or otherwise demeaning manner about or to the other party.
