Attorneys for Petitioner

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT, IN AND FOR DAVIS COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

IN THE MATTER OF THE MARRIAGE OF:

AMANDA CASTLEBERRY,

Petitioner,

and

BENJAMIN CASTLEBERRY,

Respondent.

ORDER ON MOTION TO ENFORCE
(JULY 9, 2026)

Civil: 244700190

Judge: Blaine Rawson
Commissioner: Julie Winkler

THIS MATTER was before the Court on Petitioner's Verified Motion to Enforce, for Sanctions, and for Relief on the 9th day of July 2026, before Commissioner Julie Winkler. Petitioner was present, and represented by her attorney of record, Kimberly Read. Respondent was present and unrepresented by counsel. The Court, after hearing argument; being fully advised in the premises; and for other good cause appearing, issues the following Findings, Ruling and Order:

The Court finds that:

1. The only proper motion before the Court is the Motion to Enforce.
2. As to ¶ 11 of the parties' Temporary Order, there is an order and the Respondent is aware of the order.
3. The parties were previously before the court, at which time the court reserved a finding of contempt against the respondent to allow the parties to exchange an accounting and come to an agreement, as they both recognize that both parties had made certain payments and credits were due, mainly due to Mr. Castleberry. The court gave a time frame for this exchange.
4. Respondent has failed to comply with paragraph 11 of the parties' Temporary Order.
5. There is nothing in the Temporary Order that indicates Respondent gets a credit for insurance, taxes, or having to buy things at his home for the children.
6. Based on these findings and best evidence before the Court, Respondent is found in contempt for his failure to pay the family support.
7. As to ¶ 10 of the parties' Temporary Order, the Court finds Respondent is aware of the order, that the statements made by a third party borders the line of disparagement, but it cannot find by clear and convincing evidence that the Respondent disparaged or allowed third parties to disparage the petitioner in the presence of the minor children.

8. The Court denies the request for contempt on the allegation of violating ¶ 10 of the parties' Temporary Order.

The Court Hereby Orders:

9. Judgment is entered against Respondent for $30,712.30.

10. Petitioner may request a review hearing if needed to move forward on the collection of this.

11. Within 30 days, the Respondent shall come up with a payment plan on how he is going to start making payments on the Judgement and the payment of his ongoing family support obligation.

12. The parties' Temporary Order remains in effect.
