PARENTING PLAN

This Parenting Plan is being filed in good faith.

This parenting plan is agreed to by Autumn Camille Brady and Reagan Sumner Phillips.

Children - custody

(Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 9, Part 3)

7. It is in the children's best interest that the parties be awarded Joint Legal Custody and that Autumn Camille Brady be awarded Sole Physical custody. Reagan Sumner Phillips should have parent-time at reasonable times and places. Autumn Camille Brady is filing this Parenting Plan and verifies the plan is filed in good faith.

8. The parents will follow a custom parent-time schedule:

a. The parties follow a repeating schedule where the minor child, Grayson, resides with Autumn Camille Brady for two consecutive weeks, followed by one week with Reagan Sumner Phillips. Due to Reagan Sumner Phillips' variable work schedule, parenting time with Reagan Sumner Phillips may be adjusted by mutual agreement. When Reagan Sumner Phillips is unavailable during his scheduled parenting time, Grayson remains with Autumn Camille Brady. This schedule reflects the parties' current parenting practice and prioritizes consistency and stability for Grayson.

Parent-time for special occasions

9. The parents will follow the schedule for special occasions below. If there is more than one child and the children's school schedules vary for purpose of a holiday, at the option of the parent exercising the holiday or the parent's half of the holiday, the children may remain together for the holiday period beginning the first evening that all children's schools are let out for the holiday and ending the evening before any child returns to school. (Utah Code 81-9-302, 303).

Parent-time transfers

10. Pick-up and drop-off ("transfers") of the children for parent-time will be as described below:

The parties will make arrangements for pick up, delivery and return of the children prior to each scheduled parent-time.

Curbside transfers

11. There will not be curbside transfers. The parent/person dropping-off or picking-up a child may accompany the children to the other parent/person when parent-time transfers are made.

Decision-making

12. Each parent will make day-to-day decisions for the children during the time they are caring for the children. Either parent may make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the children. A parent who makes an emergency decision must share the decision with the other parent as soon as reasonably possible.

Joint decision-making. The parents will share responsibility for making major decisions about the children. If there is a disagreement, the parents will resolve the dispute as provided in the Resolving disputes section below.

Education plan

13. The school the children will attend is based on Autumn Camille Brady's home residence.

14. Autumn Camille Brady and Reagan Sumner Phillips has authority to check the children out of school. Autumn Camille Brady and Reagan Sumner Phillips has access to the children during school. If the parents cannot agree, education decisions will be made by Autumn Camille Brady.

Communication with each other

15. Parents will communicate with each other by any method.

Communication with the children

16. The parents agree they will:

- provide age-appropriate help to the children to communicate with the other parent.
- give the children privacy during their communication with the other parent. The parents will not interfere with or monitor communication between the children and the other parent.

17. Parents and children may communicate with each other whenever the children choose.

- By any method

Records and information sharing

18. Both parents will have access to records and the ability to consult with providers regarding education, child care, and health care.

Travel by the children

19. During their parent-time, the parent may consent for the children to travel with a sports team, religious group, school group, relatives, friends, by themselves, or with others.

20. If the children will be travelling for more than 7 days, the parent arranging the travel will notify the other parent at least 14 days in advance. That parent will give the other parent the travel schedule, locations and phone numbers at least 7 days in advance. In case of emergency, the parent will provide as much notice as possible.

Child care

21. A child care provider for our children must be:

A licensed child care provider.

A relative, friend, or neighbor.

Relocation of a parent (Utah Code 81-9-209)

22. If either parent moves 150 miles or more from the other, the moving parent must give the non-moving parent a written Notice of Relocation. The notice must be sent at least 60 days before the planned move.

a. The written Notice of Relocation must include:

- Information about the move;
- A proposed parent-time schedule; and
- A statement that the parents will not interfere with the other parent's parent-time.

b. If the moving parent does not give the non-moving parent a Notice of Relocation, the moving parent will be in contempt of the court's order.

23. If either parent lives 150 miles or more away from the other, or if the parents live a different countries, parent-time will be as the parties agree. If they are unable to agree, the following will be the minimum parent-time for the noncustodial parent:

Relocation Schedule (Utah Code 81-9-209)

a. in years ending in odd number, the minor children will spend the following holidays with the noncustodial parent:

i.

(A) fall break if the minor child's school dismisses for fall break, beginning on the day that school dismisses for fall break and ending on the day before school resumes; or
(B) Labor Day if the minor child's school does not dismiss for a fall break, beginning on the day that school dismisses for Labor Day and ending on the day before school resumes; and

ii. the entire winter break period beginning on the day that school dismisses for the winter break and ending on the day before school resumes;

b. in years ending in an even number, the minor children will spend the following holidays with the noncustodial parent:

i.

(A) spring break, beginning on the day that school dismisses for the spring break and ending on the day before school resumes; or

(B) Presidents' Day if the minor child's school does not dismiss for a spring break, beginning on the day that school dismisses for Presidents' Day and ending on the day before school resumes; and

ii. Thanksgiving, beginning on the day that school dismisses for Thanksgiving and ending on the day before school resumes.

c. extended parent-time equal to half of the summer or off-track time for consecutive weeks with:

- i. the noncustodial parent entitled to the first half of the summer or off-track time in years ending in an odd number; and
- ii. the noncustodial parent entitled to the second half of the summer or off-track time in years ending in an even number; and
- iii. the noncustodial parent will return the child to the custodial home no later than seven days before school begins. This week will be counted when determining the amount of parent-time to be divided between the parents for the summer or off-track period. The parties will mutually agree on this extended time each year. If they are unable to agree, the noncustodial parent will select the dates for the extended time period.

d. One weekend per month at the option and expense of the noncustodial parent. The noncustodial parent's monthly weekend entitlement is subject to the following restrictions.

- i. If the noncustodial parent has not designated a specific weekend for parent-time, the noncustodial parent will receive the last weekend of each month unless a holiday assigned to the custodial parent falls on that particular weekend. If a holiday assigned to the custodial parent falls on a weekend on which the non-custodial parent normally exercises parent-time, the non-custodial parent is entitled to the weekend before the holiday.

- ii. If a noncustodial parent's extended parent-time or parent-time over a holiday extends into or through the first weekend of the next month, that weekend will be considered the noncustodial parent's monthly weekend entitlement for that month.

- iii. If a child is out of school for teacher development days or snow days after the children begin the school year, or other days not included in the list of holidays in this Relocation Schedule and those days are contiguous with the noncustodial parent's monthly weekend or holiday parent-time, those days will be included in the weekend or holiday parent-time.

e. The custodial parent is entitled to all parent-time not specifically allocated to the noncustodial parent.

f. In addition to the parent-time for which a non-custodial parent is entitled under the statute, the non-custodial parent is entitled to, at least two times a week:

- i. brief telephone contact with the minor child at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration and
- ii. virtual parent-time if the equipment is reasonably available at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration. If the parties cannot agree whether the equipment is reasonably available, the court shall decide, taking into consideration the best interest of the minor child, each parent's ability to handle any additional expense for virtual parent-time, and any other factors the court considers material.

iii. Virtual parent-time supplements, but does not replace the in-person parent-time the noncustodial parent is entitled to.

24. If either parent lives 150 miles or more away from the other or the parents live in separate countries, costs for the children's travel expenses for parent-time will be paid by the parent who moved, except one-half of the expenses for the summer or off-track time will be paid by the other parent.

25. If a parent has been found in contempt for not being current on all support obligations, and they do not have primary physical care of the child, they will be responsible for the child's related travel expenses.

26. Reimbursement for the child's travel expenses must be made within 30 days of receipt of documents detailing those expenses.

Resolving disputes

27. If the parents need to resolve a dispute regarding the children, they will discuss the issues in good faith and try to reach an agreement based on what is best for their children. If the parents are unable to agree, they will go to the following before bringing the issue to the court:

a. Mediation

Changing the plan

This plan remains in effect until changed. A change comes from a modification of a court order.

Military Parenting Plan (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 10, Part 4)

This Military Parenting Plan is proposed by the petitioner.

28. This Military Parenting Plan is in addition to the standard Parenting Plan because Petitioner is a servicemember.

Military Parenting Plan: Notice of deployment

29. After receiving notice of deployment, a deploying parent will give written notice to the other parent within 7 days or as soon as reasonably possible. If the non-deploying parent has a protective order against the deploying parent, the deploying parent will give written notice of deployment to the court. The written notice of deployment should include the destination, duration, and conditions.

Military Parenting Plan: Caretaking authority during deployment

30. Only Petitioner is a servicemember. While Petitioner is deployed, caretaking authority of the parties' children is given to:

- Reagan Sumner Phillips, who is not deployed.
- Autumn Camille Brady will keep some caretaking authority.
- Ashley Irianto Tanuwidjaja
- Ariel Irianto Tanuwidjaja

• William Brady

31. A person granted caretaking authority must notify the following people of any change in mailing or residential address:

- The deploying parent,
- Anyone with physical or legal custody,
- Anyone who has parent-time, right to access, visitation, and
- Anyone with authority to grant limited contact with the children.

32. However, if a person granted caretaking authority has a court order protecting their address, they must give written notice of any change in mailing or residential address to the court.

Military Parenting Plan: Decision-making authority during deployment

33. The people given caretaking authority above will have decision-making authority to:

- Make day-to-day decisions for the children during the time they are caring for the children.
- Make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the children. A parent who makes an emergency decision must share the decisions with the other people who have caretaking authority as soon as reasonably possible.

34. Joint decision-making. The people given caretaking authority above will share responsibility for making major decisions about the children. If there is a disagreement, the people given caretaking authority will resolve the dispute as provided in the resolving disputes section below.

35. Other details about joint decision-making:

Military Parenting Plan: Visitation for nonparents

36. The nonparents listed below will have visitation with the children as follows:

Full name of person	Schedule
Ashley Irianto Tanuwidjaja	During any period of deployment of Autumn Camille Brady, Ashley Irianto Tanuwidjaja may exercise caretaking authority and visitation as agreed upon by the parties and based on availability, duty requirements, and the best interest of the child.
Ariel Irianto Tanuwidjaja	During any period of deployment of Autumn Camille Brady, Ariel Irianto Tanuwidjaja may exercise caretaking authority and visitation as agreed upon by the parties and based on availability, duty requirements, and the best interest of the child.
William Brady	During any period of deployment of Autumn

Full name of person

Schedule

Camille Brady, William Brady may exercise caretaking authority and visitation as agreed upon by the parties and based on availability and the best interest of the child.

Military Parenting Plan: Resolving disputes

37. If the people given caretaking authority need to resolve a dispute about the children, they will discuss the issues in good faith and try to reach an agreement based on what is best for the children.

38. If the people given caretaking authority are unable to agree, they will participate in the following before bringing the issue to the court:

a. Mediation

Military Parenting Plan: Contact with the deployed parent

39. There will be contact with the children and the deployed parent. Reagan Sumner Phillips will arrange for the contact. Contact will be as follows:

Frequency: As often as reasonably possible based on the deployed parents availability, duty requirements, and the best interest of the child

Duration: Age appropriate and as long as the child remains engaged

Method: Video calls, phone calls, and other electronic communication as available

Military Parenting Plan: Contact when deployed parent is on leave or is otherwise available

40. When the deployed parent is on leave or is otherwise available, contact with the children will be as follows:

b. In-person contact and increased electronic communication as mutually agreed upon by the Autumn Camille Brady and Reagan Sumner Phillips, based on the deployed parents availability and the best interest of the child

Military Parenting Plan: Child support not modified

41. Child support obligations cannot be modified by the Military Parenting Plan.

42. Changing child support requires a court order.

43. The arrangements in this Military Parenting Plan terminate 30 days after the deploying parent gives notice of the return from deployment.

END OF PARENTING PLAN

Income: Petitioner (Autumn Camille Brady) (Utah Code 81-6-203)

44. Autumn Camille Brady's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $7237. Autumn Camille Brady base child support amount using the sole custody calculation is $675. Autumn Camille Brady receives the following gross monthly income:

- a. Autumn Camille Brady has the following income from any of these sources:

Source: Veterans benefits, Monthly amount: $2,652.00

Income: Respondent (Reagan Sumner Phillips) (Utah Code 81-6-203)

45. Reagan Sumner Phillips's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $7417. Reagan Sumner Phillips's base child support amount using the sole custody calculation is $649. Reagan Sumner Phillips receives the following gross monthly income:

46. The adjusted gross monthly income for Reagan Sumner Phillips is $7237.

Child support (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, Parts 1 and 2)

47. It is in the best interest of the children that Reagan Sumner Phillips be ordered to pay child support to Autumn Camille Brady as follows:

a. $675.00 per month base support. This amount complies with the Utah Child Support Act.

48. Once a child is no longer eligible to receive child support, the support amount for the eligible children should be recalculated using the child support worksheet (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, Parts 1 and 2). The parties may not divide the base child support award by the number of children and subtract that amount from the prior child support amount.

49. The sole custody worksheet was used to calculate child support.

Autumn Camille Brady's base child support amount is $675 per month.

Reagan Sumner Phillips's base child support amount is $649 per month.

If physical custody of a child changes from what the court orders:

- The parent owing support must pay the support amount to whomever has physical custody of the child.
- The parent must pay the support amount without asking the court to modify the child support order.
- This does not apply to temporary parent-time changes. (Utah Code 81-6-104(4) and 81-6-205(8)(a)).

Child support reduction for extended parent-time

50. If a child lives with the non-custodial parent by court order or written agreement of the parties for:

- 25 of any 30 consecutive days, base child support will be reduced by 50% for each child who lives with the non-custodial parent during that time. (Utah Code 81-6-211(1)(a)).
- 12 of any 30 consecutive days, base child support will be reduced by 25% for each child who lives with the non-custodial parent during that time. (Utah Code 81-6-211(1)(b)).

The custodial parent's normal parent-time and holiday parent-time do not count as an interruption of the consecutive day requirement.

51. If a child receives cash assistance through the T.A.N.F. or F.E.P. programs, any agreement by the parties to reduce child support during extended parent-time must be approved by the Office of Recovery Services.

52. Child support will be paid as follows:

Child support payments will be made via Venmo on or before the agreed-upon due date each month. Both parties agree that Venmo transaction records will serve as proof of payment.

53. The issue of past-due child support may be decided by future court or administrative action.

54. Reagan Sumner Phillips will pay any ORS fees. If Autumn Camille Brady is the ORS applicant and the fees are withheld from payments to Autumn Camille Brady, Reagan Sumner Phillips will reimburse Autumn Camille Brady.

55. The parties must notify each other within 30 days of any change in their income.

56. The parties can ask to change this child support order by motion after three years from the date of its entry if:

- there is a difference of 10% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah child support guidelines,
- the difference is not temporary, and
- the amount previously ordered was not a deviation from the child support guidelines.

If the children receive TANF funds at the time an adjustment is sought, ORS will review the order and ask the court to adjust the amount if appropriate. (Utah Code 62A-11-306.2).

57. The parties can ask to change this child support order at any time by petition if there has been a substantial change in circumstances because of material changes in:

- custody;
- the relative wealth or assets of the parties;
- income of a parent of 30% or more;
- the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn;
- the medical needs of the child; or
- the legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others.

(Utah Code 81-6-202 and 81-6-212)

The change must result in a difference of 15% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah child support guidelines.

The difference may not be temporary.

The court can consider natural or adoptive children born after the entry of the decree other than those in common to both parties as part of a request to modify an existing award subject to limitations in the law. (Utah Code 81-6-202(8))

58. The Office of Recovery Services (<https://ors.utah.gov/>) provides services to individuals who are seeking assistance in the collection or enforcement of child support orders.

Dependent children for tax purposes

59. The parents may claim the parties' children as dependents/exemptions for tax purposes as follows:

60. Reagan Sumner Phillips may claim the parties' children as dependents/exemptions for tax purposes in odd numbered years. Autumn Camille Brady may claim the parties' children as dependents/exemptions for tax purposes in even numbered years.

Child health care (Utah Code 81-6-208)

61. The parties must provide health care coverage for the medical expenses of the dependent children. Health care coverage means coverage under which medical services are provided to a dependent child through: fee for service, a health maintenance organization, a preferred provider organization, any other type of private health insurance, or public health care coverage. Utah Code 81-6-101(14),

62. Both parents must maintain medical, hospital, and dental care insurance for the dependent children if it is available at reasonable cost. If medical insurance is not available at reasonable cost then both parents must ensure the children have health care coverage. This may require applying for public health care coverage, such as CHIP or Medicaid.

a. If, at any time, a dependent child is covered by the medical, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the coverage will be as follows:

- Autumn Camille Brady's insurance will be primary coverage.
- Reagan Sumner Phillips's insurance will be secondary coverage.

b. If a parent remarries and that parent's dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the coverage will be as follows:

- Autumn Camille Brady's spouse's insurance will be primary coverage.
- Reagan Sumner Phillips's spouse's insurance will be secondary coverage.

c. Both parties will equally share the out-of-pocket costs of the insurance premiums.

d. Both parties will equally share all uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses that are reasonable and necessary. This includes deductibles, co-insurance, and co-payments paid by a party for the dependent children.

e. The party who pays health care expenses must provide the other party written verification of the cost and payment within 30 days.

f. If a party does not follow this order and provide written verification, they may not be able to receive credit for health care expenses or recover the other party's share of the expenses.

g. On or before January 2 of each year, the party ordered to maintain coverage must provide verification of coverage to the other party, and ORS, if they are involved.

h. If there is any change in coverage, within 30 days of the change the party ordered to maintain coverage must notify the other party and ORS, if they are involved.

Child care expenses (Utah Code 81-6-209)

63. Both parties will equally share all reasonable work, career, or occupational training-related child care expenses.

- a. The party who pays child care expenses must provide the other party written verification of the cost and identity of the child care provider. This must be done when a provider is first hired, and any time the other party asks for the information. The party incurring or paying child care expenses must notify the other party of any change of a child care provider or monthly expense. This must be done within 30 calendar days of the change.
- b. The party not directly paying for child care must pay their share of child care expenses as soon as they receive verification of the expenses.
- c. If a party does not follow the order and provide written verification, they may not receive credit for work, career, or occupational training-related child care expenses or recover the other party's share of the expenses.
