Attorney for Respondent

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
DAVIS COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH
800 W. State St., Farmington, Utah 84025

In the matter of the marriage of:	DECREE OF DIVORCE
SILVIA ELENA ZAMURIA DE ALVEY, Petitioner,	Civil No. 264700139 DA
and	The Honorable Ronald Russell
CLAYTON DEAN ALVEY, Respondent.	Commissioner Christina Wilson

This matter came before the Court pursuant to the Verified Petition for Divorce, Answer and Verified Counter Petition for Divorce, and the parties' Stipulation and Property Settlement Agreement, filed August 12, 2026 ("Agreement"). The Court, having received and reviewed the Agreement, Declaration of Jurisdiction and Grounds, Declaration of Income Verification and Compliance with Uniform Child Support Statute, child support worksheet, and other papers on file in this matter, having entered Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law herewith, and otherwise being fully informed of the premises, for good cause appearing does hereby ORDER, ADJUDGE, and DECREE as follows:

1. Marriage Information & Grounds for Divorce. The parties are husband and wife, having been married on February 2, 2009 in Granada, Nicaragua. The parties are granted a divorce, hereby severing the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the parties, effective immediately upon entry of this Decree of Divorce. Immediately upon entry of this Decree of Divorce, the parties are hereby restored to their prior status as single, separate, unmarried persons. The Court hereby enters this Decree of Divorce between the parties on the grounds of irreconcilable differences.

2. Jurisdiction. Clayton is a bona fide resident of Davis County, Utah, and has been for all of the 90 days immediately preceding the commencement of this divorce action. There is no dispute that this Court has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this case, and that venue properly lies in this Court.

3. Children. The parties are the natural parents of three minor children, whose initials are as follows: E.D.A. (born May 2011), J.C.A. (born April 2012), and J.Z.A. (born July 2016). The parties do not have any other children and none are expected. The minor children lived in Utah for all of the six consecutive months immediately preceding the commencement of this action. Utah is the minor children's home state and place of habitual residence. Utah has jurisdiction over the child custody and parent-time issues in this case.

4. Custody. The parties are awarded joint legal custody and joint physical custody of their minor children.

5. Regular Parent-Time. The parties are awarded equal parent-time, meaning regular and extended summer parent-time as set forth in Utah Code Section 81-9-305.

6. Holidays. The parties shall share holidays as set forth in Utah Code Section 81-9-303, as modified here. The parties may agree in writing to deviate from this holiday schedule. To help streamline the sharing of holidays, the following dates shall not be treated as holidays under the statute, rather, the regular parent-time schedule shall override these dates each year: Juneteenth, Columbus Day, and Veteran's Day. Otherwise, the holiday schedule takes precedence over regular and extended parent-time. The holiday schedule is as follows:

Holiday and Time	Years Clayton is granted holiday	Years Silvia is granted holiday
Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Day (1) Holiday begins Friday at: (a) 9 a.m. if school is not in session and the parent can be with the minor child; (b) the time that school is regularly dismissed; or (c) 6 p.m. at the election of the parent granted the holiday. 7. Parenting Plan.

a. Each parent shall promote a healthy and positive relationship between the children and the other parent. The parents shall minimize the children's exposure to parental conflict. Child exchange times shall be without tension or contention for the children's benefit. The parents shall be courteous and respectful when exchanging the children and shall defer discussing any disputes until a time and place outside of the children's presence.

b. Each parent shall be listed as the minor children's parent on all school records, registration forms, medical records, and any other document with legal importance or other significance.

c. Each parent shall have free and open access to all information regarding the children, including medical records, school records, ecclesiastical records, dental records, information relating to their extracurricular activities, etc. This means, among other things, that both parents shall be fully entitled to contact the children's schools, doctors, therapists, daycare providers, church leaders, etc. to obtain information about the children. Each parent shall be obligated to execute any releases necessary to allow the other parent access to such records relating to their minor children.

d. The parents shall be able to alter their parent-time schedule as they agree, because such changes are preferable to seeking judicial resolution of issues. In developing and coordinating schedules, the parents shall be guided by the objective of allowing each parent to develop and maintain a meaningful relationship with the children, providing the children with a stable environment, accommodating the children's school and other schedules, and cooperating to accommodate both parents' employment schedules. If one parent needs to travel for work, the other parent will be reasonable and accommodating regarding the schedule.

e. Each parent shall be obligated to provide the other with his/her current address, telephone number, and email address, and to notify the other of any changes thereto within 24 hours.

f. The parents shall minimize disruption of the children's attendance at school and other activities, their daily routines, and their associations with friends. Absent a written agreement between the parents otherwise, regular school hours shall not be interrupted for parent-time.

g. Each parent shall provide all surrogate care providers (babysitters, nannies, etc.) with the name, current address, and telephone number of the other parent, and shall provide the other parent with the name, current address, and telephone number of all surrogate care providers.

h. The parents shall be civil and polite in all of their communications with one another, and shall avoid profanity, rudeness, and name-calling. The parents' communications shall focus on the children, and shall avoid personal attacks or dredging up the past.

i. Each parent shall have the children ready to be picked up or dropped off on time at the appointed hour.

j. The parents shall be prohibited from directly or indirectly using the children as a means of communicating with each other or otherwise placing the children in the middle of any disputes between the parents.

k. The parents shall be prohibited from disparaging one another to the children or in the children's presence, or allowing others to do the same. The parents shall remove the children from the presence of any third party who is disparaging the other parent to or in front of the children. The parents are prohibited from disparaging or otherwise making negative remarks about one another on social media or other public platforms.

l. Each parent is entitled to reasonable, unmonitored, and uncensored telephone, text message, email, and virtual contact with the children when they are with the other parent. Neither parent may record any communications between the children and the other parent.

m. Each parent shall notify the other parent within 24 hours of receiving notice of all significant school, social, sports, community, extracurricular, and church functions in which a child is participating or being honored, and the other parent shall be entitled to attend and participate fully.

n. Each parent shall be entitled to make decisions regarding the day-to-day care and control of the children while that parent is exercising parent-time. If an emergency arises, the parent exercising parent-time shall have the authority to make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the children. That said, the parent exercising parent-time during an emergency shall use his/her best efforts to inform the other parent of the emergency and to advise and consult with the other parent regarding emergency medical treatment of the children.

o. The parents shall advise and consult with one another regarding the children's emotional and physical health and non-emergency medical, dental, and psychological treatment for the children, including the selection of professionals and procedures. The parents shall advise and consult with one another regarding the children's schooling and daycare.

p. The parents shall make good faith best efforts to come to agreement on major decisions for the children, and if they cannot agree on a major decision regarding the children, they shall use their good faith best efforts to attend mediation prior to any court hearing. If the parents cannot agree on a mediator, one shall be appointed by the Court. The parents shall equally share the cost of the mediator's fee. Any agreements reached at mediation shall be reduced to writing, and a copy given to each parent. If a parent abuses or frustrates this dispute resolution process without good cause, the Court should award reasonable attorney fees, costs, and other financial sanctions to the other parent.

q. If either party intends to move out of Utah or more than 150 miles away from the other parent's home, the moving party must give at least 60 days advance written notice and otherwise must follow the statutory guidelines set forth in Utah Code Section 81-9-209. The parties have agreed that it is in the best interest of their minor children to continue residing in Utah.

r. Whenever a party travels outside Utah or overnight with one or both of the children, all of the following must be provided to the other party in advance of the travel: (a) an itinerary of travel dates, (b) addresses of destinations, (c) places where the children and traveling parent can be reached, and (d) if the traveling parent is not going to be reachable per their usual contact information, the name and telephone number of an available third person who has knowledge of the children's location.

s. Each party shall be entitled to equal access to and authority to use the children's passports. The parent who needs the passport for a valid purpose (e.g., travel or identification) may keep the passport in his or her possession until the other parent needs it for a valid purpose. The passport shall not be unreasonably withheld from either parent. Each party shall cooperate with the other parent to renew or replace the passport, and equally share the cost thereof.

8. Child Support. Child Support is as follows.

a. Base Child Support. Base child support is calculated according to Utah Code Section 81-6-101 et seq. Silvia is treated as having 183 overnights and Clayton 182 overnights each year. Clayton's gross monthly income is $9,689. Silvia's gross monthly income is $5,227. Clayton shall pay Silvia base child support in the amount of $390 per month beginning September 1, 2026. Base child support is due and payable in two installment payments, one-half on the 5th day of each month and one-half on the 20th day of each month. The income of the party paying base child support is subject to immediate

b. Future Adjustments. The amount of base child support may be adjusted or modified pursuant to the provisions of Utah Code Section 81-6-212. Support of each child terminates at the time and shall automatically adjust when a child: (1) becomes 18 years old or graduates from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later; (2) passes away, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States; or (3) is emancipated in accordance with Title 80, Chapter 7, Emancipation.

c. Health Insurance. Clayton shall maintain health and dental insurance for the minor children unless the parties agree otherwise in writing. Clayton shall provide verification of coverage to Silvia upon initial enrollment of the minor children and within 7 days of learning of any changes to coverage. So long as Clayton does not involuntarily lose his current employment, he alone shall pay 100% of the children's health and dental insurance premiums, without reimbursement from Silvia.

d. Non-covered Medical Expenses. The parents shall equally share the cost of the children's non-covered medical expenses (e.g., co-pays, prescriptions, and other expenses not covered by insurance) in accordance with Utah Code Section 81-6-208, as follows: Each parent is ordered to equally share all reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical expenses incurred for the child, including deductibles and co-payments. A parent who incurs medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment, and within 30 days of receiving verification the other parent must reimburse the first parent

50% of the expense. In addition to any other sanctions provided by the Court, a parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply with the 30-day notice requirement set forth here. For purposes of this paragraph, "medical" includes dental expenses too.

e. Childcare. Each party shall be responsible for any childcare costs incurred during his or her parent-time, if any, without reimbursement from the other party.

f. School Fees. The parties shall equally divide and be responsible for all required school fees charged by the minor children's public schools.

g. Extracurricular Activities. The parties shall share equally in the cost of extracurricular activities, summer camps, and other activities that the parties have agreed upon in advance and in writing. Neither parent may sign up the children for events or activities occurring during the other parent's parent-time absent a written agreement in advance. The parent exercising parent-time during an agreed-upon activity shall take the children to and from the agreed upon activity. For activities not agreed upon, a parent shall not be obligated to take the children on his or her parent-time, and shall not be obligated to contribute to the cost.

9. Real Property. The parties own multiple pieces of real property which are divided as follows:

a. 1930 S. 150 W., Bountiful, Utah is awarded to Silvia. There is a mortgage (approximate balance $147,000 currently with Roundpoint Mortgage) and a HELOC (approximate balance $220,000 currently with Utah First C.U.) encumbering this property, both in both parties' names. The HELOC is composed of five loans. Silvia shall pay on time and be entirely responsible for the mortgage and one of the five HELOC loans (approximate balance $61,700) and Clayton shall pay on time and be entirely responsible for the other four HELOC loans (approximate total balance $158,400, broken down as follows: two loans each with an approximate balance of $46,800, one loan with an approximate balance of $35,000, and one loan with an approximate balance of $29,800). Both parties are prohibited from increasing any of the indebtedness on the property, and to the extent either party has incurred more debt on the HELOC that party shall make the other party whole for the same. Clayton shall sign and deliver to Silvia a quitclaim deed conveying his interest in this property within seven days following entry of the Decree of Divorce. Silvia shall cause Clayton's name to be removed from the mortgage (whether through assumption, refinance, or otherwise retiring the mortgage) within 12 months following entry of the Decree of Divorce, and if she does not do so, Clayton shall be entitled to a court order compelling the immediate sale of the property.

b. 3085 W. Don Salvador Ave., Taylorsville, Utah is awarded to Clayton.

c. 5127 S. 4180 W., Kearns, Utah is awarded to Clayton.

d. Regarding each piece of real property listed above, the party to which it is awarded shall likewise be awarded all equity associated therewith, and that party alone shall be entirely responsible for paying in full and on time all expenses and liabilities associated with that piece of real property, including, but not limited to, debt, taxes, homeowner's insurance, utilities, maintenance, and repairs, without reimbursement from the other party.

e. 670 S. 200 E., Farmington, Utah shall be sold pursuant to the lease-to-buy agreement already in place between Clayton and the current tenant occupying the property. Per that lease-to-buy agreement, the sale price shall be equal to the amount remaining on the mortgage at the time of the purchase. The parties shall equally split any net proceeds, which both parties understand should be zero. The parties do not anticipate any closing costs, but in the event there are, either the tenant/purchaser will cover them, or the parties will equally divide them. There is no real estate agent to be paid regarding this anticipated sale.

f. In the event Silvia's name is on the title to the Taylorsville or Kearns properties, she shall sign and deliver to Clayton any necessary quitclaim deeds conveying her interest in each property within 7 days following a reasonable request from Clayton.

g. The parties own real property in Nicaragua which they shall cooperate to equally divide within 90 days following entry of this Decree of Divorce.

10. Businesses. Mombacho LLC and La Gran Sultana LLC is awarded to Clayton.

11. Motor Vehicles. Clayton is awarded the 2024 Toyota RAV4 Prime. Silvia is awarded the 2015 Toyota Sienna. The parties shall cooperate to sign transfers of title to carry out the above division of motor vehicles within 7 days following entry of the Decree of Divorce. Each party shall be solely responsible for paying the debts and all expenses associated with their respective vehicles.

12. Banking & Financial Accounts. Each party is awarded all banking and financial accounts, including investments and stocks, that are in his or her individual name. More specifically, Clayton is awarded his accounts at America First C.U. (-2373, -4783, -7754, and -8947), Navy Federal C.U. -5892, Spectrum C.U. -6852, Utah First C.U. -7723, Via Benefits, and OANDA Corp. Within 7 days following entry of the Decree of Divorce, the parties shall equally divide all banking accounts in the parties' joint names (i.e., Utah First C.U. -4783, Chase -8208, USAA -7392, Capital One -7551) and then close these accounts.

13. Retirement Accounts & Benefits. Each party is awarded all of his or her retirement accounts and any retirement benefits. More specifically, Silvia is awarded her retirement account and benefits at Utah Retirement Systems, and Clayton is awarded his retirement accounts and benefits at Equity Trust Co., Willis Towers Watson Pension Plan, Empower, and Victory Funds. To the extent either party has taken out a loan against a retirement account or benefit, that party alone shall be responsible for the same. From his largest retirement account (401(k) at Empower -4869), Clayton shall transfer $33,036 to Silvia pursuant to a suitable QDRO. Silvia's counsel shall take primary responsibility for preparing the QDRO, and Clayton's counsel shall be responsive and cooperative with any edits and getting it approved by the Court.

14. Alimony. Both parties have acknowledged and agreed that they are capable of supporting themselves and do not need alimony. No alimony is awarded, and both parties forever waive any claim for alimony against the other party, whether for past, present, or future alimony.

15. Personal Property.

- a. Clayton is awarded the Yamaha C7 Grand Piano.
- b. Silvia is awarded the pets.
- c. Each party is awarded his/her own clothing, jewelry, medications, books, personal electronic devices, and other personal effects that are clearly his vs. hers.
- d. The parties shall cooperate to equally divide the parties' other joint personal property located in Nicaragua.

e. The parties shall cooperate with each other in good faith to equally divide the rest of their furniture, appliances, art, and other items of personal property in a fair and reasonable manner. Clayton shall provide Silvia with digital access to, or copies of, all family photographs and videos, including all those stored in Clayton's Apple Photo albums containing images of the children. Silvia shall provide Clayton with digital access to, or copies of, all family photographs and videos, including all those stored in Silvia's Apple Photo albums containing images of the children. The parties shall cooperate to divide their personal property within 45 days following entry of the Decree of Divorce, and if they are unable to do so, they shall participate in mediation to complete the division of personal property.

f. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Silvia will allow the Yamaha C7 Grand Piano to remain in her home for up to 18 months following entry of the Decree of Divorce, and Clayton may retrieve it at any time upon providing Silvia at least one week reasonable advance notice. Clayton shall be responsible for any and all costs of maintaining and transporting the Grand Piano. Within a month following Clayton taking the Grand Piano, he shall provide Silvia with a suitable substitute piano at his own expense that cannot be dirt cheap but need not be new or expensive, but something that Clayton himself would be comfortable playing.

16. Income Tax Dependency Exemption. Starting with tax year 2026, the parties shall equally share the minor children respecting the dependency tax exemption. For odd-numbered tax years, so long as there are three children, Silvia may claim the dependency tax exemption for the younger two children, and Clayton may claim the dependency tax exemption for the oldest child provided Clayton is current on his base child support obligation as of December 31 of the tax year in question. For even-numbered tax years, so long as there are three children, Silvia may claim the dependency tax exemption for the youngest child, and Clayton may claim the dependency tax exemption for the older two children provided Clayton is current on his base child support obligation as of December 31 of the tax year in question. So long as there are two children, Silvia may claim the dependency tax exemption for the younger child, and Clayton may claim the dependency tax exemption for the older child provided Clayton is current on his base child support obligation as of December 31 of the tax year in question. When only one child is eligible to be claimed for the dependency tax exemption, the parties shall alternate claiming that child each year, with Silvia claiming that child for odd-numbered tax years and Clayton claiming that child for even-numbered tax years, provided he is current on his base child support obligation as of December 31 of the tax year in question. The parties may deviate from the terms of this paragraph provided they agree in advance in a signed written agreement.

17. Bank of America. Clayton alone is solely responsible for the Bank of America credit card debt, which has an approximate balance of $13,800, and which already is in his name alone.

18. Other Debts. Except as otherwise provided herein, each party alone shall pay and be entirely responsible for any and all credit cards and any and all other debts that are in his or her own individual name. Each party is prohibited from increasing any joint or marital debts. Respecting any other debts not described herein, they shall be the sole responsibility of the party who incurred the debt. If either party has incurred debts in the other party's name without the other party's knowledge, the person creating the debt shall be solely responsible for that debt. Regarding any debts and/or other obligations assigned to one party under the terms hereof, he or she alone shall be responsible for the same, and shall defend, indemnify against liability, indemnify against loss, and hold harmless the other party from the same. Both parties are entitled to provide notice to creditors respecting the division of debts between the parties, including a copy of the Agreement and this final divorce decree and findings of fact and conclusions of law.

19. Responsibility for Assets. Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, as to any and all assets awarded to a party under the terms hereof (including, but not limited to, real estate, motor vehicles, personal belongings, etc.), that party alone shall be fully responsible for any and all costs, liabilities, and/or obligations associated with such assets, including, but not limited to, debts, insurance costs, taxes, repairs, maintenance, upkeep, registration fees, etc., and he/she shall be ordered to defend, indemnify against liability, indemnify against loss, and hold harmless the other party from the same.

20. Cooperation. The parties are obligated to cooperate with each other and to perform in good faith all acts necessary to carry out the terms hereof. Each party shall sign and deliver to the other, in a timely manner, any and all documents reasonably necessary to carry out the terms hereof.

21. Legal Fees. Each party shall pay his or her own attorney fees and legal costs incurred herein through the date of entry of this final Decree of Divorce.

22. Default. If either party defaults in his/her obligations stated herein, the party in default shall be liable to the other party for all reasonable expenses, including reasonable attorney fees and court costs, incurred in the enforcement of the obligations created by this document.

23. Full Disclosure. Each party represents and warrants that he/she has fully and completely disclosed to the other party all of his/her assets and liabilities of every kind and nature known to him or her, that the terms here encompass and address all such assets and liabilities, and that there are no assets or liabilities that have not been disclosed in connection with the final settlement of this divorce matter. In the event one party has concealed any marital assets from the other party in the course of this divorce proceeding, the other party shall be entitled to reopen this divorce matter for the limited purpose of the other party being awarded the entirety of the concealed asset(s), and shall be entitled to recover his/her attorney fees and costs incurred in such action.

24. Miscellany. This document shall be governed by Utah law in all respects, and any references to Utah statute herein shall mean the Utah Code in effect as of the date of entry of this Decree of Divorce. Both parties and their legal counsel have contributed to the drafting of this document and therefore neither party may legitimately argue that any ambiguities are to be construed against a supposed drafter. The Agreement, this Decree of Divorce, and the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law shall be binding upon each of the parties and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns.

25. Full Settlement. The terms stated herein fully and finally resolve this divorce matter. The terms set forth herein shall affect a full and complete settlement of all claims and rights in dispute between the parties as of the date of entry of this Decree of Divorce, and shall supersede any prior oral or written agreements between them. Each party represented and warranted that he/she: acknowledged that this compromise settlement fully and fairly divides the marital estate; conducted all discovery that he/she wished to conduct and was satisfied that he/she had adequate information to settle this case; carefully read and understood the terms stated above in this document and had ample opportunity to discuss the terms hereof with independent legal counsel of his/her own choosing; intended and agreed to be bound by the terms stated in this document of his/her own free will and volition (free from duress, coercion, or undue influence of any kind); and otherwise agreed that all of the above terms are fair, equitable, and reasonable.

26. Final Order. This Decree of Divorce is a final order, fully and finally resolving this divorce action.
