Attorney for Petitioner

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT – FARMINGTON
IN AND FOR DAVIS COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the matter of the marriage of: HANNAH AREVALO, Petitioner, and ANTONIO AREVALO, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No. 264700997 Judge: Michael D. DiReda Commissioner: Cristina Wilson

Petitioner, Hannah Arevalo (“Hannah” or “Petitioner”), commenced this divorce action against Respondent, Antonio Arevalo (“Antonio” or “Respondent”) with the filing of her Petition for Divorce on July 14, 2026. The Court has received the parties’ written Settlement Agreement filed on August 13, 2026 (“the Agreement”), which resolves all pending issues between the parties. The Court, having also received Petitioner’s Declaration of Jurisdiction and Grounds and entered Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and having reviewed the file in this matter and being otherwise fully advised, hereby ORDERS, ADJUDGES and DECREES as follows:

Parties, Child, Jurisdiction and Venue

1. Hannah and Antonio are husband and wife, having been married in Los Angeles County, State of California on November 23, 2012.

2. Each party is a bona fide resident of Davis County, State of Utah and has been for all of the three consecutive months immediately preceding the commencement of this divorce action. The parties lived together as husband and wife in Davis County, State of Utah prior to their separation. This Court has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this case, and venue properly lies in this Court.

3. The parties are the natural parents of three (3) minor children, J.A., born 12/2/2011, N.A., born 08/31/2013, and E.A., born 06/04/2018.

4. The parties' children have lived in Utah for all of the six consecutive months immediately preceding the commencement of this divorce action. Petitioner is not pregnant, and no additional children are expected to be born as issue of this marriage. Utah is the children's home state under the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction & Enforcement Act and the Uniform Interstate Family Support Act. Utah is the children's place of habitual residence under the Hague Convention of 25 October 1980 on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction. Utah has jurisdiction over child custody, parent-time, and child support issues in this case.

5. Petitioner seeks a divorce on the grounds of irreconcilable differences pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-4-405(h).

Custody and Parent-time

6. Petitioner shall be awarded sole legal custody of the minor children.

7. Petitioner shall be awarded sole physical custody of the minor children with Respondent having parent-time as the parties can agree. In the event of no agreement, Respondent shall exercise parent-time pursuant to the default parent-time schedule found in Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-302.

8. Petitioner's residence shall be designated as the primary residence of the parties' minor children

Legal Custody and Parenting Plan

9. Petitioner shall be awarded sole legal custody, but in the event that the Court orders joint legal custody of the minor children, the parties shall be subject to the following Parenting Plan:

Decisions Regarding Raising the Children

10. Petitioner shall have final decision-making authority regarding all major decisions involving the minor children's health, medical care, education, religious participation, and extracurricular activities. Petitioner is not required to consult with Respondent prior to making these decisions but shall notify Respondent in writing within forty-eight (48) hours of any major decision being finalized.

11. The parties agree that the children shall continue to be homeschooled with Petitioner having final decision making on if and/or when they shall transition to a traditional school within Petitioner's residential boundary. In the event that Petitioner determines in the future that homeschooling is no longer in the children's best interests, Petitioner shall have the sole right to enroll the children in a public, charter, or private school of Petitioner's choosing, and shall notify Respondent of the change in writing within forty-eight (48) hours of enrollment.

12. Day-to-day decisions regarding the routine care, control, and discipline of the child shall be made by the parent with physical custody of the child at the time.

13. However, all day-to-day decisions, care, and environments provided by the Respondent shall strictly conform to and support the major legal decisions made by Petitioner. Respondent shall not introduce the children to, nor engage them in, any religious practices, medical treatments, educational paths, or extracurricular activities that conflict with the Petitioner's established decisions, nor make any lifestyle or household changes that disrupt the children's primary routine or well-being.

14. In the event of a medical emergency, the parent with physical custody of the child shall have the authority to make decisions regarding the health and safety of the child. That parent shall notify the other parent immediately, and in no event later than two (2) hours after the emergency arises. All follow-up or non-emergency care shall defer to Petitioner pursuant to her final decision making authority.

Romantic Relationships and Overnight Visits

15. Both parties shall maintain a safe and stable residence for the children during all scheduled overnight parenting time. The residence shall include appropriate sleeping accommodations for each child and shall be free from unreasonable safety hazards, including, but not limited to, firearms or other weapons that are not securely stored.

16. If the Respondent is unable to provide such accommodations or maintain a safe environment, the children shall return to the Petitioner's residence for overnight hours. No overnight parenting time shall occur until Respondent is able to provide appropriate accommodations and a safe living environment.

17. Respondent shall not introduce the children to a significant other, romantic partner, or person with whom they are involved in a dating relationship unless the relationship has been exclusive and ongoing for at least six (6) consecutive months. Before any introduction to the children, Respondent shall first introduce the significant other to Petitioner.

18. Respondent shall not permit a significant other, romantic partner, or paramour to remain overnight in the same residence as the children during Respondent's parenting time unless the parties mutually agree in writing.

19. Both parents shall exercise reasonable discretion in exposing the children to new relationships and shall prioritize the children's emotional well-being, stability, and best interests.

Holidays

20. Petitioner shall be awarded all holiday parent time.

21. Respondent shall be awarded holiday parent time only as the parties agree in writing.

22. Respondent explicitly waives any right to a default statutory holiday schedule.

23. Holiday parent time shall take absolute priority over the regular, rotating, or default parent-time schedules.

24. Any make-up parent-time is subject to mutual agreement between the parties and shall be documented in writing

Relocation Parent-Time

25. Prior to relocating more than 150 miles from the other party, the relocating parent shall provide written notice to the other parent at least 90 days before the day on which the relocating parent intends to relocate. The written notice shall conform with the requirements of Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-209(3).

26. If the parties cannot agree to a written relocation parent-time schedule, the parties shall attend mediation to agree on a parent-time schedule with the parties splitting the cost of mediation equally.

27. Until the parties can attend mediation and agree on a parent-time schedule in writing, the parties' parent-time shall be as described herein in paragraph 7.

Uninterrupted Summer Parent-time

28. Uninterrupted summer parent-time shall be governed by Utah Code § 81-9-302, subject to the following terms, which shall take priority over the statute.

29. Petitioner shall have priority for the election of her uninterrupted summer parent-time in all years. Petitioner shall make her selection in writing to Respondent by April 1 of year. Respondent may select his uninterrupted summer parent-time by April 15, provided that Respondent's selection does not conflict with Petitioner's chosen dates and conforms to the lifestyle protections established in this parenting plan. If Respondent fails to make a selection by April 15, approval of any subsequent selections by Respondent shall be at the Petitioner's sole discretion, but Petitioner shall not unreasonably deny Respondent's selection but-for good cause.

Parent-Time Exchanges

30. Petitioner's residence shall be where all parent-time exchanges take place.

31. Both parents shall be polite and cordial and behave maturely during exchanges of the children.

32. The parents shall also prepare the children, both mentally and physically, for each parent-time exchange by having the children packed and ready to leave on time, and by encouraging the children to spend time with the other parent.

Virtual Parent-Time

33. The parent with whom the minor children are not residing shall have the right to reasonable, regular, unimpeded telephone or virtual access (such as FaceTime, Zoom, or Skype) with the children.

34. While the children are with the Respondent, Petitioner shall have the right to a minimum of one (1) daily phone or virtual call with the children.

35. While the children are with the Petitioner, Respondent shall have the right to one (1) daily phone or virtual call with the children.

36. All phone and virtual access shall be private and unmonitored.

37. The parent exercising physical custody shall not listen to, interrupt, record, or censor the communication.

38. Both parties shall ensure that a functional, charged electronic device is made available to the children at the designated call time, and shall cooperate fully in facilitating these calls.

Communication Between Parties

39. Neither party shall ask or attempt in any way to have the child transfer messages between the Parties, whether verbal or written. The Parties shall contact each other directly via text message to discuss personal or child-related issues between themselves and shall not involve the child. If a party asks a question by text message regarding the child, the other party shall respond within twenty-four (24) hours. Communication shall be between the Parties and not through third parties, except in the case of a bona fide medical or logistical emergency.

Respect and Cooperation

40. The parties shall treat each other with civility and respect in all communications, especially in the presence of the child. In addition:

- a. Neither parent shall make or allow any third party within their control or influence to make any disparaging, negative, or derogatory comments about the other parent, the other parent's household, or their family members within the hearing or sight of the minor children, including any such posts on social media platforms.
- b. Clothing, toys, and the children's personal effects shall accompany the children to all parent-time exchanges. Each party shall return all such personal property to the other party at the conclusion of parent-time in a clean and undamaged condition.

Contact Information

41. Each party shall keep the other informed in writing of any changes in their physical residential addresses, employment address, personal cell phone numbers, and email addresses within forty-eight (48) hour of the change.

Extended Overnight Trips

42. If Respondent intends to travel with the minor children more than two-hundred (200) miles from the Petitioner's residence overnight or out of the State of Utah during his parent-time, Respondent shall provide Petitioner with a detailed written itinerary at least fourteen (14) days prior to departure. This requirement does not apply to travel directly related to the children's regularly scheduled school, extracurricular or religious activities. The itinerary shall include:

- a. The dates and times of departure and return;
- b. The flight numbers and commercial carrier details (if applicable);
- c. The complete physical address and telephone number of each location where the children shall sleep; and
- d. The name and phone number of any third-party adults accompanying the children or hosting the stay.

Activities, Event, and Information

43. Both parties shall be entitled to independent access to the children's school, medical, and dental records directly from the providers, and may attend public school or extracurricular functions.

Illness

44. The parent exercising parent-time shall notify the other parent if the child develops a contagious illness, a fever exceeding 100.4°F, or requires medical attention. A child's routine illness shall not suspend or cancel scheduled parent-time unless both parties mutually agree in writing; routine parent-time shall proceed as scheduled, and the exercising parent shall administer all prescribed medications and follow all care instructions provided by the Petitioner.

Non-Interference with Parent-Time

45. Neither parent shall schedule activities or make promises to the children that encroach upon or conflict with the other parent's scheduled parent-time without prior written consent.

Surrogate Care

46. If Respondent is unable to personally provide care for the minor children during his scheduled parent-time, he shall immediately notify Petitioner in writing and offer Petitioner the first opportunity to care for the children.

47. Petitioner shall have two (2) hours from the time of the notification to accept or decline the care of the children. If Petitioner accepts, Respondent shall safely facilitate the transfer of the children.

48. If Petitioner declines or is unavailable, Respondent shall arrange for a trusted, adult family member to care for the children.

49. Under no circumstances shall Respondent utilize romantic partners, girlfriends, casual acquaintances, or non-family third parties to babysit or care for the minor children.

Child Care

50. The parties shall split childcare costs pursuant to URCP § 81-6-209.

Adjustments or Modifications

51. All permanent adjustments or modifications to this Parenting Plan shall be made in writing, signed by both Parties, notarized, and filed with the Court. Temporary single-instance deviations from the parent-time schedule shall only be valid if agreed upon by both parties in writing at least forty-eight (48) hours in advance.

Failure to Comply

52. If a parent fails to comply with any of the provisions set forth above under this Parenting Plan, the other parent's obligations under said section shall not be affected.

[End Parenting Plan]

Child Support

53. For purposes of this Stipulation and the child support guidelines, the parties stipulate that Petitioner's gross monthly income is $11,250 and Respondent's gross monthly income is $2,500.

54. Consistent with the award of sole physical custody to Petitioner, the parties have prepared and shall file with the Court a Sole Custody Child Support Obligation Worksheet in compliance with Utah Child Support Act, Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-101 et seq. Applying the child support guidelines to the incomes stipulated above, the base child support award for the parties' three (3) minor children would require Respondent to pay Petitioner $425 per month (the "Guideline Amount").

55. The parties stipulate, and request that the Court find and order, that the monthly base child support obligation of Respondent shall be set at $30 per month. The parties expressly acknowledge that this is a deviation from the child support guidelines within the meaning of Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-202(2) through (5), and that the stipulated amount is less than the base child support award required by the guidelines and therefore is not adequate under § 81-6-202(9) absent the findings requested below. The parties request that the Court: (a) enter a written finding that the order is a deviation from the child support guidelines pursuant to § 81-6-202(4)(a); and (b) approve the accompanying worksheet, on which the deviation box is checked and the reason for the deviation is stated, pursuant to § 81-6-202(4)(b).

56. The parties stipulate, and request that the Court find on the record and in writing, that requiring an award in the Guideline Amount would be unjust, inappropriate, and not in the best interest of the minor children in this particular case, within the meaning of Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-202(3)(a), for the following reasons, which correspond to the factors enumerated at § 81-6-202(6):

a. Relative wealth and income of the parties; ability of the obligee to earn. § 81-6-202(6)(b), (d). Petitioner's gross monthly income of $11,250 substantially exceeds Respondent's gross monthly income of $2,500. Petitioner is stably employed, fully self-supporting, and possesses income and earning capacity sufficient to meet all of the minor children's reasonable needs without any transfer payment from Respondent.

b. Standard of living and situation of the parties; needs of the children. § 81-6-202(6)(a), (f). The minor children reside with Petitioner, who is awarded sole legal and sole physical custody. The children shall continue to reside in the Marital Home, which is awarded to Petitioner, and shall continue to be homeschooled under Petitioner's direction. Petitioner shall continue to provide the children's housing, food, clothing, transportation, health and dental insurance, homeschool curriculum, and extracurricular activities, subject to the below terms concerning the sharing of child-related expenses. The deviation shall not reduce the children's standard of living in any respect, and the children's needs are and shall remain fully met.

c. Ability of the obligor to earn; Respondent's assumption of the marital debt. § 81-6-202(6)(c), (f). Under this Agreement, Respondent assumes sole responsibility for all marital debts, obligations, and liabilities as set forth in paragraph 91 below. That allocation is a material departure from an equal division of the marital debt and materially reduces the income available to Respondent for the support of himself and the children during his parent-time. Requiring Respondent to pay the Guideline Amount in addition to servicing the entirety of the marital debt would exceed his ability to pay and would place the marital obligations at risk of default.

d. Respondent's direct contribution to the children's expenses. § 81-6-202(6)(f). Notwithstanding the deviation, Respondent remains obligated under this Agreement to pay directly: (i) one-half (50%) of all reasonable and necessary uninsured and out-of-pocket medical, dental, vision, orthodontia, prescription, and psychological therapy expenses for the minor children, in compliance with Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-208; (ii) beginning January 1, 2031, one-half (50%) of the children's per capita share of the monthly health and dental insurance premium; (iii) beginning with the 2029–2030 school year, one-half (50%) of all mandatory school fees, homeschool curriculum costs, and mandatory testing fees; (iv) one-half (50%) of work-related child care expenses in compliance with Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-209; and (v) one-half (50%) of the cost of all extracurricular activities to which the parties agree in writing. These direct obligations constitute a substantial and continuing contribution to the support of the minor children and materially offset the deviation.

e. Preservation of parent-time and suitable housing. § 81-6-202(6)(f). Under the Parenting Plan, Respondent must maintain a separate residence containing appropriate sleeping accommodations for each of the three (3) minor children as a condition of exercising overnight parent-time. Setting base support at $30 preserves Respondent's ability to maintain that residence and to exercise the parent-time contemplated by this Agreement. The parties stipulate that the children's continued relationship with Respondent, and Respondent's ability to house them safely, is of greater benefit to the children than a transfer payment to a custodial household that does not require it.

f. Ages of the parties; responsibilities for the support of others. § 81-6-202(6)(g), (h). Petitioner is 47 years of age and Respondent is 43 years of age. Neither party has a legal responsibility for the support of any child other than the three (3) minor children in common, and neither party requests that the Court apply Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-202(7) or (8).

57. The parties expressly represent and stipulate that the foregoing deviation is not consideration for, and was not bargained in exchange for, any award of custody, parent-time, alimony, or property under this Agreement. Each parent's support obligation has been evaluated independently, by reference to the minor children's actual needs and each parent's actual ability to meet them. No parent has conditioned custody or parent-time on the child support terms.

58. The parties acknowledge and agree that child support is a right belonging to the minor children and not to either parent, that neither parent may contract away or permanently waive the children's right to support, and that this Agreement shall not be construed as a release, waiver, or extinguishment of that right. The Court retains continuing jurisdiction over child support notwithstanding this Agreement.

59. The parties further acknowledge that if either party applies for or receives public assistance on behalf of the minor children, the Office of Recovery Services may seek the establishment, adjustment, or enforcement of a child support obligation notwithstanding this Agreement, and that neither party's stipulation binds the State of Utah.

60. The parties acknowledge that because the ordered amount differs from the worksheet amount by $10.00 or more, the order is a deviated order under Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-202(5)(a), and that pursuant to § 81-6-202(5)(b) the incomes listed on the worksheet may not be used in adjusting support for emancipation as described in § 81-6-213. The parties further acknowledge that the three-year adjustment procedure under Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-212(1) and (2) is unavailable while the order remains deviated, because that procedure requires that the amount previously ordered not deviate from the child support guidelines.

61. The base child support obligation of each parent shall remain $30 per month as each child emancipates, without automatic adjustment, subject only to modification as provided below. The parties' respective obligations to share the children's direct expenses as set forth in this Agreement shall continue as to each child through the end of the month in which that child attains eighteen (18) years of age, or through the end of the month of that child's normal and expected date of graduation from high school, whichever occurs later.

62. Any child support that becomes payable by an obligor parent shall be paid on the first day of each month, or, at the election of the obligor parent, by paying one-half of the amount due not later than the fifth (5th) day of each month and the remaining one-half not later than the twentieth (20th) day of each month.

Extracurricular Activity and School Fees

63. Petitioner shall have the sole and exclusive authority to enroll the minor children in extracurricular activities and educational programs.

64. Petitioner shall be solely responsible for all homeschooling fees and costs for the 2027-2028 and the 2028-2029 school year.

65. Beginning for the 2029-2030 school year, the parties shall equally share all mandatory school fees, homeschool curriculum costs, and mandatory testing fees. Respondent shall reimburse Petitioner within ten (10) days of receiving an invoice.

66. The Parties shall share equally any expenses related to extracurricular activities that they both agree to in writing.

67. In the event that Respondent refuses to agree to an activity selected by the Petitioner, Petitioner shall pay for the costs of the activity, and Respondent shall cooperate fully by ensuring the children attend the activity if it falls during his parent-time.

Health Insurance and Medical/Dental Expenses

68. Petitioner shall maintain health and dental insurance coverage for the minor children for as long as Petitioner has access to an insurance plan through employment or another reasonable group policy. Petitioner shall be responsible for all monthly premiums until December 31, 2030.

69. Starting January 1, 2031, the children's per capita share of the monthly insurance premium shall be split equally (50/50) between the Parties. Respondent shall reimburse Petitioner for 50% of the children's portion of the premium expense on the first day of each month. Petitioner shall provide written verification of the annual premium costs to Respondent by January 2nd of each calendar year.

70. All reasonable and necessary uninsured and out-of-pocket medical, dental, vision, orthodontia, prescription, and psychological therapy expenses incurred for the minor children shall be divided equally (50/50) between the Parties.

71. The parent who incurs the out-of-pocket expense shall provide written verification (receipts or insurance explanations of benefits) to the other parent within thirty (30) days of payment. The reimbursing parent shall pay their 50% share within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification. Failure to provide verification within thirty (30) days may result in a forfeiture of the right to seek reimbursement for that specific expense.

72. If neither party has access to affordable health care insurance, neither party shall be required to maintain health insurance coverage for the minor children.

73. If, at any point in time, the dependent child covered by the health or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health or dental insurance plan of Petitioner shall be primary coverage for the dependent child, and the health or dental insurance plan of Respondent shall be secondary coverage for the dependent child. Regardless of double coverage, Respondent shall be required to reimburse Petitioner for the children's pro rata share of insurance coverage provided under Petitioner's policies. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent child is not covered by that parent's health or dental insurance plan but are by a step-parent's plan, the health or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent child.

74. Double coverage shall not in any event be required unless it results in a financial benefit to both Parties. The requirement for either party to maintain health and dental insurance, and/or to pay any non-covered medical and dental expenses shall remain in effect for a child only as long as the child is of the age that he or she would be entitled to receive child support.

Taxes

75. Commencing with the 2026 tax year, Petitioner shall file "married filing separate" and she shall claim the three minor children on her tax returns.

76. Commencing with the 2027 tax year, Petitioner shall claim the three minor children on her tax returns every year.

79. Petitioner shall be awarded sole use, ownership, title, and possession of the marital home, and shall be solely responsible for the mortgage on the Marital Home.

80. Respondent shall complete a Quit Claim Deed within thirty (30) days of the Decree of Divorce.

81. Once Respondent has completed the Quit Claim Deed, he shall be awarded his marital share of equity (50%) in the Marital Home.
