14. DISPUTE RESOLUTION: To the extent that they do not otherwise conflict with any of the provisions of this Stipulation, the parties shall abide by the advisory guidelines set forth at UCA §81-9-202. In the event of a conflict between the terms of the Stipulation and the guidelines, the terms of the Stipulation shall govern and take precedence. The parties shall handle decision making regarding the minor children as follows:

- i. Day to day and emergency decisions shall be made by the parent who the child is with at the time. In the event of any emergency involving the child, the other parent shall be notified as soon as reasonably possible.
- ii. The parties shall attempt to reach shared decisions on behalf of the child in connection with all major decisions. The parent who becomes aware of a major decision concerning the child shall notify the other parent upon becoming aware of the issue.
- iii. The parties shall then discuss the issue in an attempt to reach an agreement regarding the decision, and in conjunction with this will consult with a professional or professionals (if applicable) who are qualified in the area of the decision.

If the parties mutually agree upon an activity in writing, then they shall share equally the expenses associated with the activity, transport the child to the activity during their parent time, and allow the child to attend the activity during their parent time. If a parent does not agree to an activity in writing, the other parent may still enroll the child in the activity, however the parent who does not agree with the activity is not responsible to share any expenses related to the activity, is not required to transport the child to the activity and may decline to allow the child to attend the activity during their parent time.

14. SCHOOL FEES: The parties shall equally share all required and mandatory school fees for the minor children.

15. PHYSICAL CUSTODY: The parties shall have joint physical custody. Parenting time shall be as the parties agree. Danielle shall be the custodial parent for purposes of the holiday schedule. Holiday parenting time will supersede any regular or extended parenting time.

17. EXTENDED SUMMER PARENTING TIME: The parties agree that each party should be entitled to two weeks of uninterrupted parent-time each summer as follows:

1. Each party should make a designation at least 30 days before the day on which their designated two-week period begins.

2. For their uninterrupted parent-time in odd-numbered years, Danielle should provide notice of the dates she elects to exercise her uninterrupted parent-time to Respondent by May 1st; and Taylor should provide notice of the dates he elects to exercise his uninterrupted parent-time to Danielle after receiving her notice of election or after May 1st, whichever is earlier. 3. For the uninterrupted parent-time in even-numbered years, Taylor should provide notice of the dates he elects to exercise his uninterrupted parent-time to Danielle by May 1st. Danielle should provide notice of the dates she elects to exercise his uninterrupted parent-time to Taylor after receiving her notice of election or after May 1st, whichever is earlier. For 2026, Taylor shall elect his two-weeks by June 1, 2026.

4. The parties should not designate their extended summer parent-time in such a way that it interferes with the other party's holiday parent-time or any other already designated parent-time.

5. Failure to designate summer parent-time by the deadlines described herein should not automatically forfeit a party's right to extended summer parent-time. The parties should do their best to accommodate each other's schedules, even when requests are late. Neither party should be required to accommodate a request that is made unreasonably late or made without reasonable notice, but the parties should be as flexible and accommodating as they can in ensuring that the children are able to spend meaningful time with each party during their summer vacations.

18. PARENT-TIME CONFLICT RESOLUTION: When there is a conflict regarding the parent-time schedule, the parties agree to use the following list as a rule-of-thumb for which parent-time takes priority, listed from highest priority to least priority:

19. Holiday parent-time.
20. Extended summer parent-time.
21. Regular parent-time.

21. TRANSPORTATION: Transportation shall be as the parties agree. If the parties are unable to agree, the parent ending their parenting time shall be responsible to drop the child off at daycare or at the other parents' home. The parties shall follow the provisions of the protective order regarding transportation and curbside drop-offs.

22. OVERNIGHT TRAVEL: In the event a parent travels away from their residence overnight with the children, they shall provide the information required by Utah Code Ann. §81-9-202. The parties shall provide as much possible advance notice of their intent to travel.

23. PASSPORTS: Should either party request it, the parties should cooperate in obtaining and renewing passports for their minor children. The party who most recently traveled out of the country with the minor children should hold the children's passports until the other party shows proof that they have taken a substantial step toward booking travel that will require the children's passports. The parties should then exchange the children's passports at the next parent-time exchange or make other arrangements if timing or other considerations make waiting for the next parent-time exchange impracticable.

24. In the event that the party holding the children's passports has already booked international travel involving the children and the children's passports that will occur prior to the plans of the party requesting the passports, the party holding the children's passports should continue to hold the passports until their travel is complete and then should exchange the passports with the requesting party at the subsequent parent-time exchange or as agreed upon by the parties.

25. COMMUNICATION: The parents shall communicate through Our Family Wizard. The parties shall follow the provisions of the protective order regarding communication.

26. CHILD SUPPORT:

1. Danielle's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $1257. Taylor's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $4506. Based on the joint custody worksheet, Taylor shall pay Danielle $875 per month for child support. This amount shall begin on June 1, 2026. If Danielle wants payments made through the Office of Recovery Services, she will be responsible for the associated fee.

2. Past Support- The parties agree that Taylor shall pay Danielle $1800 for past support within 6 months of the signed Decree of Divorce in the amount of $300 per month. The past support payments will be sent to Danielle via check from Taylor's attorney.

3. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for the child will terminate at the time: (1) the child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected date of graduation, whichever occurs later; or (2) the child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated.

4. The child support is payable one-half on the 5th day of each and every month, and one-half on the 20th day of each month. Payment shall be made by electronic transfer to the account Taylor designates.

5. Tax Exemptions- Taylor will claim the oldest child each year and Danielle will claim the youngest child each year. In even years, Taylor will claim the middle child in addition to the oldest child and in odd years, Danielle will claim the middle child in addition to the youngest child. When the oldest child is no longer eligible for the tax benefit, Taylor will claim the middle child each year and Danielle will claim the youngest child. When there is only one child eligible for the tax credit, the parties will alternate claiming that child each year.

6. Out of Pocket Medical- Both parties are responsible providing health insurance for the minor children. Each parent shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the minor child's portion of insurance. The minor child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the minor children shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of minor children in the instant case.

7. If both parties have the children covered on their own insurance plans, then each shall be solely responsible for their own premium expenses.

8. The parent who provides the insurance coverage may receive credit against the base child support award or recover the other parent's share of the minor child's portion of the premium. In cases in which the parent does not have insurance, but another member of the parent's household provides insurance coverage for the minor child, the parent may receive credit against the base child support award or recover the other parent's share of the minor child's portion of the premium.

9. Each parent shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses incurred for the minor children, including but not limited to deductibles and copayments.

10. The parent who is maintaining insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent upon initial enrollment of the minor child, and thereafter on or before January 2 of each calendar year. The parent shall notify the other parent of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within thirty (30) calendar days of the date the parent first knew or should have known of the change.

11. A parent who incurs medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within thirty (30) days of payment with reimbursement to take place within the following thirty (30) days.

12. In addition to any other sanctions provided by the court, a parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply with Subsections (d) and (e) of this paragraph.

13. If, at any point in time, the dependent minor children are covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, Danielle's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan shall be primary coverage for the dependent minor children and Taylor's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan shall be secondary coverage for the minor child. If a parent remarries and the minor children are not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the minor child.

1. CHILD CARE: The parties agree that they will share equally in any work-related daycare cost. A parent who incurs a childcare expense shall provide written verification of the expense and identity of a childcare provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of a provider and thereafter on the request of the other parent.
