PRIVATE RECORD

Attorney for Bodi Anderson

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT IN AND FOR FARMINGTON COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of:
AMANDA CAROL ANDERSON,
Petitioner,

and

BODI CARL ANDERSON,
Respondent.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Case No. 264700225

Judge: Ronald Russell
Commissioner: Julie Winkler

The above-captioned matter has come before this court on Petitioner's Petition for Divorce. Both parties have stipulated to entry of this Decree of Divorce pursuant to the Stipulation for Divorce filed with this court on July 14, 2026. The court, after having reviewed this stipulation and finding the same to be fair, just, and equitable, does HEREBY ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE AS FOLLOWS:

JURISDICTION

1. Petitioner is a bona fide resident of Davis County, State of Utah, and has been for three (3) months immediately prior to the filing of this action in accordance with Utah Code §81-4-402(1). Respondent does not dispute jurisdiction.
2. Petitioner and Respondent are husband and wife, having been married on May 16, 2002, in Lehi, Utah.

GROUND

3. The parties shall be awarded a divorce from one another on the grounds of irreconcilable differences because the parties have been unable to resolve their marital problems, making continuation of the marriage impossible.

CHILDREN

4. The parties have two (2) minor children together. Namely:

- a. W.J.A., born May 2012
- b. J.R.A., born March 2016

5. The parties' minor children have resided in the State of Utah for more than six (6) months prior to the commencement of this action and Utah is the home state of the minor children.

6. The parties do not have knowledge of any custody proceeding concerning the minor children, other than this divorce proceeding, in a court of Utah or any other state or jurisdiction.

7. The parties do not know of any other person not a party to these proceedings who has physical custody of the minor children or who claims to have custody or visitation rights with respect to the minor children.

CUSTODY

8. Legal Custody: Petitioner and Respondent shall each be awarded joint legal custody of the parties' minor children. Each parent may make routine day-to-day decisions during their time with the children. It is anticipated that parental decisions shall be required for major issues in raising the parties' children and in meeting their ongoing needs including, but not limited to, healthcare, education, and religious upbringing. If and when they arise, the parents shall address the issues. Each parent shall give good faith consideration to the views of the other. If the decision involves medical or schooling issues, the parties may further elect to seek input from treating physicians or educators. Both parents shall be provided with such input. If the parties cannot agree upon an appropriate course of action then Amanda shall have the right to make a preliminary tie-breaking decision known to the other parent. If the other parent disagrees with that decision and requests co-parenting therapy, then Amanda shall not act upon the decision except in cases of emergency. The court may waive co-parenting therapy in the event of an emergency.

9. Physical Custody: It is in the best interests of the parties' minor children that the parties be awarded custody and parent-time as follows:

- a. While Bodi lives in Fountain Green, he shall exercise parent-time pursuant to Utah Code §81-9-302.
- b. If Bodi moves within 25 miles of the children's current residence in Layton, he shall exercise parent-time pursuant to Utah Code §81-9-303 so long as the children have beds and appropriate accommodations in his residence.

PARENTING PLAN

10. Holidays: The parties shall exercise holiday parent-time as they may agree, but in the event that they do not agree, holiday parent-time shall be in accordance with Utah Code §81-9- 303, depending on the parent-time Bodi is exercising, as described above, with Amanda being designated as the custodial parent and Bodi being designated as the non-custodial parent.

11. Summer Parent-time: The parties shall each be awarded two-weeks of uninterrupted parent-time during the summer with the minor children. These weeks may be split. Amanda shall have first choice of weeks in even-numbered years and Bodi shall have first choice in odd-numbered years. The party with first choice shall make their selection by the May 1 preceding the summer; if they do not, the other party may make their selection. The party with second choice shall make their selection by May 15. Neither party shall interfere with the others holiday parent-time without permission. The parties may not exercise their 10-day period directly before or after any existing parent-time; accordingly, neither parent shall go more than 2 weeks each summer without seeing the children.

12. School: Unless otherwise agreed upon in writing, the children shall continue to attend their current schools and shall attend the corresponding feeder junior high and high schools. The parties shall ensure the children get to school on time during their parent-time.

13. GENERAL PRINCIPLES.

a. Court Orders Govern: The parties recognize they must follow this Decree and other applicable court orders in this case and that neither party gets to make their own rules at any point.

b. Flexibility in Co-Parenting: The parties understand that flexible co-parenting reduces conflict and creates a healthy environment for the children. Therefore, the parties agree to be reasonably flexible in co-parenting the children.

c. Speaking Positively about the Other Parent: The parties acknowledge that speaking negatively of the other parent only harms and confuses the children. The children view themselves as half of each parent. Therefore, the parties will speak well of the other parent in front of the children. The parties will not malign or speak negatively of the other parent to the children, nor will they speak negatively of the other parent to any third party where there is any risk of the children hearing what is being said. Children do not need to hear about character flaws of the other parent.

d. The Children are Not Tools for Discovery: The parties shall not question the children about each other's personal relationships, financial spending, or otherwise use the children as tools for discovery.

e. The Children are Not Counselors: The parties shall not use the children as confidantes to counsel with about their own personal problems, especially if the problem is related to the other parent.

f. The Children are Not Messengers: The parties shall not use the children as messengers. Any issues that need to be discussed must be discussed between the parties outside the presence of the children.

g. Increased Flexibility as the Children Grow: As the children grow up and mature, their needs and interests will change. The parties will use their best efforts to coordinate with the other parent to ensure the children can engage in those appropriate activities they find most fulfilling. The parties understand that as the children get older they may require more freedom and the parties may need to be more flexible, avoiding placing the children in the middle of a tug-of-war between parents. Nevertheless, absent an agreement between the parties, the parties must follow this Decree and other applicable court orders, if any.

h. Maintaining Similar Schedules: The parties should try to maintain similar schedules for the children in order to create continuity for them, including mealtimes, homework schedules, bedtimes, curfews, and other routines. Similarly, the parties shall ensure that they provide as much or more emotional support, time, and affection to the children as they were used to prior to the commencement of this case.

i. Maintaining Similar Methods of Discipline: The parties should try to maintain similar styles of discipline for the children so as to allow the children predictability.

j. Exposure to Media: Neither party shall expose the children to media that is inappropriate for them. No children shall have access to social media until 10th Grade, both parents shall have full access to the children's phone and accounts, and have all passwords ("mirrored access").

k. Advisory Guidelines: The Advisory Guidelines of Utah Code §81-9-202 shall be binding upon the parties unless otherwise conflicting with terms herein.

14. COMMUNICATION & INFORMATION.

a. Communication with the Children: Both parties shall be entitled to reasonable, uninterrupted and unmonitored telephone, virtual, text, or other reasonable contact with the minor children at reasonable hours and for reasonable durations (which shall be based upon the children's abilities, interests, schedules, and willingness to participate) while the other party is exercising parent-time with the children. Similarly, each party shall enjoy unmonitored mail and email contact with the children. Neither party shall use communication with the children to unreasonably disrupt the other parent's exercise of parent-time.

b. Communication Between Parents: Communication about adult issues shall occur between the parties only. This means that in the event that one or both of the parties remarries or finds a significant other, the parties will continue to communicate with one another and not communicate instead through their new spouse, a significant other, or any other third party. Similarly, the parties shall not include their spouse, significant other, or a third party in the discussions between the parties about the children. Communication between co-parents shall be peaceful, civil, and nonabusive.

c. Using a Co-Parenting App: The parties shall communicate through Our Family Wizard. The parties shall use the features of the co-parenting app whenever possible, including calendaring events, making requests, documenting payments and receipts, and communicating with each other about the children.

d. Response Time and Frequency of Communication: When a parent receives communication from the other, they shall make every effort to respond in a timely manner. Generally, a response shall occur within 24 hours. However, the parties shall not be overbearing or excessive in the length or frequency of their messages. They shall only communicate with each other when necessary, communications shall be focused on the children, and they shall avoid pettiness and disputes, understanding that sometimes messages can be read in a negative tone or manner that was not intended by the other parent.

e. Relationships with the Children's Support Personnel: Each parent is responsible for creating their own relationships with the children's teachers, doctors, coaches and friends, and shall not rely on the other parent's relationship with these individuals. Each party shall reasonably provide the other with contact information regarding schools or other educational programs, teachers, leaders of religious training, coaches or leaders of extra-curricular activities, and other contact information that allows the other parent to fulfill this provision. However, the parties shall freely exchange information pertinent to the children consistent with this Parenting Plan, or when asked by the other parent.

f. Children's Illnesses: The parties shall notify the other parent immediately in the event of a medical emergency or when the children are ill. The parties shall not use the children's illnesses as excuses to interfere with parent-time. Both parents are competent to care for the children during illness. Nevertheless, the children's comfort shall be placed ahead of the parties' own desires. The parties will give details on medication for the children and any dosages necessary. Each party shall administer medicine as instructed by the children's medical or other professional.

g. Access to Information: Each party shall have absolute and complete access to all educational and medical records of the children. Each party shall be listed as a parent on the children's school, medical, extracurricular, religious, and all other records.

h. Cell Phones: The parties shall utilize the dispute resolution procedures set forth in this Order in determining when the minor children are developmentally and appropriately ready to have their own cell phones. Once a child is provided with a cell phone, both parties shall have equal access to all parental control features, safety settings, location-sharing functions, device-management applications, and passwords necessary to monitor and manage the children's devices and usage. However, neither party shall be required to disclose passwords, account credentials, or other information that would permit access to the other party's unrelated personal accounts, family plan information, financial information, communications, or data associated with individuals other than the minor children and if this would be required, the parties shall seek alternative arrangements to ensure each parent has full access to the children's devices and media accounts.

15. ACTIVITIES

a. Attending the Children's Activities: Both parties have the right to know about and attend all school, religious, and extra-curricular activities of the children, regardless of whether such activities occur during their parent-time schedule.

b. Calendaring Activities: The parties shall use the OFW shared calendar to track the child's school, religious, extra-curricular, or any other activity parents typically attend, as well as the child's doctor, dental, or other similar appointments. These events shall be calendared by the parent within 24 hours of receiving notice.

c. Children's Attendance at Special Events: The parties shall make reasonable efforts for the children to attend special family functions. Neither party shall abuse this privilege by making excessive requests or unreasonably withholding permission. This typically includes functions unalterable by a parent (i.e. weddings, extended family reunions, or important ceremonies). The party requesting an accommodation shall provide options for make-up parent-time with their request so the other parent does not lose parent-time.

d. Listening to the Children's Interests Regarding Activities: It is both parents' responsibility to ensure that the children have the opportunity to be exposed to many good activities. Where either parent withholds exposure because they don't want to lose their children to such activities, it is ultimately the children who lose. Therefore, it is encouraged that both parents cooperate and listen to the children's wishes and desires regarding the activities the children would like to participate in. Both parties recognize that the activities the children are involved in must be comfortable for the children and that the parent's preferences, interests, and needs are inferior.

e. Parents' Discussion about Potential Activities: Where a conflict in parent-time is likely to arise because of the children's enrollment in an activity, the parents shall discuss any proposed changes to the parent-time schedule with the other parent prior to talking with the children about such activity that they want them to be involved in.

f. Unilateral Enrollment of the Children in Activities: Either parent can enroll the children in activities that do not require involvement of the other parent. By doing so, the parties recognize the other parent will not be sharing the cost and the activity shall not interfere with their parent-time.

g. Homework: Both parties shall help the children complete any homework the children have received during their parent-time.

16. TRANSPORTATION, TRAVEL, AND LOCAL RELOCATION.

a. Pick Up and Drop Off: So long as Bodi lives in Sanpete County, the parties shall meet half-way for parent-time exchanges. Once Bodi relocates subject to the provisions outlined herein, the parent receiving the children shall be responsible for picking the children up at the other parent's residence for parent-time. The parties shall make every effort to be on time for parent-time exchanges; on the rare occasions they are going to be late, they shall let the other party know in advance via phone call or text message.

b. Importance of Being On Time: The parties recognize and understand that the other parent has plans, schedules, and other constraints on their time. Each party shall be considerate of this by demonstrating routine timeliness.

c. Behavior During Parent-Time Exchanges: The parties shall keep communications positive during parent-time exchanges. The parents recognize that it is healthy for the children to see their parents have positive interactions with each other. Parent-time exchanges should be brief and without fanfare or drama. Parent-time exchanges are not the place to resolve disputes or discuss substantive issues regarding the children, regardless of whether the children can hear the conversation.

d. Traveling with the Children: The parties shall follow §81-9-202(19) of the Utah Code in regards to travel and vacations with the children. Namely, whenever the children travel with either parent, all of the following will be provided to the other parent: (a) an itinerary of travel dates; (b) destinations; (c) places where the children or traveling parent can be reached; (d) the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the children's location, and (e) should the parties travel with the children outside cell phone coverage, they shall notify the other party of departure and expected return and shall communicate with the GPS phone.

e. Passports: The parties shall cooperate in obtaining and maintaining current passports for the minor children. Both parties shall have photographs of the children's passports to book travel. Amanda shall be the custodian of the passports and shall reasonably provide to Bodi for travel with the children. The parties shall cooperate in providing any permission needed upon reasonable notice and to reasonable destinations. The passport will be returned to Amanda within a reasonable time following the trip (seven days after return).

f. Change of Contact Information: The parties shall provide one another with current contact information within 24 hours of any local change of address, a new telephone number, or new email address.

17. MUTUAL RESTRAINING ORDERS

a. Communication: Both parties are restrained from harassing, threatening, or speaking to the other party in a derogatory or abusive manner, whether in person, by phone, text message, email, social media, or through any other form of communication. This includes indirect communication through third parties intended to intimidate, harass, or annoy the other party. Additionally, both parties shall be prohibited from doing or saying anything to the detriment, harm, or injury of the other party. This includes, but is not limited to, (a) insulting the other parent, pointing out the other parent's weaknesses or flaws, or speaking derogatorily about the other parent in the presence of the children or anywhere near the children's presence; (b) speaking to the children about the issues in this case; (c) attempting to influence the children's preferences regarding custody or visitation; (d) or attempting to diminish the love and affection of the children for the other parent or the other parent's family members.

b. Harassment and Abuse: Both parties are mutually restrained from harassing, stalking, annoying, intimidating, or committing any act of physical abuse, emotional abuse, or domestic violence against the other party. Each party shall maintain a respectful distance and demeanor in any necessary interactions.

c. Property and Residence: Both parties are restrained from entering or coming onto the property or residence of the other party without express written permission. This includes refraining from driving by or loitering near the other party's home, workplace, or temporary residence unless specifically permitted by court order or for legitimate, court-approved purposes.

d. Drugs and Alcohol: Both parties shall be mutually restrained from using illicit drugs, prescription drugs except as prescribed, or drinking alcohol to the point of intoxication during the exercise of parent-time. All prescription medication shall be taken as prescribed. Neither party shall drive while impaired, including if they are impaired due to a prescribed medication.

e. Financial Conduct: Both parties are restrained from incurring any debts or obligations in the name of the other party, disposing of jointly held property, or hiding, transferring, or destroying marital assets, except as permitted by written agreement or court order.

f. Confidential Information: Both parties are restrained from disclosing or using any confidential or sensitive personal information obtained during the marriage (e.g., financial information, medical history, personal correspondence, passwords) for the purpose of harassment, manipulation, public exposure, or other illegitimate purpose.

g. Social Media and Public Statements: Both parties are mutually restrained from posting, sharing, or publishing any negative, derogatory, or disparaging comments, images, or information about the other party on social media platforms, blogs, forums, or any other public or semi-public medium. This includes but is not limited to Facebook, Instagram, X (formerly Twitter), TikTok, Snapchat, Reddit, and similar platforms. Both parties shall also refrain from encouraging or permitting third parties to make such posts on their behalf or with their knowledge.

h. Third Parties: Neither party shall induce, permit, or encourage third parties (including family, friends, or acquaintances) to take actions on their behalf that would violate any provisions of this Order. Each party shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from committing such violations, or shall remove the children from such circumstances. Each party shall control their own extended family and ensure that their conduct and behavior around the children are consistent with these terms.

i. Transportation. The parties agree that all drivers shall be licensed and insured.

j. Safety Equipment. The parties agree that the children shall use all safety equipment.

k. Children's Prescription Medications. The parties agree they shall provide the children with all medication as prescribed by their medical providers.

18. SIGNIFICANT OTHERS

a. The parties understand that it can be detrimental to the children to introduce them to multiple significant others. The parties shall not introduce the children to their significant others until appropriate, and until they have established a committed relationship with such significant other. Significant others are not parents and shall not assume any role in the parenting of or the discussing of the children with the other parent.

19. RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL

- a. Both parties shall be awarded the right of first refusal if there is surrogate care for the minor children for an overnight period.

20. DRUG TESTING

- a. If either party reasonably suspects that the other party has used illicit drugs, or prescription drugs without a valid prescription, that party may request that the other take a drug test. The requesting party shall: (a) Inform the other of the concern in writing; (b) inform the other party of the type of test they are to take; (c) the location/facility where the test must be taken, which must be within a reasonable distance from the testing party's residence; (d) pay the testing facility. For purposes of this provision, a text message or email shall constitute a "writing."
- b. Upon receipt of the above request, the testing party must take the test within 24 hours of being informed of the test. If they do not take the test within 24 business hours then the test shall be deemed by the court as if a dirty test had been submitted. The testing facility shall independently send the results to each party. As outlined above, the requesting party shall pay the initial cost of the test. If the test is positive, the testing party shall reimburse the requesting party the full cost of the test.
- c. The parties may not request more than two drug tests in a calendar year.

RELOCATION

- 21. If either party moves more than 150 miles from the other parent, they must follow all provisions outlined in Utah Code §81-9-209.

CHILD SUPPORT

22. The parties shall be ordered to pay child support as calculated and determined pursuant to the Uniform Child Support Guidelines and the laws of the State of Utah.

23. At present, Amanda shall be imputed income based on her earning capacity, which is $50,000, or $4,166 per month.

24. At present, Bodi is employed and earns a gross monthly income of $14,500.

25. When Bodi is exercising parent-time pursuant to Utah Code §81-9-302, his child support obligation shall be $1,875 per month.

26. When Bodi is exercising parent-time pursuant to Utah Code §81-9-303, his child support obligation shall be $1,441 per month.

27. When support terminates for one child, the child support for any remaining child shall be recalculated pursuant to the child support guidelines and shall automatically adjust without further order of this Court.

28. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-211, there shall be an automatic reduction for extended parent-time.

29. The parties shall have the right to adjust child support depending on substantial changes in circumstances, including increases or decreases in either party's incomes, as is set forth in Utah Code §81-6-202.

30. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for a child shall terminate at the time: (1) the child becomes 18 years of age, or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or (2) the child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated in accordance with Utah Code §78A-6-801.

MEDICAL EXPENSES & INSURANCE COVERAGE

31. Bodi currently carries health insurance for the minor children. Bodi will continue to provide health insurance for the benefit of the minor children so long as it is available at a reasonable cost through their employer. In the event health insurance is or becomes available to either party through employment as a benefit or at reduced cost, then at least one party shall be required to purchase and maintain medical insurance for the benefit of the parties' minor children.

32. Each party shall pay one-half of the out-of-pocket cost of the medical, dental and orthodontic insurance premium or costs actually paid by a parent for the children's portion of the medical and dental insurance as provided in Utah Code §81-6-208. If the parties each cover the children with insurance coverage and incur an actual cost for such insurance, they shall each pay their own insurance premiums and contribute nothing to the other.

33. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-208(9), at any time when the parties are sharing the cost of a health insurance premium, the children's portion of the premium is a per capita share calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in coverage.

34. Both parents shall share equally in all routine medical and dental expenses actually paid, whether covered or only partially covered by insurance (including but not limited to one-half of expenses for copays, prescriptions, surgery, orthodontic care, psychological or psychiatric care, hospitalization, therapy, physical therapy, ophthalmology, optometry, broken limbs, and continuing illnesses or allergies such as diabetes or asthma, etc.) as well as other reasonably necessary uninsured medical and dental expenses of the minor children, in accordance with Utah Code §81-6-208.

35. The party incurring a healthcare expense on behalf of the parties' minor children shall provide written verification of the cost and payment to the other party within thirty (30) days of the payment. Written verification may be sent via text message or email.

36. The other party shall have thirty (30) days from receiving written verification to reimburse the party who incurred the expense.

37. A parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to provide the above verification within the thirty-day time period.

38. Pursuant to Utah Code § 15-4-6.7 and §81-4-406, when a court order has been entered providing for payment of medical expenses of a minor child, a creditor who has been provided with a copy of the order may not make a claim for unpaid medical expenses against a parent who has paid in full that share of medical and dental expenses required to be paid by the parent under the order. Therefore, the parties shall cooperate in providing a copy of this Decree to any creditors, notify the creditors of their current address, and inform the creditor that they cannot make a claim for unpaid medical expenses or make a negative report against a party who has paid their one-half share of the children's medical expenses.

39. Petitioner and Respondent shall cooperate in exchanging all claim forms and statements in order to coordinate the payment of all medical and dental expenses.

40. The parent who maintains health insurance shall provide verification of the coverage to the other parent, upon initial enrollment of the children, and thereafter on or before January 2nd of

41. The parent who maintains insurance shall provide written notice to the other parent of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within thirty (30) days of any change.

CHILDCARE

42. The children are old enough that no childcare will be needed. Should childcare be needed, each party shall pay their own. The parties shall be required to give the full name, address, and phone number of all surrogate care providers before the minor child(ren) is/are entrusted with any surrogate care provider.

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES & SCHOOL EXPENSES

43. When Bodi is exercising joint physical custody of the children pursuant to Utah Code §81-9-303, the parties shall pay one-half of any and all school expenses (registration fees, testing fees, field trips, school supplies, class fees, school activity or sports fees, school clothes, etc.) and reasonable extracurricular activities. Both parties must agree in writing to the activity for it to be subject to reimbursement. The party incurring a school or extracurricular expense on behalf of the parties' minor children shall provide written verification of the cost and payment to the other party within thirty (30) days of the payment. Written verification may be sent via text message or email. The other party shall have thirty (30) days from receiving written verification to reimburse the party who incurred the expense.

ASSETS AND DEBTS

44. Real Property: During the parties' marriage, the parties acquired interest in certain real property located at 1673 West 1100 South, Layton, Utah 84841. Amanda shall be permitted to reside in the home until August 31, 2027. The parties shall agree upon a real estate agent to help them sell the home, and the home shall be listed for sale no later than August 1, 2027. Amanda shall be responsible for payment of the mortgage, HELOC, taxes, utilities, and any other obligation associated with the home until it is sold. If they cannot agree upon a real estate agent, then Bodi shall propose the names of three potential real estate agents to Amanda and Amanda shall select one of the three within 5 business days. If Amanda does not select within this time frame, Bodi may select the agent of his choice. The parties shall follow the advice of the real estate agent in making repairs, staging, pricing, accepting offers, and otherwise getting the home sold as soon as practicable. The parties shall share equally in all costs of repairs necessary to get the home in a saleable condition. The parties shall cooperate without delay with the real estate agent, the title company, and in any other way necessary to get the home sold. Once the home is sold, the proceeds shall be applied as follows:

- a. The mortgage and HELOC shall be paid;
- b. The debt related to the solar battery and solar panels shall be paid;
- c. Commissions, fees, closing costs, and all other expenses associated with the sale of the home shall be paid;
- d. The parties shall each be awarded 50% of the remaining proceeds.

45. Business: Amanda shall be awarded the business On the Go Goodness, and all property and equity therein, and shall be solely responsible for any and all debt, loans, or obligations associated with such business and hold Bodi entirely harmless thereon.

46. Pets: Amanda shall be awarded the dogs, Winnie and Dottie.

47. Personal Property: The parties shall work together to equitably divide all remaining items of personal property. If they cannot reach an agreement on how to divide personal property, they shall make a comprehensive list of all remaining personal property items and take turns selecting items from that list until no personal property remains.

48. Specifically, the parties shall be awarded the following:

- a. Amanda shall be awarded the following assets, and shall be hereafter responsible for any debts, ongoing payments, and costs associated with such assets, holding Bodi harmless for any and all liability thereon:
 - i. 2017 Honda CRV
- b. Bodi shall be awarded the following assets, and shall be hereafter responsible for any debts, ongoing payments, and costs associated with such assets, holding Amanda harmless for any and all liability thereon:
 - ii. 2002 Lexus LX470
- c. The 1999 Toyota Rav4 will be awarded to the parties' adult daughter, Sophie.
- d. The 2009 Toyota Camry will be awarded to the parties' adult daughter, Laynie.

49. The parties shall refinance vehicles and sign titles or other appropriate documentation within 60 days to ensure vehicles are awarded to the proper party and the other party's name has been removed from any ownership or responsibility associated with the vehicle.

50. The parties shall be awarded any and all other checking, savings, credit, or other financial accounts in their names.

51. The parties shall not incur any additional charges on any joint accounts and such accounts shall be closed.

52. Debts: Upon the sale of the home, Amanda shall apply $10,000 of her share of the proceeds from the sale of the home to the following debts and approximate amounts, and Bodi shall use his proceeds to pay off the remainder of such debts:

- a. Discover CC: $9,832
- b. Zion's Bank LOC, joint: $1,393
- c. Amex Delta CC: $8,733
- d. Chase CC: $3,000
- e. Citi Simplicity: $10,900

53. Any other debts not listed herein shall be the responsibility of the party in whose name it is held.

54. If either party is obligated on a debt the other party's name is on, the payment of that debt must remain current. For secured debt that the other party's name is on, in the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset must be placed immediately on the market for sale in order to protect the other party from further harm. If the other party makes payment on a delinquent debt in order to protect his or her credit rating, that party may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from party that was obligated to pay such debt.

55. Each party shall be responsible for any debt individually incurred after the date of separation.

56. The parties shall be ordered to notify their respective creditors in a reasonable and timely manner regarding their respective assumption and liability of their separate debts and obligations.

RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS

57. Bodi has a 401(k) retirement account with a balance of $361,554.66, which is currently subject to an outstanding participant loan in the amount of $23,561.00. Accordingly, the net value of the account, after deducting the outstanding loan balance, is $337,993.66. As a global resolution and to accommodate both parties' interests on this issue, Amanda is awarded $174,884.50 out of this account. The parties shall retain either Rori Hendrix or David Hunter to prepare the Qualified Domestic Relations Order ("QDRO"), or such other order as may be necessary to effectuate this division, and shall share her fees and costs equally. Any gains or losses attributable to Amanda's awarded share from the valuation date until the date of distribution shall be allocated to her share in accordance with the terms of the retirement plan and the QDRO.

ALIMONY

58. Amanda is to receive a total combined child support and alimony amount of $3,500 until August 31, 2027. Beginning September 1, 2027, Amanda is to receive a total combined child support and alimony amount of $3,100. Therefore, alimony shall be $3,500.00 or $3,100.00, less Bod's child support obligation as detailed above.

59. Bodi's alimony obligation shall terminate upon Amanda's remarriage, romantic cohabitation, either party's death, or on July 31, 2034 (8 years), whichever occurs first.

60. Alimony payments shall begin August 1, 2026. Monthly alimony support shall be paid one half on or before the 5th day of each month, and the other half on or before the 20th day of each month. Alimony due and not paid on or before the 5th day of the month is delinquent on the 6th day of the month. Alimony due and not paid on or before the 20th day of the month is delinquent on the 21st day of the month.

TAXES

61. Amanda shall claim the oldest minor child and Bodi shall claim the youngest minor child each year for tax purposes. When the oldest child can no longer be claimed for tax purposes, the parties shall rotate claiming the youngest child with Amanda claiming on even numbered years and Bodi claiming on odd numbered years. The parties shall cooperate and ensure that any stimulus payments, advance child tax credits, or other payments associated with the child they are claiming for tax purposes in a given year is given to the intended parent, regardless of which address the money is sent to or what bank account it is deposited in.

62. If either party is not current on their child support obligation as of December 31 of the tax year, they shall not be entitled to claim the exemption.

63. The parties will file their taxes for the 2026 tax year separately, with each party being solely awarded any refund or obligation associated with their own tax return.

MISCELLANEOUS

64. Cooperation: Petitioner and Respondent shall cooperate with each other, through counsel or otherwise, to effect change in titles to property agreed to be divided herein, to change the names and responsibilities for payment upon the charge accounts and other debts divided herein, and to cooperate in each and every other way necessary or proper to ensure that the Decree of Divorce is carried out in every detail.

65. Last Name: Amanda may be restored to her maiden name of Romney, if she so desires.

66. Attorney Fees and Costs: The parties shall each be responsible for their own attorney fees and costs.

67. Severability: In the event any provision of this Decree of Divorce is found by the court to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable, this shall not be grounds to vacate this order as a whole and such provision shall be severed from this order and the remainder of this order shall remain in full force and effect. The parties agree that the severed provision shall be replaced with a provision that reflects the original intent of the parties as closely as possible, consistent with applicable law, and the enforceability of the remaining provisions of this Order shall not be affected.

68. Mediation: The parties understand that future modifications to the Decree of Divorce may become necessary and that prior to filing any petition to modify the parties are required to first attempt in good faith to reach an agreement concerning their issues through a court approved mediator.

69. Cooperation and Execution of Documents: The parties agree to fully execute whatever documents are necessary for the implementation of the terms of the Stipulation for Divorce and the subsequent terms set forth in the Decree of Divorce. Should a party fail to execute documents, the other party is required to bring a motion to enforce a provision, the court may appoint another person to execute the document pursuant to Rule 70 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure. The disobedient party shall also pay the reasonable attorney costs and fees as a result of the enforcing party having to bring the matter before the Court.

70. Waiver of Discovery, Trial, Valuations, Tax, and Acceptability: The parties do not desire to exercise any further discovery rights, nor do they desire a trial to have the court decide these issues and waive such rights. The parties understand that the mediator is not giving legal advice to either party but is a neutral facilitator only. The parties have not relied upon representations of the mediator in any way in the determination of the acceptability of the Stipulation, the valuation of the assets or obligations, or the tax implications of the terms herein. The parties have had the right to advice of legal counsel of his or her own choice before signing the Stipulation for Divorce and have received such advice or hereby waive that right.

71. Tax Advice: The parties acknowledge that their attorneys are not accountants and do not render any tax advice to the parties as to the terms or tax consequences of the Stipulation for Divorce.

72. Fair Settlement Disclosure: Both parties disclose that the terms herein are fair and reasonable and that they agree to the terms herein voluntarily and of their own free will, and that he or she does so free from any undue influence, threat, or duress. Each party has independently assessed the values of the vehicles and properties.

a. The parties represent they have fully disclosed all property, accounts, and marital property. Should any undisclosed accounts be discovered, the undisclosed account shall be awarded in their entirety to the party to which the disclosure was not made. By signing the Stipulation for Divorce, both parties agree that they have waived his or her right to further discovery under the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure. Both parties are fully informed, understand, and acknowledge that, in signing The Stipulation for Divorce the case will be fully, completely and finally settled.
