IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF UTAH
SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT, DAVIS COUNTY
800 West State Street, Farmington, Utah 84025

In the Matter of the Marriage of:
KATIA FABIOLA CAMACHO, Petitioner,

and

SAUL IVAN NUNEZ, Respondent.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Case No. 254701980

Judge: Jennifer Valencia
Commissioner: Christina Wilson

Respondent, SAUL IVAN NUNEZ, by and through his counsel of record, Christopher Ross of Kristopher K. Greenwood & Associates, hereby submits the following Decree of Divorce. The court, having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and now being fully advised in the premises, and for good cause shown, does hereby find and order the following:

DIVORCE

1. The parties shall be granted a Decree of Divorce, final upon entry, severing the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the parties, upon the grounds of irreconcilable differences, pursuant to Utah Code Annotated § 81-4-405(1)(h).

CHILDREN

2. There are three children born of this marriage, to wit: E.N.N. (born August 2022), E.N.C.

(born September 2024), and E.C.N.C. (born September 2024). No other children are expected.

LEGAL CUSTODY

3. The parties are awarded joint legal custody of the minor children.

PARENTING PLAN

4. The parties shall be bound by the following Parenting Plan:

a. Definitions:

- i. Adult Issues: Children-related issues surrounding finances, parent-time, litigation, subjects beyond the children's maturity, changes to parenting responsibilities, and any issue over which our children have no control that will reasonably cause our children stress.
- ii. Advance Notice: 72 hours in advance of an actual event.
- iii. Compliance: The routine obedience to all terms of the parenting plan – not perfection.
- iv. Confer: Actively seeking the opinion and advice of my co-parent and conveying any decision made as a result of said communication to my co-parent.
- v. Co-parent: The other parent of our children.
- vi. Co-parenting: The lifestyle of working together for the common goal of raising our children to be the best, most well-adjusted, and happiest children possible – transitioning into the best, most well-adjusted, and happiest adult possible.
- vii. Custody: This word is never used alone in our Parenting Plan because it is too vague and has too many meanings for too many people.

- viii. Day-to-Day Decisions: Any and all routine parental decisions that do not interfere with decisions designated “major.”
- ix. Gate Keeping: When one parent controls the flow of information about the children. This can only occur when one parent does not have access to the source of information.
- x. Major Decisions: Non-emergency surgery, religious ordinances, long-term prescription medication, school selection, teacher selection, and other life-altering decisions.
- xi. Parent-time: The actual time awarded to a parent when the minor children are in their care.

b. Recitations:

- i. I understand that the court is the “boss” of this case and that I don’t get to make my own rules at any point. I am willing to work hard and I agree to be a flexible Co-parent. I agree that Co-parenting is the lifestyle that will give our children the best chance at success in life and that it is in the best interest of our children.
- ii. I will look for the positive qualities of my Co-parent. I understand that our children view themselves as ½ me and ½ my co-parent. The golden rule is to “do unto others as you would have done unto you.” I shall abide by this rule in my relationship with my Co-parent.

- iii. I shall actively promote our children's positive relationship and opinion of my Co-parent (I am not required to lie to do so, however, I shall not disclose information to our children that is inappropriate for children).
- iv. I shall not bother, harass, annoy, or threaten my Co-parent.
- v. I will focus 90 percent of my efforts on my own Compliance in this parenting plan and only 10 percent on my Co-parent's Compliance.
- vi. I understand that my Co-parent may have lapses of judgment, will act human, or may "mess up". Providing our children are not injured or likely to suffer physical or emotional harm, I will give my Co-parent the benefit of the doubt and provide them with a pass (as undoubtedly I will require my own pass someday). If I repetitively take advantage of receiving a pass without correcting the behavior then the court should sanction me sufficiently to rectify my Non-Compliance and to prevent future occurrences.
- vii. I understand that my Co-parent's parenting style may be different than mine; however, this does not make it worse. I will embrace the positive and not focus on changing my Co-parent.
- viii. I know that no parent ever gets enough time with their children. I will cherish my time and use it wisely.
- ix. I understand that it will never be acceptable to use our children as a confidante or counselor on Adult Issues.

x. I understand our children will continue to mature. As our children's needs/interests change I shall utilize my best efforts to coordinate any appropriate changes with my Co-parent. Neither of us can unilaterally make any changes.

xi. I understand that any modifications to this Parenting Plan shall be in writing and agreed to by both parties.

c. Provisions Regarding Decision-Making and Dispute Resolution:

i. Each parent shall make decisions regarding the day-to-day care and control of the children while the children are residing with that parent. Either parent may make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the children.

ii. Both parents shall have full access to school, day care, medical, and other records of the children.

iii. Both parents shall have equal and independent authority to confer with the children's school, day care, and other programs with regard to the children's educational, emotional, and social progress.

iv. The parties will consult with one another and endeavor to reach agreements on major issues regarding medical/dental/psychological treatment, education, and religion. In the event of a dispute regarding a major decision, the parties will first attempt to resolve the issue between themselves in a civil manner and if applicable confer with a third party with expertise in the area of the dispute (i.e. the children's physician with respect to medical issues). If an agreement still cannot be reached, the parties will attend mediation. If the parties still cannot agree, then they may seek intervention from the Court. Despite these procedures, neither party will be prohibited from seeking emergency relief from the Court at any time as necessary.

d. Communication/Information:

- i. Communication about Adult Issues shall occur between the parties only. This means that in the event that one or both of the parties marries, the parties will continue to communicate with one another and not communicate instead through their new spouse or any other third party. In the event that communication with our children regarding Adult Issues becomes necessary, it shall be done jointly with my Co-parent.
- ii. Communication with my Co-parent shall be peaceful, civil, and non-abusive.
- iii. Communication with our children shall not disparage, harm or alienate my Co-parent. Communication with our children shall positively reinforce the good qualities of my Co-parent.
- iv. I shall create my own relationships with our children's teachers, doctors, coaches and friends. I shall obtain children-related information for myself and freely exchange this information with my Co-parent.

- v. I shall notify my Co-parent immediately in the event of a medical emergency. I shall notify my Co-parent when our children are ill and shall not utilize it as a means to interfere with parent-time. My Co-parent is competent to care for our children during illness. Nevertheless, our children's comfort should be placed ahead of my desires. I will give details on medication for our children and any dosages necessary. I will administer properly prescribed medication as instructed. I will give my Co-parent the opportunity to attend all doctor's appointments for our children.
 - vi. I shall share any legal documents or other legal information regarding our children with my Co-parent, including but not limited to birth certificates, social security cards and insurance cards.
 - vii. I shall keep my Co-parent updated about all appointments related to the health, education, and welfare of our children.
 - viii. I shall be respectful of the plans and schedules of my Co-parent, and I shall use prompt and diligent communication in response to requests for information about the well-being of the children, transportation, parent-time, lateness, and requests for accommodations.
- e. Transportation, Travel, and Local Relocation:
- i. Either party may pick the minor children up from daycare or school. Either party may have family members assist with this transportation so long as they provide the opposing party with advance written notice. The minor children shall be picked up and delivered promptly at the scheduled times. Each parent shall notify the other of any unexpected changes as soon as practicable.

ii. I shall have our children ready and able to leave with my Co-parent at the scheduled time for an exchange. I understand that my Co-parent has plans, schedules, and other constraints on their time. I shall be considerate of this by demonstrating routine timeliness. I shall make the transition quickly, without fanfare or drama. I shall also ensure that I provided age-appropriate car seats for our children in compliance with Utah law.

iii. If I travel with our children beyond 150 miles, I will give my Co-parent at least 14 days advance notice and provide them with an itinerary, and a phone number and address for emergencies. When travelling I will make reasonable efforts to facilitate communication with my Co-parent.

iv. I shall provide my Co-parent current contact information within 24 hours of any local change of address.

f. Activities:

i. Both parties have the right to know about and attend all school, religious, and extra-curricular activities of our children.

ii. I shall make reasonable efforts for our children to attend special family functions. I shall not abuse this privilege by making excessive requests or unreasonably withholding permission. This typically includes functions unalterable by a parent (i.e. weddings, extended family reunions, or important ceremonies).

- iii. If I have joint physical custody of our children then it is my duty to ensure that our children have the opportunity to be exposed to many good activities. If I am selfish in how my parent-time is spent this cannot occur – as I enjoy a substantial portion of our children’s time. If I do not have joint physical custody of our children then it is still my duty to ensure our children have the opportunity to be exposed to many good activities. If I am selfish in how my parent-time is spent this is less likely to occur. Therefore, it is encouraged that I cooperate and listen to our children’s wishes and desires regarding the activities our children would like to participate in.
- iv. We shall both respect and support the extracurricular activities of our children, and we understand that we are responsible to take them to activities scheduled during our respective parent-time.
- v. I shall discuss any proposed changes to the parent-time schedule with my Co-parent prior to talking with our children about any activity that I want them to be involved in.
- vi. I shall help our children to complete any homework our children have received during my parent-time.

vii. I shall make activities comfortable and enjoyable for our children, my own needs are inferior.

viii. I shall ensure that I discipline our children in an appropriate and reasonable manner based upon the children's age and the behavior which necessitated discipline. For example, I shall not harshly discipline the children for small mistakes. Corporal punishment is never an acceptable form of discipline.

g. Environment:

i. I shall work to prevent our children's exposure to anybody disparaging my Co-parent or other individual significantly bonded to our children. I shall control my own extended family and make sure that their conduct and behaviors are consistent with all of these terms.

h. Stepparent:

i. I understand that a stepparent is likely to be involved at some point with our children – whether by myself or through my Co-parent. I will value the positive aspects of any stepparent introduced into the relationship. I will ensure any stepparent I introduce to the relationship does not overstep their limited role. The role of a stepparent is to support, not supplant, a Co-parent.

PHYSICAL CUSTODY

5. The parties are awarded joint physical custody of the minor children on a 50/50 basis.

PARENT-TIME

6. Parent-time will be as the parties can agree. If the parties cannot agree, then standard, holiday, and extended parent-time will be pursuant to Utah Code Annotated § 81-9-305, with Respondent receiving Mondays and Tuesdays, and Petitioner receiving Wednesdays and Thursdays. Respondent will be designated as the custodial parent for holiday purposes only. The weekend beginning July 24, 2026 will be Respondent's weekend and the parties will rotate weekends thereafter. Additionally, the parties agree that Respondent will receive the July 24th holiday, rather than Petitioner, for 2026. In exchange, Petitioner will receive an extra week of parent-time August 20, 2026 – August 27, 2026.

a. Transportation and Exchanges: Transportation will be shared between the parties. The party beginning parent-time will be responsible for picking up the minor children from the other party at the commencement of their parent-time. Exchanges will be curbside (once the Protective Orders are modified), with the party beginning parent-time remaining in their car. The party ending parent-time may bring the minor children out to the vehicle of the other party if necessary. There will be no communication between the parties at the exchanges.

b. Virtual Parent-Time: The parties will be entitled to virtual parent-time at reasonable times and for reasonable duration. The minor children will be permitted to contact either party anytime they may choose.

c. Right of First Refusal: The right of first refusal will apply for any period that the minor children are at daycare, or overnights (if the party is not working and available to care for the children). If a party chooses to exercise the right of first refusal, then that party will be responsible for picking up and dropping off the minor children in a timely manner.

d. Relocation: In the event a party desires to move more than 150 miles away from the other party, that party will provide at least sixty (60) days advance written notice as required by Utah Code Annotated § 81-9-209.

DRUG TESTING

7. Both parties should be restrained from using illegal narcotics, or abusing prescription narcotics. If a party has a reasonable suspicion that the other party is using drugs, that party will be permitted to request the other to take a drug test of their choice that must be taken within 24 hours of the request, no more than once per thirty (30) day period. If the test is missed or positive for illegal drugs, parent-time should be supervised until the other party can provide a clean test at their sole expense.

a. Petitioner's gross monthly income is $3,333.00.

b. Respondent's gross monthly income is $11,654.00.

10. Medical, Dental and Vision Expenses: Beginning July 20, 2026, either party who can obtain medical, dental, and vision insurance for the minor children at a reasonable cost will do so in accordance with Utah Code Annotated § 81-6-208. The parties will additionally equally split the cost of such premiums, and additionally will equally split the cost of all reasonable and necessary non-covered medical, dental, and vision expenses pursuant to Utah Code Annotated § 81-6-208.

a. If, at any point in time, the minor children are covered by the medical, dental, or vision insurance plans of both parties, the medical, dental, or vision insurance plan of Petitioner will be the primary coverage for the minor children and the medical, dental, or vision insurance plan of Respondent will be the secondary coverage for the minor children. If a parent remarries and his or her minor children are not covered by that parent's medical, dental, or vision insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the medical, dental, or vision insurance plan of the step-parent will be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and will retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the minor children.

11. Child Care Expenses: Beginning July 20, 2026, the parties will equally divide the cost of work-related childcare expenses pursuant to Utah Code Annotated § 81-6-209.

Commencing with the 2027 tax year and going forward, Respondent will be entitled to claim two minor children for odd-numbered tax years and Petitioner will be entitled to claim one minor child. When child support reduces to two children, each parent will claim one child each year. However, Respondent will not be entitled to claim a minor child for tax purposes unless he is current on his child support obligation by December 31st of the tax year in question.
