This amount shall be automatically deducted from or added to the child support paid or owed.

d. b. Each parent shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments, incurred for the dependent children and actually paid by the parents.

e. c. The parent who incurs medical and dental expenses may provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The other parent shall remit payment within 30 days of receipt of the verification. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party shall be responsible for the payment of one-half of all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor children as indicated.

l. b. While there are two minor children, the parties shall each receive one child as a dependency exemption/tax credit. Mother shall claim the oldest child and Father shall claim the youngest child.

The parties jointly paid $331,000 of marital funds as a downpayment on the home that accounts for the Father's buyout of equity in the marital home located at 2638 S. 450 E and as a portion of the property settlement. Therefore, the Father owns any and all equity in this home.

s. 31. Personal Property. During the course of the marriage relationship, the parties have acquired personal property. - c. c. Delinquency in Payments: If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt must remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset must be placed immediately on the market for sale in order to protect the joint debtors.
