Petitioner, Adam Arnold Campora (“Adam” or “Petitioner”), commenced this divorce action against Respondent, Emily Jean Campora (“Emily” or “Respondent”) with the filing of his Verified Petition for Divorce on April 15, 2026. The Court has received the parties’ written Stipulation and Settlement Agreement filed on August 26, 2026 (“the Agreement”), which resolves all pending issues between the parties, unless explicitly reserved herein. The Court, having also received Petitioner’s Declaration of Jurisdiction and Grounds and entered Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and having reviewed the file in this matter and being otherwise fully advised, hereby ORDERS, ADJUDGES and DECREES as follows:

PARTIES, JURISDICTION, AND VENUE

1. Emily and Adam (“the Parties”) are wife and husband, having been married in Sandy,

Salt Lake County, State of Utah on July 21, 2001.

2. Emily and Adam were both bona fide resident of Davis County, State of Utah for at least ninety (90) days immediately prior to the commencement of this action.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over the Parties and subject-matter, pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-4-203.

4. Venue is proper in this court, pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-4-402.

5. The Parties are the natural parents of one (1) minor child, to wit, H.H.C. (the “Minor Child”), born October 15, 2009. The Parties’ child has lived in Utah for all of the six (6) consecutive months immediately preceding the commencement of this divorce action. Emily is not pregnant, and no additional children are expected to be born as issue of this marriage. Utah is the child’s home state under the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction & Enforcement Act and the Uniform Interstate Family Support Act. Utah is the child’s place of habitual residence under the Hague Convention of 25 October 1980 on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction. Utah has jurisdiction over child custody, parent-time, and child support issues in this case.

6. The Parties have experienced difficulties that cannot be reconciled and that have prevented them from pursuing a viable marriage relationship. A Decree of Divorce between the Parties is entered on the grounds of irreconcilable differences.

CUSTODY AND PARENT-TIME

7. Emily shall be awarded sole temporary legal and physical custody of the Minor Child.

8. Due to an active protective order in Davis County Justice Court Case #261000181, which prohibits Adam from contacting Emily or the Minor Child, parent-time and legal custody shall be reserved until such time as the protective order is amended or adjudicated.

CHILD SUPPORT

9. For the purpose of calculating child support, Adam's gross monthly income is $4,410.

10. For the purpose of calculating child support, Emily's gross monthly income shall be imputed at $3,120.

11. Based on a Sole Physical Custody Child Support Obligation Worksheet, Adam's child support obligation to Emily shall be $524 per month.

12. Child support shall begin on September 15, 2026

13. Adam shall pay child support by direct deposit into Emily's America First account 38178356; however, nothing in this agreement is intended to in any way restrict the power of Utah ORS to collect child support.

14. The child support obligation shall continue through the end of the month a child becomes 18 years of age, or through the end of the month of the child's normal and expected date of graduation from high school, whichever occurs later. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-213, there shall be an automatic adjustment to child support if and when a child becomes emancipated.

15. In order to collect child support, the obligee parent shall be entitled to mandatory income withholding relief pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §§ 81-6-106 et seq. and 81-6-107 et seq. Said income withholding procedure shall apply to existing and future payors of the non-custodial parent. All withheld income shall be payable to the Office of Recovery Services, P.O. Box 45011, Salt Lake City, Utah, 84145-0011 until such time as the obligor party no longer owes child support to the obligee party. Should the obligee parent elect this income withholding procedure any administrative fees shall be assessed according to statute.

16. Any child support payable by the obligor parent shall be paid on the first day of each month or at the election of the obligor parent by paying one-half of the amount due not later than the 5th day of each month and the remaining half not later than the 20th day of each month.

17. Under Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-212(5), the Parties have a right to adjust the child support order by motion after three (3) years from the date of its entry if (1) upon review there is a difference of 10% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah Child Support Guidelines, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet; (2) the difference is not of a temporary nature; and (3) the amount previously ordered does not deviate from the child support guidelines. Under Utah Code Ann. § 62A-11-306.2, if a child receives TANF benefits at the time an adjustment is sought, the Office of Recovery Services shall review the order, and if appropriate, move the court to adjust the amount.

18. Under Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-212(3) and (4), the Parties have a right to modify the child support order at any time by petition if there has been a substantial change in circumstances because of (i) material changes in custody; (ii) material changes in the relative wealth or assets of the Parties; (iii) material changes of 30% or more in the income of a parent; (iv) material changes in the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn; (v) material changes in the medical needs of the child; (vi) material changes in the legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others; and, the change in (i) through (vi) results in a 15% or more difference between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, and the difference is not of a temporary nature. In a proceeding to modify an existing award, consideration of natural or adoptive children other than those in common to both parties may be applied to mitigate an increase in the child support award but may not be applied to justify a decrease in the award.

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITY AND SCHOOL FEES

19. In addition to child support, the Parties shall equally any expenses related to the child's extracurricular activities that they both agree to in writing, and mandatory school fees. In the event that a party desires to have the child participate in an extracurricular activity that the other party refuses to agree to, that party may still enroll the child in the activity, as long as that party pays for the activity and the activity does not interfere with the other party's parent-time.

HEALTH INSURANCE AND MEDICAL/DENTAL EXPENSES

20. In the event either party currently has now, or has in the future, health insurance available to them through their place of employment or through some other source at a reasonable rate, whichever party is able to obtain health insurance at a reasonable cost for the child shall be required to obtain such insurance for the benefit of the child. If only one party maintains insurance for the child, the party who is able to obtain adequate coverage at the lowest cost shall be required to obtain the insurance, with contributions from the other party as set forth below. Health insurance shall include an obligation to carry dental insurance if it is available on the same basis.

21. The Parties shall share equally the child's portion of the cost of the health/dental insurance premium actually paid by a party.

22. The child's portion of the health/dental insurance premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expense for the child shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy.

23. If, at any point in time, the dependent child is covered by the health or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health or dental insurance plan of Adam shall be primary coverage for the dependent child, and the health or dental insurance plan of Emily shall be secondary coverage for the dependent child. If Emily remarries and the child is covered by her spouse's plan, the health or dental insurance plan of Emily's spouse shall be the child's primary coverage.

24. Double coverage shall not in any event be required unless it results in a financial benefit to both Parties.

25. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing provisions, neither party shall be required to maintain health or dental insurance for the child if it is not available to them at a reasonably affordable rate.

26. Both parents shall provide cash medical support by equally sharing all reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical, dental, orthodontic, optical and mental health expenses incurred for the dependent child, including deductibles and copayments.

27. The parent who incurs necessary medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within thirty (30) days of payment, as set forth in Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-208(10). The other parent shall then reimburse the parent incurring the expense within thirty (30) days after receiving the verification.

28. The parent who incurs medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses, or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses, if that parent fails to provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses within thirty (30) days of payment, as set forth in Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-208(10).

29. The Parties shall cooperate in exchanging all claim forms and statements in order to coordinate the payment of all medical and dental expenses, as set forth in Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-208.

30. The requirement for either parent to maintain health and dental insurance, and/or to pay any non-covered medical and dental expenses shall remain in effect for a child only as long as the child is of the age that he or she would be entitled to receive child support.

31. The parent who maintains health insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent, upon initial enrollment of the dependent child, and thereafter, on or before January 2nd of each calendar year as set forth in Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-208(10).

TAXES

32. Commencing with the 2026 tax year, Emily shall claim the Minor Child, if eligible and allowed, for federal and state tax purposes. Adam shall claim the Minor Child, if eligible in 2027 so long as all child related obligations are current as of December 30, 2027.

ALIMONY

33. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-4-502 and Utah case law, and based on other factors and considerations, each party expressly waives alimony from the other now and in the future.

MARITAL PROPERTY

REAL PROPERTY

34. During the course of the marriage, the Parties acquired real property located at 324 West Mutton Hollow Rd., Kaysville, UT 84037 (the “Marital Home”). The Marital Home shall be sold for a fair market value, pursuant to the Real Estate Purchase Contract executed by the Parties on August 18, 2026.

35. If the sale does not close pursuant to the Real Estate Purchase Contract, the terms below shall apply on any future sale of the Marital Home.

36. The proceeds from the sale of the Marital Home (after the mortgage is satisfied and all transactions costs, taxes, etc. are paid) shall first be used to satisfy all marital debt, including the joint checking account at America First Credit Union, the associated line of credit with America First Credit Union, and the Visa credit card. The title company shall be instructed to issue the

37. The remaining proceeds shall be divided equally, but Emily shall receive $35,000 from Adam's share of the remaining proceeds.

Adam shall also be awarded the chest, mirror, and nativity set from Adam's mother, and all personal documents including his birth certificate passport, and social security card.

39. Emily shall pack all of the items listed in Exhibit A of the Agreement—other than the two desks and all shelving that is mounted to the wall—in boxes for Adam to collect in front of the Marital Home by August 29, 2026 at a time selected by Adam (between 9 am and 5 pm) with adequate notice of the time provided by counsel. Adam shall retrieve the items with the assistance and supervision of a local police department, in compliance with the criminal protective order.

40. Adam shall pick up the desks and shelving, which will not fit into boxes, on or after September 13, 2026 at a time selected by Adam (between 9 am and 5 pm) with adequate notice of the time provided by counsel.

41. Emily shall be awarded all other personal property in the Marital Home not specifically on Adam's list.

42. Adam shall copy all digital family photos and videos in his possession, and any digital photos or videos featuring the children, to an external hard drive which Emily will provide and deliver to Adam's lawyer's office and Adam shall then deliver the external hard drive to his lawyer's office for Emily to retrieve. This shall occur within sixty days of entry of the Decree of Divorce.

43. Retirement & Investment Accounts—All retirement and investment accounts have been liquidated.

44. Bank & Other Financial Accounts—Each party shall be awarded any checking, savings, and other financial accounts. The joint bank account at America First Credit Union shall be closed. Each party shall sign any forms necessary for the closure of this account.

45. Trusts & Inheritances—Each party shall be awarded, as their own separate property, their full share of any property, assets, accounts, or monies they receive from a trust or inheritance, including any assets purchased or paid for using inherited funds.

46. Vehicles—The vehicles acquired during the marriage, including sole responsibility for all debt and expenses associated with the vehicle, shall be divided as follows:

a. 2017 Subaru Impreza and the accompanying lien shall be awarded to Adam, free and clear of any claim by Emily. Emily's name shall be removed from any ownership documents associated with the vehicle.

b. 2015 Honda CRV—The 2015 Honda CRV, with a title outstanding to Adam and Emily, shall be awarded to Emily, free and clear of any claim by Adam. Adam's name shall be removed from any ownership documents associated with the vehicle.

MARITAL DEBTS, OBLIGATIONS, AND LIABILITIES

47. During the marriage, the Parties acquired certain debts, obligations, and liabilities.

48. The marital debts incurred as of the date of execution of this agreement shall be satisfied from the sale proceeds from the Marital Home, as detailed herein above.

49. Neither party will incur any additional joint debt, unless otherwise agreed to.

50. Both Parties shall notify all creditors regarding the division of debts, assignment of payment liabilities, and the name and current address of both Parties.

51. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §§ 15-4-6.5, 30-2-5 and 30-3-5(1)(c), the Parties shall provide a copy of their final Decree of Divorce to all joint creditors for any outstanding obligations that are included in their Decree of Divorce.

MAIDEN NAME

52. Emily may resume the use of her maiden or prior name, Emily Banford, should she so choose.

DUTY TO SIGN DOCUMENTS TO IMPLEMENT DECREE OF DIVORCE

53. Both parties shall sign and fully execute whatever documents are necessary for the implementation of the provisions of this Decree. Should a party fail to execute a document within sixty (60) days of the entry of the divorce decree, the other party may bring a Motion to Enforce at the expense of the disobedient party and ask that the Court appoint some other person to execute the document pursuant to Rule 70 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure. Any document executed pursuant to Rule 70 has the same effect as if executed by the disobedient party.

ATTORNEY FEES AND OTHER COSTS

54. Each party shall bear sole responsibility for their own attorney fees and court costs they have incurred in connection with this proceeding to date.

55. If either party is found in contempt for violating a provision of this Decree, that party shall be responsible for a reasonable amount of attorney fees and court costs incurred by the prevailing party.

MUTUAL RESTRAINING ORDERS

56. #### MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

60. The Parties each indicate that there has been a complete accurate and current disclosure of all income, assets, and liabilities. Both parties understand and agree that any failure to provide complete disclosure may constitute perjury. The property referred to in the Agreement represents all the property which either party has any interest in or right to, whether legal or equitable, owned in full or in part by either party, separately or by the Parties jointly.

61. Final Settlement. Except for the issues specifically reserved herein, the Agreement resolves any and all claims between the Parties which were or could have been brought in this matter.

62. If any provision of this Decree of Divorce is held invalid by a court, the invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Decree of Divorce.

63. Default. In the event that either party defaults in his/her obligations set forth in this Decree of Divorce, the defaulting party shall be liable for all reasonable expenses, including attorney fees and costs, incurred in the enforcement of those obligations.

64.     Modification and Waiver. No modification or waiver of any of the terms of this Decree shall be valid unless in writing and signed by the Parties to this action and subsequently approved by the Court. No waiver of any breach or default hereunder shall be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach or default of the same or similar nature.

65.     Final Stipulation. This Decree embodies all understandings and agreements between the Parties. No prior or contemporaneous oral or written agreements or matters outside of this Decree shall have any force or effect. Petitioner and Respondent are satisfied that the Decree is fair and reasonable. There are no questions Petitioner or Respondent have to ask their respective counsel, or unresolved issues that need to be addressed. All issues either party wishes to raise have been incorporated into this Decree.

66.     Independent Legal Advice. The Parties respectively acknowledge that each has had the opportunity to seek independent legal advice by counsel of his/her own selection and has had sufficient time to become fully informed as to his/her legal rights and obligations; that neither is entitled to rely on the other to inform him/her of his/her legal rights; that each fully understands the facts behind their Stipulation and Settlement Agreement and this Decree; and that the terms set forth in their Stipulation and Settlement Agreement accurately reflect his/her understanding and agreement; and that he/she signed their Stipulation and Settlement Agreement knowingly, freely, and voluntarily and approved its terms being incorporated into this Decree.

67.     Construction. Each of the Parties understands, acknowledges, and agrees that they have each contributed to the drafting of their Stipulation and Settlement Agreement, which was incorporated into this Decree, such that no ambiguity or provision hereof may be construed for or against a presumed drafter of their agreement. The Parties specifically, intentionally, and knowingly waive any right to allege, assert, or claim the benefit of any rule or canon of construction against a drafting party.

68. Effective Date. The Parties Stipulation and Settlement Agreement became effective and enforceable both as a contract and as if it were an order of the court from the date it was executed by all parties and their respective parties counsel, with all rights and remedies available for breach of contract and violation of a court order. That Agreement was incorporated into this Decree.

69. Decree. The Parties consent that this Decree of Divorce shall be entered by a Utah Court, and their existing bonds of matrimony, marital contract, and any associated rights and/or obligations to each other shall be permanently terminated, dissolved, and severed.
