Parent-time transfers

12. Pick-up and drop-off ("transfers") of the children for parent-time will be as described below:

The parties will make arrangements for pick up, delivery and return of the children prior to each scheduled parent-time.

Curbside transfers

13. There will not be curbside transfers. The parent/person dropping-off or picking-up a child may accompany the children to the other parent/person when parent-time transfers are made.

Decision-making

14. Each parent will make day-to-day decisions for the children during the time they are caring for the children. Either parent may make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the children. A parent who makes an emergency decision must share the decision with the other parent as soon as reasonably possible.

Joint decision-making. The parents will share responsibility for making major decisions about the children. If there is a disagreement, the parents will resolve the dispute as provided in the Resolving disputes section below.

Education plan

15. The school the children will attend is based on a specific plan for where the children will attend school: The parties agree that maintaining educational stability for the Children is in their best interests. The parties intend that the Children will continue attending Bountiful High School for so long as attendance there remains reasonably available and appropriate. The parties shall cooperate in good faith to support the Children's continued enrollment and attendance at Bountiful High School. If attendance at Bountiful High School becomes impracticable or impossible due to relocation, boundary changes, school closure, the Children's educational needs, or other significant circumstances, the parties shall confer and jointly determine an appropriate alternative educational placement.

16. Albert Chad Meynders and Rachel Lynn Meynders has authority to check the children out of school. Albert Chad Meynders and Rachel Lynn Meynders has access to the children during school. If the parents cannot agree, education decisions will be made by Rachel Lynn Meynders.

Communication with each other

17. Parents will communicate with each other by any method.

Communication with the children

18. The parents agree they will:

- provide age-appropriate help to the children to communicate with the other parent.
- give the children privacy during their communication with the other parent. The parents will not interfere with or monitor communication between the children and the other parent.

19. Parents and children may communicate with each other whenever the children choose.

- By any method

Records and information sharing

20. Both parents will have access to records and the ability to consult with providers regarding education, child care, and health care.

Travel by the children

21. During their parent-time, the parent may consent for the children to travel with a sports team, religious group, school group, relatives, friends, by themselves, or with others.

22. If the children will be travelling for more than 7 days, the parent arranging the travel will notify the other parent at least 30 days in advance. That parent will give the other parent the travel schedule, locations and phone numbers at least 15 days in advance. In case of emergency, the parent will provide as much notice as possible.

Child care

23. A child care provider for our children must be:

24. Other terms about child care: The parties agree that, where reasonably available, childcare provided during each parent's custodial time shall be by a relative or other mutually agreed upon caregiver. Each parent may arrange reasonable alternative childcare as necessary, provided such arrangements are consistent with the child's best interests and do not unreasonably interfere with the other parent's custodial rights or scheduled parenting time.

Relocation of a parent (Utah Code 81-9-209)

25. If either parent moves 150 miles or more from the other, the moving parent must give the non-moving parent a written Notice of Relocation. The notice must be sent at least 60 days before the planned move.

a. The written Notice of Relocation must include:

- Information about the move;
- A proposed parent-time schedule; and
- A statement that the parents will not interfere with the other parent's parent-time.

b. If the moving parent does not give the non-moving parent a Notice of Relocation, the moving parent will be in contempt of the court's order.

26. If either parent lives 150 miles or more away from the other, or if the parents live in different countries, parent-time will be as the parties agree. If they are unable to agree, the following will be the minimum parent-time for the noncustodial parent:

Relocation Schedule (Utah Code 81-9-209)

a. in years ending in odd number, the minor children will spend the following holidays with the noncustodial parent:

i.

(A) fall break if the minor child's school dismisses for fall break, beginning on the day that school dismisses for fall break and ending on the day before school resumes; or
(B) Labor Day if the minor child's school does not dismiss for a fall break, beginning on the day that school dismisses for Labor Day and ending on the day before school resumes; and

ii. the entire winter break period beginning on the day that school dismisses for the winter break and ending on the day before school resumes;

b. in years ending in an even number, the minor children will spend the following holidays with the noncustodial parent:

i.

(A) spring break, beginning on the day that school dismisses for the spring break and ending on the day before school resumes; or

(B) Presidents' Day if the minor child's school does not dismiss for a spring break, beginning on the day that school dismisses for Presidents' Day and ending on the day before school resumes; and

ii. Thanksgiving, beginning on the day that school dismisses for Thanksgiving and ending on the day before school resumes.

c. extended parent-time equal to half of the summer or off-track time for consecutive weeks with:

i. the noncustodial parent entitled to the first half of the summer or off-track time in years ending in an odd number; and

ii. the noncustodial parent entitled to the second half of the summer or off-track time in years ending in an even number; and

iii. the noncustodial parent will return the child to the custodial home no later than seven days before school begins. This week will be counted when determining the amount of parent-time to be divided between the parents for the summer or off-track period. The parties will mutually agree on this extended time each year. If they are unable to agree, the noncustodial parent will select the dates for the extended time period.

d. One weekend per month at the option and expense of the noncustodial parent. The noncustodial parent's monthly weekend entitlement is subject to the following restrictions.

i. If the noncustodial parent has not designated a specific weekend for parent-time, the noncustodial parent will receive the last weekend of each month unless a holiday assigned to the custodial parent falls on that particular weekend. If a holiday assigned to the custodial parent falls on a weekend on which the non-custodial parent normally exercises parent-time, the non-custodial parent is entitled to the weekend before the holiday.

ii. If a noncustodial parent's extended parent-time or parent-time over a holiday extends into or through the first weekend of the next month, that weekend will be considered the noncustodial parent's monthly weekend entitlement for that month.

iii. If a child is out of school for teacher development days or snow days after the children begin the school year, or other days not included in the list of holidays in this Relocation Schedule and those days are contiguous with the noncustodial parent's monthly weekend or holiday parent-time, those days will be included in the weekend or holiday parent-time.

e. The custodial parent is entitled to all parent-time not specifically allocated to the noncustodial parent.

f. In addition to the parent-time for which a non-custodial parent is entitled under the statute, the non-custodial parent is entitled to, at least two times a week:

i. brief telephone contact with the minor child at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration and

ii. virtual parent-time if the equipment is reasonably available at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration. If the parties cannot agree whether the equipment is reasonably available, the court shall decide, taking into consideration the best interest of the minor child, each parent's ability to handle any additional expense for virtual parent-time, and any other factors the court considers material.

iii. Virtual parent-time supplements, but does not replace the in-person parent-time the noncustodial parent is entitled to.

27. Other terms about relocating: If either parent relocates more than fifty (50) miles from Bountiful, Utah, that relocation shall constitute a material change in circumstances requiring review of the parenting plan. Upon such relocation, the children's primary physical residence shall temporarily remain with the non-relocating parent, and the existing parenting schedule shall remain in effect to the extent practicable, unless otherwise agreed in writing by the parties or modified by court order. The relocating parent and non-relocating parent shall meet in good faith within thirty (30) days of notice of relocation to develop a revised parenting plan reflecting the new geographic circumstances. If the parties are unable to reach agreement, either party may petition the court for modification of custody and parenting time, and the temporary arrangement described herein shall remain in effect until further agreement of the parties or court order. Nothing in this provision shall be interpreted to permanently modify legal custody, which shall remain subject to the existing court order unless and until modified by the court.

28. If either parent lives 150 miles or more away from the other or the parents live in separate countries, costs for the children's travel expenses for parent-time will be paid by the parent who moved.

29. If a parent has been found in contempt for not being current on all support obligations, and they do not have primary physical care of the child, they will be responsible for the child's related travel expenses.

30. Reimbursement for the child's travel expenses must be made within 30 days of receipt of documents detailing those expenses.

Resolving disputes

31. If the parents need to resolve a dispute regarding the children, they will discuss the issues in good faith and try to reach an agreement based on what is best for their children. If the parents are unable to agree, they will go to the following before bringing the issue to the court:

a. Mediation

Changing the plan

This plan remains in effect until changed. A change comes from a modification of a court order.

32. A joint physical custody arrangement may result in denial of cash assistance under the Employment Support Act, Title 35A, Chapter 3, of the Utah Code.

END OF PARENTING PLAN

Income: Petitioner (Albert Chad Meynders) (Utah Code 81-6-203)

33. Albert Chad Meynders's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $18125. Albert Chad Meynders receives the following gross monthly income:
- Albert Chad Meynders is employed at US Foods. Albert Chad Meynders earns $18125 gross (pre-tax) monthly income working a 40-hour a week job or less.

Income: Respondent (Rachel Lynn Meynders) (Utah Code 81-6-203)

34. Rachel Lynn Meynders's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $9750. Rachel Lynn Meynders receives the following gross monthly income:
- Rachel Lynn Meynders is employed at Ovation Hospice. Rachel Lynn Meynders earns $9750 gross (pre-tax) monthly income working a 40-hour a week job or less.
35. The adjusted gross monthly income for Rachel Lynn Meynders is $9750.

Child support (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, Parts 1 and 2)

36. Albert Chad Meynders believes the guideline amount for child support is unjust, inappropriate, or not in the best interest of our children for the following reasons: The reason(s) for deviation are The parties agree that Child Support shall be calculated and paid monthly based on Father's base annual salary of $175,000, consistent with the Utah Child Support Guidelines and the parties' custody arrangement. In addition, Father shall pay additional Child Support on any bonus, incentive compensation, or performance-based cash payment actually received ("Bonus Income"). For purposes of this Agreement, "Bonus Income" shall mean cash compensation actually received by Father that is in addition to base salary and is not subject to repayment or forfeiture at the time of receipt. Bonus Income shall include annual bonuses, performance bonuses, commissions, and cash incentive payments, but shall not include unvested equity, deferred compensation not yet distributed, or non-cash benefits. Upon receipt of any Bonus Income, Father shall pay additional Child Support equal to 5.5% of the gross Bonus Income while two (2) minor children are subject to child support, and 2.75% of the gross Bonus Income after only one (1) minor child remains subject to child support. For purposes of this provision, "receipt" shall mean the date funds are actually paid and made available to Father, regardless of when earned or awarded. Payment of additional Child Support under this provision shall be made within thirty (30) days of receipt of the applicable Bonus income. For clarity, no additional Child Support shall be owed on Bonus Income that is not actually received..

37. It is in the best interest of the children that Albert Chad Meynders be ordered to pay child support to Rachel Lynn Meynders as follows:

- a. $292.00 per month. This deviates from the Utah Uniform Child Support Guidelines.
- b. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for each child ends when:
 - a child turns 18 or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or
 - a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the United States armed forces, or is emancipated (Utah Code 78A-6-801).

38. Once a child is no longer eligible to receive child support, the support amount for the eligible children should be recalculated using the child support worksheet (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, Parts 1 and 2). The parties may not divide the base child support award by the number of children and subtract that amount from the prior child support amount.

39. Child support will be paid as follows:

Venmo will be used for payments identifying that the payment is for Child Support or Spousal Support so that appropriate records may be maintained.

40. The issue of past-due child support may be decided by future court or administrative action.

41. Albert Chad Meynders and Rachel Lynn Meynders will each pay half of any ORS fee.

- a. If a fee is withheld from payments to Rachel Lynn Meynders, Albert Chad Meynders will reimburse Rachel Lynn Meynders for half the fee.

42. The parties must notify each other within 30 days of any change in their income.

43. The Office of Recovery Services (<https://ors.utah.gov/>) provides services to individuals who are seeking assistance in the collection or enforcement of child support orders.

Dependent children for tax purposes

44. The parents may claim the parties' children as dependents/exemptions for tax purposes as follows:

45. Albert Chad Meynders may claim the parties' children as dependents/exemptions for tax purposes in odd numbered years. Rachel Lynn Meynders may claim the parties' children as dependents/exemptions for tax purposes in even numbered years.

Child health care (Utah Code 81-6-208)

46. The parties must provide health care coverage for the medical expenses of the dependent children. Health care coverage means coverage under which medical services are provided to a dependent child through: fee for service, a health maintenance organization, a preferred provider organization, any other type of private health insurance, or public health care coverage. Utah Code 81-6-101(14),

47. The parent who is able to obtain the most affordable medical, hospital, and dental insurance for the dependent children must maintain medical, hospital, and dental care insurance for the dependent children if it is available at reasonable cost. If medical insurance is not available at reasonable cost then both parents must ensure the children have health care coverage. This may require applying for public health care coverage, such as CHIP or Medicaid.

- a. If, at any time, a dependent child is covered by the medical, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the coverage will be as follows:
 - Albert Chad Meynders's insurance will be primary coverage.
 - Rachel Lynn Meynders's insurance will be secondary coverage.
- b. If a parent remarries and that parent's dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the coverage will be as follows:
 - Albert Chad Meynders's spouse's insurance will be primary coverage.
 - Rachel Lynn Meynders's spouse's insurance will be secondary coverage.
- c. Both parties will equally share the out-of-pocket costs of the insurance premiums.
- d. Both parties will equally share all uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses that are reasonable and necessary. This includes deductibles, co-insurance, and co-payments paid by a party for the dependent children.
- e. The party who pays health care expenses must provide the other party written verification of the cost and payment within 30 days.
- f. If a party does not follow this order and provide written verification, they may not be able to receive credit for health care expenses or recover the other party's share of the expenses.
- g. On or before January 2 of each year, the party ordered to maintain coverage must provide verification of coverage to the other party, and ORS, if they are involved.
- h. If there is any change in coverage, within 30 days of the change the party ordered to maintain coverage must notify the other party and ORS, if they are involved.

Child care expenses (Utah Code 81-6-209)

48. Both parties will equally share all reasonable work, career, or occupational training-related child care expenses.

- a. The party who pays child care expenses must provide the other party written verification of the cost and identity of the child care provider. This must be done when a provider is first hired, and any time the other party asks for the information. The party incurring or paying child care expenses must notify the other party of any change of a child care provider or monthly expense. This must be done within 30 calendar days of the change.
- b. The party not directly paying for child care must pay their share of child care expenses as soon as they receive verification of the expenses.
- c. If a party does not follow the order and provide written verification, they may not receive credit for work, career, or occupational training-related child care expenses or recover the other party's share of the expenses.

Public assistance statement – Office of Recovery Services (ORS) (Utah Code 81-6-106(2)-(3))

49. Neither party has received or is receiving public assistance from the State of Utah.

Personal property (Utah Code Title 81, Chapters 1, 4, 6, and 9)

50. All personal property not addressed in the divorce should be divided as the parties have already divided it.

Vehicles

51. Vehicles will be divided as follows:

Year: 2011

Additional provisions

59. The parties will adhere to the following additional provisions:

Additional Provision: ADDITIONAL CHILD-RELATED EXPENSES The parties agree that the following cost-sharing obligations are separate from base child support and spousal support. These obligations are contractual in nature and shall continue as expressly stated below. 1. Cell Phone Service The parties shall equally share the reasonable cost of one cellular telephone plan per child. 2. Automobile Insurance The parties shall equally share the cost of automobile insurance for a vehicle primarily used by each child. For purposes of this Agreement, a "vehicle primarily used by the child" means a single vehicle regularly used by the child for transportation, education, employment, or daily living needs. Neither party shall be required to provide or insure more than one vehicle per child. 3. Vehicle Maintenance The parties shall equally share reasonable and necessary routine maintenance costs for the vehicle primarily used by each child, including oil changes, tire replacement, brakes, battery service, and manufacturer-recommended maintenance. The parties shall not be responsible for: * purchase or replacement of a vehicle * cosmetic repairs or upgrades * traffic citations or penalties * damage caused by negligence or misconduct of the child or either parent 4. Health Insurance The parties shall cooperate in maintaining health insurance coverage for each child. To the extent available through employment at reasonable cost, the parent with access to dependent coverage shall maintain such coverage. 5. Uninsured Medical Expenses The parties shall equally share reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, vision, orthodontic, and mental or behavioral health expenses for each child. Each party shall be provided notice and documentation of any individual expense exceeding $500, and reimbursement shall be made within thirty (30) days of receipt of documentation. The parties shall not be responsible for elective, cosmetic, or non-medically necessary expenses unless agreed to in writing in advance. In the event of a dispute regarding medical necessity, the recommendation of the treating provider shall control unless rebutted by a written opinion from a licensed medical provider. 6. Duration of Obligations The obligations in Sections 1–5 shall terminate for each child upon the earliest of: a. the child attaining twenty-six (26) years of age; or b. the child becoming fully financially independent through full-time employment or marriage; or c. the child's completion of a post-secondary education program (including college, trade, or vocational training), if applicable. 7. Final Clarification These obligations are intended solely as agreed cost-sharing between the parties. They are not intended to expand or modify statutory child support obligations and shall be interpreted consistent with that intent.

Additional Provision: Spousal Support Agreement - Lump-Sum Payout The parties acknowledge the duration of their marriage and their shared economic partnership. In lieu of periodic spousal support, the parties agree that Rachel shall receive a lump-sum spousal support award in the agreed present value amount of Ninety Thousand Dollars ($90,000). The lump-sum spousal support shall be satisfied by assigning to Rachel Chad's interest in the net proceeds from the sale of the marital residence. If Chad's interest in the net sale proceeds is less than the agreed lump-sum amount, the remaining balance shall be satisfied by transferring additional retirement assets from Chad to Rachel pursuant to a Qualified Domestic Relations Order or other legally authorized transfer. For purposes of calculating the retirement transfer, the parties agree that tax-deferred retirement assets shall be increased by twenty percent (20%) to account for their anticipated future tax treatment. Upon completion of the transfers required by this provision, Chad's spousal support obligation shall be fully satisfied, and neither Chad nor Rachel shall have any further claim for spousal support, whether temporary, permanent, rehabilitative, or otherwise. Except as necessary to enforce this provision, Chad and Rachel knowingly and voluntarily waive any right to seek the establishment, modification, extension, increase, or decrease of spousal support arising from their marriage, to the fullest extent permitted under Utah law. The parties acknowledge that this provision is intended to provide a complete, final, and non-modifiable resolution of all spousal support obligations while allowing each party to become financially independent without future support obligations or annual financial disclosures.

Additional Provision: Tax Dependency Provision The parties shall alternate the right to claim the parties' children as dependents for federal and state income tax purposes in accordance with the schedule set forth herein, provided the claiming parent is legally entitled to claim the applicable child under then-current tax law. If only one child remains eligible to be claimed as a dependent, the parties shall continue alternating the dependency exemption for that child on an annual basis until the child is no longer eligible to be claimed. If a parent is not legally eligible to claim a child under applicable tax law for any tax year, the other parent may claim the child for that year without affecting the alternating schedule for future years unless otherwise agreed in writing. Each party shall timely execute any IRS forms or other documentation reasonably necessary to allow the other party to claim a child in any year in which that party is entitled to do so under this Agreement, provided the requesting party has substantially complied with all support obligations required under this Decree. If changes in federal or state tax law materially affect the ability of either party to claim a child as a dependent, the parties shall cooperate in good faith to implement the intent of this provision. If they are unable to reach agreement, the matter shall first be submitted to mediation before either party seeks relief from the Court.

Additional Provision: Sale of the Marital Residence The parties acknowledge that the marital residence has been listed for sale with a licensed real estate broker mutually selected by the parties. The listing price has been established based upon the broker's Comparative Market Analysis and the parties' mutual agreement. The parties shall cooperate in good faith to facilitate the prompt sale of the property and shall timely execute all documents reasonably necessary to complete the transaction. Unless the parties otherwise agree in writing, all material marketing decisions, including recommended adjustments to the listing price, acceptance of offers, repair requests, seller concessions, and other customary matters arising during the listing period, shall be made in accordance with the written recommendation of the listing broker. If the listing broker recommends a reduction in the listing price, the recommendation shall be provided to both parties in writing. Unless both parties agree to an alternative course of action within five (5) business days, the listing price shall be adjusted in accordance with the broker's written recommendation. If the parties mutually determine that replacement of the listing broker is necessary prior to the sale of the property, they shall jointly select a successor licensed real estate broker. If the parties are unable to agree upon a successor broker within ten (10) business days, either party may submit the matter to mediation before seeking relief from the Court. The net proceeds from the sale, after payment of mortgages, liens, customary closing costs, commissions, taxes, and other expenses of sale, shall be distributed in accordance with the property division provisions of this Decree. The parties acknowledge that the estimated value of the marital residence is based upon the current listing price and the Comparative Market Analysis prepared by the listing broker. Such estimated value is for settlement purposes only and shall not constitute a guaranteed sale price or appraisal.

Duty to sign documents

60. The parties will sign all documents necessary to comply with the divorce decree within 60 days from entry of the decree. If a party fails to sign a document within 60 days, the other party may ask the court to appoint someone to sign the document. (Utah Rule of Civil Procedure 70)
