Attorney for Petitioner

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT, IN AND FOR DAVIS
COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of:	Decree of Divorce
Mckenzie Mason, Petitioner,	Civil No.: 264700946
v.	Judge: Joseph Bean
Gavin Taylor, Respondent.	Commissioner: Julie Winkler
	(Tier 4)

THIS MATTER HAVING COME BEFORE THE COURT, pursuant to Rule 104 of the Rules of Civil Procedure, the Petitioner, McKenzie Mason, individually and by and through her attorney of record, James I. Watts, and the Respondent, Gavin Taylor, pro-se. The parties having come to a resolution of all matters raised by Petitioner's Petition for Divorce which has been memorialized into a Stipulation. That Stipulation having been filed with the court. The Court having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law does Order Adjudge and Decree as follows:

DECREE DIVORCE

1. The court awards the parties a Decree of Divorce on the basis of the irreconcilable differences arising during the course of the marriage.

JURISDICTION

1. The parties are residents of Davis County, State of Utah, and have been for a period in excess of three (3) months prior to commencement of this action.
2. Jurisdiction is proper pursuant to U.C.A. § 78A-5-102 in and that the Petitioner and the minor child both reside in Davis County.
3. Venue is proper pursuant to U.C.A. § 78B-3a-101.

Children

4. There has been one child born from that marriage to wit: K.T. DOB 01/20/2025.
5. Pursuant to Rule 4-901 (b) Utah Code of Judicial Administration, there are no proceedings for custody of the above-named minor child filed or pending in a Juvenile Court in Utah or in any other state.
6. Utah is the home state of said minor child pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-11- 102(6) at the time of commencement of the proceedings.

Custody

- 7. The parties are fit and proper persons and are awarded joint legal and joint physical custody of the parties' minor child.
- 8. The Petitioner's home address shall be the minor child's primary residence for the purpose of the child's school and educational purposes
- 9. The Parenting Plan filed concurrently herewith and as required by Utah Code Ann. 81-9-203 et seq. is made a part hereof by reference. (Exhibit A)
- 10. The Respondent should have rights of parent-time with the child every other weekend, beginning at 4:00 p.m. on Friday and ending on Sunday at 6:00 p.m. and on Monday and Thursday evenings from 3:00 p.m. until 6:30 p.m.
- 11. The Christmas and Thanksgiving holiday will be alternated and coordinated so that the minor child is with the Respondent on the holidays when he has his 2 children from a prior marriage. Christmas holiday should be from Christmas Eve at 5 p.m. to Christmas day at 3 p.m. and the Thanksgiving holiday from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Thanksgiving Day.
- 12. Mothers Day is to be spent with the Petitioner and Fathers Day to be spent with the Respondent. The day is defined as from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

13. The annual trip with the Mason family to Mexico will be honored and continued and the Petitioner should be entitled to have K.T. during that time acknowledging that it may interrupt Respondent's parent time.

Relocation

14. If either party moves more than 50 miles from the other parent, the moving party should provide, if possible, 90 days advanced written notice of the intended relocation to the other parent.

15. That the moving parent who fails to comply with the notice of relocation may be found in contempt of the court's order. The written notice should comply with the provisions as outlined in U.C.A § 81-9-209. Upon receiving notice of impending relocation, the parties should attend mediation to assist in creating a relocation plan and revising the Parenting Plan. Notwithstanding the agreement to cooperate in revising said plans neither party acquiesces or stipulates to the relocation of either party nor do both parties reserve the right to petition the court for an order modifying the divorce decree.

Passport

16. The parties are to cooperate with one another in order to ensure that K.T. has valid US passport at all times.

17. The Petitioner should have income imputed to her at minimum wage, $1,257.00 per month, pursuant to U.C.A. 81-6-203.

18. The Respondent is currently employed by Dell EMC on a full-time basis earning $7,799.00 per month.

19. That the Respondent is ordered to pay child support in the amount of $ 840.00 which amount is consistent with the parties' current verifiable income consistent with the Uniform Child Support Guidelines paying said sum in two monthly installments one half on the 5th and one half on the 20th of each month. Respondent should continue to pay said sum monthly until such time as the child becomes 18 years of age or is graduated from high school during the child's normal expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later.

(worksheet attached)

20. That the child support should be reduced by 50% if the child is with the Respondent by order of the court or by a written agreement of the parties for at least 25 at any 30 consecutive days or reduced 25% for each child for time periods during which the child is with the Petitioner by order the court or by written agreement of parties for at least 12 of any 30 consecutive days in extended parent time. If the dependent child is a recipient of aid to families with dependent children, then any agreement by the parties for reduction of child support during extended visitation should be approved by the Office of Recovery Services. However, normal visitation Holiday visits to the custodial parent should not be considered an interruption of the consecutive day requirement.

21. That the Petitioner should be entitled to mandatory income withholding relief pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §62 A 11 parts 4 and 5.

Daycare

22. Each party will pay one half of any work-related day-care expenses.

Extracurricular Activities/School Registration Fees

23. The parties are to be responsible for one half of all extracurricular activities' fees for those activities that the child is enrolled in that both parties have agreed to their participation, in writing.

24. The parties are ordered to share equally all school registration fees to include books, class fees, lab fees, and lunch fees once the child commences attending school.

Health Care

25. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208 it is reasonable and proper that the parties maintain medical and dental insurance for the benefit of the minor child, if it is available at reasonable cost through their employment.

26. The Respondent is ordered to continue maintaining insurance for the benefit of the child.

27. If both parties have insurance for the dependent child the Petitioner's insurance should be secondary and the Respondent's should be primary.

28. The parent who provides the insurance coverage may receive credit against the base child support award or recover the other parent's share of the child's premium. If the parent does not have insurance but another member of the parent's household provides insurance coverage for the children, the parent may receive credit against the base child support award or recover the other parent's share of the children's portion of the premium.

29. The parties are ordered to share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical expenses, including deductibles and the per capita out of pocket expenses for the health insurance premiums for the minor children.

30. The Respondent's portion of the per capita out of pocket expense for the insurance premiums is to be deducted from his child support obligation pursuant to U.C.A. 81-6-208 (8)

31. The parent ordered to maintain insurance should provide verification coverage to the other parent, or to the Office of Recovery Services under Title IV of the Social Security Act; upon initial enrollment of the dependent children, and thereafter on or before January 2, at each calendar year. The parent should notify the other parent, or the Office of Recovery Services, and any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within 30 days of the date that parent first knew or should have known of the change.

32. The parent who incurs medical expenses should provide written verification of the cost in payment of the medical expense to the other parent within 30 days of payment.

33. The parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent share of the expenses, if that parent fails to comply with provisions of the Paragraph 23 set forth above.

34. The parent who provides the insurance coverage may receive credit against the base child support award or recover the other parent's share of the child's portion of the premium. If the parent does not have insurance but another member of the parent's household provides insurance coverage for the children, the parent may receive credit against the base child support award or recover the other parent's share of the children's portion of the premium.
