

K. Bradley Carr (14428)
CARR | WOODALL
Attorney for Petitioner
1309 W South Jordan Pkwy, Suite 200
South Jordan, Utah 84095
Telephone: (801) 254-9450
email: brad@carrwoodall.com

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT IN AND FOR DAVIS COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of KELLIE MICHELLE HANSEN, Petitioner, and CHRISTOPHER LEE HANSEN, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No. 25-4701002 Judge Ronald Russell Commissioner Christina Wilson
---	--

This case came before the Honorable Ronald Russell for a bench trial on September 18, 2026. Having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, the Court enters the following DECREE OF DIVORCE:

DIVORCE

1. Kellie is granted a divorce from Christopher on the ground of irreconcilable differences.

CUSTODY

2. The parties have five minor children: S.H., born November 2018; D.H., born June 2016; T.H., born October 2014; S.H., born May 2013; and T.H., born June 2011.

3. Kellie is awarded sole legal custody and sole physical custody of the minor children. Christopher has no decision-making authority.

PARENT-TIME

4. Christopher is awarded parent-time under Utah Code § 81-9-302. That schedule begins only after Christopher satisfies every condition in the next paragraph. Until then, Christopher's parent-time shall not include overnights, shall be scheduled at times it can be supervised, and shall be supervised by a mutually agreeable supervisor.

5. Christopher's parent-time expands to the schedule in Utah Code § 81-9-302, and will not be supervised, when he has satisfied each of these conditions:

a. Housing. Christopher obtains and maintains housing adequate for the children to stay overnight.

b. Consistency. Christopher exercises at least ninety percent (90%) of the visits he schedules with the supervisor for six consecutive months.

c. Sobriety. Christopher completes six months of remote breath testing (BACtrack or equivalent) at 8:00 a.m. and 8:00 p.m. daily, plus 12:00 p.m. on any day he has the children, with zero positive or missed tests.

d. Criminal matters. Christopher resolves his pending criminal matters and complies with all orders and terms of probation in them.

e. Treatment. A licensed therapist certifies that Christopher is engaged in treatment and making progress.

6. The conditions in the preceding paragraph are the specific goals and expectations that Christopher must meet before his parent-time becomes unsupervised.

7. Christopher's parent-time shall be supervised by a person the parties agree on. If the parties cannot agree on a supervisor, or there are other scheduling issues for parent-time, either party may file a motion asking the Court to decide.

PARENTING PLAN

8. The parties shall follow this parenting plan:

a. Information and records. The parties will keep each other informed of the children's activities and appointments. Each party will notify the other of special events involving the children, such as school activities, church events, sports events, and graduations, so that the other party may attend. Both parties are entitled to direct access to all of the children's records. Both parties will be listed as parents, with basic contact information, with all third parties who interact with the children. The parent exercising parent-time will make minor day-to-day decisions and emergency medical decisions.

b. Educational plan. Kellie's residence determines the children's schools.

c. Religious plan. Kellie's residence is the LDS home ward of the children. The children may attend church in their home ward, including during Christopher's parent-time.

d. Medical plan. Unless the parties agree otherwise in writing, the children will follow the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services recommendations for well-child checks, treatment, and vaccinations.

e. Contact information. Each party will keep the other informed of his or her address, phone number, and email and will give notice of any change within 48 hours.

Each party will give the other the names and contact information of the people who work with the children, such as teachers, medical providers, therapists, and coaches.

f. Communication between the parties. All communication between the parties shall be civil. A party shall tell the other party about a medical emergency immediately. Each party will respond to the other's requests within 24 hours, or within 48 hours if the party has no service.

g. Our Family Wizard. The parties shall use Our Family Wizard for all communication with each other about the children and parent-time. Each party shall open an Our Family Wizard account within 14 days after this Decree is entered and shall pay his or her own cost. A party may call or text the other party only about a medical emergency or another emergency involving a child. Except in emergencies, all communication shall occur through OFW.

h. Communication with the children. Communication between a parent and the children by phone, video, text, or other electronic means shall be at reasonable hours, for a reasonable duration, uncensored, unmonitored, and unrecorded. Reasonable means that neither parent goes more than 24 hours without being able to have some contact with the children, or 48 hours if a party has no service.

i. Travel. When the children travel away from a party's home overnight or longer, the parent exercising parent-time shall tell the other parent in advance the travel dates, the destinations, the places where the children or the traveling parent can be reached, and the name and phone number of a third person who knows where the children are. Utah Code § 81-9-202(19).

j. Confidentiality. The parents shall keep information about the children confidential, including medical and educational records, unless the law requires disclosure. The parents and their family members shall not use information about the other parent in a way that harms the children.

k. Relationships. Neither parent will introduce the children to a new romantic partner until the parent has dated that person for at least three months.

l. Relocation. The parties shall follow the relocation statute for any move of more than 50 miles from the other party's current residence.

m. Mutual restraints. Both parties shall be restrained from saying or doing anything that would tend to diminish the love and affection of the children for the other parent, including but not limited to demeaning or disparaging the other parent, speaking derogatorily or in a belittling manner about the other parent, or from attempting to influence the child's preference regarding custody or parent time. As used in this paragraph, demeaning or disparaging means to say anything ill of the other whether they believe it to be true or not. Neither party will interrogate or "pump" the children for information about parent time or the potential significant relationships of the other party. The parties will not put the children in the middle. The parties will not discuss the other parties' past with the minor children. The parties will not discuss with the children adult issues including any legal or financial related issues with the child. Neither parent should question the minor children about the other parent's activities, personal relationships or how the other parent spends his/her time or money and ensure that each parent will be supportive and respectful of the other parent in the presence of the minor child. The parties will not use the children to send messages to the other for parent time issues but will discuss such issues directly with one another and outside the presence and hearing of the child. Both parties should be restrained from making parent time arrangements or adjustments through the child. Neither party shall use corporal punishment as a form of discipline on the child. Both parties are mutually restrained from harassing, annoying, or otherwise bothering the other party or the minor child, or from committing any domestic violence or abuse against the other party or the minor child. Neither party will use alcohol in excess, illegal drugs, or abuse prescription drugs within 24 hours prior to or during parent time with the child. Both parties are mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under this paragraph and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or shall remove the children from such circumstances.

n. Modification. The parties may modify this parenting plan by an agreement in writing signed by both of them.

o. Mediation. Prior to or concurrent with a petition to modify being filed, the parties must first make an offer to resolve the issue through mediation, and mediation will be scheduled promptly and both parties will share the cost equally. If both parties agree, mediation may be utilized, but will not be required for exigent circumstances or enforcement actions.

ADVISORY GUIDELINES

9. The following advisory guidelines from Utah Code § 81-9-202 apply. While Christopher's parent-time is supervised, the supervision and no-overnight requirements in this Decree control over any guideline.

a. A parent-time schedule that both parents agree on is preferable to a court-imposed solution.

b. The parent-time schedule shall be used to maximize the continuity and stability of the children's lives.

c. Each parent shall give special consideration to make the children available to attend family functions, including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of a child or of either parent that may inadvertently conflict with the parent-time schedule.

d. If Christopher provides transportation, Kellie shall have the children ready for parent-time at the time they are to be picked up. Kellie shall be present at her home, or make reasonable alternate arrangements, to receive the children at the time they are returned.

e. If Kellie transports the children, Christopher shall be at the appointed place at the time he is to receive the children. Christopher shall have the children ready to be picked up at the appointed time and place, or make reasonable alternate arrangements for Kellie to pick up the children.

f. A parent may not interrupt regular school hours for a school-age child for the exercise of parent-time.

g. A parent may not withhold parent-time or child support because the other parent failed to comply with the court-ordered parent-time schedule.

h. Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communications with the children, in the form of mail privileges and virtual parent-time if the equipment is reasonably available.

CHILD SUPPORT

10. Christopher shall pay Kellie child support of $916.00 per month for the five minor children, effective October 1, 2026.

11. Judgment is entered against Christopher and in favor of Kellie for $23,604.00 in child support arrears for October 2024 through September 2026. That amount is $997.00 per month for October 2024 through May 2026, based on six children, and $916.00 per month for June 2026 through September 2026, based on five children.

12. Child support is due one-half by the 5th day and one-half by the 20th day of each month. Child support for each child continues until the child turns 18 or graduates from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever is later. When a child is no longer entitled to support, the base child support is adjusted to the amount in the child support table for the remaining children.

13. Child support is subject to income withholding. Kellie may use the Office of Recovery Services to collect child support.

CHILDREN'S EXPENSES

14. Childcare. Each parent shall share equally the reasonable work-related childcare expenses. A parent who incurs childcare expense shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of a childcare provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of a provider and thereafter on the request of the other parent. When there is a childcare expense, they must share proof (including venmo, or written amount and signed by babysitting party) of payment to the other party within 30 days. A parent shall notify the other parent of any change of childcare provider or the monthly expense of childcare within 30 calendar days of the date of the change. A parent incurring childcare expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if the parent incurring the expenses fails to notify the other of the childcare and expense, or change in childcare expense as required herein.

15. Medical and dental insurance and premiums. One or both parents shall provide health care coverage for the medical expenses of their minor children if such coverage is available to a parent at a reasonable cost. The parent who can secure the best coverage at the most reasonable cost should do so. Each parent shall share equally the actual out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent who maintains the insurance for the child's portion of insurance. See Utah Code 81-6-208. If, in the future, any children are covered by both parents (or the insurance plan of a future spouse), the coverage of Kellie shall be primary, and the coverage of Christopher will be secondary.

16. Medical and dental out-of-pocket costs. Each parent shall equally share all other reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical, dental, mental health, and orthodontia expenses incurred for the children, including deductibles and copayments. A parent who incurs such medical expenses for a minor child, shall provide proof of the expense and proof of the payment to the other parent within 30 calendar days, and shall be entitled to reimbursement of one-half by the notified party within thirty (30) calendar days. If a party fails to notify the other of medical expenses within 30 days of payment of an expense, that party may be denied the right to reimbursement for such expenses. See Utah Code 81-6-208.

17. Division of accounts. Pursuant to Utah Code 15-4-6.7, each party will elect that providers for dental, medical and school expenses will create separate accounts for each party to pay their half of the costs separately.

18. Extracurricular expenses. The parties shall share any agreed upon, in writing, extra-curricular expenses incurred on behalf of the minor children.

19. School expenses. Each party shall pay fifty percent (50%) of any required out-of-pocket school expenses for the minor children incurred during the time leading up to and including high school. The party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment, and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of documents of verification.

ALIMONY

20. Neither party is awarded alimony.

REAL PROPERTY

21. The parties own no real property. Any claim Christopher believes he has about the former marital home is not part of this case. This Decree does not divide any interest in that home.

RETIREMENT, ACCOUNTS, AND PERSONAL PROPERTY

22. There is no retirement account or financial account to divide. Each party is awarded the personal property now in his or her possession.

VEHICLES

23. Christopher is awarded the 2023 Kia Telluride. Christopher shall pay all debt associated with it and hold Kellie harmless. Kellie is awarded the Jeep Wrangler. She shall pay all debt associated with it and hold Christopher harmless.

DEBTS

24. Each party shall pay the debts that he or she incurred, regardless of whose name is on the debt, and hold the other party harmless. This paragraph applies to the Bank of America debt of about $23,000.00. Whoever incurred that debt, or has that asset, shall pay it.

TAXES

25. Christopher is responsible for any tax obligations for 2024 and all earlier years, and he shall hold Kellie harmless. Christopher is entitled to any refund for those years. Kellie was not involved in the income earning in any of these years or the preparation of tax returns.

26. Beginning with the first tax year in which Christopher is current on all support obligations, including arrears, as of December 31, each party will claim half the minor children on their taxes. When an odd number of children can only be claimed, Kellie will claim the extra child in odd years and Christopher will claim the extra child in even years. Christopher may not claim any children on his taxes if he is not current on all support obligations, including arrears, as of December 31 of the applicable tax year.

ATTORNEY FEES AND OTHER REQUESTS

27. Each party shall pay his or her own attorney fees and costs.
28. Christopher's requests for a private guardian ad litem and for an advance on the marital estate are denied.

-----END OF ORDER. THE COURT'S SIGNATURE IS AT THE TOP OF FIRST PAGE-----\

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

I certify that the foregoing document was served on the 18 day of September 2026, in the manner and on the person indicated below:

Christopher Lee Hansen CLHDADEO@gmail.com	☐ First Class Mail ☒ Email ☐ e-filing
--	---

/s/ K. Bradley Carr