HEREBY ORDERS, ADJUDGES, AND DECREES AS FOLLOWS:

DECREE OF DIVORCE
In the Matter of the Marriage of Mikell Baron and Kylee Baron
Aland Stanger, PLLC

Divorce.

1. The parties are granted a Decree of Divorce dissolving their marriage on the grounds of irreconcilable differences, the same to become final and absolute upon signing and entry by the Court.

Child of Marriage.

2. The parties have one (1) minor Child together; namely: M.B., born April 30, 2025, (hereinafter referred to as “Minor Child”).

Custody and Parent-time.

3. Legal Custody. The parties shall share joint legal custody of the Minor Child.
4. Parenting Plan. The parties shall follow the parenting plan incorporated herein.
5. Physical Custody. The parties shall share joint physical custody of the Minor Child.
6. Primary Residence for School and Sports. For purposes of school boundary determination, school enrollment, sports and activity registration, and any other purpose requiring designation of a single residence, the Minor Child’s primary residence shall be Mikell’s residence, located at 3531 West 150 South, Layton, Utah 84041.
7. If Mikell relocates her residence to a location more than thirty (30) miles from the Marital Residence, the designation of the Minor Child’s primary residence for school boundary and sports purposes shall be subject to renegotiation between the parties. In that event, Mikell shall provide Kylee with written notice of the relocation not less than sixty (60) days in advance, and the parties shall confer in good faith regarding the primary residence designation. If the parties are unable to reach agreement within thirty (30) days after the notice is given, either party may petition the Court for a determination of the Minor Child's primary residence designation, and the Court shall determine the issue based on the best interest of the Minor Child. Nothing in this paragraph limits either party's obligations under Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-209 or the relocation provisions set forth below.

8. Regular Parent-Time. Regular parent-time shall be as the parties can agree. If they are unable to agree, the parties shall exercise regular parent-time as follows:

a. Mikell's work schedule. Mikell is employed as a firefighter with Layton City and works a rotating shift schedule consisting of forty-eight (48) consecutive hours on duty followed by ninety-six (96) hours off duty, which produces a repeating six-day cycle. The parties shall exercise parent-time on that six-day cycle. The cycle days are designated Day 1 through Day 6.

b. Cycle days. Day 1 is the calendar day on which Mikell's forty-eight (48) hour shift begins. Mikell is on duty on Days 1 and 2, her shift concluding at [8:00 a.m.] on Day 3, and is off duty from that time until her shift begins again at [8:00 a.m.] on Day 1 of the succeeding cycle.

c. Mikell's parent-time. Mikell shall have parent-time from [10:00 a.m.] on Day 3 until [10:00 a.m.] on Day 6, consisting of the overnights of Days 3, 4, and 5.

- d. Kylee's parent-time. Kylee shall have parent-time from [10:00 a.m.] on Day 6 until [10:00 a.m.] on Day 3 of the succeeding cycle, consisting of the overnights of Days 6, 1, and 2.
- e. Anchor. The foregoing schedule results in an equal division of overnights, being approximately 182 overnights to each parent annually.
- f. Shift trades, holdover, and callback. Mikell's shift trades, mandatory holdover, callback, and overtime shall not alter the cycle. If there are mandatory work/shift trades, call backs, ect., that keeps a party from their scheduled parent time, the parties will work together to reschedule parent time. If either party is required to work during that party's scheduled parent-time, that party shall first offer the care of the Minor Child to the other party before arranging third-party care for any period exceeding [four] consecutive hours.
- g. Change in work schedule. If Mikell's shift rotation changes, or if her employment terminates, she shall give Kylee written notice within fourteen (14) days. The parties shall then meet and confer in good faith to establish a revised schedule that maintains an equal division of overnights and, to the extent practicable, places the Minor Child with Mikell on her days off duty. If the parties have not executed a written agreement within thirty (30) days of the notice, parent-time shall be exercised on an alternating-week basis with exchanges each [Sunday] at [10:00 a.m.] until further written agreement of the parties or order of the Court.

9. Holiday Parent-Time. Holiday parent-time shall supersede the regular parent-time schedule. For purposes of this Section, “even” and “odd” years refer to the calendar year in which the holiday falls; “morning” means [9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.]; and “evening” means [2:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.]. The parties shall observe the following schedule:

b. Independence Day (July 4). Kylee shall have the Minor Child in even-numbered years and Mikell shall have the Minor Child in odd-numbered years. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Minor Child shall participate in Mikell’s work- related Independence Day events each year, and Kylee shall make the Minor Child available for that purpose.

c. Pioneer Day (July 24). Kylee shall have the Minor Child in odd-numbered years and Mikell shall have the Minor Child in even-numbered years.

d. Minor Child’s Birthday. The parties shall jointly attend and participate in the Minor Child’s birthday party. In addition, Mikell shall have the Minor Child for the full day on the Minor Child’s birthday in odd-numbered years, and Kylee shall have the Minor Child for the full day in even-numbered years.

e. Mother’s Day. Kylee shall have the Minor Child the morning in even-numbered years and in the evening in odd-numbered years; Mikell shall have the Minor Child in the evening in even-numbered years and in the morning in odd-numbered years.

f. Halloween. Trick-or-treating shall be conducted jointly and shared by both parties.

g. Thanksgiving. Mikell shall have the Minor Child for Thanksgiving in even-numbered years, and Kylee shall have the Minor Child for Thanksgiving in odd-numbered years, beginning with Thanksgiving 2026 (Mikell) and Thanksgiving 2027 (Kylee). Because of the demands of Mikell's work schedule, the parties shall re-evaluate this rotation every two (2) years and shall ensure that within each two-year period each party has the Minor Child for one Thanksgiving.

h. Christmas Eve. Kylee shall have the Minor Child Christmas Eve evening in even-numbered years and Christmas Eve morning in odd-numbered years. Mikell shall have the Minor Child Christmas Eve morning in even-numbered years and Christmas Eve evening in odd-numbered years.

j. New Year's Eve. Kylee shall have the Minor Child in odd-numbered years and Mikell shall have the Minor Child in even-numbered years.

k. New Year's Day. Kylee shall have the Minor Child in odd-numbered years and Mikell shall have the Minor Child in even-numbered years.

l. Holidays Not Listed. Any holiday not expressly addressed above shall not be deemed a holiday and the regular parent-time schedule shall be followed.

10. Summer and Extended Parent-Time. Summer parent-time shall be consistent with the regular parent-time schedule, except that each party shall be entitled to two (2) weeks of uninterrupted parent-time with the Minor Child each summer.

a. Vacation Notice and Priority. Each party shall give written notice of scheduled vacation parent-time on or before May 1 of each year. If the parties' proposed dates conflict, Mikell's selection shall take precedence in odd-numbered years and Kylee's selection shall take precedence in even-numbered years.

b. Travel Itinerary. Before the Minor Child leaves on any trip, the traveling party shall provide the other party with a written itinerary identifying the dates of travel, the destination(s), where the Minor Child will be staying, who will be present, and contact information, including an emergency third-party contact.

c. Work Travel. When either party travels for work, that party shall offer the Minor Child to the other party, and the Minor Child shall be cared for by the party who is home rather than by a third-party caregiver, to the extent feasible and consistent with the Minor Child's schedule.

11. Exchanges. If school is in session, the parent who is exercising their parent time period with the Minor Child is responsible to take the Minor Child to school in the morning at the conclusion of their last overnight parent time, and the parent who is commencing their parent time period with the Minor Child, is responsible to pick the Minor Child up from school in the afternoon of that same day in order to commence their parent time period.

12. In the event that the Minor Child is sick and does not attend school on the day of the scheduled exchange, the parent whose parent-time is commencing shall be responsible for the Minor Child and their care until the time school would have normally been dismissed for that day.

13. If school is not in session, the parent time exchange will take place at 8:00 a.m., with the parent who is ending their parent time with the Minor Child being responsible to drop the Minor Child off by 8:00 a.m. to the other parent.

14. Each party is responsible to transport the Minor Child to and from school during their parent time and is responsible for the Minor Child's timely arrival to and pick-up from school.

16. Except as otherwise agreed to from time-to-time, when school is in session, all parent time exchanges will take place at school, when possible, otherwise such will occur at the parents' residences. Any parent time exchange which takes place at a residence will be curbside.

17. Each parent shall have the Minor Child ready for parent-time at the time the Minor Child is to be picked up and shall be present at the appointed time and place.

18. A stepparent, grandparent, or other responsible individual designated by the receiving parent, may pick up the Minor Child if the other parent is aware of the identity of the individual, and the receiving parent will be with the Minor Child by 7 p.m. The parties must notify the other parent when someone else is picking up the Minor Child.

19. School Hours. Regular school hours shall not be interrupted for parent-time except by mutual written agreement.

20. Non-Interference. Neither party shall interfere with the other party's parent-time or attempt to micro-manage the other party's day-to-day care of the Minor Child during that party's parent-time.

21. No Self-Help. Neither parent-time nor child support shall be withheld as a self-help remedy for an alleged violation of any court order.

22. Right of First Refusal. If either party requires childcare for a period exceeding one (1) hour during that party's scheduled parent-time, that party shall first offer the other party the opportunity to care for the Minor Child. If the care is needed the same day, the other party shall have two (2) hours to respond. If the care is needed on a day other than the same day, the other party shall have twenty-four (24) hours to respond. If no response is received within the applicable period, the offering party may make alternative childcare arrangements.

23. Attendance Restrictions. No individual other than a parent shall take the Minor Child to medical or other appointments, sports games, or practices, or attend parent-teacher conferences. Only the parties shall attend the Child's appointments and parent-teacher conferences, unless otherwise agreed in writing or ordered by the Court.

24. Surrogate Care Provider Information. Each party shall provide the other with the name, address, and telephone number of any surrogate care provider used for the Minor Child.

25. No Adult Conflict. Neither party shall discuss this litigation, adult disputes, or financial issues with the Minor Child, and neither party shall use the Minor Child as a messenger.

26. No Disparagement or Alienation. Neither party, nor any third party either party permits to be around the Minor Child, shall disparage the other party or engage in conduct that estranges the Minor Child from the other party or impairs the Minor Child's love or respect for the other party.

27. Substance Use. While the Minor Child is in that party's care, neither party shall consume alcohol to the level of intoxication, participate in illegal drug activity, or misuse prescription medication.

28. Third Parties Shall Not Perform Parental Duties. Neither party shall permit a stepparent, paramour, significant other, friend, or relative to act as a parent, perform parental duties, or make major decisions for the Minor Child.

29. Communication Method. Phone calls, email, and text message are the preferred methods of communication between the parties. If communication becomes ineffective or hostile, either party may require the parties to use a mutually agreed parenting application.

30. Tone and Content. All communications between the parties shall be honest, civil, factual, and focused on the Minor Child.

31. Direct Parent-to-Parent Communication. All communication concerning the Minor Child shall be between the parties directly. Neither party shall require the other to communicate through a new partner or spouse.

32. Virtual Contact. Each party shall permit reasonable, uncensored telephone and virtual contact between the Minor Child and the other party during reasonable hours.

33. Emergency Decisions. Either party may make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the Minor Child. That party shall notify the other party as soon as reasonably possible.

34. Major Decisions. The parties shall share joint legal custody of the Minor Child and shall participate in all major decisions concerning the Minor Child's education, non-emergency medical and dental care, mental-health treatment, religious upbringing, and significant extracurricular activities.

35. Good-Faith Consultation Required. The parties shall make reasonable and good-faith efforts to reach a mutual agreement regarding all major decisions. Before exercising final decision-making authority, the parent possessing such authority (Mikell) must provide the other parent (Kylee) with reasonable advance notice of the proposed decision, all material information reasonably available concerning the decision, and a meaningful opportunity to provide input and propose reasonable alternatives.

36. Final Authority Only After Impasse. Final decision-making authority may be exercised only after the parties have engaged in good-faith consultation and are unable to reach an agreement. Final authority shall not eliminate or diminish the other parent's right to participate meaningfully in the decision-making process.

37. Best Interests of the Child. Final decision-making authority shall be exercised reasonably and in good faith and solely based upon the Minor Child's best interests. It shall not be exercised for the purpose of interfering with the other parent's relationship or parenting time with the Minor Child.

38. Professional Recommendations. When a disputed decision involves significant medical, psychological, educational, or developmental issues, both parents shall be entitled to communicate with the relevant provider or professional and obtain the information reasonably necessary to participate in the decision.

39. Access to Information. Both parents shall have equal and independent access to the Minor Child's medical, dental, mental-health, educational, and extracurricular records and providers to the extent permitted by law. Neither parent shall intentionally conceal or withhold material information concerning the Minor Child.

40. Parenting-Time Protection. Final decision-making authority shall not authorize either parent to substantially interfere with, reduce, condition, or alter the other parent's court-ordered parenting time. Neither parent shall schedule recurring activities or appointments during the other parent's parenting time when reasonably avoidable without first obtaining that parent's agreement.

41. Emergency Exception. Either parent may make emergency decisions reasonably necessary to protect the Minor Child's immediate health or safety. The other parent shall be notified as soon as reasonably practicable.

42. Dispute Resolution and Court Review. Nothing in this provision prevents either parent from seeking mediation or appropriate relief from the Court if that parent reasonably believes final decision-making authority is being exercised contrary to the Minor Child's best interests or inconsistent with this Order.

43. Day-to-Day Decisions. Each parent shall retain full authority to make ordinary and routine day-to-day parenting decisions while the Minor Child is in that parent's care.

44. School Access. Both parties may access the Minor Child's school information and attend school events. A party may check the Minor Child out of school only during that party's parent-time or by mutual written agreement.

45. Sharing of Information. Each party shall promptly share with the other all information concerning the Minor Child's health, education, and welfare.

46. Notice of School or Social Issues. Each party shall notify the other within twenty-four (24) hours of learning of any significant school disciplinary issue or serious social issue involving the Minor Child.

47. Notice of Illness, Injury, and Appointments. Each party shall notify the other within twenty-four (24) hours of any illness, injury, or medical or mental-health appointment involving the Minor Child occurring during that party's parent-time, and both parties may attend such appointments.

48. Contact Information. Each party shall keep the other informed of that party's current residential address, telephone number, and email address, and shall provide prompt written notice of any change.

49. Relocation Notice and Procedure. If either party intends to relocate more than thirty (30) miles from the other party such that the custody and parent-time arrangement set forth herein becomes unfeasible, the relocating party shall provide not less than sixty (60) days' written notice and shall pursue appropriate relief under Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-209.

Each party shall have access to the passport. Any out-of-country travel shall be documented by notarized written consent between the parties, and consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

52. Disclosure Regarding Certain Individuals. Each party shall provide notice consistent with Utah law if that party resides with, or provides access to the Minor Child to, an individual whom the party knows falls within a category requiring disclosure, including registration as a sex, kidnap, or child-abuse offender, or conviction of a listed offense.

Child Support and Costs for Child.

53. Income. For purposes of calculating child support, the parties stipulate that Mikell's gross monthly income is $8,549 and Kylee's gross monthly income is $10,833.

54. Child Support Obligation. Based upon joint physical custody and the parties' respective incomes, and in accordance with Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-101 et seq. and the applicable child support guidelines and worksheet attached hereto, Kylee would pay Mikell base child support in the amount of $78 per month. Based upon the parties sharing equal parent time, having equivalent income, and equally dividing additional costs for the Minor Child, no child support shall be ordered.

55. In the event the parties no longer exercise joint custody, then child support shall be calculated based upon the new custody arrangement and the current incomes of the parties.

56. If a child support order is entered, child support is payable half on the 5th and half on the 20th of each month. Support for each child terminates at the time: (1) a child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or (2) a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated in accordance with UTAH CODE ANN. §78A-6-801.

57. The child support order shall include, as a means of collecting child support, an order for withholding income pursuant to UTAH CODE ANN. § 62A-11-501-504, with any costs required by the Office of Recovery Services, or any other withholding agency being the responsibility of the Respondent.

58. Activity Costs. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amount incurred for any mutually agreed-upon in writing extracurricular activities that the Minor Child may be involved in. The parties shall pay the providers directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. A party who incurs an expense for a child's extra-curricular activity without receiving prior consent from the other parent shall be solely responsible for that expense. If a parent enrolls a child in an activity without the other parent's consent, the activity shall not infringe on the other parent's parent-time, and the enrolling parent shall pay the full cost. Both parents shall be able to attend all of the child's extra-curricular activities and the parent who signs up the child shall put the event on a joint calendar within 24 hours of receiving notice of the activity or any change.

59. School Fees. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket school expenses (i.e. registration, books, required supplies, lab fees, etc.) incurred during the time from pre-school and leading up to and including high school. The parties agree that this does not include private school tuition. The parties shall pay the school directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of those school expense invoices, bills, receipts, and/or verification.

60. Health Insurance for the Minor Child. Both parties shall maintain medical and dental insurance coverage for the Minor Child so long as such coverage is available at a reasonable cost through that party's employment or otherwise, consistent with Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-208. The parties shall equally share the cost of the premium attributable to coverage of the Minor Child.

61. Uninsured Medical Expenses. The parties shall equally share all reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical, dental, orthodontic, vision, prescription, and mental-health expenses incurred on behalf of the Minor Child, consistent with Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-208. The party incurring the expense shall provide the other party with written verification of the expense within thirty (30) days after the expense is incurred, and the other party shall reimburse his or her share within thirty (30) days after receipt of the verification.

62. Cooperation. Each party shall cooperate fully and in a timely manner in the use of any insurance coverage, including obtaining and providing insurance cards and claim forms, completing and submitting necessary documents, and forwarding insurance payments.

63. Allocation of Childcare Costs. Each party shall be solely responsible for any childcare costs incurred during that party's own parent-time, including any work-related childcare. The parties acknowledge that this allocation is a deviation from the equal-sharing provision of Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-210, that the deviation is made knowingly and voluntarily, and that the parties stipulate the deviation is in the best interest of the Minor Child in light of the parties' joint physical custody arrangement and the right of first refusal set forth above.

Tax Dependency.

64. Filing Status. The parties shall file separate income tax returns for tax year 2026 and for all subsequent tax years. Each party shall be solely responsible for the preparation of his or her own return and for any tax liability, interest, and penalties assessed on that return, and each party shall indemnify and hold the other harmless from any such liability.

66. Dependency Exemption and Child-Related Tax Benefits. Commencing with tax year 2026, Mikell shall claim the Minor Child as a dependent every year. Kylee shall execute and deliver IRS Form 8332 (or any successor form) to the Mikell on or before February 1 of the following year. Any child tax credit, additional child tax credit, and other child-related federal and state tax benefits shall follow the dependency exemption to the extent permitted by law.

Spousal Support.

67. Neither party shall pay spousal support or alimony to the other. Each party knowingly, voluntarily, and permanently waives any claim to spousal support or alimony from the other, now and in the future, and each party understands that this waiver is final and that neither party may hereafter seek an award of spousal support regardless of any change in circumstances. The parties request that the Court order that no alimony be awarded to either party.

Marital Residence.
