Attorneys for Respondent Bryce Egbert

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT, DAVIS COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of: MADISON VAN LEEUWEN EGBERT, Petitioner, and BRYCE LARRE EGBERT, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No. 244700834 Commissioner: Julie Winkler Judge: Jennifer Valencia

This matter comes before the Court on the parties' Stipulation and Settlement Agreement, which was filed with the court on September 2, 2026 and entered into at mediation on September 1, 2026. Petitioner Madison Van Leeuwen Egbert ("Madison," "Mother," or "Petitioner") was represented by her counsel, Jarom Bishop. Bryce Larre Egbert ("Bryce," "Father," or "Respondent") was represented by his counsel Sadé A. Turner. The Court having reviewed and accepted the agreement of the parties, and entered its Findings of Facts and Conclusions of Law, now ORDERS, ADJUDGES, and DECREES as follows:

JURISDICTION

1. The parties are bona fide residents of Davis County, State of Utah, and have been for at least three (3) months immediately prior to filing of this divorce action.

MARRIAGE

2. The parties were married on June 29, 2006 in Utah County, State of Utah. The parties separated on or around October 16, 2023.

GROUND

3. The parties shall be granted a divorce on the grounds of irreconcilable differences.

CHILDREN

4. There are four children of the marriage, three (3) of whom are minors. Madison is not pregnant and there are no other children expected as issue of this marriage. The children reside in Davis County and has for more than six (6) months. Pursuant to Rule 4-202.02 of the Utah Rules of Judicial Administration, the names and birth date of the children is being submitted to the Court on the Non-public Information – Minors form. The initials, birth month and birth year of the minor children are:

Initials	Date of Birth
D.E.	January 2011 (15 years)
M.E.	September 2015 (10 years)
W.E.	July 2018 (7 years)

5. The Court has personal and subject jurisdiction over the parties' minor children and Utah is the home state of said children for custody purposes.

6. Uniform Custody Child Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act. Utah is the home state of the minor children pursuant to Utah Code § 78B-13-201(1)(a) in that the children have resided in the State of Utah for at least the past six months.

7. Pursuant to Rule 100 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, The Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act, Utah Code Ann. §78B-13- 101 et seq. and The Uniform

Interstate Family Support Act, Utah Code Ann. §78B-14-101 et seq., the parties state upon information and belief that:

- a. There are no proceedings in a court of law or governmental agency for custody, child support, parent time or visitation concerning the minor children, which have been filed, or are pending, or have been completed with an order;
- b. The parties are unaware of any person who is not a party to these proceedings who has physical custody of the parties' minor children, and who claims to have custody, child support, and/or parent time or visitation rights with the minor children.
- c. That Petitioner and Respondent are not currently receiving public assistance for the benefit of the minor children.

Legal Custody

8. It is in the minor children's best interest that the parties be awarded joint legal custody of the minor children. In the event the parties, after consulting with one another on a material issue and obtaining input from relevant professionals as outlined below, then the parties shall share final decision-making subject to review of the Court. The children shall remain in their current schools and attend the corresponding feeder schools unless the parties mutually agree in writing otherwise or unless there is a Court order. The children's current schools are Jefferson Academy, Shoreline Jr. High, and Davis High School. The parties shall fully cooperate so that the children may be baptized/participate in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints. So long as he is deemed able to do so by his ecclesiastical leaders, Father may baptize/conduct other religious ceremonies.

Physical Custody

9. It is in the best interest of the parties' minor children that the parties be awarded joint physical custody of the minor children.

Parent-time

10. Parent-time should be as agreed upon between the parties. In the event the parties are unable to agree, parent time shall be as follows beginning the week of August 31, 2026:

- a. The parties shall exercise joint physical custody with the parties having parent time pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-9-305 modified as outlined below. Bryce shall have 182 overnights, and Madison shall have 183 overnights on a week on/week off basis. In the event the parents are unable to agree, the parent time schedule shall be as follows:

	Mon	Tues	Wed	Thurs	Fri	Sat	Sunday
Week 1	Bryce	Bryce	Bryce	Bryce	Bryce	Bryce	Bryce

- b. Parent time will be on a week on/week off basis as they have been doing, unless they otherwise agree in writing, with exchanges to occur on Monday with the parent concluding their parent time dropping the children at school. If school is not in session, then the parent concluding parent-time will drop off the children to the other parent at 9:00am. This will be curbside.

Summer/Extended Parent Time

12. The parties will follow the foregoing parent time schedule throughout the children's summer with the exception that each party shall be entitled to two weeks of uninterrupted parent time during the summer when school is not in session. Each parent shall provide notice to each other by March 1 regarding their preferred uninterrupted summer parent time. Should there be a dispute, Bryce shall be awarded first choice for uninterrupted summer parent time in even years and Madison shall be awarded first choice for uninterrupted summer parent time in odd years. The first of the two weeks shall include the parties' regular parent-time. The parties will make reasonable efforts to accommodate family reunions for both families, but they will not otherwise deviate from the parent time schedule unless they otherwise first agree, in writing.

Relocation

13. The relocation provisions of Utah Code §81-9-209 shall apply. If either party decides to move from the State of Utah or 50 miles or more one way from the residence of the other party, that parent shall provide reasonable advance written notice of the intended relocation to the other parent. The children shall remain in their current schools unless and until the parties mutually agree in writing or until there is an order of the Court.

Decision-Making

14. Each party shall have the right to make day-to-day decisions concerning the children while they are in the care of that party.

15. Each party should have the right to make emergency decisions regarding the children's safety or health while they are in the care of that party. Each party should notify the other party immediately via any means possible in the event of a medical emergency concerning the children.

16. For all other decisions regarding the children, the parties should make a good faith effort to cooperate and work together to make joint decisions that are in the best interest of their children.

17. The parties should inform each other when issues arise regarding the children, and will do so within a reasonable period, prior to making significant decisions regarding the children. Both parties shall be afforded the opportunity to gather and exchange information that would be helpful in making a decision and present that information to the other party.

Final Decision-Making

18. The parties shall attempt to come to a consensus on all major decisions regarding their children. The parties shall use the following decision-making procedure as their guide;

- a. The parties shall initially identify the issue;

- b. The parties shall inform each other when issues arise regarding the children, and will do so within a reasonable period of time, prior to making significant decisions regarding the children.
- c. So long as the following providers are available to provide care/treatment to the minor children, the children shall continue treating with their treating providers and follow the recommendations of the following providers, unless there is mutual written agreement of the parties to change the providers or further Court order.
- d. Both parties shall be afforded the opportunity to gather and exchange information that would be helpful in making a decision and present that information to the other party and listen to and attempt to understand the other parent's perspective.
- e. The parties shall brainstorm all possible solutions related to that specific issue.
- f. The parties may conduct a telephone discussion if they first mutually agree in writing through OFW.
- g. The parties shall use the most sensible resolution that considers the needs and interests of everyone involved, particularly the children, in an attempt to reach a solution in the best interest of the children.
- h. If a disagreement arises, the parties shall first calmly identify the issue, communicate their respective positions, and then attempt to come to a resolution.
- i. Should the parties be unable to come to an agreement after following this final decision-making process, the parties shall follow the advice of the medical/treating professionals of the minor children with either parent being able to seek review of the decision by the Court.

- j. Regarding all other issues, should the parties be unable to come to an agreement, the parties shall attend mediation so long as mediation occurs within thirty (30) days of the time the parties are at an impasse.

Right of First Refusal

19. Parental care is presumed to be better for the children than surrogate care.

20. Each party may arrange for surrogate care of the children while the children is/are in their custody, unless the parent is unavailable due to work and the party is unavailable for a period of eight (8) hours. In the event a parent is unavailable for eight (8) hours or longer due to that parent's work, the other parent shall be given a work-related right of first refusal. The right of first refusal shall be given as soon as it is reasonably known that he/she is unavailable to care for the children.

21. The parties shall post their overnight absences in OFW when they become aware that such absences are forthcoming. Bryce will post his overnight on-call schedule to OFW only on days that he is exercising parent-time so that Madison has the opportunity to exercise right of first refusal when he is on-call. Within 48 hours of Bryce receiving his finalized overnight in-house call schedule he will post that to OFW.

22. The parent exercising their ROFR will be responsible for the transportation of the children.

Parenting Plan

23. The parties should adhere to the following parenting plan:

- a. The parties should jointly confer on all significant decisions regarding the minor children, including but not limited to, the minor children's religious activities, education, sports activities, extracurricular activities, and all like decisions.
- b. Unless the parties mutually agree in writing otherwise, the parties shall communicate regarding the minor children via Our Family Wizard (OFW). The communication between the parties shall be limited to issues regarding their minor children.
- c. Each parent should make decisions regarding the day-to-day care and control of the children during their parent time. Regardless of the allocation of decision making in this parenting plan, either parent may make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the children.
- d. Both parties shall be allowed reasonable unmonitored telephone and virtual parent time with the parties' children, including text communications with the children. The parties shall receive no less than three (3) phone calls of around 15 minutes during the other parent's parent time. In the event the children are unavailable, the call shall occur while the children are getting ready for bedtime. The children shall be entitled to contact either parent at their discretion, regardless of which parent is exercising parent-time with the children. However, each parent retains authority to discipline the children during that parent's parent-time, including regulating electronic device access as a reasonable disciplinary measure.
- e. The children shall only receive a cellular device upon mutual written agreement of both parents. The children shall have “find my friends” on and linked to each parent’s phone at all times. Both parties shall have the children’s Apple ID and the children’s Apple ID password. The children will have a separate Apple ID for each household. The children will sign into the Apple ID for the respective household during each parent’s parent-time to allow the parties access to the children’s phones during their parent-time. Neither party will persuade or compel the minor children to sign out of the Apple ID assigned to the party’s house where they are currently staying. The parties shall not use the children’s phone(s), Apple ID or any other method to track the other parent.

- f. Bryce shall be responsible for the cost of cellular devices and services for the first and third children, including the child who has emancipated. Madison shall be responsible for the cost of cellular devices and services for the second and fourth children.
- g. Special consideration should be given by each parent to make the minor children available to attend family functions such as weddings, funerals, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the children.
- h. The parents will notify the other parent of all school programs, church events, extracurricular activities, medical appointments, and sporting events that involve the children. The OFW calendar shall be used by the parents for all of the children’s events and activities. Both parents shall be allowed equal access and attendance at the children’s events and appointments. If a parent schedules a follow-up appointment, that appointment shall be put on the OFW calendar and the parent who schedules the appointment shall be responsible to take the child to the appointment unless the parties mutually agree otherwise.

- i. The parents shall each independently involve themselves with the children's school, church, activities etc., in order to obtain information from those sources instead of strictly relying on the other parent to provide them with notice. Each party shall post children's events to Our Family Wizard upon becoming aware of the event in no event later than twenty-four hours of learning of the event. If the event is occurring less than twenty-four hours, the parent with knowledge of the event shall immediately notify the other parent.
- j. Unless the parent is outside an area with internet access (ie camping without cellular service), each parent shall check OFW at least once every forty-eight hours and shall respond promptly to any message requiring a response, in no event longer than forty-eight hours after reviewing the message.
- k. Neither parent-time nor children support is to be withheld due to either parent's failure to comply with a court-ordered parent time schedule.
- l. Both parties should have direct access to all school reports and medical records, shall notify the other parent immediately in the event of a medical emergency.
- m. Each party should provide the full names of any adults living with them post separation.
- n. Neither parent shall say or do anything derogatory against the other party in the presence of the minor children or do anything to diminish the love and respect of the children for both parents. The children will not be cross-examined or grilled by a parent as to what occurred at the parent time of the other parent. The parents will not allow third parties to do what they themselves are prevented from doing.

- o. The children shall not be used as confidants or messengers between the parties.
- p. In the event a party leaves the state on their parent time with the minor children, the party will provide the other party emergency contact information.
- q. The parties will cooperate with the use and obtaining of a passport for the minor children. The parties will cooperate in providing any permission needed upon reasonable notice and to reasonable destinations. Both parties shall have photographs of the passports to allow for booking of trips.
- r. The parties shall discuss and determine a safe location for the children's identifying documents, birth certificate, social security cards, passports, etc. with each party having a copy of these documents.
- s. Neither parent shall check the children out of school unless there is prior mutual written agreement.
- t. Each party will provide notice of any change in address, email address, or telephone number within twenty-four hours of the change.

24. The parties should be permanently restrained from saying and doing anything derogatory against the other party in the presence of the parties' children or doing anything to diminish the love and respect of the children for the parents.

25. Neither party will demean, belittle, or disparage the other parent in front of the children. This means that no parent will ask their children to tell the other parent anything that is untrue.

26. No parent has the right to use the children as a confidant regarding the divorce proceedings or the post-divorce proceedings.

27. Neither party is to do anything that will make the children feel guilty about loving both parents.

28. No children will be asked to choose sides between parents and will not be told details of the domestic matter, or the litigation pending here.

29. Neither party will tell the children bad things about the other parent's personality or character, and they will not be cross examined by one parent or the other about what is going on in the other parent's home.

30. Both parties shall be bound by a mutual restraining order and require that the parties maintain civilly and prohibit both parties from harassing, threatening to harass, or allowing third parties to harass one another.

31. The children shall not be asked to choose sides between parents, nor will they be told details of the domestic matter, or the litigation pending here.

32. Neither party shall tell the children bad things about the other parent's personality or character, and they will not be cross-examined by one parent or other about what is going on in the other parent's home.

33. Neither parent shall use the children to carry messages between the parties.

34. Neither parent shall enter the home of the other without express written permission.

35. Both parties shall be mutually restrained from speaking derogatorily about the other party in the presence of the children. The parties should not make disparaging remarks to one another or to their children about one another or in the children's presence, either verbally, in writing or otherwise. Both parties should be mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under this paragraph and should have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or should remove the minor children from such circumstances. As used in this paragraph, disparage means to say anything ill of the other whether they believe it to be true or not.

36. Both parties shall be supportive of the other party's role as a parent. Neither party shall attempt to alienate the children in any way from the other party. Both parties have an affirmative duty to co-parent the children in a way that promotes their best interest.

37. Both parties shall be mutually restrained from discussing adult issues in front of the children or allowing a third party to do so. The parties should also be mutually restrained from discussing the children's relationship with the other party, or from questioning, interrogating, or otherwise "pumping" the children for information regarding what occurs when the children are with the other party and from allowing any other party to do so.

38. Failure by one parent to comply with a provision of this Parenting Plan does not relieve the other parent of his or her obligations. Failure to comply may result in a finding of contempt by the Court.

Drugs and Alcohol

39. Neither parent shall use or be under the influence of alcohol, marijuana/THC, illegal drugs, or non-prescribed controlled substances during parent-time or in the presence of the children. The parties shall remove the children from the presence of third parties under the influence of the same.

Access to School Reports, Medical Records, and Therapy Records

40. Each parent should have access to all school reports, medical records, and therapy records and should be notified immediately by the other parent in the event of a medical emergency. Each parent shall be listed as an emergency contact for the children.

Travel

41. If a party will be traveling out of the State of Utah with the minor children during their parent-time, the party taking the children on the trip should provide the other party in advance with:

- a. An itinerary of travel dates;
- b. Destinations
- c. Places where the minor children or traveling parent can be reached; and
- d. The name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the minor children's location.
- e. Should the parties travel with the children outside cell phone coverage, they shall notify the other party of departure and expected return.

Passports

42. The parties shall cooperate in obtaining and maintaining current passports for the minor children. Both parties shall have photographs of the children's passports to book travel. The parties shall cooperate in providing any permission needed upon reasonable notice and to reasonable destinations. Permission shall not be unreasonably withheld.

Extracurricular Activities

43. The parties shall equally share the cost of any extracurricular activity (including but not limited to the activity and any necessary equipment) that is mutually agreed-upon in writing. The parties shall both use best efforts to ensure the children participate in the extracurricular activities in which the children are enrolled.

- a. The party who incurs an expense for an extracurricular activity shall provide written verification of the costs and payments associated with the extracurricular activity within thirty (30) days of payment.
- b. The party to whom written verification is provided shall reimburse the party who incurred the expenses for extracurricular activities one-half the amount of the out-of-pocket expenses within thirty (30) days of receipt of the written verification.
- c. The party incurring expenses for an extracurricular activity may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other party's share of the expenses if that party fails to comply with the terms set forth in the previous paragraph.

Parents' Significant Others

44. With the exception of the parties' current romantic partners, unless the parties have first provided the other parent in writing with the name and date of birth of the overnight guest, the parties are prohibited from entertaining romantic overnight guests at their place of residence (or any other place) while exercising parent-time with the minor children. The children may not voluntarily and knowingly be left in the same location of a romantic interest or child/dependent of romantic interest with a history of being sexually or physically abusive.

45. Both parties are also restrained from introducing the minor children to any third parties with whom Petitioner and Respondent are romantically involved, unless and until said third party has been in a serious and committed dating relationship with Petitioner or Respondent for at least six (6) months or is engaged to be married to Petitioner or Respondent.

FINANCIAL ITEMS AND ASSET DISTRIBUTION

Child Support

46. For purposes of children support Bryce's gross monthly income is $39,481/month and Madison's gross monthly income is $2,600/month.

47. Children support shall be determined on a joint custody calculator with Madison having 183 overnights and Bryce having 182 overnights, resulting in a base child support award of $2,432.00/month. This is the presumptive amount of child support calculated pursuant the Utah Children Support Guidelines with Bryce paying one payment per month no later than the 21st. Child support shall begin on July 1, 2026.

Termination of Child Support

48. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for a child terminates at the time (1) the child becomes eighteen (18) years of age, or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or (2) the child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated.

Modifications of Child Support

49. Utah Code Ann. §81-6-202 applies for purposes of modifications of child support in the future.

Health/Medical and Dental Insurance

50. In accordance with U.C.A. §81-6-208, the parties shall be ordered to maintain health and hospital care insurance on the minor children. Health insurance for the minor children shall be provided by the party who can obtain the best coverage, if it is available at a reasonable cost through their employer or through the open marketplace. Currently, Bryce is providing health insurance for the parties' minor children.

51. Each party shall pay one-half of the out-of-pocket cost of the medical, vision, and dental insurance premium actually paid for the children's portion of the medical, vision, and dental insurance as provided in Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208.

52. The parties shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid for the children's portion of insurance. The children's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the children shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy. The party carrying the insurance shall provide copies of the insurance information and cards annually or upon request.

53. The party paying the children's health insurance premium shall be allowed to automatically deduct the per capita premium for the children's health insurance directly from the monthly child support payments.

54. The party ordered to maintain insurance should provide verification of coverage to the other party upon initial enrollment of the dependent children, and thereafter on or before

January 2 of each calendar year if there is a change in the previous coverage or provider. Each party should notify the other party of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within thirty (30) calendar days of the date he or she first knew or should have known of the change.

55. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party should be responsible for the payment of one-half (1/2) of all reasonable and necessary medical, vision, and dental expenses for the minor children as indicated.

56. The parties shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments, incurred for the dependent children and actually paid by the parties. If the uninsured portion of the expense exceeds $500.00, the parents must first mutually agree in writing before incurring the expense. Any orthodontic treatment for the minor children, including but not limited to braces, aligners, or other orthodontic appliances, shall be performed only by a licensed orthodontist and not by a general dentist.

Out-of-Pocket Medical Expenses

57. The parties shall equally pay all reasonable and necessary uninsured and out-of-pocket medical and dental expenses for the minor children, including but not limited to the expenses for the copays, any surgery, orthodontic care, psychological or psychiatric care, hospitalization, therapy, ophthalmology and optometry, broken limbs, and continuing illnesses or allergies such as diabetes or asthma, as well as all other reasonable and necessary uninsured or out-of-pocket medical and dental expenses, in accordance with §81-6-208, Utah Code Annotated (as amended).

58. A parent who incurs out-of-pocket medical expenses for the parties' minor children should provide written verification of the cost such medical expenses for the parties' minor children should provide written verification of the cost of such medical expenses to the other party within thirty (30) days with the other party paying half of the payment or reimbursing the paying parent if already paid in full within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification.

59. In addition to any other sanctions provided by the Court, either party incurring medical, vision, and/or dental expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other party's share of the expenses if that party fails to comply with the above paragraphs.

60. The parties shall provide a copy of the Decree of Divorce to each creditor providing medical or dental services for the minor children. Pursuant to §15-4-6.7 Utah Code (as amended), each creditor is to be notified that the creditor is prohibited from making claim for unpaid medical expenses against a parent who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses against a parent who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by that parent by the Decree of Divorce. Each creditor receiving a copy of the Decree of Divorce is to be notified that the creditor is prohibited from making a negative credit report or report of debtor's repayment practices or credit history regarding a parent who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by that parent by the Decree of Divorce.

Child Care

61. Due to the age of the children, neither party anticipates the need for any paid child care. Should there be a need for paid child care, each party shall pay his/her own child care related to their parent time.

62. The parties shall share all names, contact information, and address for all surrogate care providers.

School

63. So long as the children remain in public school, the parties shall split school fees equally 50/50.

64. A parent who incurs school expenses for the parties' minor children shall provide written verification of the cost such school expenses for the parties' minor children shall provide written verification of the cost of such expenses to the other party within thirty (30) days with the other party paying half of the payment or reimbursing the paying parent if already paid in full within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification.

65. The party incurring expenses for school costs may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other party's share of the expenses if that party fails to comply with the terms set forth in the previous paragraph.

Clothing and School Supplies

66. With the exception of the children's outerwear (coats, boots, etc.), athletic gear and athletic wear, each party will be responsible for maintaining everyday clothing, which will include shoes, and school supplies for the children in their home.

Car Insurance for Children

67. For any vehicle the parties mutually agree in writing to purchase for the children, the parties shall equally pay the car insurance for the child on that vehicle. This is not pro rata of the total monthly cost of insurance as the children will likely be more expensive than the parents. The cost to be divided between the parents will be one-half the actual out of pocket paid for a children with verification provided by the parent providing insurance. Reimbursement of the one-half monthly insurance payment for any mutually agreed upon vehicle shall be paid through OFW. Any jointly purchased vehicle for their children shall be available for use at both parties' residences. Should a vehicle be purchased by one parent without the express prior written permission of the other, all costs associated with that vehicle shall be the sole responsibility of the party who purchased the vehicle for the child.

68. So long as the parties first agree in writing they will share any cost for the purchase of a vehicle for a children once they obtain a valid driver's license.

Tax Exemption

69. The parties shall claim the minor children as a dependency exemption for purposes of filing federal and state tax returns as follows:

- a. While there are four children, Madison shall claim the two youngest and Bryce shall claim the two eldest children. claiming the two youngest children and the Respondent claiming the two eldest children.
- b. While there are three children, the parties shall alternate deductions as follows:
Madison shall claim the two youngest children in even years, and Bryce shall claim the eldest child in even years. In odd years, Madison shall claim the eldest child and Bryce shall claim the two youngest children.

- c. When there are two children, Madison shall claim the eldest and Bryce shall claim the youngest.
- d. When there is one child, Madison shall claim the child in even years, and Bryce shall claim the child in odd years.

70. The Respondent's right to claim any of the minor children for any given tax year will first be contingent on him being current with all of his base child support obligations pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-210.

71. The parties shall cooperate in signing any forms required by the IRS to allow the other party to claim the children when he or she is entitled to the exemption.

Alimony

72. Bryce shall pay Madison the amount of $5,378.00/month in alimony which will end upon the first of the following contingencies to occur:

- a. Madison's remarriage;
- b. Madison's romantic cohabitation;
- c. Either party's death; or
- d. Until February 28, 2029

73. Alimony shall not be subject to upward recalculation. Alimony shall be paid once monthly between the 19th and 23rd of the month, in no event later than the 23rd. Bryce shall remit all child support and alimony payments by electronic transfer through Bryce's current financial institution (JP Morgan). Madison shall open an account at Bryce's financial institution and shall give him the account number and information to initiate payments no later than Friday, September 4, 2026. So long as Bryce remains current and compliant with this electronic and timely payment requirement, ORS involvement shall not be required and neither party shall bear any ORS administrative fees. Should Bryce fail to remit any payment in full by the due date, Madison may register the support order with ORS for collection, and Bryce shall be solely responsible for any ORS administrative fees incurred as a result of his noncompliance. ORS is currently collecting support payments. The parties shall cooperate with terminating ORS collection of support payments to be effective September 1, 2026 and Madison shall ensure that ORS is no longer collecting payments prior to Bryce's September 2026 support payment becoming due.

74. Alimony shall cease immediately and without requirement of further court intervention or filing of any kind by either party in the event the recipient, Madison, remarries or dies. Madison shall notify Bryce in writing within ten (10) days of remarriage or cohabitation. If Bryce believes Madison is cohabitating with another person after the date of the Decree of Divorce as defined in Utah Code and relevant Appellate case law, Bryce shall file a motion pursuant to Utah Law. For purposes of this Agreement, "cohabitation" or "cohabits" are as defined by Utah Law. The prevailing party shall receive his/her fees in accordance with Utah Law.

75. Bryce's alimony payments are considered to have begun as of his first Court-ordered alimony payment in September 2024, as ordered by the Court in its decision on the parties' motions for temporary orders.

Life Insurance

76. The parties shall continue to maintain any existing life insurance policies naming the children as beneficiaries for an amount equal to child support in the unlikely event of either party's death. That child support amount would be calculated from the date of death until the children respectively emancipate, with child support being adjusted downward after each child's emancipation. Any insurance benefit/proceeds more than the child support owing for the remaining minor children will be subject to the Respondent's designation of a second beneficiary as he deems appropriate.

PROPERTY AND DEBTS

Personal Property

77. The parties should be awarded their premarital personal property free and clear of any interest of the other party. The parties should be awarded any gifts received from the other party including but not limited to their wedding rings.

78. Bryce shall be awarded all Egbert family heirlooms and Madison shall be awarded all Van Leeuwen family heirlooms. They shall each be awarded their own personal keepsakes, clothing, and personal effects.

79. The parties have partially divided personal property. The parties should divide the remaining personal property as they can agree in writing. The parties do not believe a video walk through will be necessary, however either party may request/complete a video walkthrough of their respective homes, observed by an agreed-upon third party, if necessary, to be sure they document all the property in the residences (garage, basement, rooms etc.). The parties will each create a list of marital personal property and use those two lists to create a master list of all property to be divided. The walkthrough and creation of the lists shall occur within thirty (30) days of the signing of this agreement. The parties will allocate the personal property between them as they can agree. If the parties cannot agree on the division of personal property within thirty (30) days of the exchange of their lists, the parties shall return to mediation within thirty (30) days with each party to pay one-half the cost. If the parties are unable to come to an agreement at mediation, the mediator shall become an arbitrator and shall arbitrate the division of personal property. For personal property awarded to the other party it shall be picked up within thirty (30) days.

80. The Toyota Tacoma will be sold, and any proceeds split between the parties.

81. Bryce will advertise/list to sell the Toyota Tacoma for fair market value and provide full disclosure to Madison of the listing, sale price, and provide immediate notice of any offer. Madison shall provide Bryce with the key no later than Friday, September 4, 2026. Madison shall timely cooperate with the signing of any title or documents necessary for the sale of the Tacoma.

82. Bryce will retain ownership of the motorcycle that was gifted to him by Madison's father.

Vehicles

83. The parties have acquired the following vehicles during the marriage, which shall be divided as follows:

- a. Bryce shall be awarded the following free and clear of any interest of Madison.
 - i. Toyota Highlander and all payments associated therewith holding Madison harmless therefrom.
- b. Madison shall be awarded the following free and clear of any interest of Bryce.
 - i. Kia Telluride (which belongs to Madison's fiancé) and all payments associated therewith holding Madison harmless therefrom.

- c. As to any vehicle awarded to a party, that party shall indemnify and hold the other party harmless as to any maintenance or liability thereon. Each party shall be responsible for any insurance, debt, and expenses associated with his or her own vehicle.

Debts

- 84. The parties have incurred debts which shall be divided as follows:
 - a. Bryce will be responsible for his entire student loan debt with terms of the payment to be agreed upon between the lender, Ingrid Chapman, and Bryce.
 - b. The parties will be responsible to pay for, indemnify and holds the other harmless on their respective car loans.
 - c. Madison shall pay for, indemnify and hold Bryce harmless on any debts solely in her name.
 - d. Bryce shall pay for, indemnify and hold Madison harmless on any debts solely in his name.
 - e. If any of these accounts are held jointly, the parties shall fully cooperate to remove the other party's name or close the account.
 - f. The parties shall indemnify and hold the other party harmless from any liability on the debts each party is ordered to pay. Each party should notify the respective creditors or obliges regarding the Court's division of the debts, obligations, and liabilities, and provide the parties' separate current address to the respective creditors and obliges.

Utilities and Miscellaneous Accounts

85. The parties shall fully cooperate to transfer all accounts into the other party's name as required.

Real Property

86. Marital Home: The parties purchased real property in 2018 located at 729 Kayscreek Road, Kaysville, Davis County, Utah 84037. The marital home will be appraised within 30 days from the date of the signing of the bullet point agreement completed with Gentry Lawson. The parties will split the cost of the appraisal.

- a. Within 45 days of entry of the Decree of Divorce, Bryce will find out if a loan assumption is possible. If the loan assumption is possible, the parties will sign any documents necessary to effectuate the assumption.
- b. Bryce will then obtain separate financing of his choosing to then pay Madison her one-half equity in the marital home determined by subtracting the balance owing per the June 2025 mortgage balance from the appraised value listed in Mr. Lawson's report, with such payment to Madison made no later than ten (10) business days after closing on the loan assumption. For example, if Mr. Lawson's report lists the home as worth $600,000 and the June 2025 mortgage balance is $300,000, the total equity is $300,000 and Madison's one half share would be $150,000. Bryce shall complete the loan assumption and obtain such separate financing within ninety (90) days of entry of the Decree of Divorce. If Bryce fails to do so within that ninety (90) day period, the home shall be immediately listed for sale with Joe Gordon as realtor, and equity shall be split as set forth below.

- c. If a loan assumption is not possible, the loan will be refinanced within ninety (90) days of entry of the Decree.
- d. Upon refinance, Bryce will pay Madison her one-half equity determined by subtracting the balance owing per the June 2025 mortgage balance from the appraised value listed in Mr. Lawson's report as outlined above in paragraph (b), with such payment to Madison made no later than ten (10) business days after the receipt of the funds. Bryce shall advise Madison in writing through OFW upon receipt of the funds.
- e. If Bryce is unable to refinance the loan into his name only, or otherwise pay Madison her one-half equity after ninety (90) days of entry of the Decree, the home will be immediately listed for sale with Joe Gordon as realtor. In any case, equity of the home will be equally split between the parties.
- f. Until the home mortgage is either assumed, refinanced or the home sold, Bryce will be solely liable, indemnify and hold Madison harmless on the mortgage, insurance, escrow and utilities.

Bank/Pension/ Retirement/Investment Accounts

87. All Retirement and investment accounts will be equally divided per the end of Second Quarter 2025 statements (June 30, 2025). The division of these accounts will be exclusive of any loans that have been taken against those accounts, by either party, since the divorce petition was filed on May 28, 2024.

88. The accounts disclosed by the parties to be divided are:

- a. Fidelity Investments (Rollover IRA);

- b. Fidelity Investments (BrokerageLink, Mountain West Anesthesia);
 - c. Baylor Scott & White Heath Retirement Saving Plan 401(k);
 - d. Fidelity Investments (Roth IRA);
 - e. Fidelity Investments (Mountain West);
 - f. Robin Hood Brokerage;
 - g. Crypto.com; and,
 - h. Health Equity.
- i. With respect to the children's 529 accounts that were started during the marriage, Madison shall remain as the owner/executor of the account and shall administer the accounts for the benefit of the children. Each calendar quarter (March 31; June 30; September 30; December 31), Madison shall provide Bryce with the statement which shall include all transaction details and attachments. For the period beginning January 1, 2026 through the date of the signing of this agreement, Madison shall provide all statements, transaction details, and attachments to Bryce no later than September 15, 2026.

89. Rori Hendrix will prepare the QDROs, if necessary. They will each pay one-half that cost of preparation of the QDROs and timely provide any documents to Ms. Hendrix as requested. Both parties shall timely cooperate with all requests from Ms. Hendrix which shall in no event be later than thirty (30) days after Ms. Hendrix makes the request for documentation

90. In any event, the division of those accounts will occur within 6 months of the Decree being entered. The parties both attest that they have fully disclosed all retirement, bank, and investment accounts that were accrued/acquired during the marriage and which shall be divided.

91. Madison's one-half share of the above-detailed retirement and investment accounts shall include any gains and losses since the 2nd quarter 2025, on her one-half share excluding any contributions by Bryce or his employer match.

2025 Tax Returns

92. The parties shall file married filing separately for 2025.

Pets

93. The parties have one pet Loki, a dog and twelve chickens. The dog and chickens shall be awarded to Bryce free and clear of any interest of Madison.

Maiden Name

94. Madison shall have the ability to restore her maiden name of Van Leeuwen should she so desire.

Attorney Fees

95. Each party shall pay his or her own attorney fees relating to the settlement of this case and any final documents related to the same.

No Harassment

96. Both parties should be ordered to follow a mutual restraining order requiring the parties to be civil with one another and prohibiting the parties from stating anything disparaging of the other party in person or on social media or publicly. The parties shall be restrained from contacting the other's employer or customers concerning the other party. The Parties are restrained and prohibited from using the other's name, likeness, identifying information, social security number or other information for any purpose whatsoever.

Cooperation and Execution of Documents

97. The parties shall fully execute whatever documents are necessary for the implementation of the terms of this Agreement and the subsequent terms set forth in the Decree of Divorce within ten (10 Business days of written request from the other party, unless additional time is required due to third-party processing/scheduling.

98. Should a party fail to execute documents or if the other party is required to bring a motion to enforce a provision of this agreement, the court may appoint another person to execute the document pursuant to Rule 70 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure as well as all other remedies allowed by Rule or Statute. The disobedient party shall also pay the reasonable attorney costs and fees as a result of the enforcing party having to bring the matter before the Court.

99. The parties shall first attempt mediation prior to seeking any modification of the Decree of Divorce.

Waiver of Discovery, Trial, Valuations, Tax, and Acceptability

100. The parties do not desire to exercise any further discovery rights, nor do they desire a trial to have the court decide these issues and waive such rights.

101. The parties have had the right to advice of legal counsel of his or her own choice before signing the agreement and have received such advice or hereby waive that right.

Tax Advice

102. The parties acknowledge that their attorneys are not accountants and do not render any tax advice to the parties as to the terms or tax consequences of the agreement and this Decree.

Miscellaneous Provisions

103. Wherever this Decree requires notice, consent, or agreement “in writing” or “written,” such written communication may be delivered through Our Family Wizard (OFW).

104. Both Parties warrant that they execute the agreement voluntarily and of their own free will and choice.

105. Each Party warrants that they are not being coerced and are not subject to undue influence, duress, coercion, or impairment when executing this document.

106. This Decree and all rights and obligations of the parties hereunder shall be construed according to the laws of the State of Utah.

107. If any term, paragraph, or provision of this Decree is held invalid or unenforceable for any reason, the remainder of this Decree shall continue in full force and effect.

108. The Stipulation of the parties is effective on the date signed by all parties and resolves all issues pending between the parties, except and unless specifically reserved herein. Both parties acknowledge the jurisdiction of this court and consent thereto.

No Construction Against the Drafter.

109. Each of the parties understands, acknowledges, and agrees that each of the parties hereto has contributed to the drafting of the Stipulation and Settlement Agreement, and specifically, intentionally, and knowingly waive any right to allege, assert, or claim the benefit of any rule requiring construction against the drafting party.
