IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT, STATE OF UTAH
IN AND FOR DAVIS COUNTY, FARMINGTON DEPARTMENT

In the Matter of the Marriage of: LOGAN ROBERT HANKS Petitioner, and ABISH NAAL RENTERIA Respondent.	FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW CIVIL NO. 264701468 JUDGE: BEAN, JOSEPH COMMISSIONER: WINKLER, JULIE

Petitioner having filed a Petition for Divorce and the parties having reached a final resolution by filing a Stipulation resolving all issues; and the Court having previously entered its written Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law; NOW THEREFORE IT IS HEREBY ORDERED ADJUDGED AND DECREED AS FOLLOWS:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. The parties are actual and bona fide residents of Davis County, State of Utah for the 90 days preceding the filing of this action. See Utah Code §81-4-402(1)(a).

2. Utah is the home state of the minor child on the date of the commencement of the proceeding or was the home state of the child within six months before the commencement of the proceeding and the child is absent from this state but a parent or person acting as a parent continues to live in this state. A Court of another state does not have jurisdiction of the child or has declined jurisdiction. Substantial evidence is available in this state concerning the children's care, protection, training, and personal relationships. The child and the child's parents have a significant connection with the State of Utah other than mere physical presence. See Utah Code Ann. §81-11-201.

3. There are no other parties that are entitled to notice under the law of this state regarding child custody. See Utah Code Ann. §81-11-205.

4. The Petitioner and Respondent are husband and wife, having been married on the January 13, 2024 in Bountiful, Utah.

DIVORCE

5. The parties are granted a Decree of Divorce on the grounds of irreconcilable differences the same to become final upon entry.

CUSTODY AND PARENT-TIME

6. Children. These orders pertain to the following children born to the parties: A.H.H. born on February 8, 2025.

7. Physical custody. The Petitioner is awarded the primary physical custody, care, and control of the child.

8. Legal custody. The parties are awarded joint legal custody as outlined in the Parenting Plan section herein.

9. Parent-time. The Respondent is awarded standard parent-time as outlined in Utah Code

§ 81-9-302 for 3 months.. If Respondent has a stable place to live, she is employed full time, and she is attending therapy as recommended by her psychiatrist and therapist and following all recommended treatment, parent time may be expanded to Thursday at 7:00 p.m. through Sunday at 7:00 p.m., every other week. After one year of Respondent following all recommended treatment and maintaining stability, the parties will revisit custody and parent-time.

10. Holiday/extended parent-time. The parties are awarded holiday and extended parent-time as outlined in Utah Code Ann. §81-9-302. See Exhibit 1.

11. Transportation. The parties shall equally divide transportation. Each shall retrieve the child directly from school if in session. If school is not in session, then the other's residence unless agreed otherwise.

12. Relocation. A party moving more than 150 miles from the child's current primary residence shall comply with Utah's Relocation Statute.

PARENTING PLAN

The following parenting plan shall govern the parties:

13. Definitions:

i. Adult issues: Child related issues surrounding finances, parent-time, subjects beyond the child's maturity, changes to parenting responsibilities, any issue which child has no control over that will reasonably cause stress.

ii. Advance Notice: 72 hours in advance of an actual event.

iii. Confer: Actively seeking the opinion/advice of a co-parent and conveying any decision made as a result of said communication to a co-parent.

iv. Co-parent: The other parent of the child.

v. Co-parenting: Working together for the goal of raising the child to be the best, most well-adjusted, and happiest child possible, transitioning into the best, most well-adjusted, and happiest adult possible.

vi. Day-to-day decisions: Any and all routine parental decisions that do not interfere with decisions designated "major"

vii. Gate keeping: When one parent controls the flow of information about the child. This can only occur when one parent does not have access to the source of information.

viii. Major decisions: non-emergency medical, education, religious, and other life-altering decisions.

ix. Parent-time: The actual time awarded to a parent to care for a child.

x. Reply Notice: 36 hours in advance of an actual event.

14. Restraining Orders:

i. The parties shall not bother, harass, annoy or threaten each other.

ii. The parties shall never use the child as a confidante or counselor on adult issues.

iii. Any modifications of the parties' orders or parenting plan shall be written and signed by both parties.

iv. The parties shall prevent anybody from disparaging the other Co-parent or other individual significantly bonded to the child. The parties shall control their own extended family and make sure that their conduct and behaviors are consistent with these terms.

15. Communication / Information:

i. Communication about Adult Issues shall occur between the parties only. This means that in the event that one or both of the parties remarries, the parties will continue to communicate with one another and not communicate instead through their new spouse or any other third party. In the event that communication with the child regarding Adult Issues becomes necessary, it shall be done jointly as co-parents.

ii. Communications between the parties shall be peaceful, civil, and non-abusive.

iii. Communication with the child shall not disparage, harm or alienate the other party. Communication with the child shall positively reinforce the good qualities of the other co-parent.

iv. The parties shall confer regarding Major Decisions and Moderate Decisions and utilize Advance Notice and Reply Notice.

v. The parties shall create their own relationships with the child's teachers, doctors, coaches and friends. The parties shall freely exchange this information with each other.

vi. The parties shall notify each other immediately in the event of a medical emergency. They shall notify their Co-parent when the child is ill and shall not utilize it as a means to interfere with parent-time. The parties are competent to care for the child during illness. The parties shall share details on medication for the child and any dosages necessary. The parties will administer properly prescribed medication as instructed.

vii. The parties shall allow the child to have liberal phone/virtual and other contact with the other co-parent during reasonable hours. This shall not be abused by either parent.

16. Decision Making / Dispute

i. The parties shall give good faith consideration to the views of the other. If the decision involves medical or schooling issues, they will seek input from treating physicians/educators. The parties shall both be provided the input.

ii. If the parties cannot agree after making a good faith effort to come to an agreed upon decision Petitioner shall have the presumptive decision-making authority. This level of authority shall allow Petitioner the right to make a preliminary decision that shall be communicated to Respondent.

iii. If Respondent believes that the decision is contrary to the best interests of the child, they have the right to seek review thereof through court. Respondent has the burden to demonstrate that the decision is contrary to the child's best interests. It shall not be sufficient to demonstrate that an alternative decision may also have been in the interest of the child.

iv. The parties shall attend one good faith session of mediation prior to bringing the issue before the Court.

v. The parties shall raise their child as a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints and allowed to participate in all ordinances such as baptism and confirmation.

17. Transportation, Travel, and Relocation

i. The parties shall have the child ready and able to leave with the other Co-parent at the scheduled time for pick-up. The parties shall be considerate of each other by demonstrating routine timeliness. The parties shall make the transition quickly and without delay or drama.

ii. If the parties travel with the child beyond 150 miles, they will give the other co-parent at least 14 days advance notice and provide them with a phone number and address for emergencies. When travelling with the child they parties will make reasonable efforts to facilitate communication with the other Co-parent. If the child requires a passport for travel the parties will both assist in obtaining the child's passport.

iii. The parties shall provide the other Co-parent current contact information within 24 hours of any local change of address.

18. Activities and Special Events

i. Both parties have the right to know about and attend all school, religious, and extra-curricular activities of the child.

ii. The parties shall make reasonable efforts for the child to attend special family functions. The parties shall not abuse this privilege by making excessive requests or unreasonably withholding permission, especially where the event is unalterable by a parent, such as weddings, funerals, family reunions, etc.

iii. The parties can enroll the child in activities that do not require involvement of the other Co-parent. By doing so they recognize the other Co-parent will not be sharing the cost and understand that the activity and shall not interfere with their parent-time.

iv. The parties shall discuss any proposed changes to the parent-time schedule with their Co-parent prior to talking with their child about any activity that they want them to be involved in.

v. The parties shall help their child to complete any homework their child has received during their parent-time.

vi. The parties shall make their child's activities comfortable and enjoyable for their child; their own needs are inferior.

19. Environment

i. While caring for the child, the parties shall not consume any intoxicant or other substance to impairment.

ii. The parties shall not smoke or vape in the presence of the child nor permit third parties to do so.

iii. The parties shall not engage in sexual contact with any other person in the presence of the child.

20. Stepparent or Other Romantic Partners

i. The parties shall ensure that any stepparent or other romantic party that they introduce to the child does not overstep their limited role. They are not the child's parent. The role of a stepparent or other romantic partner is to support, not supplant, the other Co-parent.

21. Sanctions

i. If the court finds either parties' actions to be dishonest, deceptive or frivolous, or in violation of the Court's Orders they shall be subject to sanctions and other corrective measures by the Court.

ii. The parties shall routinely review every provision of this parenting plan.

iii. Neither party shall claim ignorance of these provisions.

CHILD SUPPORT

22. That for child support purposes the Petitioner's gross monthly income is imputed at $2,773.

23. That for child support purposes the Respondent's gross monthly income is imputed at $1,257.

24. That the Respondent's child support obligation to the Petitioner is $75 per month.

25. That the child support obligation shall commence on the parties' date of the parties' signatures as listed below with the Respondent receiving credit for monies paid in the interim.

26. The child support is due ½ by the 5th and ½ by the 20th of each month. See Utah Code §81-7-102.

27. The child support obligation shall continue until i) a minor child reaches the age of eighteen (18); or ii) until the child has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation - whichever occurs later. Commencing the following month the parties shall automatically adjust the child support obligation by recalculating the child support obligation minus the emancipated minor child on the Officer of Recovery Services' online child support calculator.

28. There shall be an automatic reduction in child support for extended parent-time unless the parties have joint custody. See Utah Code 81-6-211(4).

29. An order through the Office of Recovery Services authorizing Universal Withholding of Relief may issue if the obligor becomes thirty days delinquent in the payment of child support. See Utah Code § 62A-11-403.

CHILDCARE

30. The parties shall equally share any out-of-pocket childcare costs. See Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-209.

31. If an actual expense for childcare is incurred, a parent shall begin paying his or her share on a monthly basis immediately upon: 1) presentation of reasonable but verifiable proof of the out-of-pocket child care expense; and 2) proof of employment; or 3) proof of enrollment and attendance at school.

32. The parent incurring the childcare expense shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of a provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of a provider. The custodial parent shall notify the other parent of any change in provider or expense within 30 calendar days of the change.

33. The parent incurring childcare expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if the parent incurring the expenses fails to comply with this section.

HEALTH INSURANCE

34. The parties shall maintain the health insurance for and on behalf of any minor child of the parties so long as it is available through their employment. See Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208.

35. Each party shall pay one-half of the minor child's portion of the medical, dental, and vision insurance premium.

i. This is calculated by dividing the insurance premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of minor children.

ii. The party with insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other party and to the Office of Recovery Services upon both the initial enrollment of any child, and annually on or before January 2nd of each year. The party shall notify the other party and the Office of Recovery Services of any change of insurance carrier, premium or benefits within 30 days from the date of the change and provide an annual updated medical card.

36. Each party shall pay one-half of all out-of-pocket health care expenses, including but not limited to, medical, dental/orthodontia, prescriptions, deductibles, co-pays and other such reasonable expenses associated with the child.

37. The party who incurs health care expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment to the other party within 30 days of payment. The other party shall reimburse their one-half within 30 days of receipt of the verification.

38. The party incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if the party incurring the expenses fails to comply with this section.

39. If, at any point in time, a dependent child is covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the Petitioner shall be primary coverage for the dependent child and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the Respondent shall be the secondary coverage for the dependent child. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent child. In addition, if there is double coverage then the insurance premiums offset and neither party shall pay a portion of the other party's premium—regardless of any disparity in the premium cost.

CHILD RELATED INCOME TAX DEDUCTIONS

40. One child. That the Petitioner is awarded the right to claim the child in even years. That the Respondent is awarded the right to claim the child in odd years.

41. That upon reasonable advance notice and request - each party shall provide the other party a signed Internal Revenue Service 8332 form, or any other necessary form, for any year where the other party is awarded the child for tax purposes.

REAL PROPERTY

42. The parties have no real property. Respondent will move out of Petitioner's home within two (2) weeks of the date listed for the parties' signatures below.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

43. That the Petitioner is awarded the Kia Rio and Toyota Corolla subject to their debts and shall hold Respondent harmless. Petitioner shall sell the Toyota Corolla and assume any remining deficiency in the sale. Respondent shall fully cooperate with Petitioner to remove her name from any titles and transfer the vehicles within thirty (30) days of the parties' signatures below.

44. All other marital property shall be equitably divided between the parties. If the parties are unable to agree to further distribution, then the parties shall mediate any dispute thereto prior to bringing the action before the court.

45. That the parties are restrained from disposing, hiding, transferring, selling or otherwise encumbering any property that either party considers to be at issue.

46. All property shall be exchanged within 30 days of the entry of the parties' signature below.

BANK ACCOUNTS/BUSINESS

47. The parties have a checking and savings account at Golden west Credit Union with approximately $1,270 in checking and $2,592.47 in savings. The parties shall immediately close the accounts and equally divide the balances. Neither party shall incur any expenditures against the balances the accounts in the meantime.

48. That the parties are restrained from disposing, hiding, transferring, selling or otherwise encumbering any property that either party considers to be at issue.

49. The accounts shall be closed within 7 days of the parties' signatures below.

DEBTS

50. That the Petitioner shall assume the following debt and shall hold Respondent harmless:

i. Golden west Business Credit Card with a balance of $6,998.79.

51. The Respondent shall assume all debt related to the following and hold Petitioner harmless:

i. Capital One Credit Card with a balance of $3,058.03.

ii. The tax debt on her business.

52. Neither party shall incur any new debts of the above-mentioned credit cards.

53. The parties will cooperate with transferring the debts and accounts into their respective names.

54. That any and all debt not disclosed or divided herein shall be the exclusive responsibility of the party that incurred the same regardless of whether used for marital benefit.

55. The payment of the debts set forth above is non-dischargeable in bankruptcy; solely as to the indemnification of the other party.

RETIREMENT BENEFITS

56. That the parties have no divisible retirement.

ALIMONY

57. No alimony is awarded to either party whether past, present, or future.

ATTORNEYS FEES:

58. Each of the parties shall pay their own attorney fees and court costs.

59. If either party defaults in his or her obligation hereunder or must seek relief from the Court in the enforcement or modification of the Decree of Divorce, the non-prevailing party should be liable to the other party for all reasonable expenses, including attorney fees and court costs actually incurred.

BENEFICIARY DESIGNATION

60. That any life insurance, stock, bond, title, retirement, investment, or other governing instrument, wherein wither party is listed as a beneficiary of the other or shall receive benefit, such designation is hereby revoked. The parties shall not receive a beneficial interest in any of the foregoing. See Utah Code Ann. § 75-2-804(2).

TRANSFER OF PROPERTY/NOTICE TO CREDITORS

61. Each party shall immediately deliver all property awarded to the other party in their possession and execute all documents/titles necessary to effectuate a property transfer as set forth herein, including automobile titles, tax forms and/or any other instrument necessary to carry out these terms.

62. Each party shall immediately notify their respective creditors of these terms; the party obligated to each specific debt and make other such reasonable arrangements to implement these terms.

63. Unless otherwise agreed the foregoing shall be completed within 60 days of the entry of the Decree of Divorce.
