IN THE THIRD DISTRICT COURT, SALT LAKE COUNTY
STATE OF UTAH

In the matter of marriage of: MATTHEW S. DIAZ, Petitioner, And JENNIFER R. DIAZ, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No. 264901447 Judge Teresa Welch Commissioner Russell Minas
---	--

This matter having been presented to the Court on the parties' Stipulation, and the Court having considered the matter, the Stipulation of the Parties, and being fully advised in the premises, now makes, and enters as follows:

JURISDICTION AND GROUNDS

1. Respondent has received the Petition for Divorce and other case documents and has waived formal service of the same.
2. Petitioner and Respondent are residents of Salt Lake County, State of Utah.
3. The parties were married on June 17, 2000, in Santa Rosa, California and have since remained husband and wife.
4. The parties separated on or about March 19, 2026.

Jurisdiction and venue are proper in this Court

5. During the marriage, irreconcilable differences have arisen, making a continuance of the marriage impossible.

6. The parties do not have minor children.

EQUITABLE PROPERTY DIVISION

7. The parties have each waived any claim to any of the other's property, asset or account etc. not named herein.

8. During the marriage, the parties acquired certain items of personal property. The items of marital personal property shall be divided equitably, and the parties will cooperate concerning that division. Each party will be awarded their respective separate or premarital property. If the parties have a disagreement concerning the personal property division, the parties shall attend mediation to resolve it.

9. The marital bank and other accounts and financial assets of the parties have been divided equitably. Each party will keep any separate or premarital financial accounts. Petitioner will keep the account with Bank of America and Respondent's name will be removed therefrom. Respondent will keep her account with America First Credit Union.

10. The parties' respective retirement accounts are being divided equitably. Each party will retain their own accounts and have no claim to the retirement benefits of the other. The parties shall not make any claims on the other's individual social security or pension accounts. This includes that Respondent shall not have any claim on Petitioner's pension with "SCERA."

11. The parties do not have an interest in real property.

12. The parties acquired vehicles during the marriage. Petitioner is awarded the Nissan Sentra. Respondent is awarded the Honda Civic. The parties shall hold each harmless from any obligations associated with the vehicle they are awarded.

13. By agreement, Petitioner will pay Respondent alimony in the amount of $500 per month for a term of 48 months. Alimony payments will begin May 1, 2026, and will be due on the first of each month. Petitioner's alimony obligation will terminate upon Respondent's remarriage, cohabitation, or payment of the total obligation identified herein. Alimony payments are expected to end as of April 2030 unless satisfied or terminated earlier. The parties have agreed to waive the right to seek modification of the alimony amount or term.

14. The property division herein is equitable under the circumstances of the case.

ALLOCATION OF MARITAL DEBT

15. SDuring the marriage, the parties incurred certain debts which shall be divided equitably. The parties will each be responsible for any separate credit cards and medical bills in their respective names. Each party shall retain responsibility for the debts associated with any asset they retain, if any. Each party shall be removed from the other's debts (including credit cards). Petitioner will be responsible for his Capital One and Pen Fed credit cards. Respondent will be responsible for her Citi Bank, US Bank, Maurice's and Amazon credit cards. Petitioner will pay Respondent $4,000 toward debt incurred during the marriage.

16. Notwithstanding the foregoing, each party is ordered to pay and assume, and hold the other harmless from, each debt he or she incurred independent of the other party from the date of filing forward.

17. In accordance with the above allocation of debts, the parties shall hold each other harmless from the debts which have been allocated to him or her, and shall indemnify each other for any costs, charges or fees incurred because of a defense or claim made against the other for payment on those debts.

18. Both parties shall provide notice to their creditors, following entry of this Decree, indicating who was ordered to pay which debts, and providing the creditor with the address of the party liable for that debt.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISION

19. SThe parties shall cooperate regarding the filing of their 2026 taxes, and the parties shall file taxes separately for the 2026 tax year and beyond.

20. At her election, Respondent shall be restored to her maiden name of “Maes” if she so chooses.

21. The parties shall maintain and pay for their own separate vehicle, dental, vision, and health insurance policies as of the date of this Decree.

22. Neither party shall use the other party’s likeness, picture, name, identification, or credit of the other party to obtain credit, open an account for any service, or obtain any other service.

23. The parties are duly ordered to execute and deliver all documents necessary to effectuate this Decree.

24. Petitioner and Respondent shall cooperate with each other to ensure that this Decree is fully satisfied.

25. Each party shall pay their own attorney fees and costs concerning this action.
