3. The Parties resided in the marital relationship in the State of Utah, or the acts complained of by Sherri were committed by Ryan in the State of Utah and therefore this Court has long-arm jurisdiction over Ryan pursuant to Utah Code § 78B-3-205.

Provisions Relating to the Child of the Parties

4. There has been one (1) minor child born as issue of this marriage, to wit:

E.C.H., born April of 2014.

10. In the event that the minor child is tardy more than six (6) times with one parent per school year, Ryan's parent-time will revert to Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-302 during the school year, and will constitute an automatic material and substantial change in circumstance to modify primary custody awarded to Sherri herein.
11. Holiday parent-time shall be as the Parties agree. If the Parties do not agree as to a holiday parent-time schedule, the holiday parent-time schedule shall be pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-303, with Sherri named as the custodial parent, with the following exceptions:
- i. Father's Day and Mother's Day shall be extended to full weekends from Friday after school, or, if school is not in session, beginning at 9:00 AM, until returning the minor child to school or the other parent on Monday morning.

13. The parents shall develop a working relationship as co-parents built on respect and cooperation. Both parents shall do their best to listen to each other and try to be understanding of the other's point of view.
14. Both parents shall keep the other informed as to residence address, home, work and cell phone numbers, email addresses and any other important contact information, including how to be reached in the event of an emergency.
 - k. If either parent changes any of his or her contact information as indicated above, that parent must notify the other parent in writing within twenty-four (24) hours of the change. Both parents shall also provide their contact information to all third parties who are important in the child's life, such as day care providers, educators, doctors, dentists, and both parents shall be listed as emergency contacts with those providers.
15. Both parents shall have access to all records of the child, including, but not limited to, school, medical, dental, and psychological records, and this Parenting Plan shall constitute a release to allow each parent access to all records of the child. The parents shall make arrangements with the minor child's schools for each parent to receive a copy of the child's report cards, school calendars, etc.
16. Unless each parent has independent access to this information, each parent should share with the other all schoolwork, report cards, school pictures, and other information relating to the schooling and extracurricular activities of the minor child. Further, unless each parent has independent access to this information, each parent should take affirmative steps to share information regarding the times and locations of parent-teacher conferences, school programs, church programs, sporting events, recitals, performances, practices and other significant events involving their child. Each parent should take affirmative action to establish their own access to the aforementioned information.

17. Both parents shall engage in civil communication to discuss matters relating to the minor child with each other only and should avoid using the minor child to relay messages or information.
18. The Parties shall communicate in writing via text or email only.
19. Communications shall be responded to within twenty-four (24) hours.
20. Both parents are restrained from speaking derogatorily about the other party or their family or other known associates to or in the presence of the minor child, on any social media platforms, blog posts, or other electronic format, or otherwise broadcast any such negative thoughts and feelings and should actively prevent third parties from doing the same.
21. Both parents shall support each other in their respective parenting roles and encourage a positive relationship between the child and the other parent and encourage third parties to do the same. The Parties shall respect the child's rights to have a meaningful bond with each parent, stepparents, and other relatives.
22. Both parents shall allow communication between the child and the other parent at reasonable hours and for reasonable duration.

26. Both parents shall comply with the parent-time schedules unless they mutually agree to alter the schedules in writing.

l. In the event the Court finds either parent wrongfully denies parent-time as set forth herein without agreement by the other party, that parent should pay all costs associated with mediation or litigation associated with resolving the violation and to ensure future compliance.

27. Notwithstanding the above provision, both parents should be flexible in making temporary adjustments in their parent-time schedules for unexpected situations.

m. The parent seeking an adjustment shall give the other parent as much advance notice as possible (at least twenty-four (24) hours except in an emergency). The other party should use his or her discretion in allowing for an adjustment but not unreasonably refuse.

28. Both parents shall give special consideration to make the child available to attend family functions including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the child or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the parent-time schedules.
29. Neither parent shall schedule or promote to the child events or activities that fall on the other parent's parent-time without first obtaining permission from that parent in the following manner: the requesting parent should notify the other parent of the event or activity and discuss with them the benefits of the child's attendance prior to discussing it with the child. If the other parent has something scheduled or decides that the child cannot participate in the event or activity for any reason, the requesting parent should abide by that decision and not attempt to influence the other parent through the child.
30. For school and other purposes, the residence of the parties' minor child shall be with SHERRI.
31. Both parents shall have access to the child during school and authority to check the child out of school.

q. If a parent is more than 20 minutes late for a transfer, the other parent is not required to wait, and it is up to the parent who cannot comply with the appointed transfer to make alternate arrangements.

Decision Making

36. The parent who has physical custody of the child may make day-to-day decisions without having to consult with the other parent.

37. When there is a major decision related to non-emergency healthcare, education, or religion regarding the minor child, the parents agree to work together in good faith, share relevant information and engage in meaningful consultation with one another to reach a mutual decision that is in the best interest of the child.

r. If the parents cannot reach a mutual decision, the Parties shall consult with a third-party professional related to the decision to assist them in gathering information in order to make the decision.

s. If a party disagrees with the recommendation of the third-party professional, that party may arrange for mediation of the issue through a mutually agreed upon mediator, or through Utah Dispute Resolution if they cannot agree.

The party requesting mediation shall pay the full cost of mediation, subject to further order of the court. If the parents reach an agreement in mediation, a copy of the agreement shall be provided to both parents.

42. Both parents are entitled to initiate their own relationship with their minor child's health care providers and have complete access to their records.

Childcare

43. Parental care shall be presumed to be better care for the child than surrogate care and the parents agree to cooperate in allowing the parent who is willing and personally able to do so to provide childcare. Childcare arrangements existing during the relationship are preferred, as are childcare arrangements with nominal or no charge.

44. In the event that surrogate care providers are utilized by the parents, each parent shall provide all surrogate care providers with the name, current address, and telephone number of the other parent, and should provide the other parent with the name, current address, and telephone number of all surrogate care providers.
 - a. If either party is unable to personally care for the parties' minor child for a period of four (4) hours or more, the other party is entitled to the right of first refusal to provide said childcare if personally available to do so. The parent exercising their "right of first refusal" will be responsible for picking up and dropping off the minor child unless the parties agree otherwise in writing.

c. If either parent incurs an expense for an activity that the other parent did not agree to in writing, then the parent making the decision should pay the full cost of the activity and should not request reimbursement from the other parent.

d. If both parents agree and share costs of the activity, both parents shall have access to information about times to participate in the activity.

49. Any travel out of the country must be agreed to in writing.

documents and/or permissions required for agreed upon international travel.

55. Ryan is employed, earns $15.00 per hour, works 40 hours per week and therefore grosses $2,600.00 per month.

56. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-202, et seq. Ryan should be ordered to pay child support beginning April 1, 2026, to Sherri as follows:

a. The sum of \$193.00 per month as base support for the minor child of the Parties pursuant to the Uniform Child Support Guidelines until said child becomes eighteen (18) years of age or have graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later. The monthly child support should be paid one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) on or before the 5th day of each month, and the other one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) on or before the 20th day of each month, unless the custodial parent uses the Office of Recovery Services to collect support. Child support due and not paid on or before the 5th day of the month is delinquent on the 6th day of the month. Child support due and not paid on or before the 20th day of the month is delinquent on the 21st day of the month.

b. The base child support award should be reduced by fifty percent (50%) for each child for time periods during which a child is with the noncustodial parent by order of the court or by written agreement of the Parties for at least twenty-five (25) of any thirty (30) consecutive days. If the dependent child is a recipient of Temporary Aid to Needy Families, any agreement by the Parties for reduction of child support during extended parent-time shall be approved by the Office of Recovery Services. However, normal parent-time and holiday visits to the custodial parent should not be considered an interruption of the consecutive day requirement.

c. The obligee (custodial parent) should be entitled to immediate and automatic income withholding relief pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 62A-11 Parts 4 and 5 (1953 as amended). This income withholding procedure applies to existing and future payors, and all withheld income should be submitted to the Office of Recovery Services. Until such time that income withholding is commenced by the Office of Recovery Services, Ryan should make child support payments directly to Sherri through some traceable method.

d. Pursuant to Utah Code § 81-7-102, all monthly payments of child support, maintenance or alimony provided in the order or decree is due on the first day of each month, unless otherwise specified.

i. Pursuant to Utah Code § 81-7-102, unless otherwise specified, all monthly payments of child support, maintenance or alimony provided in the order or decree should be due on the first day of each month. However, any party may subsequently pursue income withholding through the Office of Recovery Services upon the date payment of child support becomes delinquent, the obligor or obligee requests, or the date the court or administrative body so modifies the order.

e. Any Office of Recovery Service fee should be paid by Ryan. If Sherri is the ORS applicant and the fee is withheld by ORS from payments to Sherri, Ryan should reimburse Sherri for the fee.

f. When the child becomes eighteen (18) years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, the base child support award is automatically adjusted to reflect the base combined child support obligation pursuant to the uniform child support guidelines for the remaining number of children due child support, unless otherwise provided in the order. The income used for the purpose of adjusting the support should be the income of the Parties at the time of the entry of the original order.

g. Under Utah Code § 81-6-212(5), the Parties have a right to adjust this child support order by motion after three years from the date of its entry if: (1) upon review there is a difference of 10% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah child support guidelines, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, (2) the difference is not of a temporary nature, and (3) the amount previously ordered does not deviate from the child support guidelines. Under Utah Code Ann. § 62A-11-306.2, if the child receive TANF funds at the time an adjustment is sought, the Office of Recovery Services shall review the order, and if appropriate, move the court to adjust the amount.

h. Under Utah Code § 81-6-202(8) and 81-6-212(3)-(4), the Parties have a right to modify this child support order at any time by petition if there has been a substantial change in circumstances because of: (1) material changes in custody; (2) material changes in the relative wealth or assets of the Parties; (3) material changes of 30% or more in the income of a parent; (4) material changes in the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn; (5) material changes in the medical needs of the child; or (6) material changes in the legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others. The change in (1) through (6) must result in a 15% or more difference between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, and the difference must not be of a temporary nature. In a proceeding to modify an existing award, consideration of natural or adoptive children other than those in common to both Parties may be applied to mitigate an increase in the child support award but may not be applied to justify a decrease in the award.

Provisions Relating to Health Insurance

a. Both Parties shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of insurance. The child's portion of the premium shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of minor children of the Parties in this case.

f. The parent to whom written verification is provided shall reimburse the parent who incurred the medical, dental, orthodontic, or optical expenses one-half of the amount of the out-of-pocket costs within thirty (30) days of receipt of the written verification.

g. If, at any point in time, the dependent child is covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Sherri should be primary coverage for the dependent child and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Ryan is secondary coverage for the dependent child. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent child are not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a stepparent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the stepparent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and should retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the
