The above-captioned matter came before the court for consideration absent a hearing. Pursuant to the Stipulation and Property Settlement Agreement, a judgment for a divorce can be entered. The court, having reviewed the pleadings on file herein, and having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, does now ORDER, ADJUDGE, and DECREE as follows:

1. Kyle Bowen Olson is awarded a Decree of Divorce from Melissa Jill Olson on the grounds of irreconcilable differences, the same to become final upon entry by the court clerk.
2. Kyle and Melissa were married on February 4, 2006, in Las Vegas, Nevada, and are presently married. The parties separated on or about December 22, 2025, and do not currently reside together.
3. There are no minor children born as an issue of the parties' relationship, and none are expected.

4. During the course of the marriage, the parties have experienced irreconcilable differences that have prevented the parties from pursuing a viable marriage relationship.

DEBTS AND OBLIGATIONS

5. During the course of the marriage, the parties acquired certain debts and obligations. Kyle shall be responsible for all joint marital debt. Kyle shall indemnify and hold Melissa harmless from any liability, collection efforts, or negative credit consequences arising from these debts. The debts allocated to Kyle in this Decree are in the nature of support and are intended to be nondischargeable pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(5) and § 523(a)(15). In the event Kyle files for bankruptcy, he shall remain fully responsible for all debts assigned to him herein, and Melissa shall not be liable for any portion of those obligations. Kyle shall further indemnify Melissa for any amount she is required to pay due to Kyle's failure to satisfy these debts, regardless of any bankruptcy filing or discharge.

6. Each party should assume and pay their own individual debts and hold harmless the other party from liability on all debts and obligations (i.e. credit cards, student loans, utility bills) incurred by that party after separation.

7. Pursuant to Utah Code 81-4-406(4), the parties should notify respective creditors or obliges regarding the division of debts, obligations, and/or liabilities herein, and the parties' separate and current addresses.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

8. Personal Property: During the course of the marriage relationship, the parties acquired certain items of personal property. The parties shall be awarded the personal property currently in their possession.

9. Secured Debt: Each party being awarded property shall also be responsible for the debt associated therewith.

10. Accounts: The parties have accrued investment accounts, bank accounts, and other asset accounts during the course of their marriage. The value of those accounts shall be verified as to the value at the date of the separation and the parties should equally divide all values. The parties shall work together to divide the existing bank accounts and cooperate to remove each other's names from joint accounts. The parties shall be awarded the accounts in their own name as their separate property, free and clear of any claim by the other party.

11. Personal Belongings: Each party shall be awarded their own personal belongings.

12. Businesses: During the course of the marriage, the parties have acquired an interest in a business entity known as Kyle Olson Tattoos, Inc. Kyle shall be awarded all right, title and interest in said business entity, including any inventory, assets, or receivables associated with the business, subject to Kyle being responsible for and holding Melissa harmless from any payables, encumbrances or other obligations associated with said business.

for a period of 12 months. This amount shall be paid by the first day of every month and will commence May 1, 2026, so long as both parties have signed all necessary documents to effectuate the Stipulation and Property Settlement Agreement. Should he elect, Kyle may pay the amount in a lump sum. Any amounts paid beyond the minimum $200 per month will be credited to the last months of duration.

16. Alimony: Both parties to this action are able-bodied and employable, and neither party shall be awarded any alimony from the other.

17. Restoration of Maiden Name: Melissa's name shall be restored to Melissa Jill Prieto if she so chooses.

Delivery of Documents and Duty to Sign Documents: Each party shall be ordered to execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce entered by the court. Should a party fail to execute a document within 90 days of the entry of their divorce decree, the other party may bring a Motion to Enforce before the court, at the expense of the disobedient party. Under a Motion to Enforce, the court may appoint some other person to execute the document pursuant to Rule 70 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure. Any document executed pursuant to Rule 70 has the same effect as if executed by the disobedient party.

20. Interpretation/Applicability: This document shall be governed by Utah law in all respects. Any references to Utah statute herein shall mean the Utah Code in effect as of the date of entry of the final order.

21. Severability: If a provision of the order resulting from this complaint is or becomes illegal, unenforceable, or invalid in any jurisdiction, it should not affect: (1) the enforceability or validity in that jurisdiction of any other provision of the order, or (2) the enforceability or validity in other jurisdictions of that or any other provision of the order.

22. Disclosure: The parties acknowledged that each has fully and completely disclosed to the other all assets of every kind and nature known to him or her in which he or she may have any interest whatsoever, and that this Agreement encompasses and deals with all such assets and that there are no assets or liabilities contingent or otherwise that have not been disclosed in connection with the final settlement of this matter through the financial declarations and as herein set forth and to be distributed between the parties. If it is later discovered that a party failed to disclose an asset, the other party may be awarded the entirety of that asset.
