IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the matter of the marriage of:

SELA CELESTE GALLEGOS

and

CARLOS MICHAEL GALLEGOS

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Case No: 264901009

Judge: AMANDA MONTAGUE

Commissioner: RUSSELL MINAS

The above-captioned matter having come before the above-referenced Court, the Court having reviewed the file and finding the necessary pleadings in the file, the Court having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and being otherwise fully advised states:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED:

Provisions Relating to Termination of Marriage

1. Sela Gallegos and Carlos Gallegos were married in Las Vegas, Nevada on February 1, 2020.

2. The parties are awarded a divorce on the grounds of irreconcilable differences and the marriage between the parties is hereby terminated.

Provisions Relating to Minor Child

3. The parties have one minor child: C.R.G. (03/13/2020).

Provisions Relating to UCCJEA

4. Utah has jurisdiction over the custody, parent-time, and child support issues described herein pursuant to Utah's Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act ("UCCJEA") because Utah is, and was at the time the Petition was filed, the home state of the subject minor child as defined in Utah Code Section 78B-13-102(7).

Provisions Relating to Rule 100

5. Pursuant to Rule 100 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, the UCCJEA, Utah Code 78B-13-101 et seq. and the Uniform Interstate Family Support Act, Utah Code 78B-14-101 et seq., the parties are unaware of the existence of any of the following:
 - a. a case in which a party to this action or the party's child is the subject of a petition or order involving child custody, child support or parent time;
 - b. a criminal or delinquency case in which a party to this action or the party's child is a defendant or respondent; or
 - c. a protective order case involving a party to this action.

Provisions Relating to Legal Custody

6. Sela Gallegos is awarded sole legal custody of the minor child.

Parenting Plan

Decision Making

7. Each party may make day to day decisions while the child is in their care or custody.
8. Each party may make emergency decisions while the child is in their care or custody but must notify the other parent of the emergency as promptly as possible under the circumstances.
9. The parties will discuss all important or major decisions; including, but not limited to, non-emergency medical decisions, educational decisions, and religious decisions; regarding the minor child and make good faith efforts to come to an agreement.

Dispute Resolution

10. If the parties cannot agree on an important or major decision regarding the child, then the parties will:
 - a. First, consult any professionals that may have relevant feedback for a particular issue regarding the minor child. (Such as doctors, counselors, teachers, coaches, etc.)
 - b. If the parties cannot agree after consulting professionals the parties agree to attend mediation to try and reach an agreement.
 - c. If the parties still cannot agree, Sela Gallegos should have final say subject to Carlos' right to ask the court to review Sela's final say decisions.

Education Plan

11. Both parties may have the authority to check the child out of school but should not do so without good reason nor should they do so in order to exercise parent-time.

12. The child will stay enrolled at the same school and later the school that it feeds into unless there is an agreement of the parties to change the child's school.

Holidays

13. Holiday parent-time shall be shared equally between the parties as they may agree in writing (text, email, or otherwise in writing). If they are unable to agree holidays shall be divided pursuant to the provisions of the following table (with Sela Gallegos designated as the custodial parent):

Uninterrupted/Extended Time

14. The parties should each have two weeks of uninterrupted time in the summer.

Each party should notify the other party of when they intend to take their uninterrupted time by May 1st of each year with Sela Gallegos having first choice in even years and Carlos Gallegos having first choice in odd years.

15. There shall be no additional extended or interrupted time except by written agreement of the parties.

Notice for Travel

16. For emergency purposes, whenever the child travels with either parent, all of the following will be provided to the other parent:

- (a) an itinerary of travel dates;
- (b) destinations;
- (c) places where the child or traveling parent can be reached; and
- (d) the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the child's location.

Relocation

17. If a party intends to move 150 miles or more from the residence of the other parent, they are required to provide 60 days advance written notice of their intent to relocate.

18. If the parties cannot agree as to how the relocation will affect parent-time, travel costs, or other aspects of the parenting plan or orders of the court, then they are required to follow the provisions of Utah Code Section 81-9-209 regarding the relocation.

Mutual Restraints

19. Each party is mutually restrained from:

- a. Saying anything demeaning or derogatory about the other party in the presence of the minor child and should remove the child from third parties engaged in such conduct;
- b. Discussing adult issues, including this action with the child and should remove the child from third parties engaged in such conduct;
- c. Using the child as messenger or courier between them;
- d. Questioning the child about their parent-time or relationship with the other parent, interrogating the child about their visitation with the other parent, discussing this case with the child, or bribing or coaching the child to make statements regarding custody or visitation;
- e. Communicating with each other in any manner that is unprofessional, uncivil, or derogatory; that uses name calling, vulgarity, or otherwise inhibits a healthy co-parenting relationship.

20. Parties shall not allow or permit third parties to do anything that they themselves are restrained from doing under this Parenting Plan.

Virtual Parent-Time/Telephone Contact

21. As long as equipment and services are available, both parents are entitled to virtual parent-time, telephone calls, and texting with the minor child during the other parent's time, as long as it is at a reasonable hour, for a reasonable duration, and is not disruptive to the plans and activities of the parent who has physical custody of the child at the time.

End of parenting plan

Provisions Relating to Physical Custody

22. The parties are awarded joint physical custody of the minor child.

Provisions Relating to Parent-Time

23. The parties should share equal (50/50) parent time as they can agree. However, if the parties cannot agree they should share parent time on a week on week off basis while following the detailed provisions of Utah Code Section 81-9-305 with Sela Gallegos as the custodial parent and Carlos Gallegos as the non-custodial parent.

Provisions Relating to Child Support

24. Sela Gallegos' gross monthly income is approximately $4175.00 gross per month.

25. Carlos Gallegos' gross monthly income is approximately $5672.00 gross per month.

26. In accordance with the incomes of the parties and the uniform guidelines, Carlos Gallegos is required to pay child support to Sela Gallegos in the amount of $87.00 per month. The child support payments shall begin in December, 2025.

Provisions Relating to Extracurricular Activities and School Fees

27. The parties are ordered to equally share the cost of extracurricular activities that the child is involved in or will be involved in. Additionally, they are required to equally share the costs of any future extracurricular activities that the parties mutually agree upon in writing.

28. The Parties are required to equally share all school fees.

Provisions Relating to Health Insurance

29. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-208, the parties are ordered to provide the minor child with medical and dental insurance coverage if available at a reasonable cost.

a. The parties should each be required to pay ½ of the medical and dental insurance premiums for the minor child on a per capita basis per statute.

b. If, at any point in time, a dependent child are covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance of the parent who can secure the best insurance shall be primary coverage for the dependent child, and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the other parent shall be secondary coverage for the dependent child. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent child are not covered by the parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent child.

c. Both parents should provide verification of coverage to the other parent, upon initial enrollment of the dependent child, and thereafter on or before January

2 of each calendar year. The parent~~12~~ shall notify the other parent of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within 30 calendar days of the date he/she knew or shall have known of the change.

d. Each parent should pay one-half (1/2) of all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical or dental expenses incurred on behalf of the minor child, including, but not limited to, orthodontia, vision correction, and psychological services, if necessary.

e. The parent who incurs medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within thirty (30) days of payment and the parent receiving the written verification shall pay their share of the medical expense within 30 days of receiving written verification.

f. In addition to any other sanctions provided by the Court, a parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply with above.

Provisions Relating to Childcare

30. Pursuant to § 81-6-209 of the Utah Code, each parent will share equally the reasonable work-related childcare expenses incurred for and on behalf of the minor child, if necessary.

a. If an actual expense for childcare is incurred, a parent shall begin paying his/her share on a monthly basis immediately upon presentation of proof of the childcare expense, but if the childcare expense ceases to be incurred, that parent may suspend making monthly payment of that expense while it is not being incurred without obtaining a modification of the child support order.

b. A parent who incurs childcare expenses shall provide written verification of the costs and identity of a childcare provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of a provider and thereafter on the request of the other parent.

c. The parents shall notify the other parent of any change of childcare provider or the monthly expense of childcare within thirty (30) calendar days of the date of the change.

d. In addition to any other sanctions provided by the Court, a parent incurring day care expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply with above.

Provisions Relating to Taxes

31. The parties should equally share the available tax exemptions for the minor child.

a. The parties will alternate claiming C.R.G. each year with Sela Gallegos being entitled to odd numbered tax years and Carlos Gallegos being entitled to even numbered tax years.

Provisions Relating to Alimony

32. Both parties are fully able to support themselves. Therefore, neither of them shall be awarded alimony now or in the future.

Provisions Relating to Life Insurance

33. Carlos Gallegos shall be required ~~to~~ carry life insurance on his own life with Sela Gallegos designated as the beneficiary in an amount sufficient to secure all future unpaid child support obligations and to cover the home so that Sela Gallegos would have an ability to support herself and the child in the event that something happened to Carlos Gallegos. When the child ages out and the equity in the home has been divided equally Carlos Gallegos shall no longer be required to maintain the policy.

Provisions Relating to Real Property

34. The parties own real property located at 7757 S. 1920 W. West Jordan, UT 84084.

35. Carlos is allowed to retain the marital home subject to the division of the equity as follows. The equity in marital residence shall be divided with Sela Gallegos receiving a one-time payment of the first $15,000 in equity and then each party receiving half the remaining equity in the home.

36. This equity split shall be accomplished as follows:

- a. The $15,000 one-time payment within 30 days of entry of the decree of divorce, and
- b. 60 payments in equal amounts totaling Sela's one-half of the remaining equity after the one-time payment. The first payment is due 30 days after the one-time payment and continues at a rate of one payment per month until 60 payments have been made.

37. If Carlos fails to fully and strictly comply with the provisions of paragraph 35 and each of its subparts above then the parties agree that the house will be sold. Specifically, if Carlos is 30 days or more late on any payment due (one-time or monthly) then Sela can ask that the home be immediately listed for sale with her picking the realtor and with her being entitled to attorney's fees if she needs to bring an enforcement action to the court in relation to the equity payout on the marital residence.

Provisions Relating to Personal Property

38. Each party is awarded their own separate personal property that they acquired before their marriage.

39. Sela Gallegos is awarded the 2013 Audi Q7.

a. She is solely responsible for any and all loans, liabilities, costs, maintenance, and insurance for the vehicle that she is being awarded above.

40. All other personal property acquired during the marriage is awarded as currently divided.

Provisions Relating to Financial/Bank Accounts

41. Each party is awarded any and all bank accounts in their own name free and clear of any claim by the other party.

Provisions Relating to Investment Accounts

42. The parties should each be awarded their own stocks, bonds, or other investments or accounts free and clear of any claim by the other party.

Retirement Accounts, Plans or Pensions

43. The parties should each be awarded their own retirement accounts, plans, or pensions of any kind free and clear of any claim by the other party.

Provisions Relating to Debts

44. The parties are each responsible for all debts in their own name.

45. Each party is restrained from obtaining or incurring future debts in the name of the other party.

Provisions Relating to Attorney's Fees and Costs

46. The parties shall each pay their own attorney's fees and costs incurred in prosecuting this action. The parties shall each pay half of the court filing fee.

Miscellaneous Provisions

47. Sela Gallegos is allowed to change her name back (if she so desires) to her maiden name: Sela Celeste Mendes.

48. Each party is ordered to execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce entered by the Court.
