2. CUSTODY. The Respondent is awarded sole legal and sole physical custody of the two (2) minor children born or adopted of this marriage. Pursuant to Rule 4-202.02 of the Utah Code of Judicial Administration the names and birth dates of the children have been submitted to the court on the NON-PUBLIC INFORMATION - MINORS form. The initials, birth month and birth year of each child are listed below:

E.Z.B., born April 13, 2019 and,

3. PARENTING PLAN. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-9-203., the following parenting plan shall be implemented by the parties.

a. The parties shall comply with and be governed by the statutory guidelines of Utah Code Ann. §81-9-202.

b. The parents will discuss with each other and mutually make the significant decisions regarding the children, including, but not limited to, the children's education, health care, and religious upbringing. Either parent may make emergency decisions regarding the health or safety of the children.

c. Day to day decisions regarding the care, control and discipline of the parties' children will be made by the parent with whom the children are residing at the time.

- d. Any parental duties or rights not specifically addressed in this plan shall be discussed and mutually decided by both parents.
- e. Should the parties have a dispute regarding parenting of the minor children, neither party will make the final decision.
- f. Should either parent feel that a decision made under this parenting plan is contrary to the best interests of the children, that parent may arrange for mediation of the matter through a mutually agreed upon mediator or mediation service. A written record shall be prepared of any agreement reached in mediation and a copy provided to each parent. The parents shall share the costs of mediation equally.
- g. No dispute may be presented to the court in this matter without a good faith attempt by both parents to resolve the issue through mediation, unless both parents agree in writing on a different method of dispute resolution, which may include counseling, arbitration, or court review. k. If a parent fails to comply with a provision of this parenting plan, the other parent's obligations under the parenting plan are not affected.

l. This parenting plan is filed by Petitioner in good faith and Petitioner believes the plan is in the best interest of the parties' children.

m. Petitioner understands that pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-9-205 and §35A-3-1 et seq. selecting a joint physical custody arrangement may result in denial of state cash assistance for petitioner and the parties' children through the TANF/FEP program.

4. RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL. Parental care is presumed to be better than surrogate care. Each parent will have first option to provide care for minor children over any other third party if the parent responsible for minor children is not available for a period of ninety-six (96) hours or longer during their custodial time, and the other parent is personally available and willing to provide care and transportation. - i. the parent-time provisions in Subsection (9) or a schedule approved by both parties will be followed; and
- ii. neither parent will interfere with the other's parental rights pursuant to court ordered parent-time arrangements, or the schedule approved by both parties.

b. The court shall, upon motion of any party or upon the court's own motion, schedule a hearing with notice to review the notice of relocation and parent-time schedule and make appropriate orders regarding the parent-time and costs for parent-time transportation.

c. In a hearing to review the notice of relocation, the court shall, in determining if the relocation of a custodial parent is in the best interest of the child, consider any other factors that the court considers relevant to the determination. If the court determines that relocation is not in the best interest of the child, and the custodial parent relocates, the court may order a change of custody.

d. If the court finds that the relocation is in the best interest of the child, the court shall determine the parent-time schedule and allocate the transportation costs that will be incurred for the child to visit the noncustodial parent. In making its determination, court shall consider:

- i. the reason for the parent's relocation;
- ii. the additional costs or difficulty to both parents in exercising parent-time;
- iii. the economic resources of both parents;
- iv. factors articulated in all of §81-9-209 of the Utah Code; and
- v. other factors the court considers necessary and relevant.

e. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, the relocating party shall be responsible for the child's travel expenses as follows:

- i. All travel expenses relating to visitation pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-9-209 (6)(a) and (b) (holiday visitation).
- ii. One-half (50/50) of the child's travel expenses relating to visitation pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-9-209 (9)(c) (summer extended visitation), provided the noncustodial parent is current on all support obligations.

iv. The noncustodial parent will be responsible for all expenses relating to the optional one weekend per month visitation.

v. Reimbursement by either responsible party to the other for the child's travel expenses shall be made within 30 days of receipt of documents detailing those expenses.

f. Any action under this section may be set for an expedited hearing.

g. A parent who fails to comply with the notice of relocation in Utah Code Ann. §81-9-209 (2) may be found in contempt of the court's order.

6. NON-DISPARAGEMENT. Both of the parties shall be permanently enjoined from saying or doing anything in the presence of the minor children of the parties (or in such a manner that the children will become aware of the party's comments or actions) to convey any negative information, beliefs, feelings, etc. regarding the other parent, or doing or saying anything that would in any way harm the relationship between the child and the other parent; both parents shall be ordered to encourage the creation and maintenance of a strong and healthy relationship between the other parent and the children.

7. PETITIONER'S INCOME. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-203, Petitioner's total countable gross income for child support purposes is approximately $2,916.00, per month. The Petitioner receives the following gross monthly income from all sources:

9. CHILD SUPPORT. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-203 et seq. it is reasonable and proper that the Petitioner be ordered to pay to the Respondent as and for child support:

a. A sum of not less than $420.00, per month as base support for the children of the parties, pursuant to the Uniform Child Support Guidelines. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for each child terminates at the time (1) a child becomes 18 years of age, or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or (2) a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated in accordance with Utah Code Ann. §80-7-102 et seq.

b. Child support payments shall begin April 1, 2026. The monthly child support shall be paid one-half on or before the 5th day of each month, and the other half on or before the 20th day of each month, unless the custodial parent uses the Office of Recovery Services to collect support. This income withholding procedure shall apply to existing and future payors. All withheld income shall be submitted to the Office of Recovery Services until such time as the non-custodial parent no longer owes child support to the person entitled to receive child support. All child support payments shall be made to the Office of Recovery Services, P.O. Box 45011, Salt Lake City, Utah 84145, unless the Office of Recovery Services gives notice that payments shall be sent elsewhere. Should mandatory income withholding be implemented by the Office of Recovery Services, child support shall be due on the first day of each month and delinquent on the first day of the following month. All administrative fees and costs of income withholding assessed by the Office of Recovery Services shall be paid by the Respondent.

d. The issue of child support arrearages may be determined by further judicial or administrative process.

f. Under Utah Code Ann. §81-6-212 (5), the parties have a right to adjust the child support order herein by motion after three (3) years from the date of its entry if (1) upon review there is a difference of 10% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah Child Support Guidelines, calculated using the applicable child support worksheet, (2) the difference is not of a temporary nature, and (3) the order adjusting the obligor's ordered support amount does not deviate from the child support guidelines. Under Utah Code Ann. §26B-9-111, if the children receive TANF funds at the time an adjustment is sought, the Office of Recovery Services shall review the order, and if appropriate, move the court to adjust the amount.

g. Under Utah Code Ann. §§ 81-6-212 (3) and (4), the parties have a right to modify this child support order at any time by petition if there has been a substantial change in circumstances because of: (i) material changes in custody; (ii) material changes in relative wealth or assets of the parties; (iii) material changes of 30% or more in the income of a parent; (iv) material changes in the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn; (v) material changes in the medical needs of the child; or (vi) material changes in the legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others, and, the change in (i) through (vi) results in a 15% or more difference between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, and the difference is not of a temporary nature. In a proceeding to modify an existing award, consideration of natural or adoptive children other than those in common to both parties may be applied to mitigate an increase in the child support award but may not be applied to justify a decrease in the award.

10. TAXES.
