Attorneys for the Petitioner

IN THE Third DISTRICT COURT, STATE OF UTAH IN AND FOR Salt Lake COUNTY – Salt Lake DEPARTMENT
In the Matter of the Marriage of: Maria celia zimonjic and Rodoljub zimonjic	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No. 254906785 Honorable Judge: Derek Williams Commissioner: Michelle Blomquist

The parties having prepared and filed a signed Stipulation and Settlement Agreement for the entry of this final Decree of Divorce in this matter; and the Court having reviewed the record in the case and the supporting evidence filed with the Clerk of the Court; and the Court having previously entered its Findings of Facts and Conclusions of Law; and for good cause appearing IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED AS FOLLOWS:

- Dissolution of Relationship. Kenneth is hereby granted a Decree of Divorce from Leslie based upon irreconcilable differences, dissolving all bonds of matrimony heretofore existing.

The Decree of Divorce shall become absolute when signed by the Court and entered by the Clerk in the Register of Actions.

Divorce

2. Kenneth R. Crafts is granted a divorce based on his Affidavit of Jurisdiction and Grounds. The divorce will become final upon entry of the divorce decree.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

1. The parties, during the course of their marriage, acquired certain personal property and should be awarded to the party who was, or is now, entitled to and in possession of that item.

- a. Specific items of personal property should be awarded as follows:
 - i. All furniture, specifically including the bed, dining set, TV, paintings, jewelry, dresser, dishes including silverware and cooking utensils, books, computer, desk, movies and mementos, and anything else that belongs specifically to Petitioner shall be awarded to Petitioner.
 - ii. Everything in the basement (man cave) shall be awarded to Respondent, including his guitars, music, records, CDs and other personal property items.

2. All separate property acquired prior to the marriage and any and all assets acquired by either party during the marriage by gift, bequeath, or devise, should remain the separate property of that party.

3. All property acquired by either party after the date of separation should be the separate property of that party.

4. All other personal marital property not identified above should be divided equally between the parties as they may agree.

5. The parties should make available to each other for copying (the expense of which should be equitably divided), all family pictures, videos, and other family memorabilia in his/her respective possession, the original copies of which should be promptly returned to the party presently in possession thereof.

VEHICLES

6. The parties, during the course of their marriage acquired certain vehicles listed below that should be awarded as follows, free and clear from any encumbrance from the other subject to the debt thereon.

- a. The 2017 Range Rover Evoque shall be awarded to Petitioner;
- b. The 2011 Jaguar-XF shall be awarded to Respondent.

7. Any vehicle not specifically listed shall be awarded to the party who is in possession of that item.

REAL PROPERTY

8. The parties acquired real property during the marriage. The real property shall be divided as follows:

a. The property located at 66 West Guess Ave., Salt Lake City, UT, 84115, shall be awarded to Petitioner, who shall be solely responsible for all debts associated with the property including the mortgage, other loans or encumbrances, and utilities and other related expenses once the decree of divorce is entered. The Petitioner shall either assume the mortgage or refinance the property within ninety (90) days after the Decree of Divorce has been entered, or within a reasonable time as the parties may agree.

b. The Respondent shall execute a quitclaim deed transferring his interest in the property to the other once the assumption or refinancing has been completed.

BANK, INVESTMENT, OTHER FINANCIAL ACCOUNTS, AND RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS

9. Each party should be awarded the sole and exclusive right, title or claim to any and all the bank, investment, and other financial accounts in their own name.

10. The parties have accounts that are held jointly in both of their names. Such joint accounts should be split equally by the parties and should be closed within thirty (30) days of the date of entry of the decree of divorce.

11. The parties have acquired marital interests in various retirement accounts, including but not limited to a 401(k) Plan, Traditional IRA, Roth IRA, and/or HSA/FSA accounts, and/or any and all other defined contribution or benefit plans not herein mentioned, whether qualified or unqualified. Respondent shall pay Petitioner 50% of his retirement account(s).

DEBTS AND OTHER OBLIGATIONS

12. Each party shall be responsible for the debt in his or her name only, with the following exceptions:

- a. Citi Costco; joint debt; approximate balance owed; $12,132.99.
(split 50/50 by the parties)
- b. Sams Club Synchrony; joint debt approximate balance owed;
$3,036.02. (full 100% by Petitioner)
- c. Sams Club Mastercard; joint debt approximate balance owed;
$1,685.00. (full 100% by Petitioner)
- d. America First; joint debt approximate balance owed; $17,087.00.
(split 50/50 by the parties)

13. Once a party has paid his or her portion of a debt, the other party should indemnify and hold the paying party harmless as to that debt.

14. There are no other known debts arising during the marriage, but that if any should be discovered, such debt should be allocated to the party in whose name the debt was created or split equally if incurred jointly.

ALIMONY

15. Neither party shall be ordered to pay alimony.

ATTORNEY'S FEES

16. Pursuant to Utah Code § 81-1-203, and by agreement of the parties, and in recognition that Petitioner's counsel is performing the legal work necessary to prepare the pleadings, disclosures, and settlement documents that benefit both parties, the parties agree that Rodoljub shall reimburse Petitioner for one-half (½) of her reasonable LPP/attorney fees and costs incurred in this matter, not to exceed a total of $2,500.00. This allocation is equitable because Rodoljub shares in the benefit of counsel's work without incurring separate legal expenses of his own.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

17. The Petitioner and Respondent should cooperate with each other to effect change in title(s) to property to be divided herein (if any), to change the names and responsibilities for payment upon the charge accounts and other debts divided herein (if applicable), and to cooperate in each and every other way necessary or proper to ensure that the Decree of Divorce is carried out in every detail.

18. Failure by either party to fully disclose the above information and documentation may subject the party to sanctions under Rule 37, including an award of non-disclosed assets, attorney's fees, or other sanctions deemed appropriate by the Court.

19. Each party should be ordered to provide, as may be necessary, a certified copy of the final Decree of Divorce and any modification to all creditors pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-2-409 and Utah Code Ann. §15-4-6.5 and to effectuate compliance with these statutes.

20. Drafting. Both parties have actively participated, or had the opportunity to participate, in the drafting and revising of the Stipulation. Both parties have had an opportunity to read the stipulation and to make suggested changes to the draft and is a complete understanding of all of issues negotiated and agreed to by the parties. Each of the parties understands, acknowledges, and agrees that each of the parties hereto has contributed to the drafting of the Stipulation, and no provision shall be construed against any party as being the draftsman thereof. The Stipulation shall therefore be construed without regard to any presumption or other rule requiring construction against the party causing the Stipulation to be drafted. The parties specifically, intentionally, and knowingly waive any right to allege, assert, or claim the benefit of any rule requiring construction against the drafting party.

21. Full Disclosure. The parties each indicate that there has been a complete accurate and current disclosure of all income, assets, and liabilities. Both parties understand and agree that any failure to provide complete disclosure may constitute perjury. The property referred to in this agreement represents all the property which either party has any interest in or right to, whether legal or equitable, owned in full or in part by either party, separately or by the parties jointly.
