This matter came before the Court for trial on April 7 and April 8, 2026 before the Honorable Amber N. Montague petitioner's Complaint for Divorce, filed March 7, 2025, and respondent's Counterpetition for Divorce, filed March 12, 2025. Petitioner ("Candace")<sup>1</sup> was present and represented by James H. Woodall. Respondent ("Justin") was present and represented by Trevor H. Casperson.

The Court, having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, enters the following Decree of Divorce:

1. The parties are granted a Decree of Divorce on grounds of irreconcilable differences.

1. For ease of identification the parties will be referred to by their first names with no disrespect intended by the informality.

2. Candace is awarded the property in Tabiona, Utah, and her home in West Valley City, Utah, subject to all outstanding indebtedness, free of any claim by Justin. Title to these properties and the outstanding mortgage debt is solely in Candace's name.
3. The parties have substantially divided their vehicles and personal property. Justin is awarded the chainsaw, the tools, and the generator from the storage container on the Tabiona property. Except for these items, each party shall retain the vehicles and personal property in his or her possession.
4. To equalize the division of the marital estate, and as fully set forth in the Court's Findings of Fact, judgment is entered against Candace for $62,109.77, together with interest at the statutory rate of 5.51% per annum from and after April 8, 2026.
5. The parties shall each pay one-half of the debt on their 2024 joint income tax returns. It began as $21,450.00. Each party's share is $10,725.00, plus one-half of any interest or penalties that have accrued. Justin will receive credit towards his share of the debt for any previous payments made. Other than this obligation, there are no joint debts. Each party shall be solely responsible for all remaining debts and obligations in his or her name.
6. No fees are awarded.
7. Candace is hereby restored to her former name of Candace Marilyn Navarro.
