Parent-time transfers

9. Pick-up and drop-off ("transfers") of the children for parent-time will be as described below:

The parties will make arrangements for pick up, delivery and return of the children prior to each scheduled parent-time.

Curbside transfers

10. There will not be curbside transfers. The parent/person dropping-off or picking-up a child may accompany the children to the other parent/person when parent-time transfers are made.

Decision-making

11. Each parent will make day-to-day decisions for the children during the time they are caring for the children. Either parent may make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the children. A parent who makes an emergency decision must share the decision with the other parent as soon as reasonably possible.

Education plan

12. The school the children will attend is based on Octavia Schubert's home residence.

13. Joseph Schubert and Octavia Schubert has authority to check the children out of school. Joseph Schubert and Octavia Schubert has access to the children during school. If the parents cannot agree, education decisions will be made by Octavia Schubert.

Communication with each other

14. Parents will communicate with each other by any method.

Communication with the children

15. The parents agree they will:

- provide age-appropriate help to the children to communicate with the other parent.
- give the children privacy during their communication with the other parent. The parents will not interfere with or monitor communication between the children and the other parent.

16. Parents and children may communicate with each other whenever the children choose.

- By any method

Records and information sharing

17. Both parents will have access to records and the ability to consult with providers regarding education, child care, and health care.

Travel by the children

18. During their parent-time, the parent may consent for the children to travel with a sports team, religious group, school group, relatives, friends, by themselves, or with others.

19. If the children will be travelling for more than 1 days, the parent arranging the travel will notify the other parent at least 30 days in advance. That parent will give the other parent the travel schedule, locations and phone numbers at least 30 days in advance. In case of emergency, the parent will provide as much notice as possible.

20. Other agreements about travel by the children: Travel During their parent-time, a parent may allow the children to travel with appropriate supervision. If travel exceeds one (1) day, the parent must provide at least 30 days notice, including travel details and contact information. In emergencies, as much notice as possible shall be given.

Child care

21. A child care provider for our children must be:

A licensed child care provider.

A relative, friend, or neighbor.

Relocation of a parent (Utah Code 81-9-209)

22. If either parent moves more than 149 miles from the other, the moving parent must give the non-moving parent a written Notice of Relocation. The notice must be sent at least 60 days before the planned move.

a. The written Notice of Relocation must include:

- Information about the move;
- A proposed parent-time schedule; and
- A statement that the parents will not interfere with the other parent's parent-time.

b. If the moving parent does not give the non-moving parent a Notice of Relocation, the moving parent will be in contempt of the court's order.

23. If either parent lives more than 149 miles away from the other, or if the parents live a different countries, parent-time will be as the parties agree. If they are unable to agree, the following will be the minimum parent-time for the noncustodial parent:

Relocation Schedule (Utah Code 81-9-209)

a. in years ending in odd number, the minor children will spend the following holidays with the noncustodial parent:

- i. Thanksgiving holiday beginning Wednesday until Sunday; and
- ii. spring break, if applicable, beginning the last day of school before the holiday until the day before school resumes;

b. in years ending in an even number, the minor children will spend the following holidays with the noncustodial parent:

- i. the entire winter school break period; and
- ii. the fall school break beginning the last day of school before the holiday until the day before school resumes; and
- c. extended parent-time equal to ½ of the summer or off-track time for consecutive weeks. The children will be returned to the custodial home no later than seven days before school begins. This week will be counted when determining the amount of parent-time to be divided between the parents for the summer or off-track period. The parties will mutually agree on this extended time each year. If they are unable to agree, the noncustodial parent will select the dates for the extended time period.
- d. One weekend per month at the option and expense of the noncustodial parent. The noncustodial parent's monthly weekend entitlement is subject to the following restrictions.
 - i. If the noncustodial parent has not designated a specific weekend for parent-time, the noncustodial parent will receive the last weekend of each month unless a holiday assigned to the custodial parent falls on that particular weekend. If a holiday assigned to the custodial parent falls on the last weekend of the month, the noncustodial parent will be entitled to the next to the last weekend of the month.
 - ii. If a noncustodial parent's extended parent-time or parent-time over a holiday extends into or through the first weekend of the next month, that weekend will be considered the noncustodial parent's monthly weekend entitlement for that month.
 - iii. If a child is out of school for teacher development days or snow days after the children begin the school year, or other days not included in the list of holidays in Subsection (5) and those days are contiguous with the noncustodial parent's monthly weekend parent-time, those days will be included in the weekend parent-time.
- e. The custodial parent is entitled to all parent-time not specifically allocated to the noncustodial parent.

24. If either parent lives more than 149 miles away from the other or the parents live in separate countries, costs for the children's travel expenses for parent-time will be paid by the parent who moved.

25. If a parent has been found in contempt for not being current on all support obligations, and they do not have primary physical care of the child, they will be responsible for the child's related travel expenses.

26. Reimbursement for the child's travel expenses must be made within 30 days of receipt of documents detailing those expenses.

Changing the plan

This plan remains in effect until changed. A change comes from a modification of a court order.

END OF PARENTING PLAN

Income: Petitioner (Joseph Schubert) (Utah Code 81-6-203)

27. Joseph Schubert's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $6083.

Joseph Schubert base child support amount using the sole custody calculation is

- a. Joseph Schubert is employed at Nelson Labs. Joseph Schubert earns $6083 gross (pre-tax) monthly income working a 40-hour a week job or less.

Income: Respondent (Octavia Schubert) (Utah Code 81-6-203)

28. Octavia Schubert's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $1300.

Octavia Schubert receives the following gross monthly income:

- a. Octavia Schubert is employed at Postal office. Octavia Schubert earns $1300 gross (pre-tax) monthly income working a 40-hour a week job or less.

29. The adjusted gross monthly income for Octavia Schubert is $1300.

Child support (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, Parts 1 and 2)

30. Joseph Schubert believes the guideline amount for child support is unjust, inappropriate, or not in the best interest of our children for the following reasons:

The reason(s) for deviation are property settlement.

31. It is in the best interest of the children that Joseph Schubert be ordered to pay child support to Octavia Schubert as follows:

- a. $2,500.00 per month. This deviates from the Utah Uniform Child Support Guidelines.
- b. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for each child ends when:
 - a child turns 18 or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or
 - a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the United States armed forces, or is emancipated (Utah Code 78A-6-801).

32. Once a child is no longer eligible to receive child support, the support amount for the eligible children should be recalculated using the child support worksheet (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, Parts 1 and 2). The parties may not divide the base child support award by the number of children and subtract that amount from the prior child support amount.

33. Child support will be paid as follows:

Joseph Schubert shall pay child support consistent with Utah Child Support Guidelines, based on both parties' incomes. Child support may also be satisfied in whole or in part by Joseph contributing toward the mortgage or housing expenses of the children's primary residence, as ordered by the Court.

34. The issue of past-due child support may be decided by future court or administrative action.

35. Joseph Schubert will pay any ORS fees. If Octavia Schubert is the ORS applicant and the fees are withheld from payments to Octavia Schubert, Joseph Schubert will reimburse Octavia Schubert.

36. The parties must notify each other within 30 days of any change in their income.

37. The parties will do the following for child related support or expenses:

a. Joseph Schubert shall pay child support consistent with Utah Child Support Guidelines, based on both parties' incomes. Child support may also be satisfied in whole or in part by Joseph contributing toward the mortgage or housing expenses of the children's primary residence, as ordered by the Court.

38. The Office of Recovery Services (<https://ors.utah.gov/>) provides services to individuals who are seeking assistance in the collection or enforcement of child support orders.

Dependent children for tax purposes

39. As long as Joseph Schubert is current on all child support and other court-ordered financial obligations, Joseph Schubert may claim the following children as dependents/exemptions for tax purposes as allowed by law:

a. Maelynn Schubert and Gawin Schubert

40. As long as Octavia Schubert is current on all child support and other court-ordered financial obligations, Octavia Schubert may claim the following children as dependents/exemptions for tax purposes as allowed by law:

b. Jaxon Schubert and Adeline Schubert

Child health care (Utah Code 81-6-208)

41. The parties must provide health care coverage for the medical expenses of the dependent children. Health care coverage means coverage under which medical services are provided to a dependent child through: fee for service, a health maintenance organization, a preferred provider organization, any other type of private health insurance, or public health care coverage. Utah Code 81-6-101(14),

42. The parent who is able to obtain the most affordable medical, hospital, and dental insurance for the dependent children must maintain medical, hospital, and dental care insurance for the dependent children if it is available at reasonable cost. If medical insurance is not available at reasonable cost then both parents must ensure the children have health care coverage. This may require applying for public health care coverage, such as CHIP or Medicaid.

a. If, at any time, a dependent child is covered by the medical, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the coverage will be as follows:

- Octavia Schubert's insurance will be primary coverage.
- Joseph Schubert's insurance will be secondary coverage.

b. If a parent remarries and that parent's dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the coverage will be as follows:

- Octavia Schubert's spouse's insurance will be primary coverage.
 - Joseph Schubert's spouse's insurance will be secondary coverage.
- c. Both parties will equally share the out-of-pocket costs of the insurance premiums.
 - d. Both parties will equally share all uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses that are reasonable and necessary. This includes deductibles, co-insurance, and co-payments paid by a party for the dependent children.
 - e. The party who pays health care expenses must provide the other party written verification of the cost and payment within 30 days.
 - f. If a party does not follow this order and provide written verification, they may not be able to receive credit for health care expenses or recover the other party's share of the expenses.
 - g. On or before January 2 of each year, the party ordered to maintain coverage must provide verification of coverage to the other party, and ORS, if they are involved.
 - h. If there is any change in coverage, within 30 days of the change the party ordered to maintain coverage must notify the other party and ORS, if they are involved.

Child care expenses (Utah Code 81-6-209)

43. Both parties will equally share all reasonable work, career, or occupational training-related child care expenses.
 - a. The party who pays child care expenses must provide the other party written verification of the cost and identity of the child care provider. This must be done when a provider is first hired, and any time the other party asks for the information. The party incurring or paying child care expenses must notify the other party of any change of a child care provider or monthly expense. This must be done within 30 calendar days of the change.
 - b. The party not directly paying for child care must pay their share of child care expenses as soon as they receive verification of the expenses.
 - c. If a party does not follow the order and provide written verification, they may not receive credit for work, career, or occupational training-related child care expenses or recover the other party's share of the expenses.

Public assistance statement – Office of Recovery Services (ORS) (Utah Code 81-6-106(2)-(3))

44. Neither party has received or is receiving public assistance from the State of Utah.

Personal property (Utah Code Title 81, Chapters 1, 4, 6, and 9)

45. All personal property not addressed in the divorce should be divided as the parties have already divided it.

Disposal: Marital Residence The parties jointly own the marital residence located at 583 East 500 North, Tooele, Utah 84074, which is encumbered by a mortgage in both parties' names. Joseph Schubert shall continue making the monthly mortgage payments, property taxes, homeowners insurance, and any applicable HOA dues until Octavia Schubert remarries, voluntarily vacates the residence, or the parties mutually agree to sell the property, whichever occurs first. Upon Octavia Schubert's remarriage or vacating the home, she shall either: a) Begin taking over full responsibility for the mortgage, taxes, insurance, and related costs within 90 days, including making direct payments to the mortgage lender, or b) List the home for sale within 90 days of said event and make reasonable efforts to market, maintain, and sell the property. In the event she chooses to sell, she shall have no more than one (1) year from the listing date to secure a buyer and close the sale. If Octavia Schubert fails to begin payments or list and sell the home within the specified time frames, either party may request mediation through the Utah Court Mediation Program to resolve the issue of payment responsibility or to compel sale or other appropriate action. Upon sale of the home, the net proceeds--after satisfying the mortgage, taxes, and sale-related costs--shall be divided equally between the parties (50/50). Both parties shall cooperate in signing any documents necessary to carry out this agreement, including those related to title, loan servicing, refinancing, or sale. Nothing in this section relieves either party of their contractual obligations under the mortgage unless and until released by the lender through refinance, sale, or payoff.
