Attorneys for Petitioner

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT

IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the matter of the marriage of

CAMERON PAIGE NELSON,

Petitioner,

MICHAEL KENT NELSON,

Respondent.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Case No. 234903591
Judge Amanda Montague
Comm. Michelle Blomquist

This matter came before the Court for entry of a Decree of Divorce, the Honorable Amanda Montague presiding. The parties participated in a Judicial Settlement Conference with the Hon. Laura Scott with their respective counsel, Thomas J. Burns for the Petitioner and Martin N. Olsen for the Respondent on February 24, 2026. The parties successfully negotiated and read onto the record in open court a final Stipulation for the resolution of all issues in this matter and consented that a Decree of Divorce could be entered consistent with the terms of that Stipulated Agreement. The Court having confirmed the individual parties' hearing and agreement of the terms of the parties' Stipulation, and being fully advised in the premises and good cause appearing, made and entered its Stipulated Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law.

Accordingly, upon the motion of the Petitioner, it is hereby

ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

1. The bonds of matrimony and the marriage contract heretofore existing between Petitioner and Respondent are hereby dissolved.
2. The parties are awarded a Decree of Divorce, said Decree to become absolute and final upon entry by the Court.
3. Two children have been born as issue of the parties' marriage, namely O.G.N., born February 2014, and C.G.N., born March 2016.
4. The parties are awarded the joint legal custody of the parties' minor children. Joint legal custody shall mean that the parents shall share all rights, duties and responsibilities as parents to the minor children. Each party shall have the primary authority to make routine decisions regarding the children's day-to-day activities during times when they have the children for parent time. The parties shall consult with each other and discuss all non-routine matters, such as medical and educational decisions involving the children. In the event the parties cannot reach agreement on such non-routine matters, the parties shall consult with the appropriate professional (educator, doctor, etc.). If the parties still cannot reach agreement, they shall participate in mediation to resolve the issue prior to bringing the matter to the Court. The parties shall equally share the cost of the mediator's fees.
5. The parties are awarded the joint physical custody of the parties' minor children on an equal time basis, with Petitioner having overnights with the children each Wednesday and Thursday, Respondent having overnights with the children each Monday and Tuesday, and the parties alternating parent time Friday, Saturday and Sunday overnights.

6. The parties shall continue their agreement to work together and cooperate to split holidays between them for holiday parent time. In the event that the parties are unable to agree on a holiday schedule, Respondent will be deemed the non-custodial parent for the holiday schedule. The parties are awarded two (2) weeks of summer parent-time, with the caveat that the parties cannot exercise their two (2) weeks in a row as it may result in a parent having three (3) straight weeks of parent-time.

7. The parties shall use school to school transfer for their parent time, with each delivering the children to school at the end of their parent time, and when beginning their parent time, they shall pick the children up from school to begin their parent time.

8. Each party shall have the right of first refusal in the event the other party requires surrogate care, or to leave the children alone for a period of four hours or more. The party exercising parent time and needing such care shall give to the other, as soon as they are aware of the need, notice of the need, whereupon the other party shall have the right to pick up the children for the duration of the anticipated surrogacy need, and to return them to the parent with the parent time right when that parent advises them of their return.

9. The parties shall implement the Utah advisory guidelines identified in Utah Code § 81-9-202 (2025).

10. The parties shall support each other as parents in establishing and enforcing consistent rules and discipline in their respective households regarding homework, lessons, school projects, and general conduct.

11. The parties shall consult with each other if either of them becomes aware that the children are experiencing difficulties in school, emotional problems, or other issues that they would wish to be informed of if the parenting roles were reversed.
12. The parties shall hold the other in high esteem in their conversations with the children and encourage the children's continuing love and affection for both parents. In no event shall either party demean or disparage the other parent in the children's presence or permit any third party to do so. In no event shall either party demean or disparage the other parent or that parent's significant other in the children's presence or permit any third party to do so.
13. Each party shall be identified as a parent of the children in all medical, educational, and extracurricular entity in which the children are enrolled or involved and each party shall be entitled to receive direct notice from all such entities, and neither party shall interfere with the right of the other to receive such notice. Each party shall be entitled to be provided with copies of the children's school schedules, notices of extracurricular activities, special events, team sports, lessons, and parent-teacher activities, report cards, school pictures, and other significant information.
14. Each party shall accommodate the children's activities in good faith. Each party may attend and participate in all practices, games, and school activities to which parents are invited without regard to the parent time schedule. The parties shall continue supporting the recreation activities in which the children were participating at the time of the parties' separation (piano, cheer, and swim). The parties are restrained from discussing a particular extracurricular activity or the continued participation in the activity with the minor children until the parties arrive at a unified decision that can be shared with the minor children. All required travel for extracurricular activities shall be agreed upon in writing by the parties prior to a party incurring travel costs or scheduling the required travel.

15. The parties shall each pay one-half of the children's extracurricular activities as long as these activities are mutually agreed to by the parties in writing, including text message and email.

16. Each party shall have full access to all of the children's teachers and health care providers, as well as school and medical records, with no requirement to notify the other party or obtain their permission.

17. Both parties shall immediately notify the other of all emergency medical, educational, or legal events involving the children that occur when the children are in his or her custody, in particular any event that requires the children to miss more than one day of school or be treated at any medical facility for any reason.

18. Both parties shall be entitled to reasonable telephone contact with the children, which shall be unmonitored.

19. Both parties shall keep each other informed of his or her address and telephone number at all times.

20. Each party shall notify the other whenever he or she intends to take a child or both children on an overnight trip and provide the other with a travel itinerary with addresses and telephone numbers where he or she may be reached in the event of an emergency.

21. In accordance with Utah Code § 81-6-208 (2025), insurance for the medical and dental expenses of the minor children shall be provided by the party who can obtain the best coverage at the most reasonable cost. Currently Respondent is providing the minor children's medical insurance.

1. a. 1Each parent shall pay 50% of all out-of-pocket, actually paid by the parties, costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the minor children's portion of insurance. The minor children's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the minor children shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of minor children in the instant case.

2. b. 2Each parent shall pay 50% of all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments, incurred for the dependent children and actually paid by the parents. Any and all decisions regarding recommendations for medical or dental treatment shall be agreed upon in writing by the parties prior to the treatment being initiated.

3. c. 3The parent ordered to maintain insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent upon initial enrollment of the dependent children, and thereafter on or before January 2, of each calendar year, if there is a change in the previous coverage or provider. The parent shall notify the other parent of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within thirty (30) calendar days of the date he or she first knew or should have known of the change.

4. d. 4The parent who incurs medical and dental expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent within thirty (30) days of payment. The other parent will remit payment within thirty (30) days of receipt of the verification. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party shall be responsible for the payment of one-half of all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor children as indicated.

5. e. In addition to any other sanctions provided by the court, a parent incurring medical and dental expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply with the foregoing subparagraphs (a) through (d).

6. f. If, at any point in time, a dependent child is covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Respondent shall be primary coverage for the dependent child and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Petitioner shall be secondary coverage for the dependent child. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent child.

22. For purposes of child support, Respondent's monthly income is calculated at $25,000.00 and Petitioner's income at $2,500.00 per month. Respondent is ordered to pay child support to Petitioner in the amount of $1,466.00 per month pursuant to a joint child support obligation worksheet. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for a child terminates at the time (1) the child becomes 18 years of age or graduates from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later; or (2) the child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated. Child support is payable one-half on the 5th day of each month and one-half on the 20th day of each month.

23. When only one child remains a minor, Respondent's child support obligation shall be recalculated pursuant to the parties' incomes and the child support obligation guidelines in effect at the time the recalculation is made.

24. Respondent is ordered to pay alimony to Petitioner in the amount of $3,534.00 per month for a period of six years from the date of entry of Decree, unless earlier terminated by Petitioner's cohabitation, remarriage, or the death of either party.

25. During the pendency of these proceedings, the parties agreed to the sale of the marital home and divided certain amounts of the proceeds from that sale, and each is awarded the proceeds that they received from that sale, and also awarded any asset or property that their purchased with those proceeds, with the other having no claim or interest in those assets or property.

26. The parties deposited the remaining proceeds from the sale of the marital home were placed in an escrow account from which the parties were permitted to withdraw funds as agreed or for their use to pay their respective attorney fees. Petitioner is awarded the entirety of the funds in the parties' escrow account free and clear of any claim from Respondent including any claim for adjustment based on premarital contributions to the marital home or use of those escrow funds pending the parties' divorce, with one exception: The 2025 obligation on the parties' Marriott timeshare in the amount of $1,977.00 was paid on February 23, 2026 from the escrow account. The 2026 dues have also been paid from the escrow account. Petitioner used that timeshare in 2025, and it shall be Mr. Nelson's to use in 2026. Based on the dues being paid for 2025 and 2026, Respondent will now be responsible for all costs associated with that timeshare and will have the exclusive use of that timeshare.

27. The parties previously divided other marital funds and therefore, each party is awarded all financial accounts they have in their own name as their sole and separate property subject to no claim by the other party.

28. The parties previously completed the division of their marital personal property, household furnishings, housewares, home maintenance equipment and recreation equipment. Each party is awarded sole and exclusive possession of and responsibility for all expenses and liabilities associated with these assets.

29. Each party is awarded sole and exclusive possession, ownership and responsibility for all expenses and liability for their respective homes

30. The parties are ordered to equally divide the parties' retirement accounts with the exception of the Wells Fargo 401(k) and IRA which are Respondent's premarital accounts in his name, and he shall retain the sole ownership of those accounts. Additionally, Petitioner is awarded the small retirement account that is held in her name.

31. With respect to the parties' interest in the units in Digicert, the vested units shall be split 50/50. At the waterfall or liquidation event date, because the units are not transferable, Respondent shall liquidate those shares or sell those units, the taxes will be paid, and then the net proceeds will be divided 50/50.

32. For the unvested units in Digicert, the same process shall apply. When the waterfall or liquidation event occurs, the units shall be sold, the taxes paid and the net proceeds divided between the parties 80% to Respondent and 20% to Petitioner.

33. Respondent is ordered to provide documentation to Petitioner at the time of the waterfall or liquidation event date or dates to confirm the nature and value of the waterfall or liquidation event date(s), including the sales price, the taxes paid for all amounts received by Petitioner, and the net proceeds for Petitioner to use to verify both the sale price, that the taxes were paid and what the net proceeds are.

34. The parties shall file a joint tax return for 2025 and equally split any liability or refund from that tax return 50/50. As part of the parties' agreement regarding the vested and unvested Digicert units, for 2026 and going forward, Petitioner will be entitled to receive the tax exemptions for both the parties' children.

35. As part of the parties' agreement regarding alimony, Respondent is awarded the parties' boat free and clear of any claim by the Petitioner.

36. The parties are each awarded the motor vehicle in their possession. As neither vehicle carries any debt, there should be no further equalization to the extent there may be some difference in value.
