This matter comes before the Court for final entry of the Decree of Divorce. The Court having reviewed the parties' Stipulation and having previously entered its Findings of Facts and Conclusions of Law,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

JURISDICTION

1. Father is currently a resident of Salt Lake County, Utah.
2. Mother is currently a resident of Salt Lake County, Utah.

3. The parties maintained their marital domicile for more than six months in Salt Lake County, Utah.

4. Utah has jurisdiction to decide this matter and venue is proper in this Court.

MARRIAGE AND SEPARATION

5. The parties are husband and wife, having been married on August 14, 2010.

6. The parties separated in January of 2026.

GROUND FOR DIVORCE

7. Irreconcilable differences have arisen between the parties, which differences have made the continuation of their marriage impossible. The parties are hereby granted a divorce from each other, which shall become final upon entry.

CHILDREN AND CUSTODY

8. The parties have three minor children together, to wit: C.J.G. born October 2016; J.R.G.. born October 2018; and B.A.G. born February 2021.

9. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 78B-13-209, Mother stated that:

a. She does not have any information of any custody proceeding concerning the children pending in a court of this or any other state; and

b. The parties do not know of any person not a party to the proceeding who has physical custody of the children or claims to have custody or visitation rights with respect to the child.

10. Mother is a fit and proper parent. She is able and willing to care for the minor children and has demonstrated his willingness and ability to do so. The parties have both been caregivers for the children since their births.

11. It is in the best interest of the minor children and the parties are hereby awarded joint legal and physical custody with Father being awarded parent time as outlined below.

PARENT TIME AND PARENTING PLAN

11. Father is awarded parent time as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree, Father is to be awarded parent time as outlined in Utah Code § 81-9-305, which is a 50/50 time-sharing schedule with the parties utilizing a week-on, week-off schedule as long as it is in the children's best interest.

12. Holiday parent time is awarded as outlined in Utah Code §§ 81-9-305 and 81-9-302, with Mother being the custodial parent. However, the parties will not exercise holiday parent-time on Columbus Day or Veteran's Day.

13. Transportation for the Children. The parties shall utilize school-to-school or daycare-to-daycare exchanges when school is in session. If school-to-school or daycare-to-daycare exchanges are not possible, except as otherwise outlined in this agreement, the receiving parent shall provide the transportation from the other parent's residence unless otherwise mutually agreed upon. The parties shall personally pick up the minor children from school or daycare, unless they have mutually agreed that another individual will be picking up the children.

14. Third Party Transportation. A step-parent, grandparent, or other responsible individual designated by the receiving parent, may pick up the children if the other parent is aware of the identity of the individual, and the receiving parent will be with the children by overnight.

15. Each parent shall maintain a wardrobe and necessities at each home so that children are not traveling with more than a school backpack.

16. Notification of Extended Time. Both parents shall provide notification of extended parent-time or vacation weeks with the children by May 1 each year with Father having first choice of extended time in odd numbered years and Mother having first choice of extended time in even numbered years. If notification is not provided timely the complying parent may determine the schedule for extended parent-time for the non-complying parent.

17. Communication. The parties shall discuss all parenting concerns by text or e-mail only and will not use their children to deliver messages. The parties will only use phone or text contact for emergencies or changes on the day of exchanges. The parties will be civil with one another and will only communicate regarding concerns of the children or implementation of the agreement.

18. Telephone and Virtual Contact with Children. Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communications with the children, in the form of mail privileges and virtual parent-time if the equipment is reasonably available. Telephone contact shall be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration. The children shall be able to contact the parents at any reasonable time. The parties should be restrained from restricting the children's access to cell phone(s) or electronic devices or internet access to prevent communication to the other parent. The children shall be allowed to make a nightly video or phone call to the parent who is not exercising parent-time at the time.

19. Travel. When the children travel with either parent overnight, all of the following shall be provided to the other parent at least 72 hours prior to departure:

- a. An itinerary of travel dates;
- b. Destination;
- c. Places where the child or traveling parent can be reached; and, the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the children's location.

20. Notification of Children's Events. Both parents shall have access to information and should not require the other parent to notify them of information that they may obtain through their own reasonable efforts. For information the other party does not have access to, the parties shall take affirmative steps to share school, school programs, extracurricular activities, sporting events, and activity information concerning their children with each other on a frequent basis.

21. Special Events. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the children available to attend family functions, including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the child or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the visitation schedule.

22. If either party moves more than 150 miles from the residence of the other party, the parties shall follow the provisions of Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-209.

23. The parties shall discuss with each other, and if possible, shall attempt to agree upon the significant decisions relating to the children, including but not limited to the children's health care, religious upbringing, and education. In doing so, the parents shall consider the needs and desires of the children and the advice of the children's teachers, healthcare providers, or other care providers. If, after consulting with each other, the parents remain unable to reach a mutually agreeable decision, the parties will attempt to mediate the matter before bringing it by motion before the Court for review. If a final decision is needed before the parties can address the matter in court, then Mother will have the final say.

24. Each parent shall be listed as the emergency contact for any extracurricular activities.

25. The children shall attend South Jordan Elementary for the 2026-27 school year unless otherwise agreed to in writing by the parents.

26. Mother will take the lead in being responsible for school registrations and medical and dental appointments, and Father will be allowed to attend.

27. The parties shall utilize an overnight right of first refusal, wherein if the party exercising parent-time cannot be with the children overnight, then the other parent will be offered the opportunity to care for the children during that time. The parent who takes the right of first refusal will pick up the children.

28. The parties adopt the Advisory Guidelines pursuant to Utah Code section 81-9-202 as the binding Parenting Plan. In addition, the Court orders the following:
- a. Both parties should be restrained from saying or doing anything that would tend to diminish the children's love and affection for the other parent. This includes any comments about the other parent's actions that may be construed as having a negative impact on the other parent's relationship with the children;
 - b. Communication regarding the minor child shall be directly between the parents and shall not involve third parties or the children;
 - d. No dispute may be presented to the court in this matter without a good faith attempt by both parties to resolve the issue through mediation;
 - e. If the court finds that a party has used or frustrated the dispute resolution process without good reason, the court may award attorney fees and financial sanctions to the prevailing party; and
 - f. The parties should be flexible in their parent time arrangement. The parties should also be sensitive of the children's needs or requesting a parent during the other party's parent time and allow phone calls or other virtual meetings with the parent.
 - g. The parties will utilize a shared calendar and update the children's activities on that calendar.

PUBLIC ASSISTANCE

29. The minor children are not currently receiving state assistance.

CHILD SUPPORT

30. Father is employed full-time, and has a gross monthly income of $9,166. Mother is in school and currently earns gross monthly income of less than minimum wage $1,257 per month, so she is willing to be imputed with at least that amount for child support purposes. Father's child support should be set pursuant to the "Uniform Child Liability for Support Act," Utah Code Ann., § 78B-12-101 et seq., to be paid ½ by the 5th day of the month and ½ by the 20th day of each month. Pursuant to the attached child support worksheet, Father is ordered to pay child support of $767 per month to Mother. The child support will be recalculated upon Mother's graduation and employment.

MEDICAL AND DENTAL

Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-208(3), the parents are to share equal responsibility for the payment of reasonable and necessary insured and uninsured medical and dental expenses of the dependent minor children, and if coverage is or becomes available at a reasonable cost, an order requiring the purchase and maintenance of appropriate health, hospital, and dental care insurance for the dependent children.

a. If health, dental and vision coverage is available at reasonable cost, Father should be required to maintain said insurance for medical expenses for the benefit of the minor children. The parties should notify each other of any change in any insurance policy that will affect the minor children's coverage.

b. If both parties have insurance, then each party should be fully responsible for their own out-of-pocket premiums. If only one party has insurance, then the parties should be equally responsible for the costs of any out-of-pocket premium, otherwise not paid by the employer, to insure the minor children, each paying 50% of said premium. The children's portion of the premium should be a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expense for the children should be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy.

c. The parties should evenly divide and be responsible for all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontic, therapeutic, and pharmaceutical expenses, including deductibles and co-payments, incurred for the minor children.

d. The parties should provide written verification of the cost and payment of the medical expenses to the other party within 30 days of payment.

e. Each party should pay their portion of medical expenses within 30 days of notification.

33. For purposes of this section, "health, hospital, or dental insurance plan" has the same meaning as "health care insurance" as defined in Utah Code Ann. § 31A-1-301.

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES and SCHOOL EXPENSES

34. Each party is ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amount incurred for any mutually agreed-upon, in writing, extracurricular activities that the minor children may be involved in. The parties shall pay the providers

A party who incurs an expense for a child's extra-curricular activity without receiving prior consent from the other parent shall be solely responsible for that expense. If a parent enrolls a child in an activity without the other parent's consent, the activity shall not infringe on the other parent's parent-time and the enrolling parent shall pay the full cost. Both parents shall be able to attend all of the children's extra-curricular activities.

35. Each party is ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket school expenses (i.e. registration, books, new school clothes, required supplies, lab fees, etc.) incurred during the time leading up to and including high school. This shall not include private school tuition unless agreed to by the parties in writing. The parties shall pay the school directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of those school expense invoices, bills, receipts, and/or verification.

CHILD CARE EXPENSES

36. Each party shall be responsible for paying any work-related childcare expenses for the minor children they incur during their designated parent time.
