IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT IN AND FOR COUNTY OF SALT LAKE, STATE OF UTAH, 450 South State Street, Salt Lake City, Utah 84114
In the matter of the marriage of: SOLTANA ABDELHADI HAMIDAT, Petitioner, and HADJ AHMED HAMIDAT, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Civil No. 264900908 Judge: Hon. Linda Jones Commissioner: Hon. Michelle Blomquist Discovery Tier: 4

This matter came before the Court by way of Petitioner's SOLTANA ABDELHADI HAMIDAT ("Petitioner") Verified Petition for Divorce. Respondent failed to respond to the Petition for Divorce by March 23, 2026, as required and has still never responded to date. Based upon the documents provided, the Court has jurisdiction and authority to enter a Decree of Divorce. The Court, having found and entered its Findings of Facts and Conclusions of Law, and being otherwise fully advised, and for good cause appearing, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED:

1. Petitioner is a bona fide resident of Salt Lake County, State of Utah, and has so resided for at least three (3) months immediately prior to the commencement of this action.

2. The parties are husband and wife, respectively, having been married to each other on September 8, 1992, in San Jose, State of California.

3. The parties separated on or about November 11, 2022.

4. The parties have no minor children, the Petitioner is not pregnant, and therefore, no child support is required under Utah Code Ann. §81-6-201.

5. Neither party is on active duty with the military, and the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act, contained in 50 USC Appx. §§ 501 et seq., does not apply.

DIVORCE

6. The parties are hereby divorced from one another, and the bonds of matrimony are forever severed.

REAL PROPERTY

7. The parties have no ownership interests in any real property, and therefore, no division is required by the Court.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

8. During the course of the parties' marriage, the parties acquired various items of personal property which have been previously divided between the parties, and such property is now in the possession of that party, and shall be held by that party free and clear of any claim by the other.

INVESTMENT, RETIREMENT, AND BANK ACCOUNTS, AND SECURITIES

9. During the course of the parties' marriage, the parties established, either jointly or separately, certain retirement, checking, savings, investments, bank accounts, and/or other securities. The parties have previously divided all financial accounts, and it is reasonable and proper that the owners of said retirement, checking, savings, investment, and bank accounts hold all ownership and interest in the accounts, free and clear of any claim by the other party.

DEBTS

10. During the course of the parties' marriage, the parties may have established, either jointly or separately, debt or debt obligations. Any and all debts and obligations acquired by either party shall remain with the party whose name it appears, and that party shall hold the other harmless from the debt or obligation.

11. If a party incurred debt after the date of the parties' separation, the date on which Respondent abandoned Petitioner and moved to Algeria, such debt shall be assigned and paid for by the party who acquired the debt and in whose name such debts appear.

12. In the event a Respondent obtained joint or separate debt, he is ordered to notify creditors or obligees of the Court's division of all debts or obligations, known or unknown, and to give creditors the parties' separate, current addresses, and the following shall apply:

- a. The Respondent shall keep any and all joint-related or separate debts he has incurred, current and in good standing with the creditors, if any such debt obligations or accounts exist.
- b. In addition to a creditors' duties as a secured party under Utah Code Ann. § 81-7-102 and the creditor's duties as a trustee or beneficiary of a trust deed under Utah Code title 57, Chapter 1, conveyances a creditor who has been notified by service of a copy of a court order under Utah Code Ann. § 81-7-103 that the debtors are divorced or living separately under an order for separate maintenance, and who has been expressly advised of the separate, current addresses of the debtors either by the court order or by other written notice, must provide the debtors individually all statements, notices and other similar correspondence required by law or by the contract.
- c. With respect to a debtor who is not ordered by the court under Utah code Ann. § 81-7-103 to make payment on a joint obligation, no negative credit report under Utah Code Ann. § 70C-7107, and no report of the debtor's repayment practices or credit history under Utah Code Ann., Title 7, Chapter 14, Credit Information Exchange, may be made regarding the joint obligation after the creditor is served notice of the court's order unless the creditor has made a demand on the debtor for payment because of the failure to make payments by the debtor, who is ordered by the court to make the payments.

- d. Absent an agreement by the parties, any and all debts incurred by either party from the date of separation on November 10, 2022, and thereafter shall be the sole responsibility of the party incurring the debt, with the other party being indemnified and held harmless from the same.
- e. Delinquency in Payments: If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt must remain current. In the event that a payment is not made in a timely manner, the secured asset must be placed immediately on the market for sale in order to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes payment on a delinquent debt in order to protect his or her credit rating may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt, in addition to interest and attorney's fees, from the other party.

ALIMONY

13. Both parties are able-bodied and earn from their 40-hour work week employment. As such, neither party shall be entitled to alimony from the other. Both parties shall waive the right to alimony and support from the other now and forever in the future.

MUTUAL RESTRAINING ORDER

14. Both parties shall be restrained from making any demeaning or disparaging statements about the other party, individuals related to the other party, or the significant other of either party. Demeaning or disparaging conduct includes speaking in a derogatory, belittling, or harmful manner, regardless of whether such statements are believed to be true.

15. Both parties are mutually restrained from injuring, abusing, harassing, annoying, or otherwise bothering the other party or from committing any domestic violence or abuse against the other party.

16. Harassing, annoying, or otherwise bothering the other party includes, but is not limited to, contacting the other party from any mechanism of communication without stating who the contacting party is; sending communications to the other party outside of the regular channels of communication; instructing or authorizing any third party to contact the other party; and using a “burner” phone or fake text messages to contact the other party.

17. Both parties shall also be restrained from permitting or encouraging third parties to engage in any conduct prohibited under this order and shall use their best efforts to prevent such violations.

MISCELLANEOUS

18. Identity: Neither party shall use the other party’s likeness, picture, name, identification, or credit of the other party to obtain credit, open an account for any service, or obtain any other service.

19. Execution of Documents/Deeds/Titles: Both parties shall sign whatever documents are necessary to transfer the titles or any other documents necessary to implement the Decree of Divorce.

20. If she so desires, Petitioner shall be allowed to restore her maiden name, keep her married name, or any combination she chooses.

21. Petitioner believes there is no chance of reconciliation of the parties' marriage and that waiting and interlocutory periods provided by law would serve no useful purpose.

22. Petitioner shall be entitled to an award of her reasonable and actual attorney fees incurred in pursuing this action if Respondent contests this matter.

23. The parties shall provide a certified copy of the final Decree of Divorce, and any modifications thereto, to all creditors as outlined in Utah Code § 81-4-204(1)(e) and Utah Code § 15-4-6.5 and to effectuate compliance with these statutes.
