DECREE OF DIVORCE AND JUDGMENT

Case No. 264901600

Commission: Kim Luhn

Judge: James Gardner

The above-entitled matter came before the court on Petitioner's Affidavit for Entry of Divorce Decree in accordance with Rule 104 Code of Judicial Administration. More than thirty days have passed since this matter was filed with the Court or Petitioner's motion to waive the 35-day waiting period was granted. The parties have completed the required educational classes or said requirement was waived. The Court, having found and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law and being otherwise fully advised, it is hereby,

ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the Petitioner is hereby awarded a Decree of Divorce from the Respondent, such to become final upon signature and entry herein.

1. The parties agree that the petitioner will pay the respondent $1,200.00 in lieu of a flatbed trailer that was acquired during the course of the marriage.
2. There are no debts that the parties need the court to consider.
3. There is no real property that the parties need the court to consider.
4. Neither party will be awarded alimony from the other.

5. The parties have acquired no interest in any pension or profit-sharing plan during the course of the marriage.

6.1 Two minor children were born of this marriage:

- a. Khieren Lee Tribett, born 08/09/2010
- b. Khiara Marie Tribett, born 08/09/2010

6.2 Utah is the home State of said minor child pursuant to U.C.A § 78-45c-3(1)(a)(1953).

6.3 Pursuant to Rule 4-901(b), Utah Code of Judicial Administration, the Petitioner states, upon information and belief, that there are no proceedings for custody of the above-named minor children filed or pending in Juvenile Court. The Petitioner not been a party or witness to, or participated in any other litigation concerning the custody of the parties minor children nor does the Petitioner have information about any custody proceeding concerning the minor child in this State or any other state

The Petitioner does not know of any person, not a party to these proceedings, who has physical custody of the subject minor child and who claims to have custody, or parent-time or visitation rights with respect to said child.

6.4 It is fair and reasonable that the parties share joint legal and joint physical custody of the parties' minor children, subject to the following provisions.

- a. The parties shall have a flexible parent-time schedule by mutual agreement.

Recognizing the age and maturity of the minor children (15 years old), the children shall have the primary right to decide their daily and weekly schedule, including which parent they reside with at any given time. Both parents agree to support the children's preferences regarding transitions between households.

- b. In the event that the parents or the children cannot reach a mutual agreement on a specific date or time, the parties shall default to the Utah Statutory Joint Parent-Time Schedule (Utah Code § 30-3-35.1) to ensure stability and prevent conflict."
- c. The Petitioner and Respondent acknowledge the Utah Child Support Guidelines. However, the parties request a deviation from the guidelines to a monthly support amount of $0.00.

The parties agree and stipulate that visits will be as the parties agree. In the interest of maintaining stability and providing a means of enforcement if a dispute should arise, the parties agree that if a mutual agreement cannot be reached regarding a specific date or holiday, they shall follow the Utah Statutory Joint Parent-Time Schedule (Utah Code § 30-3-35.1) as a default.

PARENTING PLAN

- a. The parents will discuss with each other and mutually decide the significant decisions regarding the children, including, but not limited to, the child's education, health care, and religious upbringing. Either parent may make emergency decisions regarding the health or safety of the child.
- b. Any parental duties or rights not specifically addressed in this plan should be discussed and mutually decided by both parents.
- c. Should the parties have a dispute regarding parenting of the children, the petitioner will make the last decision.
- d. Should either parent feel that a decision made under paragraph a, b and c above is contrary to the best interest of the child, that parent may arrange for mediation of the matter through a mutually agreed upon mediator or mediation service. Should the parties be unable to agree on a mediator or a mediator service, the parent requesting mediation will arrange for mediation through a court-approved mediation service. A written record shall be prepared of any agreement reached in mediation and a copy provided to each party. The parent requesting mediation is responsible for the cost of mediation, unless no agreement is reached in the mediation process, in which case the parents shall share the cost of mediation equally. No dispute may be presented to the Court in this matter without a good faith attempt by both parents to resolve the issue through mediation. If the Court that a parent has used or frustrated the dispute resolution process without good reason, the Court may award attorney's fees and financial sanctions to the prevailing parent. The court has the right of review from the mediation process.
- e. In addition to the terms set out in paragraphs a. through d. above, Petitioner proposes that the following provisions be part of the parties' parenting plan. Petitioner feels the provisions are in the best interest of the parties' child and should be order as part of this parenting plan:
- f. If a parent fails to comply with a provision of this parenting plan, the other parent's obligation under the parenting plan is not affected.
- g. This parenting plan is filed by the Petitioner in good faith and the Petitioner believes the plan is in the best interest of the parties' child.

6.5 Petitioner is currently employed "Yes Employment Agency" and grosses $3,500.00 per month.

6.6 Respondent is currently employed by "My Guy Plumbing" and earns $3,500.00 per month.

6.7 Petitioner and Respondent acknowledge the Utah Child Support Guidelines. However, the parties request a deviation from the guidelines to a monthly support amount of $0.00. There is no issue of child support arrearages.

6.8 For tax purposes, the petitioner will claim the minor child during odd years commencing with tax year 2025, the respondent will claim them during even years, commencing with tax year 2026.

6.9 Pursuant to U.C.A. § 78-45-7.15 (1953) as amended, it is reasonable and proper that:

- a. Petitioner be required to maintain insurance for medical expenses for the benefit of the minor child, where available at reasonable cost.
- b. Both parties shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of the insurance.
- c. Both parties should share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical expenses, including deductibles and co-payments, incurred for the minor child and actually paid by the parties.
- d. The parent who incurs medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.
- e. A parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply with the Subparagraph "d" above.

6.10 Pursuant to U.C.A. § 78-45-7.16 (1953 as amended) both parties should share equally all reasonable work, career, or occupational training-related childcare expenses.

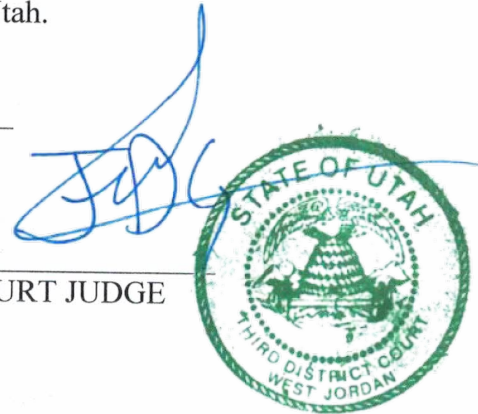

- a. The parent who incurs childcare expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of a childcare provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of a provider and thereafter on the request of the other parent. The parent shall notify the other parent of any change of a childcare provider or the monthly expense of childcare within 30 calendar days of the date of the change.
- b. The parent not directly paying for childcare shall begin paying his or her share of childcare expenses on a monthly basis immediately upon presentation of proof of the childcare expense.
- c. A parent incurring childcare expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if the parent incurring the expenses fails to comply with these provisions.

7. Neither party has received public assistance from the State of Utah.
