Failure to provide timely notice does not result in forfeiture of extended summer parent-time; however, if a party does not provide timely notice, the complying party may select the extended parent-time dates for the non-complying party.

PARENTING PLAN

7. Communication Between Parties. Unless the parties agree otherwise, the parties shall communicate in writing (via parenting application, text message and/or email). The parties shall remain civil and polite in all of their communications, and they shall not disparage or denigrate the other parent, recite history, or cast blame for any past, current, or future circumstance which may negatively affect the children.

8. Notification of Child's Illness. The parties shall notify one another of any illness that the minor child(ren) experience during parent-time. They shall also keep one another informed of any medications prescribed for the child(ren), as well as any scheduled appointments with medical, dental or mental health professionals. Neither party will schedule appointments for the minor child(ren) to occur during the other parent's parent-time without the consent of that parent.

9. Notification of Medical Emergency. In the event of a medical emergency involving the minor child(ren), each party shall make a reasonable effort to contact, and consult with the other party. Such reasonable effort shall include calling the other party's work, home, and cell phone, and leaving a message describing the emergency and location of the minor child(ren).

10. School and Medical Records. Both parties shall have unfettered access to all school and medical records and/or reports. Both parties shall be listed as a party that may check the minor children out of school.

11. School. The minor children shall continue to attend school in their current enrolled school and subsequent feeder schools unless otherwise agreed by the parties.

12. Communication with the Minor Children. Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communications with the minor children, in the form of mail privileges, telephone communication, and virtual parent-time as may be appropriate given the age of the minor children.

13. Day-to-day Decisions. Day-to-day decisions regarding the care, control, and discipline of the children shall be made by the parent with whom the child is residing at the time.

14. Dispute Resolution Mechanism: The parties shall discuss, in writing, all other significant decisions regarding the children, including, but not limited to, the children's education, health care, and religious upbringing. Specifically, the parents shall exchange information concerning the health, education, and welfare of the children, and where possible, confer before making decisions concerning any of these areas. If the parties cannot reach a mutual decision, they shall attend mediation with an agreed upon mediator, with costs to be shared equally. If the parties are unable to reach an agreement at mediation, either party has the right to motion the Court to review and rule upon the decision regarding the children, considering the best interests of the children and based upon the preponderance evidentiary standard.

15.     Emergency Decisions. Each party may make emergency decisions regarding the health and safety of a child without first obtaining the consent of the other party, however, they shall immediately notify the other party in writing in the event of such an emergency, both as to the nature of the emergency and any emergency decision that has been made. Mutual decision-making shall resume pursuant to the foregoing Dispute Resolution Mechanism, however, as soon as reasonably practicable.

16.     Travel. If a parent plans to travel with the child(ren), or is arranging for the children to travel with a sports team, religious group, school group or friends, the parent arranging the travel will notify the other parent at least fourteen (14) days before the anticipated date of departure and will provide the other parent with:

- a.       an itinerary of the travel dates;
- b.       destinations;
- c.       places where the travelling parent can be reached;
- d.       names of persons who will be traveling with the children;
- e.       contact information for the locations where the children will be staying;

and

f.       the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the children's location.

17. No Abuse of Drugs or Alcohol. The parents shall not permit the children to be in the presence of anyone, including the parents themselves, who is abusing alcohol or using illegal drugs.

18. Health, Safety, and Hygiene. During each party's respective parent-time, that party will maintain safe, sanitary, and appropriate living conditions for the minor children. Each party shall ensure that the children's basic health and hygiene needs are met, including providing appropriate living and sleeping quarters that are separate from the parent, maintaining a clean home without mold or other harmful contaminants, providing appropriate bathing, clean clothing, and a clean living environment suitable for the children's well-being.

CHILD SUPPORT

19. Meagan's Income. Meagan is currently employed and has a gross monthly income of $11,916.

20. Benjamin's Income. Benjamin is currently employed and has a gross monthly income of $6,500.

21. Child Support. Pursuant to the Utah Uniform Child Support Guidelines § 81-6-204 (2026), and a Joint Physical Custody Worksheet with Meagan having 183 overnights and Benjamin having 182 overnights, Meagan shall pay Benjamin $331.00 per month in base child support.

22. Termination of Child Support. Pursuant to Utah Code § 81-6-213, unless the Court orders otherwise, support for a child terminates at the time (i) the child becomes eighteen (18) years of age, or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or (ii) the child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is otherwise emancipated in accordance with Utah Code §78A-6-801 et seq.

23. Modification of Child Support. Under Utah Code § 81-6-212, a party has a right to modify this child support order at any time by petition if there has been a substantial change in circumstances because of: (i) material changes in custody; (ii) material changes in the relative wealth or assets of the parties; (iii) material changes of 30% or more in the income of a parent; (iv) material changes in the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn; (v) material changes in the medical needs of the child; or (vi) material changes in the legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others; and if the change is not of a temporary nature and it results in a 15% or more difference between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet. Additionally, the parents shall have a right to adjust this child support order by motion after three (3) years from the date of its entry if (1) upon review there is a difference of 10% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah child support guidelines, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, (2) the difference is not of a temporary nature, and (3) the amount previously ordered does not deviate from the child support guidelines. Under Utah Code § 62A-11-306.2, if the child receives TANF funds at the time an adjustment is sought, the Office of Recovery Services shall review the order, and if appropriate, move the court to adjust the amount. In any proceeding to modify an existing award, consideration of natural or adoptive children other than those in common to both parties may be applied to mitigate an increase in the child support award, but may not be applied to justify a decrease in the award.

HEALTH INSURANCE & MEDICAL EXPENSES

24. Health Insurance. Pursuant to Utah Code § 81-6-208, the parties shall maintain and equally pay for the health insurance premium for the benefit of the minor children so long as it is available at reasonable cost through employment of either party, government subsidy, public assistance, or otherwise, and so long as it is required by law, but at least until the child(ren) should reach the age of majority and complete high school with his/her usual class, marry, or otherwise becomes emancipated, whichever should first occur.

25. Calculating the Child's Portion of the Premium. The child(ren)'s portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expense for the child(ren) shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case (two children).

26. Verification of Coverage. The parent ordered to maintain insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent, or to the Office of Recovery Services under Title IV of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 601 et seq., upon initial enrollment of the children, and thereafter on or before January 2nd of each calendar year. The parent shall notify the other parent, or the Office of Recovery Services under Title IV of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 601 et seq., of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within 30 calendar days of the date the parent first knew or should have known of the change.

27. Medical Expenses. Each party shall pay fifty percent (50%) of any deductible amounts and fifty percent (50%) of all non-covered medical and dental expenses for the minor children. The party who incurs the medical expense shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within thirty (30) days of payment. In addition to other sanctions provided by the court, a parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to receive reimbursement for covering the expenses if he/she fails to provide verification of the payment of those medical expenses in a timely manner.

28. Designation of Primary & Secondary Health Insurance Coverage. Pursuant to Utah Code § 81-6-208(3)(c), if, at any point in time, the dependent children are covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parties, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Meagan shall be primary coverage for the dependent children and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Benjamin shall be secondary coverage for the dependent children. If a parent marries and his or her dependent children are not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the married parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent children.

30. Due Date of Payment. 31. Duty to Notify Other Parent. A parent who incurs childcare expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of a childcare provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of a provider and thereafter on the request of the other parent. The parent shall also notify the other parent of any change of childcare provider or the monthly expense of childcare within thirty (30) calendar days of the date of the change. In addition to other sanctions provided by the court, a parent incurring childcare expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if the parent incurring the expenses fails to provide timely notice.

SCHOOL & EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES & EXPENSES

32. School Fees. Each parent shall share equally the cost of any mandatory public-school fees, school lunch fees, required extracurricular equipment, and school activity fees.

33. Camp Fees. The parties shall share equally the cost of summer camp expenses incurred during the summer.

35. Extracurricular Activities. Each parent shall share equally the cost of any extracurricular activities incurred on behalf of the minor children that are agreed upon in advance and in writing by both parents.

a. A party shall not unreasonably withhold consent for the child to participate in extracurricular activities.

36. Failure to Reimburse Shared Expenses. If a party fails to reimburse their share of a documented child-related expense within thirty (30) days, the unpaid amount may be credited against or offset from the next child support payment owed. Any such offset shall be limited to the amount of the unpaid expense or expenses.

CHILD TAX EXEMPTIONS

37. Right to Claim Exemptions. The parties shall share the child tax credits, deductions, exemptions, and any other benefits associated with the minor children with Meagan claiming R.P. and Benjamin claiming E.P. each year. If and when there is only one (1) child remaining, the parties shall alternate claiming the remaining child with Meagan claiming in even-numbered years and Benjamin claiming in odd-numbered years.
