DECREE OF DIVORCE AND JUDGMENT

Case No. 264900528

Commissioner: Joanna Sagers _____

Judge: Thaddeus May

The above-entitled matter came before the court on Petitioner's Affidavit for Entry of Divorce Decree in accordance with Rule 104 Code of Judicial Administration. More than thirty days have passed since this matter was filed with the Court or Petitioner's motion to waive the 35-day waiting period was granted. The parties have completed the required educational classes or said requirement was waived. The Court, having found and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law and being otherwise fully advised, it is hereby,

ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the Petitioner is hereby awarded a Decree of Divorce from the Respondent, such to become final upon signature and entry herein.

1. All personal property should be divided as the parties have already divided it.
2. There are no debts that the parties need the court to consider.
3. During the course of the marriage; 4 years after the parties separated, the petitioner alone acquired the following real property:
 - a. A residential property located at: 622 South Cheyenne St, Salt Lake City, Utah 84104, more particularly described with the following legal description:

Beginning at a point which is 17 rods North and 2 rods West from the Southeast Corner of Lot 13, GLENDALE PARK PLAT "A" and running thence West 156.5 feet; thence South 58 feet; thence East 156.5 feet; thence North 58 Feet to the point of beginning.

Tax Parcel No.: 15-03-454024

- b. It is fair and reasonable that the above property be awarded to the petitioner as her sole and exclusive property; the petitioner will continue making all payments associated with the above property and will hold the respondent harmless of any liability.

4. Neither party will be awarded alimony from the other.

5. It is fair and reasonable that each party be awarded as their sole and separate property all rights, titles, and interest in any retirement accounts, pension plans, 401(k) plans, IRAs, or other deferred compensation benefits acquired by that party during the marriage. The parties hereby waive and relinquish all interest in the retirement or pension plans of the other party.

6.1 There are two minor children born of this marriage:

- a. Ivan Miguel Corado, born 10/14/2015
- b. Nefin Alexis Corado Jr, born 03/12/2012

6.2 Utah is the home State of said minor child pursuant to U.C.A § 78-45c-3(1)(a)(1953).

6.3 Pursuant to Rule 4-901(b), Utah Code of Judicial Administration, the Petitioner states, upon information and belief, that there are no proceedings for custody of the above-named minor children filed or pending in Juvenile Court. The Petitioner not been a party or witness to, or participated in any other litigation concerning the custody of the parties minor children nor does the Petitioner have information about any custody proceeding concerning the minor child in this State or any other state

The Petitioner does not know of any person, not a party to these proceedings, who has physical custody of the subject minor child and who claims to have custody, or parent-time or visitation rights with respect to said child.

6.4 It is fair and reasonable that the petitioner be awarded sole physical and sole legal custody of the parties' minor children.

The respondents will have right to standard visits, subject to the following provisions:

- a. No over nights
- b. Visitations need to be cursive.

6.5 Petitioner is employed by "L3 Harris Technologies Inc" and grosses $4,960.00 per month.

6.6 Respondent place of employed is unknown. However, petitioner estimates respondent is capable of earning at least $6,000,00 per month.

6.7 Pursuant to U.C.A. § 78-45-7 et seq. (1953 as amended) it is reasonable and proper that the respondent be ordered to pay to the petitioner as and for child support:

a. A sum of not less than $976.83 per month as base support for the minor child of the parties, pursuant to the Uniform Child Support Guidelines until said child become 18 years of age or have graduated from high school during the children's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later.

b. The petitioner shall be entitled to mandatory income withholding relief pursuant to U.C.A. § 62A-11 parts 4 and 5 (1953 as amended), and any Federal and State tax refunds or rebates due to the respondent may be intercepted by the State of Utah and applied to existing child support arrearages. This income withholding procedure should apply to existing and future payors. All withheld income should be submitted to the Office of Recovery Services until such time as the respondent no longer owes child support to the petitioner.

c. There is no issue of pass-due child support.

d. Each of the parties should be under mutual obligation to notify the other within ten (10) days of any change in monthly income.

6.8 For tax purposes, the petitioner will claim the minor children as dependent, every year.

6.9 Pursuant to U.C.A. § 78-45-7.15 (1953) as amended, it is reasonable and proper that:

a. petitioner be required to maintain insurance for medical expenses for the benefit of the minor child, where available at reasonable cost.

b. Both parties shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of the insurance.

c. Both parties should share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical expenses, including deductibles and co-payments, incurred for the minor child and actually paid by the parties.

d. The parent who incurs medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.

e. A parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply with the Subparagraph "d" above.

6.10 Pursuant to U.C.A. § 78-45-7.16 (1953 as amended) both parties should share equally all reasonable work, career, or occupational training-related childcare expenses.

a. The parent who incurs childcare expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of a childcare provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of a provider and thereafter on the request of the other parent. The parent shall notify the other parent of any change of a childcare provider or the monthly expense of childcare within 30 calendar days of the date of the change.

b. The parent not directly paying for childcare shall begin paying his or her share of childcare expenses on a monthly basis immediately upon presentation of proof of the childcare expense.

c. A parent incurring childcare expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if the parent incurring the expenses fails to comply with these provisions.

7. The Petitioner has not received any public assistance from the State of Utah.
