Attorneys for Petitioner

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of: TELENIA LAKI ANGILAU, Petitioner, and UILISONI TOHIKOULA ANGILAU, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No. 254900664 The Honorable Dianna Gibson Commissioner Kim M. Luhn

The above-captioned matter has come before the Court for disposition based on the parties' Stipulation and Settlement Agreement (the "Stipulation" or the "Agreement"), filed with the Court on or about April 7, 2026. The Court, having reviewed the Stipulation and finding the terms thereof to be fair and reasonable, having made its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and being fully informed in the premises, now hereby ORDERS, ADJUDGES, and DECREES as follows:

1. Decree of Divorce. The parties are granted a Decree of Divorce, final upon entry, severing the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between them, upon the grounds of irreconcilable differences.

2. Legal Custody. The parties are awarded joint legal custody of their minor children. It is anticipated that parental decisions will be required for major issues in raising the parties' minor children and in meeting the minor children's ongoing needs. If and when they arise, the parties shall address the issues. Each party shall give good-faith consideration to the views of the other. The parties shall attempt to work together, in good faith, to agree upon such decisions. If the parties cannot agree after making a good-faith effort to do so, they shall attend mediation in an effort to resolve the issue prior to seeking court involvement, with the parties sharing equally the cost of the mediation. If the matter is brought before the Court and a party is found to have been unreasonable or to have frivolously created the need for the hearing, that party shall be ordered to pay the court costs and attorney fees of the other.

3. The five youngest children shall attend school based upon Telenia's residence. The parties shall discuss in good faith where Alelia should attend high school and shall take into strong consideration the child's preference for school attendance. If they still cannot agree, they shall attend mediation to resolve the issue and shall share equally the costs of such mediation.

4. Physical Custody. The parties are awarded joint physical custody of their minor children. The parties shall have 50/50 custody of their five youngest children. For the parties' oldest minor child, Alelia, Uilisoni shall have 60% physical custody and Telenia shall have 40% physical custody.

a. Five Youngest Children. Parent time for the five younger children shall be as the parties may agree. In the event the parties cannot agree, parent time shall be in accordance with the following two-week schedule, with parent-time exchanges occurring on Sundays at 6:00 p.m.:

	Mon.	Tue.	Wed.	Thu.	Fri.	Sat.	Sun.
Week 1	Telenia	Telenia	Telenia	Telenia	Telenia	Telenia	Telenia
Week 2	Uilisoni	Uilisoni	Uilisoni	Uilisoni	Uilisoni	Uilisoni	Uilisoni

b. Minor Child Alelia. Parent time for Alelia shall be as the parties may agree. In the event the parties cannot agree, parent time for Alelia shall be as follows:

i. For the period between April 7, 2026, through the date the child's spring 2026 volleyball season concludes, parent time shall be as follows:

	Mon.	Tue.	Wed.	Thu.	Fri.	Sat.	Sun.
Week 1	Uilisoni	Uilisoni	Uilisoni	Uilisoni	Uilisoni	Telenia beginning at 6:00pm	Telenia
Week 2	Telenia	Telenia until 6:00 pm	Uilisoni	Uilisoni	Telenia beginning at 6:00pm	Telenia	Telenia until 6:00pm

ii. Once the child's spring 2026 volleyball season concludes, parent time shall be as follows until the time Alelia turns 18 years old:

	Mon.	Tue.	Wed.	Thu.	Fri.	Sat.	Sun.
Week 1	Uilisoni	Telenia starting at 6:00pm	Telenia	Telenia	Telenia	Telenia	Telenia until 6:00p.m
Week 2	Uilisoni	Uilisoni	Uilisoni	Uilisoni	Uilisoni	Uilisoni	Uilisoni

iii. The parties shall be flexible and reasonable about the parent time schedule in order to accommodate the child's extracurricular activities after the completion of the spring 2026 volleyball season. Neither party shall unreasonably withhold consent for the child to spend the night at the other party's home as necessary to accommodate the child's schedule. If either party exercises more overnights than his or her 60% or 40% allotment as a result of this flexibility requirement, these additional overnights shall not be considered a substantial and material change in circumstances warranting a modification of custody.

5. Holiday Parent Time. The parties shall not observe holidays or summer breaks for purposes of parent time. Unless the parties agree otherwise in writing, each party shall exercise parent time in accordance with the regular rotating parent-time schedule set forth in paragraph 7 herein, regardless of whether his or her parent time falls on a given holiday.

6. Summer Parent Time. Unless the parties agree otherwise in writing, the regular rotating parent-time schedule set forth in paragraph 7 herein shall apply during the children's summer break.

7. Transportation. The parties shall share equally the responsibility for transporting the minor children for parent-time exchanges. Unless otherwise agreed upon by the parties in writing, the receiving party shall be responsible for picking up the minor children for his or her parent time. Parent-time exchanges shall be curbside, meaning the party picking up the children shall remain in his or her vehicle, and the other party shall remain in his or her residence, during the exchange.

8. Right of First Refusal. Each party shall have the right of first refusal to provide care for the minor children in the event the party exercising parent time is unavailable to do so as a result of traveling out of town.

9. Virtual Parent Time. The party not exercising parent time shall be entitled to virtual parent time (i.e., telephone call or FaceTime) on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays at 8:00 p.m. during the other party's parent time. However, the parties recognize that the minor children have schedules and extracurricular activities, and the parties shall be reasonable and flexible in light of these schedules and activities.

10. Each party shall provide the other with his or her current address and telephone number, including cell phone numbers, within 24 hours of any change.

11. Both parties shall be polite and cordial and behave maturely toward each other.

12. Each party may make decisions regarding the day-to-day care of the children during his or her parent time.

13. When dealing with each other on parenting and parent-time issues, the parties shall remain focused on the best interests of the children and shall use their best efforts to foster a positive, working, respectful relationship.

14. Neither party shall disparage the other or their respective family members in the presence or proximity of the children or on social media. Each party shall speak positively and respectfully about the other party, emphasizing his or her parental strengths and love for the children. Each party shall use his or her best efforts to prevent third persons from speaking negatively about the other party or respective extended family members in the presence or proximity of the children. If such disparaging remarks are being made, the party with the children must remove them from the area.

15. Each party shall respect the children's rights to have a meaningful bond with the other party and any other family members or other significant persons involved in the children's lives.

16. The parties shall not use the children as messengers or problem-solvers. The parties shall not ask, encourage, or allow the children to monitor, record, or spy on the other party. Each party understands the detrimental effect this has on the children. All communication regarding the children must be between the parties, and neither party may use them to convey information, finances, or schedule visitation/parent-time changes. Likewise, if the parties have a dispute that must be resolved in court, they shall not discuss the court proceeding with the children and must prevent all others from doing the same.

17. If either party can demonstrate by clear and convincing evidence that the other party is involving the children in adult topics or disparaging the other party or the other party's family members to or in the presence of the children or on social media, or that the other party is engaging in neglect or abuse of any of the children, that party shall be entitled to request a custody modification via a motion to modify custody, without the necessity of a petition to modify.

18. Each party shall ensure that the children's schoolwork is given priority while the children are in his or her care. The parties shall reasonably assist with and facilitate the completion of the children's homework, school projects, and other extracurricular activities or projects.

19. Each party shall have direct access to all of the children's school reports and medical records. Each party shall inform educators, school employees, physicians, etc., that the other party is entitled to such access.

20. Relocation. Should either party relocate more than 150 miles away from the other party's residence, the parties shall comply with the relocation requirements set forth in Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-209.

21. Special Events. Special consideration shall be given by each party to make the children available to attend family functions, including funerals, weddings, family reunions, holidays, family parties, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the children or in the life of either party which may inadvertently conflict with the parent-time schedule. This includes family traditions and events, including family holiday traditions. When these types of special events conflict with the parent-time schedule, the parties shall abide by the following:

a. The party seeking to have the children for the special event shall provide the other party with reasonable notice of the event as far in advance as is practical under the circumstances.

b. For family activities and other special events that are outside the regular and holiday parent-time schedule, the party requesting the additional parent time shall pick up and drop off the children at the beginning and end of said parent time.

22. Child Support.

a. Uilisoni currently owes Telenia back child support in the amount of $4,719 for the period from June 2025 through April 2026. Uilisoni shall pay this amount in full no later than October 7, 2026.

b. Child support shall be in accordance with Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-201 et seq., using a joint custody worksheet and with the following incomes and overnights for the five younger children: Telenia, $2,000 per month and 183 overnights; and Uilisoni, $4,500 per month and 182 overnights. For Alelia, the same incomes will apply, with Telenia having 145 overnights and Uilisoni having 225 overnights. Based on these incomes and overnights, beginning May 1, 2026, Uilisoni is ordered to pay child support to Telenia in the total amount of $281.00 per month. Unless otherwise agreed upon by the parties in writing, child support shall be paid via Venmo.

c. Unless the parties agree otherwise in writing, child support shall be paid one-half by the fifth day of the month, and the remaining one-half by the twentieth day of the month.

d. The obligation to pay child support for a child shall continue until a child reaches 18 years of age or graduates from high school during his or her normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later. The support obligation shall terminate if the child dies, marries, becomes a member of the Armed Forces of the United States, or is emancipated in accordance with Title 78, Chapter 3a, Part 10, Emancipation.

23. Healthcare Expenses. The parties are ordered to provide health and dental care coverage for the medical and dental expenses of the minor child, as set forth in Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-208.

a. As an offset against his monthly payments for his portion of the marital debt, Uilisoni shall be solely responsible for the cost of the premiums for the children's health insurance.

b. If, at any point in time, the children are covered by the health insurance plans of both parents, the health insurance plan of Uilisoni shall be primary coverage for the children, and the health insurance plan of Telenia shall be secondary coverage for the children. If a party remarries and the child is not covered by that party's health insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the children.

c. The parties shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured and out-of-pocket medical, dental, vision, orthodontia, and mental healthcare expenses incurred on behalf of the children, including copayments, coinsurance, and deductibles.

24. Extracurricular Activities. The parties shall share equally the costs of any extracurricular activities in which the children participate, so long as the parties agree on the activity in writing beforehand.

25. Childcare Expenses. The parties shall share equally the costs of any reasonable and necessary work-related, or career- or occupational training-related, childcare expenses incurred on behalf of the minor children.

26. Educational Expenses. The parties shall share equally the costs of any reasonable educational expenses incurred on behalf of the minor children.

27. Communication Between Parties. Unless the parties agree otherwise in writing, the parties shall communicate only via text message or email, and only at reasonable hours. The parties shall limit their communications to necessary conversations about coparenting their children. Neither party shall harass or excessively text or email the other.

28. Real Property. During the marriage, the parties acquired real property located at 638 West Hodges Lane, Salt Lake City, Utah (the “Marital Home”). Telenia has paid Uilisoni $50,000 as a buyout of Uilisoni’s share of the property, and Uilisoni has executed a quit claim deed relinquishing any and all legal or equitable rights, claims, or interest he may have in the property. As such, each party has waived any claim he or she may have against the other relating to the marital home or the proceeds of the sale thereof, now and forever.

a. Telenia shall be responsible for the payment of all debts, liabilities, and obligations associated with the Marital Home.

b. If, at any point before the mortgage on the Marital Home is paid off, Telenia is in a position to refinance the Marital Home and obtain a similar payment and similar amortization schedule to the existing payments and amortization schedules, she shall do so promptly.

29. Personal Property. During the course of their marriage, the parties acquired various items of personal property, which are divided as follows:

a. Telenia is awarded the following items of personal property, free and clear of any right, claim, or interest by Uilisoni, and subject to any indebtedness or obligation thereon:

i. 2014 Honda Odyssey

ii. 2007 Chevrolet Silverado 2500

b. Ulisoni is awarded the following items of personal property, free and clear of any right, claim, or interest by Telenia, and subject to any indebtedness or obligation thereon:

i. 2006 Toyota Tundra

ii. 2013 Toyota 4Runner

iii. 1979 Chevrolet Blazer

iv. 2019 PJ Dump Trailer

c. Both parties shall cooperate and sign any documents needed to transfer title to any vehicles as awarded herein.

d. The parties have already divided their remaining personal property. Accordingly, each party is awarded the personal property currently in his or her possession, free and clear of any right, claim, or interest by the other party.

e. In the event there are items of personal property not addressed herein, the parties shall work together to divide these items. In the event of a disagreement over the division of personal property, the parties shall attend mediation to resolve the issue and shall share equally the cost of the mediation.

30. Bank Accounts. During the marriage, the parties acquired various bank and other financial accounts, which are divided as follows:

a. Telenia is awarded the following accounts, free and clear of any right, claim, or interest by Uilisoni, and subject to any indebtedness or obligation thereon:

- i. UFirst Credit Union Checking (xx0907)
- ii. UFirst Credit Union Checking (xx5450)
- iii. America First Credit Union (xx3448)

b. Uilisoni is awarded the following items of personal property, free and clear of any right, claim, or interest by Telenia, and subject to any indebtedness or obligation thereon:

- i. UFirst Credit Union Checking (xx414)

31. Debts. During the marriage, the parties incurred the following debts, liabilities, and obligations, totaling approximately $59,772:

a. Debts and Approximate Balances:¹

- i. America First Credit Union (xx7375): $16,200

- viii. Primus Law/University of Utah Health (xx1161): $671
- ix. Intermountain Healthcare (xx7548): $9,831

¹ These are the approximate balances as of the date of mediation. However, the total amount may be slightly more or less than listed herein.

- xiv. Sequium Asset Solutions/Vivint (xx9220): $326

b. Payment of Debts: While the parties shall each be responsible for one-half of these debts, Telenia shall be responsible for making the payments on these debts. To account for his one-half of these debts, Uilisoni shall pay to Telenia a total of $221.23 per month. However, because Uilisoni is solely responsible for the cost of the minor children's insurance premiums, Telenia's half of these premiums ($123.21) shall be credited as an offset against Uilisoni's payments toward the debts, such that Uilisoni shall pay to Telenia only $100 per month until his one-half of the debts is paid in full. This shall be made using Venmo. In addition, Uilisoni may pay more than $100 per month toward this debt without penalty.

c. Any debts incurred by either party after February 11, 2026, shall be the sole responsibility of the party who incurred the debt, and such party shall indemnify and hold harmless the other party on such debts.

d. If there are any other joint/marital debts incurred by the parties prior to February 11, 2026, that are not listed herein, they shall be subject to the same debt provisions listed in paragraph 31(b) herein.

32. Taxes. The parties shall file joint state and federal income tax returns as "married filing separately" for tax year 2025 and any prior tax years for which the parties have not yet filed taxes. Beginning with tax year 2026, the parties shall equitably divide the right to claim their minor child as a dependent for income tax purposes as follows:

- a. Telenia shall be entitled to claim the following minor children each year:
 - i. Afa, Arona, Ave, Atelaite
- b. Uilisoni shall be entitled to claim the following minor children each year:
 - ii. Alema, Aisea, Ammon, Alelia, Asinate

33. Spousal Support. Neither party shall be entitled to receive alimony or spousal support from the other.

34. Attorney Fees. Each party shall be responsible for his or her own attorney fees relating to this proceeding.

35. Telenia's Former Name. At her option, Telenia shall be restored to her maiden name of Telenia Leota.

36. Execution of Decree. The parties shall each execute and deliver to the other any documents necessary to implement the provisions of the Stipulation and Settlement Agreement or this Decree of Divorce.

37. Cooperation. The parties shall both cooperate to implement the provisions of the Stipulation and Agreement and this Decree of Divorce.

38. Breach of Agreement. In the event either party to the Stipulation and Settlement Agreement defaults in his or her obligations thereunder, the party in default shall be liable to the other party for all reasonable expenses, including attorney fees and court costs incurred in the enforcement of the obligations created by the Stipulation and Settlement Agreement or this Decree of Divorce.
