a. Parent Time: The Petitioner and the minor child(ren) shall be entitled to a weekly schedule of three (3) days (Friday-Saturday-Sunday).

b. Holidays: Both parents agree to a flexible holiday parenting time schedule that will factor work schedules and the parents availability as well as the best interest of the child(ren), with the exception of the Respondent being entitled to Christmas Eve every year. The parties agree to make a best effort to provide a 30 day notice of change and in the event that the parent not scheduled cannot cover for the scheduled parent, the scheduled parent will be responsible for making accommodations for the child(ren) with prior and mutual consent of the other parent. Both parents agree liberal phone or any electronic means visitation and will encourage the child(ren) to call the other parent.

d. Out-of-State Travel/Out-of-Country Travel: If either party desires to take the child(ren) out the State of Utah or out of the country, the party shall inform the other party 30 days in advance if possible and provide the other party with the travel itinerary and make arrangement for the maintaining of reasonable contact with the other party during the trip.

7. Pursuant to Utah Code § 78B-12-203 Petitioner's total countable gross monthly income for child support purposes is $4,990. Petitioner's base child support amount using the sole custody calculation is $602 per month. The Petitioner receives the following gross monthly income from all sources:

a. The Petitioner is employed and grosses $4,990 per month working the equivalent of one full-time 40-hour a week job or less. Pursuant to Rule 4-202.02 of the Utah Code of Judicial Administration, Petitioner's place of employment has been filed with the court on the NON-PUBLIC INFORMATION – PARENT IDENTIFICATION AND LOCATION form.

7.1. Pursuant to Utah Code § 78B-12-203 Respondent's total countable gross monthly income for child support purposes is $2,200. Respondent's base child support amount using the sole custody calculation is $266 per month. The Respondent receives the following gross monthly income from all sources:

a. The Respondent is employed and grosses $2,200 per month working the equivalent of one full-time 40-hour a week job or less. Pursuant to Rule 4-202.02 of the Utah Code of Judicial Administration, Respondent's place of employment has been filed with the court on the NON-PUBLIC INFORMATION – PARENT IDENTIFICATION AND LOCATION form.

7.2. Pursuant to Utah Code 78B-12-202 et seq., the Petitioner is ordered to pay to the Respondent as and for child support:

a. A sum of not less than $602 per month as base support for the child(ren) of the parties, pursuant to the Uniform Child Support Guidelines. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for each child terminates at the time (1) a child becomes 18 years of age, or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or (2) a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated in accordance with Utah Code § 78A-6-801 et seq.

b. At the time a child is no longer eligible to receive child support, the child support amount for the remaining child who are eligible to receive support shall be automatically adjusted to reflect the base child support obligation shown in the table for that number of child. This shall be done by using the appropriate calculation and worksheet pursuant to Utah Code 78B-12-202 et seq. The child support for the remaining child may not be reduced by a per child amount, that is, the obligor parent may not divide the base child support award by the number of child and subtract that amount from the prior child support obligation.

c. Child support payments shall begin the month immediately following the entry of the order for child support. The monthly child support shall be paid one half on or before the 5th day of each month, and the other half on or before the 20th day of each month, unless the custodial parent uses the Office of Recovery Services to collect support. Child support due and not paid on or before the 5th day of the month is delinquent on the 6th day of the month. Child support due and not paid on or before the 20th day of the month is delinquent on the 21st day of the month.

d. The sole custody worksheet was used in calculating the child support in this matter. Petitioner's base child support amount is $602 per month. Respondent's base child support amount is $266 per month. If the physical living arrangements of a child changes from what is ordered (not including temporary changes for parent-time or visitation), then pursuant to Utah Code § 78B-12-108 a parent whom the child is not residing with is required to pay to whoever the child is residing with the amount of support set out above for that parent and described as "the base child support amount." The parent shall automatically begin paying this base support amount without the need to modify this child support order.

e. The sole physical custody worksheet was used in calculating the base child support award. The base child support award shall be reduced by 50% for each minor child for time periods during which such minor child is with the non-custodial parent by court order or written agreement signed by the parties for at least 25 of any 30 consecutive days.

The base child support award shall be reduced by 25% for each minor child for time periods during which such minor child is with the non-custodial parent by court order or written agreement signed by the parties for at least 12 of any 30 consecutive days. Normal parent-time and holiday parent-time with the custodial parent shall not be considered an interruption of the consecutive day requirement for the non-custodial parent. If the dependent child is a recipient of cash assistance from the state of Utah through the T.A.N.F. or F.E.P. programs, any agreement by the parties for reduction of child support during extended parent-time shall be approved by the Office of Recovery Services.

f. The person entitled to receive child support shall be entitled to mandatory income withholding relief pursuant to U.C.A. § 62A-11 parts 4 and 5 (1953 as amended), and any Federal and State tax refunds or rebates due the non-custodial parent may be intercepted by the State of Utah and applied to existing child support arrearages. This income withholding procedure shall apply to existing and future payors. All withheld income shall be submitted to the Office of Recovery Services until such time as the non-custodial parent no longer owes child support to the person entitled to receive child support. All child support payments shall be made to the Office of Recovery Services, P.O. Box 45011, Salt Lake City, UT 84145-011, unless the Office of Recovery Services gives notice that payments should be sent elsewhere. Should mandatory income withholding be implemented by the Office of Recovery Services, child support shall be due on the first day of each month and delinquent on the first day of the following month. All administrative fees and costs of income withholding assessed by the Office of Recovery Services shall be paid by Respondent.

- g. The issue of child support arrearages may be determined by further judicial or administrative process.
- h. Each of the parties is under mutual obligation to notify the other within ten (10) days of any change in monthly income.
- i. Under Utah Code §§ 78B-12-210(8), the parties have a right to adjust this child support order by motion after three years from the date of its entry if (1) upon review there is a difference of 10% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah child support guidelines, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, (2) the difference is not of a temporary nature, and (3) the amount previously ordered does not deviate from the child support guidelines. Under Utah Code § 62A-11-306.2, if the child(ren) receive TANF funds at the time an adjustment is sought, the Office of Recovery Services shall review the order, and if appropriate, move the court to adjust the amount.
- j. Under Utah Code §§ 78B-12-210(7) and (9), the parties have a right to modify this child support order at any time by petition if there has been a substantial change in circumstances because of: (i) material changes in custody; (ii) material changes in the relative wealth or assets of the parties; (iii) material changes of 30% or more in the income of a parent; (iv) material changes in the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn; (v) material changes in the medical needs of the child; or (vi) material changes in the legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others, and, the change in (i) through (vi) results in a 15% or more difference between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, and the difference is not of a temporary nature. In a proceeding to modify an existing award, consideration of natural or adoptive child(ren) other than those in common to both parties may be applied to mitigate an increase in the child support award, but may not be applied to justify a decrease in the award.

8. Respondent is entitled to claim the parties' minor child(ren) Mia Makeyla Gonzalez Carrillo born on December 2015 as dependent(s) for tax purposes.

9. Pursuant to Utah Code § 78B-12-212 it is reasonable and proper that:

a. Respondent is required to maintain medical, hospital and dental care insurance for the dependent child(ren) where available at reasonable cost and the insurance coverage is accessible to the child(ren).

b. Both parties are responsible to pay out-of-pocket costs of the premium for the child(ren)'s portion of the insurance.

c. Both parties shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses, including deductibles and co-payments, incurred for the dependent child(ren) and actually paid by a party.

d. The parent who incurs medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.

e. A parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply with the Subparagraph "d" above.

10. Petitioner has not received or is receiving public assistance from the State of Utah.

11. Both parties should be ordered to sign and fully execute whatever documents are necessary for the implementation of the provisions of this divorce decree. Should a party fail to execute a document within 60 days of the entry of this divorce decree, the other party may bring an Order to Show Cause at the expense of the disobedient party and seek that the Court appoint some other person to execute the document pursuant to Rule 70 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure. Any document executed pursuant to Rule 70 has the same effect as if executed by the disobedient party.

12. Prior to any Petition being filed to change any provision of the final Decree of Divorce, the parties must attempt to resolve the issue through mediation.
