Filing on behalf of both parties as a Third-Party Neutral, pursuant to Rule 2.4 of the Utah Rules of Professional Conduct

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT, SALT LAKE CITY DEPARTMENT IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the matter of the marriage of

TIA WOOD,

Petitioner,

and

AUSTIN WOOD,

Respondent.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Case No: 264902317

Judge: Robert Faust

Commissioner: Russell Minas

The Petitioner, Tia Wood, and the Respondent, Austin Wood, have entered into a written Stipulation resolving all outstanding divorce issues, which has been filed with the court. The Court has received and accepted the parties' Agreement, reviewed the file, and being otherwise duly advised, having previously signed and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

The bonds of matrimony existing between Petitioner and Respondent are hereby dissolved. In addition, all other remaining issues in this matter, outlined below, are to become final and absolute upon entry by the court.

CHILD CUSTODY AND PARENT-TIME

1. There are two minor children born or adopted between the parties, to wit: A.J.W. (born January 2014) and H.S.W. (born January 2019).
2. The parties are awarded joint legal custody of the minor children. The parties shall be governed by the Joint Custody Parenting Plan set forth herein.
3. The parties are awarded joint physical custody of the minor children. Parent-time with the minor children shall be pursuant to a 50/50 timesharing arrangement as the parties may agree. If the parties are unable to agree on a parent-time schedule then they shall follow a 2-2-5-5 rotating schedule as follows:
 - a. Week One (Commencing Friday, May 1, 2026)
 - i. Friday: (a) If school is in session, Petitioner shall drop off the minor children at school, and Respondent shall pick up the minor children from school to begin his parent time. (b) If school is not in session, Petitioner shall drop off the minor children to the Respondent by 8:00 AM or as agreed upon in writing. Respondent shall be responsible for pick-up responsibilities.
 - ii. Saturday: Respondent shall exercise parent-time.
 - iii. Sunday: Respondent shall exercise parent-time.
 - iv. Monday: Respondent shall have parent-time, including both school/daycare drop-off and pick-up responsibilities.
 - v. Tuesday: Respondent shall have parent-time, including both school/daycare drop-off and pick-up responsibilities.

- vi. Wednesday: (a) If school is in session, Respondent shall drop off the minor children at school, and Petitioner shall pick up the minor children from school to begin her parent time. (b) If school is not in session, Respondent shall drop off the minor children to the Petitioner by 8:00 AM or as agreed upon in writing. Petitioner shall be responsible for pick-up responsibilities.
- vii. Thursday: Petitioner shall have parent-time, including both school/daycare drop-off and pick-up responsibilities.
- b. Week Two (Commencing Friday, May 8, 2026)
 - i. Friday: Petitioner shall have parent-time, including both drop-off and pick-up responsibilities.
 - ii. Saturday: Petitioner shall exercise parent-time.
 - iii. Sunday: Petitioner shall exercise parent-time.
 - iv. Monday: (a) If school is in session, Petitioner shall drop off the minor children at school, and Respondent shall pick up the minor children from school to begin his parent time. (b) If school is not in session, Petitioner shall drop off the minor children to the Respondent by 8:00 AM or as agreed upon in writing. Respondent shall be responsible for pick-up responsibilities.
 - v. Tuesday: Respondent shall have parent-time, including both school/daycare drop-off and pick-up responsibilities.

vi. Wednesday: (a) If school is in session, Respondent shall drop off the minor children at school, and Petitioner shall pick up the minor children from school to begin his parent time. (b) If school is not in session, Respondent shall drop off the minor children to the Petitioner by 8:00 AM or as agreed upon in writing. Petitioner shall be responsible for pick-up responsibilities.

vii. Thursday: Petitioner shall have parent-time, including both school/daycare drop-off and pick-up responsibilities.

c. This two-week schedule shall continue on a repeating basis unless otherwise agreed by the parties in writing, via email.

4. Each parent is entitled to 2 weeks of uninterrupted parent-time during the summer months when the minor children are free from school. The parents will notify each other by May 15th of each year of the time period he/she will be exercising his/her uninterrupted parent-time. Petitioner will have first option of uninterrupted time period in calendar years ending in an even number and Respondent will have first option of uninterrupted time period in calendar years ending in an odd number. The summer parent-time cannot interfere with the other parent's holiday. If the parent designated to first choose the 2-week period for the year fails to choose by May 15th, the non-designated parent may designate when the 2-week period will occur.

5. In addition, holiday parent-time shall be as the parties agree. If they do not agree, then the parties shall follow the holiday parent-time schedule set forth in UCA §81-9-303 and as follows:

6. Petitioner's residence shall be identified as the primary residence for education purposes. Both parties shall be listed in school records as a point of contact for school communications.

7. In the event either party moves more than 30 miles away from their current residence the parties will revisit the issue of parent time and custody.

CHILD SUPPORT

8. Petitioner is currently employed and has a gross monthly income of $5,482.00 for the purposes of calculating child support.

9. Respondent is currently employed and has a gross monthly income of $4,872.00 for the purposes of calculating child support.

10. The joint custody worksheet shall be used with the Petitioner's income set at $5,482.00 with 182 overnights and the Respondent's income set at $4,872.00 with 183 overnights.

11. Pursuant to U.C.A. §81-6-101 a child support order shall be entered pursuant to the statutory guidelines as follows:

a. Petitioner shall be ordered to pay Respondent the sum of $66.00 per month beginning the twentieth of the month following the date of entry of the Decree of Divorce. The sum is known as the base child support award, for the minor child of the parties, pursuant to the Uniform Child Support Guidelines, until a child becomes 18 years of age, or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later. When a child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, the base child support award is automatically adjusted based on the remaining children and the incomes from the most recent support order.

b. The base child support award should be reduced by 50% for each minor child for time periods during which such minor child is with the noncustodial parent by order for at least 25 of any 30 consecutive days. If the dependent child is a recipient of Public Assistance from the State of Utah (T.A.N.F.), any agreement by the parties for reduction of child support during extended parent time shall be approved by the Office of Recovery Services. However, normal parent time and holiday visits to the custodial parent shall not be considered an interruption of the consecutive day requirement.

c. The mandatory income withholding relief provisions of the Utah Code Annotated may be instituted at this time. Said income withholding procedure should apply to existing and future payors. All withheld income should be payable to the Office of Recovery Services, P.O. Box 45011, Salt Lake City, Utah 84145-0011 until such time as the obligor no longer owes child support to the obligee.

d. There are currently no child support arrearages.

e. Each of the parties should be under mutual obligation to notify the other if there is a change in income of more than 30% and the change is not temporary in nature.

f. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-212(5), the parties have a right to adjust this child support order by motion after three years from the date of its entry if (1) upon review there is a difference of 10% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah child support guidelines, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, (2) the difference is not of a temporary nature, and (3) the amount previously ordered does not deviate from the child support guidelines.

g. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-101 et seq, the parties have a right to modify this child support order at any time by petition if there has been a substantial change in circumstances because of: (i) material changes in custody; (ii) material changes in the relative wealth or assets of the parties; (iii) material changes of 30% or more in the income of a parent; (iv) material changes in the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn; (v) material changes in the medical needs of the child; or (vi) material changes in the legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others, and, the change in (i) through (vi) results in a 15% or more difference between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, and the difference is not of a temporary nature.

INSURANCE, DAYCARE AND MEDICAL EXPENSES

12. Pursuant to U.C.A. §81-6-208 (2024) as amended:

- a. Either Petitioner or Respondent should maintain insurance for medical expenses for the benefit of the minor children where available at a reasonable cost. In determining which parent shall maintain insurance for medical expenses, the parties shall consider the reasonableness of the cost, the availability of a group policy and the coverage of the policy. If the parties cannot agree on who shall carry the insurance, then they shall attend mediation. If insurance is being provided by a plan by both parents, the Petitioner's insurance shall be considered primary coverage and the Respondent's shall be considered secondary.
- b. The parties shall be equally responsible for all out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the children's portion of the insurance. The children's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the children shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children. This amount shall be automatically deducted from or added to the child support paid or owed.
- c. Both parties shall share equally all medical expenses incurred for the minor child and actually paid by the parties. Medical expenses shall include, but not be limited to, the following: medical, dental, orthodontia, ophthalmological, psychological, or therapeutic, etc.
- d. The parent who incurs medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of the medical expenses to the other parent within 14 days of payment. The other parent shall reimburse the paying parent within 30 days of receiving written verification.

e. A parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.

13. Pursuant to U.C.A. §81-6-209 both parties shall share equally the reasonable work-related childcare expenses of the parents.

a. The parent who does not incur childcare expenses shall begin paying his or her share of childcare expenses to the parent who does incur childcare expenses, on a monthly basis immediately upon presentation of proof of the childcare expense. The parent can either pay the provider directly or shall be required to reimburse the paying parent after being provided proof of payment.

b. The parent who incurs childcare expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of the childcare provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of a provider and thereafter on the request of the other parent. Both parties must agree to any changes with childcare providers and monthly expenses prior to enrolling the children or making any changes to current childcare providers. A parent incurring childcare expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if the parent incurring the expenses fails to comply with these provisions.

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES, SCHOOL, & MISCELLANEOUS COSTS

14. The parties shall equally share the costs associated with the following expenses related to the minor children:

- a. Cell phones/tablets
- b. Car insurance
- c. School fees and costs
 - i. School fees include, but are not limited to, school enrollment fees, required class fees, required school supplies (i.e. course requires supplies on the curriculum), school lunch expenses, and field trip expenses.
- d. Agreed upon extra-curricular activities. All current and extensions of the current extra-curricular activities where the children participate are approved.
- e. Agreements for all expenses for extracurricular activities and any necessary equipment shall be made in writing. When possible, both parties should pay their one-half share directly to the provider, school or program for and on behalf of the children. If one parent pays the entire cost, that parent shall email the other parent proof of cost and payment within 14 days and the reimbursing parent shall pay their share within 30 days of receiving the email.

TAX EXEMPTION

15. The parties shall share in the child tax credit, exemption, or deduction for State and Federal income tax purposes as follows:

- a. Petitioner will claim H.S.W. in odd years and A.J.W. in even years.

- b. Respondent will claim A.J.W. in odd years and H.S.W. in even years.
16. For either party to claim a minor child, they must be current on all their child support expenses prior to the end of the tax year.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

17. Prior to the marriage, the parties each had individually acquired certain separate property. Each party shall be awarded any property identified as premarital or separate property, including all gifts and inheritance.
18. During the course of the marriage, the parties acquired certain items of personal property.
19. Petitioner shall be awarded the cats. In the event Petitioner is unable to keep the cats at her rental residence, Respondent shall assume possession and care of both cats at his rental residence.
20. All other personal property shall be divided among the parties in a fair and equitable fashion as agreed upon by the parties.
21. All property and all property rights which may be vested in either party as a result of family inheritance, trusts, or similar sources shall be awarded solely to the party from whose family it came.
22. All children's belongings that are in the marital home will be split equally between both parties' homes. Children's clothing that is currently in the home will also be divided 50/50.

23. Upon the finalization of the divorce decree, each party will be responsible for providing all necessary clothing, hair, cosmetics, feminine products, chargers, and other essentials for their own individual homes for each of the children.

24. The children can bring all their personal items between homes, as they wish, including but not limited to – clothing, shoes, coats, backpacks, tablets, toys, etc.

VEHICLES

Vehicle	Awarded to Petitioner	Awarded to Respondent	Other
Volkswagen Tiguan		X	Respondent shall be responsible for the loan against this vehicle.
2016 Chevrolet Traverse	X		Petitioner shall assume responsibility for the lease associated with this vehicle. Petitioner shall take all necessary steps to trade in or otherwise dispose of the vehicle.

25. Each party shall be responsible for the debts and liabilities related to their separate vehicles and shall hold the other party harmless from any liability associated therewith. The parties shall take all necessary steps to transfer the vehicles into their own names within thirty (30) days of the date of entry of the Decree of Divorce.

REAL PROPERTY

26. During the course of the marriage, the parties acquired certain parcels of real property, including but not limited to:

- a. Residence located at 2861 S 3000 W, West Valley City, UT 84119

27. The residence shall be listed for sale on or before June 1, 2026. Until the residence is sold, the parties shall equally share responsibility for all costs associated with the property, including but not limited to mortgage payments, utilities, taxes, insurance, maintenance, and necessary repairs.

28. Upon the sale of the marital residence, the proceeds shall be distributed as follows:

- a. First, all costs associated with the sale of the home shall be paid, including but not limited to realtor commissions, closing costs, taxes, fees, and satisfaction of any mortgage or liens.

- b. Second, the following marital debts shall be paid:

- i. UT Power Credit Union debt consolidation loan: ~ $5,498.01

---	--	--	---

35. Pursuant to §81-4-204(1)(e), Utah Code Annotated, the parties shall notify respective creditors or obligors, regarding the court's division of debts, obligations, or liabilities and regarding the parties separate, current addresses.

LIFE INSURANCE

36. Pursuant to UCA §81-4-406 (3)(d), to the extent either party owns a life insurance policy or annuity contract, such party has reviewed and, where appropriate, updated the list of beneficiaries associated with said policy or contract. Each party affirms that the individuals currently designated as beneficiaries are, in fact, the intended beneficiaries following the entry of the Decree of Divorce. Each party further acknowledges and understands that if no changes are made to the beneficiary designations, the individuals currently listed shall remain the beneficiaries and shall receive any funds disbursed by the insurance company or annuity provider pursuant to the terms of the respective policy or contract.

ALIMONY

37. Both parties waive any claim to spousal support from the other, now or forever.

TAX RETURN

38. The parties shall file taxes for the 2026 tax year as each deem appropriate.

ATTORNEY'S FEES

39. Each party shall be responsible for their own attorneys' fees and costs incurred in the litigation of this matter.

MISCELLANEOUS

40. Both parties shall be mutually restraining from bothering, harassing, annoying, threatening, disparaging, or harming the other party at the other party's place of residence, employment or any other place.

41. Both parties are restrained from using the likeness, image or credit of the other party for any purpose.

42. The parties each indicate that there has been a complete accurate and current disclosure of all income, assets and liabilities. Both parties understand and agree that any failure to provide complete disclosure may constitute perjury. The property referred to in this agreement represents all the property which either party has any interest in or right to, whether legal or equitable, owned in full or in part by either party separately or by the parties jointly.

43. This Decree of Divorce is the result of the Stipulated Settlement Agreement reached between the parties. The final documents were prepared as a service to both parties and shall not be interpreted against either as the "drafting party."

44. Each party should execute and cooperate in delivering to the other and to the court such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the divorce decree hereafter to be entered by the court. Should a party fail to execute a document within 60 days of the entry of this divorce decree, the other party may bring a Motion to Enforce at the expense of the disobedient party and seek that the Court appoint some other person to execute the document pursuant to Rule 70 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure. Any document executed pursuant to Rule 70 has the same effect as if executed by the disobedient party.

45. Upon the filing of any Petition to change any provision of the final Decree of Divorce, the parties must first attempt to resolve the issue through mediation.

46. Petitioner may be restored to her maiden name of Done if she so desires.

a. Both parents may attend the children's school events, church functions, activities, recitals, and sports.

b. Parents shall cooperate to facilitate participation and family events (e.g., weddings, funerals, reunions, ceremonies).

12. Exchanges and Transportation

a. The receiving parent shall pick up the children at the designated start of their parent-time.

b. Children shall be ready on time for exchanges.

13. Contact Information

- a. Each parent shall provide the other with current address, phone number, and email within 24 hours of any change.

14. Parent/Child Communication

- a. Each parent shall encourage free and uncensored reasonable phone/virtual communication with the other parent.
- b. The children may contact either parent at any time.
- c. A parent shall reasonably facilitate calls when requested by the children.

15. Right of First Refusal

- a. Parental care is preferred over surrogate care.
- b. If overnight child care is needed, the other parent shall be offered the opportunity to provide care before third-party caregivers are used.
- c. The parties shall create and maintain a mutually approved list of surrogate caregivers/babysitters who may be used by either parent without additional approval.
- d. Any caregiver not on the approved list must be mutually agreed upon in advance and in writing before caring for the minor children.
- e. Both parents shall provide names, addresses, and phone numbers of any caregivers used.

16. Conduct Around the Children

- a. Neither party shall speak negatively about the other parent or allow third parties to do so in the children's presence.
- b. Neither party shall discuss court matters with or in front of the children.

- c. Neither party shall disparage the other on social media or in public.
- 17. Introducing New Partners
 - a. Parents shall not introduce dating partners to the children until the relationship is committed and exclusive.
 - b. Neither party will introduce anyone they are dating to the children within the first twelve (12) months after the divorce is finalized.
 - c. No overnight guests will be permitted while the children are present within the first twelve (12) months after the divorce is finalized.
 - d. Neither party will have anyone they are dating, watching or transporting the children within the first twelve (12) months after the divorce is finalized.
 - e. Notice shall be given to the other parent beforehand.
- 18. Shared Calendar
 - a. Parents shall maintain a shared calendar for school events, appointments, practices, exchanges, and other child-related activities.
- 19. Substance Use Restrictions
 - a. Neither party shall use illegal drugs or consume alcohol to excess while caring for the children or prior to transporting them.
 - b. Alcohol and medications shall be stored securely and out of the children's reach.
- 20. Enforcement and Non-Waiver
 - a. A party's failure to comply with any provision does not release the other party from their obligations.

b. All provisions remain enforceable unless modified by written agreement or court order.
