IN THE THIRD DISTRICT COURT, SALT LAKE DEPARTMENT IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH
In the Matter of the Marriage of: COLLEEN STUTZ and JONATHAN STUTZ.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No. 254906702 Judge Thaddeus May Commissioner Michelle Blomquist

The above-entitled matter came before the court on Colleen Stutz's hereinafter referred to as "Colleen") Petition for Divorce, Colleen and Jonathan Stutz's (hereinafter referred to as "Jon") Stipulation, and Colleen's Declaration of Jurisdiction and Grounds. The Court, having entered the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, now orders that the parties are awarded a Decree of Divorce from one another on the grounds of irreconcilable differences and their marriage is hereby dissolved. The Court ORDERS, ADJUDGES, and DECREES:

Jurisdiction

1. Both parties are bona fide residents of Salt Lake County, State of Utah, and has been for at least three months immediately prior to filing this action.

2. 2. The parties were married on December 18th, 1999, in Oakland, California and are presently married. The parties separated on or about November 11th, 2025.

Grounds

1. 3. The parties have experienced difficulties that cannot be reconciled that have prevented the parties from pursuing a viable marriage relationship.

Child(ren)

1. 4. There are 2 minor children as issue of this marriage: a daughter A.R.S., born in May 2015, and a daughter, E.M.S., born in October 2017.

The Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act

1. 5. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-11-209, said minor children currently reside in Utah and the children have resided in Utah for the past five years.

2. 6. Utah has jurisdiction to make child custody and parent time determinations pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-11-201 et seq., in that Utah was the home state of the minor children at the time of commencement of this proceeding.

Other Cases

1. 7. Pursuant to Rule 100 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, the parties have not participated, as a party or witness or in any other capacity, in any other known proceeding concerning the custody of or visitation/parent time with the child.

Custody

1. 8. The parties are awarded joint physical and legal custody of the minor children pursuant to the Parenting Plan herein.

Child Support

1. 9. The parties' respective monthly gross incomes shall be calculated pursuant to the parties' Stipulation, signed by each party on May 11th, 2026, and filed with the Court on May 13th, 2026 (hereinafter referred to as the "Stipulation").

2. 10. Jon shall pay child support of the parties' minor children pursuant to the Stipulation.

3. 11. Jon's support of the minor children shall continue until said children become 18 years of age or have graduated from high school during the children's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later.

4. 12. On or before the first (1st) of each calendar month, Jon shall pay the monthly child support amount directly to Colleen by depositing said amount into a bank account opened and maintained by Colleen.

5. 13. Colleen is entitled to immediate and automatic income withholding relief. This income withholding procedure shall apply to existing and future payors, and all withheld income shall be submitted to the Office of Recovery Services.

6. 14. Unless and until such time that the Office of Recovery Services commences income withholding, Jon shall make child support payments directly to Colleen.

7. 15. All non-garnished monthly payments of child support, maintenance or alimony provided in the final Decree is due on the first day of each month, unless otherwise specified.

Health Care Coverage and Medical Costs

1. 16. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208, if health care coverage for the benefit of the minor children is available to either party at a reasonable cost, that party is required to maintain said health care coverage.

2. 17. Jon will maintain medical, dental, and vision insurance on the parties' children until each child ages out or acquires their own insurance.

3. 18. Jon will be fully and solely responsible for all insurance premiums.

4. 19. The parties shall share in the out of pocket costs of all reasonable and necessary uncovered and unreimbursed medical, mental health, and dental expenses, including deductibles and co-payments, incurred for the minor children, that are actually paid by either party.

5. 20. If either party incurs medical expenses for the children, they shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other party within 30 days of payment as set forth in UCA 81-6-208.

6. 21. Either party, incurring medical expenses, may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other party's share of the expenses if the paying party fails to provide notice within 30 days.

7. 22. When a party is provided with written verification they shall reimburse the paying party for the out-of-pocket costs within 30 days of receipt of the written verification.

Childcare Expenses

1. 23. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-209, both parties shall equally share the reasonable work-related or career or occupational training-related childcare expenses.

2. 24. Pursuant to UCA 81-6-209, if a parent incurs a childcare expense for the parties' minor children, they shall provide written verification of the childcare provider, their contact information, and the cost and payment of the childcare expense to the other parent within fifteen (15) days of incurring such expense. If written verification of the cost, identity and contact information for the provider are not provided within fifteen (15) calendar days, the party incurring the childcare expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other party's share of the expenses.

PARENTING PLAN

1. 25. The parties can make their own agreements regarding the Parenting Plan and parenting their children, including the schedule or any other item they agree to. The preferred method of agreement shall be in writing. They both acknowledge and agree that they are both responsible for raising the children equally (during their parent-time) including scheduling appointments (doctor, dentist, orthodontic etc), driving children to activities, scheduling things for the children, planning birthday parties, scheduling hang-outs/ play-dates, being aware of the children's schedules and activities and events, etc. They will work together to designate shared responsibilities and try to create consistency between households in terms of the children's schedules, rules, bedtimes etc. Each will have access to all records regarding the children and each parent shall have the responsibility of obtaining dates, events, activities etc. from the school or coach or other source of the event. They will both buy clothes and supplies and toys and other items for the children to have at each home. Neither parent has more responsibility than the other parent for the children's upbringing and each parent shall parent the children entirely during their parent-time.

2. 26. Joint Legal Custody/Decision Making Process: The parties are awarded joint legal custody of the minor children. The parent with whom a child is then located shall make day-to-day decisions involving the child. The parent who is with a child at that time shall make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the child. Significant decisions involving legal matters, health, education, and religious upbringing, shall be discussed in advance in attempt to reach an agreement. If the parties cannot come to an agreement, they shall attend mediation to address the issue. If the issue cannot be addressed in mediation, the parties shall seek adjudication of the issue by the Court.

3. 27. Only Colleen and Jon shall make decision regarding the health, education, legal issues, religion, extracurricular activities, etc. of the children. The parties will work together to ensure that necessary decisions are made; neither parent will unilaterally make medical or other decisions without first informing the other.

4. 28. All documents requiring the name of the children's parents will name Jon and Colleen only. A stepparent's name may only appear on any child's documentation if the document requests or requires the name of a stepparent.

5. 29. Colleen will maintain possession of all important and identifying documents involving the children (i.e.: birth certificates, social security card, christening/baptism certificates, passports, insurance policies, immunization records, etc.).

6. 30. No excessive, drastic, or permanent changes are to be made to any of the children's appearances without the express and written agreement of the parties. This includes changes to hair color, piercings, tattoos, elective/plastic surgeries, etc.

7. 31. Physical Custody and Parent Time: The parties shall exercise joint physical custody of the minor children. Parent-time will be as the parties agree. If they cannot agree, then parent-time shall follow an “8-on/6-off” rotating schedule as set forth below, unless the parties otherwise agree in writing. Accordingly, Colleen shall exercise parent-time beginning each Thursday at the time the children’s school is regularly dismissed and will continue until the following Friday (8) days later upon delivering the children to school. This schedule shall repeat continuously on a bi-weekly rotating basis (except for summer and holiday parent-time, which is addressed below). If there is no school on the day a parent’s parent-time is scheduled to begin, parent-time shall begin at 9:00 a.m. on that day. If there is no school on the day a parent’s parent-time is scheduled to end, that parent shall retain the children until 9:00 a.m., at which time the receiving parent will pick up the children. On school days when parent-time begins or ends, the parent who is ending their parent-time shall ensure the children are delivered to school on time, and the parent who is beginning their parent-time shall pick the children up from school at the time of regular dismissal. If Jon is called to travel for work during his scheduled parent time, Colleen shall retain physical custody of the children for the duration of his travel.

1. 33. Summer/Extended Parent Time: Summer parent-time shall be as the parties agree. If they cannot agree, each party shall have up to two weeks of parent-time with the children, which may be consecutive, when school is not in session for summer break. In odd-numbered years, Jon shall provide notice to Colleen by April 1st for Jon's extended summer parent-time and Colleen shall provide notice to Jon by April 15th for Colleen's extended summer parent-time. In even-numbered years, Colleen shall provide notice to Jon by April 1st for Colleen's extended summer parent time and Jon shall provide notice to Colleen by April 15th for Jon's extended summer parent-time. If a parent fails to provide a notification within the time periods described herein, the complying parent may determine the schedule for summer break for the noncomplying parent. If both parents fail to provide notice within the time periods described herein, the first parent to provide notice may determine the schedule for summer break for the other parent.

2. 34. Transportation: Exchanges shall occur as agreed upon by the parties, or by pick-up or drop-off at school, and curbside when school is not in session. The party beginning his or her parent time shall pick up the children. If either Colleen or Jon is not available to transport the children, either party may designate an appropriate person to provide said transportation, and the designating party shall provide the other party with the name and contact information of the person

3. 35. The parties shall cooperate and be flexible in the pick-up and delivery and be mindful of the importance of promptness.

4. 36. Right of First Refusal: Each party shall have the right of first refusal for all overnight surrogate childcare needed. The party in need of the overnight childcare will give the party exercising the right of first refusal advance notice of at least seven (7) days or in the case of an emergency or unexpected event, they shall provide notice immediately. The party providing the care shall provide the transportation.

5. 37. Out-of-State Travel/Vacation: If either parent takes the minor children outside the State of Utah, they shall inform the other party 30 days in advance, if possible, and provide the other parent with the travel itinerary and arrange for maintaining reasonable contact with the other party during the trip. The parties shall cooperate in obtaining a passport and signing documentation for the minor children if it is required for travel. The parties will keep the children's passports current by renewing them at least three (3) months prior to expiration.

6. 38. Education Plan: Colleen's residence will be designated as the primary residence of the children for purposes of identifying the appropriate school. The children will attend and remain in the appropriate neighborhood public schools unless the parties agree otherwise. If the parties cannot agree regarding decisions about the children's education, the parties shall confer with the children's teachers and other relevant educational professionals. If, after conferring with relevant professionals, the parties cannot reach an agreement, the parties shall attend mediation. If the parties cannot come to an agreement in mediation, the parties shall then have the issue adjudicated by the Court. Both parents shall have access to the children during school and the authority to check the children out of school. The parties agree that the current parent-time schedule contemplates that the parties will live within 15 miles of the children's school, or the schedule may be readdressed in mediation or by the Court.

7. 39. Education Expenses: In addition to any child support obligation, both parties are responsible for the children's necessary educational related expenses. Said expenses include enrollment fees, necessary tutoring related expenses, field trip expenses, and any other necessary school expenses. These costs will be assessed and divided equally or as agreed upon by the parties.

8. 40. Car Insurance: When the children are able to legally drive Jon will be responsible for obtaining and paying for a car and car insurance for the minor children.

9. 41. Cell Phones: Jon will pay the costs associated with the children's phones and phone plans, when applicable. The children shall always have access to contact both parents via phone and the phones shall not be taken away from the children, but phone use may be limited so long as the children have open access to the other parent.

10. 42. Communication/Exchange of Information: The children shall not be requested to carry messages between the parents. The parties shall communicate with each other via a custody/parenting app of their choosing, or by text messaging or telephone when necessary; currently, the parties are using Our Family Wizard. The parties shall share all information about the children regarding special events, homework assignments, parent/teacher meetings, report cards, medical events, and prescriptions that the other parent may not have access to. Information relating to the child shall be provided to the other parent as soon as it is practical.

11. 43. Extended Family Relationships: The parties shall encourage the child to maintain relationships with grandparents and other relatives, and each parent shall assist, as may be necessary, to permit those relationships to continue. This may include permitting the child to attend special events for the other family and permitting the child to spend time with extended family for special events.

12. 44. Maintaining Contact: Regardless which parent the child is with at any given time, each parent shall make an effort to have the child contact the other parent as frequently as is reasonably requested or as desired by the child.

13. 45. Relocation: If either party moves more than 150 miles, the statute UCA 81-9-209 will apply with regard to the relocation.

14. 46. If either party intends to relocate more than 150 miles from the residence of the other parent, the parties shall follow the notice process outlined in Utah Code Ann. §81-9-209.

15. 47. Extracurricular Activities and Sports: The parents shall encourage and support the children's participation in extracurricular activities and sports. The parents shall enroll the children in a reasonable number of activities and will not intentionally try to supplant parent time with activities. The parents shall discuss proposed enrollment of the children in extracurricular activities and allow the children to participate in reasonable activities they express a desire to participate in. The agreed upon expenses for enrollment in mutually agreed-upon extracurricular activities shall be shared by the parties. The children may be enrolled in extracurricular activities without the consent of both parents, but the costs of the children enrolling and participating in those activities shall be the sole responsibility of the enrolling parent. The parties shall facilitate the children's participation in extracurricular activities during their parent-time except that Colleen will be responsible for arrangements and care for the child related to ES's dance competitions and conventions, and Jon will provide childcare and ensure supervision of MS during those events regardless of whose parent time it is.

16. 48. Disparaging Remarks: Each of the parties shall refrain from communicating with or about the other in demeaning, disparaging or disrespectful terms in the presence of the minor children and shall take reasonable measures to prevent third parties, and the children from doing so as well.

17. 49. Restraints Regarding Firearms: The parties shall ensure that the children are not allowed access to firearms without appropriate supervision. The parties shall ensure that all firearms in the parties' residences are secured in a safe and not accessible to the children.

18. 50. Special Considerations:

- a. a. The parties may mutually agree to any provisions that contradict the terms of this agreement so long as it is done in writing. The parties agree to use OFW for communication unless text or calling is required for urgent or emergency matters or unless the parties agree otherwise. They agree to respond to any inquiries or questions posed by the other party within 48 hours of receiving it when possible.
- b. b. Both parents shall have access directly to all school reports including school, childcare and medical records, shall be listed as “emergency contacts” and shall be notified immediately by the other parent in the event of a medical emergency.
- c. c. Each parent shall provide the other with his or her current address and telephone number within 24 hours of any change.
- d. d. Surrogate care provided by family members (stepparents, relatives) is presumed to be better care for the child than outside childcare, and the parties shall cooperate in using family members to provide care when possible before using paid care.
- e. e. The parties shall use their best efforts to communicate and share information with each other on a frequent basis regarding the child, in order to keep one another apprised of what is happening in the child's life.

f. f. The parties shall not use any form of corporal punishment and shall not scream at, berate, or call the child names.

g. g. The parents shall ensure the child takes their prescribed medications and attends all scheduled medical and mental health appointments.

h. h. Both parties shall make best efforts to ensure the child does their homework on the parent's respective time and that the child attends school on time each day except for necessary scheduled appointments or reasonable family trips.

i. i. Neither parent will permit any of the children to participate in slumber parties without the expressed written approval of the other parent.

j. j. The parties agree that if they are posting pictures of their children online, any account they post on will be Private.

k. k. Jon will pay for all costs related to college for each child (i.e.: housing, food, books, tuition, and all other necessary costs and fees) up to $30,000.00 per year per child. Jon will also pay for the adult children's weddings, missions, health insurance costs and cell phones (until 4 years after high school or graduation from college, whichever is later).

l. l. The parties shall notify one another of any illness that the child has while in their home for parent time. They shall also keep one another informed of any medications prescribed for the child, as well as any scheduled appointments with medical, dental, or mental health professionals.

m. m. Both parties shall refrain from involving the child in “divorce issues.” Such issues include, but are not limited to, parent time disagreements; discussions about child support or financial hardships brought about by divorce; differences of opinion on how money is spent; discussions about court and legal matters; contents of legal papers; seeking information regarding what occurs in one another’s homes (other than general conversation); and involving the child as “messengers” between the parties.

n. n. Both parties will wait at least four (4) months before introducing any partner/significant other to the children unless they are engaged or married or agree otherwise.

o. o. Each party is required to immediately provide the full name and birthdate of any adult living in their residence.

p. p. For any reimbursements owed by either party, they shall request reimbursement within 15 days of incurring the expense on OFW and include a receipt or proof of payment. The other party shall reimburse on OFW within 30 days of request. If the expense isn't added within 15 days, the right to seek reimbursement shall be forfeited. The parties may agree to another method of reimbursement as they desire so long as it is in writing.

q. 51. Resolving Disputes: In the event of a parenting dispute that the parties are unable to resolve, other than a dispute of the enforcement of parent-time, the parties must attend mediation prior to bringing the matter to the Court.

r. 52. Violation of Parenting Plan: If either parent fails to comply with a provision of this Parenting Plan, the other parent's obligations under the Parenting Plan or final Decree of Divorce shall not be affected.

END OF PARENTING PLAN

Life Insurance

a. 53. Jon shall maintain his existing life insurance policies and disability policies, pursuant to the Stipulation.

Debts and Obligations

a. 54. Both parties shall assume and hold the other harmless from liability on all debts and obligations incurred that are currently owed by him/her.

b. 55. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-4-406, the parties shall notify respective creditors or obligees regarding the division of debts, obligations, or liabilities herein and the parties' separate, current addresses, and shall refinance any debt that is in the other party's name into solely his/her own name within 60 days.

Provisions Relating to Financial Assets

a. 56. During the marriage the parties acquired financial assets, including, but not limited to, joint and separate checking, savings, and investment accounts. The parties shall share and divide said assets as outlined in Exhibit A to the Stipulation and shall effectuate the division of assets as outlined in Exhibit A to the Stipulation, as promptly as possible upon the signing of the Stipulation.

Retirement Accounts

a. 57. Any interest the parties may have in any retirement accounts, including but not limited to 401k accounts, IRA accounts, pension, or profit sharing plans, accrued during the course of the marriage (from December 18, 1999, through the date of the entry of the Decree), shall be divided pursuant to the Stipulation. Jon shall be responsible for the cost and any fees required to prepare Qualified Domestic Relations Order(s) ("QDRO") necessary for effectuating the division of said assets and shall minimize the need for said QDRO's by offsetting amounts owed.

Personal Property

a. 58. During the marriage, the parties acquired certain items of personal property which shall remain as already divided.

b. 59. Each party shall be solely responsible for any debt associated with any item of property which is granted to that party and shall indemnify and hold the other party harmless therefrom.

Real Property

a. 60. The parties currently own no real property.

b. 61. Any refunds received or amounts owed associated with the sale of the real properties will be divided equally.

Business Interests and Related Assets

a. 62. During the course of the marriage, both parties have acquired interests in businesses. The parties agree that the business interests will each be awarded to the party whose name the business interest is in. The property settlement outlined in the Stipulation outlines the division and which amounts each party owes to the other and who is awarded each account or item. The parties will work together to effectuate the divisions outlined in Exhibit A in a timely manner.

Alimony

a. 63. The parties were married for approximately 26 years. The terms of alimony will be pursuant to the Stipulation. .

Personal Conduct

a. 64. Both parties are permanently restrained from bothering, harassing, annoying, threatening, or harming the other at the other place of residence, employment or any other place. Both parties shall be civil and respectful in their communications with one another.

Taxes

a. 65. The parties shall alternate with each other in claiming the child tax credits for the two remaining minor children according to the table provided below.

	A.R.S	E.M.S
ODD YEARS	Colleen	Jon
EVEN YEARS	Jon	Colleen

a. 66. Each party will claim one child for head of household status but if Jon does not receive a tax benefit for claiming the child tax credit, Colleen shall be entitled to claim that each year. When A.R.S reaches the age of 18, the parties shall continue to alternate in claiming the child tax credit for E.M.S according to the table above until E.M.S achieves the age of 18.

Attorney's Fees

a. 67. Each party shall assume their own costs and attorney's fees incurred in prosecuting this action.

b. 68. If either party violates any terms of the Decree, once approved by the Court, and shall court action become necessary, the other party shall pay any attorney's fees necessary to enforce the Decree.

Disputes

Other

a. 69. Colleen's name shall be changed to Colleen Dee Ashland upon the Decree of Divorce.

b. 70. If any provision of the Decree of Divorce or the application thereof is held invalid, the invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Decree of Divorce.

c. 71. Each party is ordered to execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce entered by the Court.

d. 72. The Court shall grant such other and further relief as it may deem just and appropriate in this matter.
