8. Debts. The parties do not have any joint debts. If any debts exist, each party shall be the responsibility of the person that incurred the debt.

ALIMONY

9. Alimony. Husband and Wife are each capable of supporting himself and herself; and, therefore, neither shall be awarded alimony. Both Husband and Wife waive and relinquish the right to receive alimony from the other both now and in the future.

FINANCIAL ACCOUNTS

10. Retirement. Husband and Wife will each be awarded any retirement accounts, pension funds, or individual retirement accounts, free and clear of any claim by the other party. Each party specifically waives any right he or she may have in the other party's retirement type accounts.

Husband and Wife shall be mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under this paragraph, and will have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violation.
12. Neither party is allowed to use the other's likeness, picture, name, identification or credit for personal gain, such as obtaining credit, opening accounts, or acquiring services in order to prevent one party from exploiting the other's identify or financial standing post-divorce. The parties are restrained from making public comments, sharing posts, or posting photos about each other or the divorce proceedings on social media platforms such as Facebook, Instagram, Snapchat, etc. in order to protect the privacy of both parties and avoid any public airing of grievances or details about divorce.
13. Both parties shall be restrained from coming to the home, work place, or places where the other party is known to be present without the other party's express permission.
