Attorneys for Andrea Horehled

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the matter of the marriage of:

CORY BROWN,
Petitioner,

Respondent.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Civil No. 264901104

Judge James Gardner
Commissioner Kim M. Luhn

The above-captioned matter came before the Court on a Verified Petition for Divorce, filed March 3, 2026. Cory Ryan Brown (hereinafter referred to as “Cory”), and Andrea Christine Horehled (hereinafter referred to as “Andrea”), entered into a Stipulation and Settlement Agreement and Parenting Plan (the “Stipulation”), filed May 22, 2026, which resolved all issues between them. The Court, having reviewed the pleadings on file, and good cause appearing therein, entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law. Now fully informed, the Court hereby

ORDERS, ADJUDGES, AND DECREES:

1. The parties entered into the Stipulation freely and voluntarily and did so with the advice of their counsel, and the parties desire the Stipulation to be binding upon them.

2. Jurisdiction. The parties are both bona fide residents of Salt Lake City, Utah and have been residents of Utah for more than three months making jurisdiction and venue proper in Utah pursuant to Utah Code §81-4-402.
3. Marriage Statistics. Andrea and Cory were married on December 17, 2022, in Alta, Salt Lake County, State of Utah.
4. The parties separated and have been living in separate residences since January 9, 2026.
5. Grounds. The parties are presently married and agree that irreconcilable differences have arisen between them, which differences have made the continuation of their marriage impossible, and they are both entitled to a divorce.
6. Neither party is in the military nor served in the military during their marriage.
7. The parties shall be granted a Decree of Divorce, final upon entry, severing the bonds of matrimony existing between them, upon the grounds of irreconcilable differences. The Decree of Divorce shall incorporate the terms of the parties' Stipulation.
8. Minor Children. During the marriage, one minor child was born to wit: D.J.B., born March 2024 (hereinafter referred to as the "child"). No other children are expected. The child has resided in Utah for at least six months, and no other court has jurisdiction over this child; therefore, Utah has jurisdiction over the child pursuant to Utah §81-11-101, et. Seq.
9. Custody and Parent-Time. Andrea shall be awarded primary physical custody of D.J.B., subject to Cory's parent-time as outlined herein, and the parties shall share joint legal custody of D.J.B. Andrea's residence shall be the child's principal place of residence for school purposes and other legal documents.
10. Off-Season Parent-Time (not during fire season).

- a. Two evenings or daytime visits per week, for a period of four hours each, to occur on Tuesday and Thursday, unless otherwise agreed in writing.
- b. Regular overnight parent-time as follows:
 - i. Week 1: Thursday to Saturday
 - ii. Week 3: Friday to Sunday – For this weekend parent-time, the parties shall work together to facilitate transportation to minimize travel time for the child.

11. On-Season Parent-Time (during fire season).

- a. A good faith effort shall be made to facilitate Cory exercising parent-time with the child when he is off duty and in the Salt Lake metro area. This shall generally occur during the three-day “R and R” periods of time.
- b. With 48-hour notice, parent-time shall be structured as follows:
 - i. Day 1: Cory shall use his best efforts to meet with and touch base with his therapist, in person or remotely, subject to the therapist’s availability.
 - ii. Day 2: Parent-time shall consist of four hours.
 - iii. Day 3: Parent-time shall consist of four hours.
- c. In the event that Cory is unable to provide 48 hours' notice, he shall contact Andrea as soon as possible and the parties shall arrange some period of parent-time as is mutually agreed upon.

12. Parent-Time Off-Season Commencing November 1, 2026 (or as soon as the fire season ends in 2026).

a. First Weekend November 5-7, 2026, the parties anticipate that Cory shall exercise a first overnight weekend with the child depending on whether he is still on call and the fire season has ended.

b. Thanksgiving 2026. Cory shall be granted two overnights during the Thanksgiving 2026 break consisting of either Wednesday to Friday, or Thursday to Saturday, as agreed by the parties in advance.

c. First Weekend December. Cory shall have the child from Thursday December 3, 2026, to Saturday December 5, 2026.

d. Winter Break 2026. For 2026 only, Cory shall exercise parent-time commencing the second portion of winter break; however, Andrea shall be allowed a two-night period midway during this time. For example, if the second portion of winter break (beginning on December 27) consists of eight days, parent-time shall be as follows: Cory shall have days one through three; days four and five with Andea, and Cory days six through eight.

13. Parent-Time Commencing January 2027 (off-season time). Starting January 2027, Cory shall have parent-time during his off-season with the child as follows:

a. The first and third weekend of each month. The first weekend shall be Thursday to Saturday, and the third weekend shall be Friday to Sunday.

b. Beginning in 2027, the winter break shall occur as outlined in statute, with Cory having the child in his care for the first portion of the break, and Andrea having the child in her care for the second portion.

14. Parent-Time When the Child is School Age. The parties shall meet informally and discuss if they shall modify the parent-time schedule before the child begins full-time school.

15. Holiday Parent-Time. The parties shall adopt the holiday schedule pursuant to Utah Code §81-9-304; however, the parties shall not adopt the three-day holidays and shall only follow the schedule for the major holidays as modified above and as outlined below. Furthermore, the parties shall adopt whatever holiday schedule applies to the school the child attends in the future, i.e., if the child attends a Catholic/private school, the parties shall follow the school's holiday schedule and that holiday schedule shall take priority/precedence over the statutory schedule; if there are conflicts or disputes over the holiday and holiday schedule, then the parties shall engage in mediation to resolve disputes over holidays and scheduling.

Utah Code §81-9-304 Holiday Parent-Time Schedule

Holiday	Holiday Time Period	Years Cory is Granted Holiday	Years Andrea is Granted Holiday

Day Before or After Child's Birthday	(1) Holiday begins at 3 p.m. (2) Holiday ends at 7:30 p.m.	Odd years	Even years

16. If a holiday falls on a regularly scheduled school day, Cory shall return the child to Andrea's custody prior to the regular school schedule beginning, pursuant to the Utah Code §81-9-304 and §81-9-302.

17. Summer Parent-Time. Cory is a wildland firefighter, and his work demands his attendance during the wildfire season, often out of state and away from the child. The parties shall be awarded summer parent-time as they can agree, considering Cory's work schedule during the wildfire season and as outlined herein. If in the future, Cory is no longer a firefighter, then each parent shall be entitled to have one, two-week block of parent-time in the summer once the child is school age.

18. Parenting Plan. The parties shall adopt the following parenting plan:

a. The objectives of this parenting plan are to: (a) provide for the child's physical care; (b) maintain the child's emotional stability; (c) provide for the child's changing needs as she grows and matures in a way that minimizes the need for future modifications to the parenting plan; (d) set forth the authority and responsibilities of each parent with respect to the child consistent with definitions outlined in Utah Code §81-9-304 and §81-9-302; (e) minimize the child's exposure to harmful parental conflict; (f) encourage the parents, where appropriate, to meet the responsibilities to their child through agreements in the parenting plan rather than relying on judicial intervention; and (g) protect the best interests of the child.

b. The parents shall cooperate to promote the following goals: maintaining a loving, stable, consistent, and nurturing relationship with the child, attending the daily needs of the child, such as feeding, clothing, physical care, grooming, supervision, health care, day care, and engaging in other activities which are appropriate to the developmental level of the child and that are within the social and economic circumstances of the family; attending to adequate education for the child, including remedial or other education essential to the best interests of the child; assisting the child in developing and maintaining appropriate interpersonal relationships; exercising appropriate judgment regarding the child's welfare, consistent with her developmental level and family social and economic circumstances; providing for the financial support of the child; and maximizing the continuity and stability of the child's life.

c. The parents shall be entitled to alter their parent-time schedule as they mutually agree, and such changes are preferable to seeking judicial resolution of issues. In developing and coordinating schedules, the parents shall be guided by the objectives of allowing each parent to develop and maintain a meaningful relationship with the child, providing the child with a stable environment, accommodating the child's school and other schedules, and cooperating to accommodate both parents' employment schedules. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the child available to attend family functions including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the child or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the regular parent-time schedule, although neither parent shall be permitted to intrude upon the other parent's parent-time without a written agreement.

d. Parental care is preferable to surrogate care. Each parent is afforded the first right of refusal to provide parental care for the child during the other parent's regularly scheduled parent-time if the other parent is unavailable to personally provide parental care for an overnight period, so long as the parent wishing to exercise the right of first refusal provides all transportation. Each parent shall be under an affirmative obligation to give the other parent at least 72 hours advance notice if he or she will be unable to personally provide parental care for the child overnight, and the other parent shall be under affirmative obligation to respond promptly to such offers. Scheduling a sleepover with the child's extended family and/or peers does not trigger the right of first refusal. Both parents shall be reasonable, cooperative, and communicative, respecting the right of first refusal.

e. Each parent shall have free and open access to all information regarding the child, including medical records, school records, mental health records, ecclesiastical records, etc. This means, among other things, that both parents shall be fully entitled to contact the child's school, doctors, therapists, daycare providers, church leaders, etc. to obtain information about the child.

f. The parents shall notify one another within 24 hours (or as soon as possible) of receiving notice of all significant school, social, sports, and community functions in which the child is participating or being honored (unless the parents both receive notification directly and each parent shall be able to obtain any such information directly) and both parents shall be entitled to attend and participate fully.

g. The parents shall use their best efforts to communicate and share information with each other, whenever necessary, to convey information regarding the child's emotional needs, accomplishments, and other information appropriate to share with the other parent.

h. Communication shall be between the parents only and shall not involve third parties. Communication between the parents shall be brief and succinct regarding the child, her needs, and/or parent-time changes. If necessary, the parents shall utilize Our Family Wizard to communicate with each other regarding the child. Any message received through Our Family Wizard shall be responded to within 24 hours.

i. Each parent shall provide the other parent with his or her current address, telephone number, and email address, and notify the other parent of any changes to his or her current address, telephone number, or email address within 24 hours of any change.

j. Each parent shall provide all surrogate care providers with the name, current address, and telephone number of the other parent, and provide the other parent with the name, current address, and telephone number of all surrogate care providers.

k. The parents shall minimize the child's exposure to parental conflict. Child exchange times shall be without tension or contention for the child's benefit. The parents shall be courteous and respectful when exchanging the child and shall defer discussing any disputes until a time and place outside of the child's presence. This shall apply to any third parties helping with exchanges.

l. The parents shall be prohibited from directly or indirectly using the child as a means of communicating with each other or otherwise placing the child in the middle of any disputes between the parents.

m. The parents shall be prohibited from disparaging one another to the child or in the presence of the child or allowing others to do the same. The parents shall not make negative remarks about each other in front of the child and shall not tolerate negative remarks made by others. Each parent shall be required to remove the child from the presence of any third party who is disparaging the other parent to the child, or in front of the child.

n. Neither parent shall expose the child to inappropriate adult materials or transient romantic relationships or illegal drugs, domestic violence or individuals who are impaired by alcohol or drugs.

o. Each parent shall be entitled to reasonable, unmonitored, and uncensored telephone, text message, email, and webcam contact with the child when they are with the other parent, provided the contact is not particularly time-consuming nor intrusive upon the other parent's parent-time. Any phone calls or webcam sessions shall be mutually agreed-upon dates and times.

p. The parents shall share the obligation to transport the child for parent-time. The parent who is to begin parent-time shall retrieve the child from the other parent's home, or from school or childcare. When dropping off or picking up the child for parent-time, the parents shall park curbside, or at the end of the driveway, in full view of the other parent's front door so that the child can see her parent is there to pick her up and the parents can observe the child getting into the other parent's car safely.

q. Neither parent shall transport the child or exercise parent-time if he or she is impaired by alcohol or drugs. A stepparent, grandparent, or other responsible adult designated by either parent may pick up the child for parent-time if the other parent is aware of the identity of the individual, and the parent will be with the child by 7:00 p.m. on the same day.

r. For emergency purposes, whenever the child travels with either parent, all of the following shall be provided to the other parent: (a) an itinerary of travel dates; (b) destinations; (c) places where the child or traveling parent can be reached; and (d) the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the child's location.

s. Either parent may travel outside the state of Utah or internationally without permission from the other parent, so long as they give the other parent written notice at least four weeks in advance for international travel and two weeks in advance for out-of-state travel. If travel with the child is required due to an emergency, the parent intending to travel with the child shall provide the other parent with the required travel information immediately upon obtaining the information.

t. The parents shall cooperate to obtain a passport for the child. The parents shall cooperate to obtain the passport paperwork and to execute the paperwork. This shall also happen any time the passport needs to be renewed or replaced for any reason. The parents shall cooperate in providing the passport to the other parent as needed for travel with the child. The parents shall follow the CDC and

State Department recommendations regarding travel with the child. The parent traveling internationally with the child shall provide the following information to the other parent at least four weeks in advance of the travel or immediately upon obtaining the information in the event of an emergency: (a) an itinerary for travel with dates; (b) flight numbers; (c) hotels or Airbnb arrangements; and (d) contact information in the country where they will travel.

u. If either parent relocates more than 150 miles from their current residence, the parents shall adopt the relocation statute pursuant to Utah Code §81-9-209. Each parent shall be obligated to provide the other parent with a minimum of 60 days' advanced written notice if he or she plans to move out of the state or more than 75 miles from Salt Lake County, Utah.

v. Each parent shall be entitled to make decisions regarding the day-to-day care and control of the child while that parent is exercising parent-time. If an emergency arises affecting the health or safety of the child, the parent exercising parent-time shall have the authority to make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the child. That said, the parent exercising parent-time during an emergency shall use his or her best efforts to inform the other parent of the emergency and to advise and consult with the other parent regarding emergency medical treatment of the child.

w. Joint legal custody means that regarding parental decisions other than day-to-day issues, the parents need to cooperate with one another in a reasonable co-parenting fashion. The parents shall advise and consult with one another in good faith regarding: (a) the child's health and non-emergency medical, dental, and psychological treatment for the child, including the selection of professionals and procedures; (b) the child's education and schooling, including where the child attends school; and (c) all other major parental decisions for the child. This process shall include each parent researching the pertinent issues and reasonably incorporating the advice of relevant professionals such as the child's physicians, teachers, and counselors. If, after advising and consulting with each other as provided above, the parents cannot agree on an important decision regarding the child, then Andrea shall have the presumptive final say.

x. If future disputes between the parents arise, including a motion to enforce any orders or a petition to modify custody or parent-time, the parents shall be obligated to mediate in good faith with a mutually agreed upon neutral mediator. Mediation shall occur prior to any court hearing, except in emergency situations requiring immediate orders to protect the child. The parents shall equally share the mediator's fees. If the parents cannot agree on a mediator, the Court shall appoint a mediator. Any agreements reached at mediation shall be reduced to writing and signed. If the Court finds that one parent has used or frustrated the mediation process without good cause, the Court shall award attorney fees, costs, and other financial sanctions to the other parent.

y. The parents shall maintain safe and appropriate sleeping and living accommodations for the child.

z. The parent with the child in his or her care shall be responsible for ensuring the child's homework and school projects are complete and shall be responsible for transporting the child to and from school on time or to the other parent.

END OF PARENTING PLAN

19. Child Support. Child support shall be paid by Cory to Andrea on a sole custody worksheet with Cory having 109 overnights per year and Andrea having 256 overnights per year. Cory's gross monthly income is $8,262.74. Andrea's gross monthly income is $11,695.71. Based on the parties' incomes on a sole physical child support worksheet, Cory shall pay Andrea $664 per month in child support commencing July 1, 2026. Child support shall be paid in one lump sum by the 5th of each month or in two equal, 50% sums with the first payment paid on or before the 5th of each month and the second on or before the 20th of each month. Cory shall pay Andrea by electronic payment, meaning Zelle or Venmo or any other mutually agreed upon method. Child support shall be modified, calculated, and paid pursuant to all provisions of the Utah Child Support Act, Utah Code §81-6-202, et. Seq.

20. Medical/Dental Expenses. In accordance with Utah Code §81-6-208, insurance for the medical and dental expenses of the child shall be provided by the party who can obtain the best coverage at the most reasonable cost. At this time, Cory is the party who provides health insurance, and Andrea provides dental insurance; the parties shall both continue to do so through 2026, and evaluate what policies are the best cost and coverage for 2027. If Andrea wants to add the child to her policy now and pay for it solely at her cost, then she may do so. The parties may elect to each insure the child if that will benefit them and if so, each party shall solely pay for his or her own premium; otherwise, the parties shall equally share one-half share of the cost of the premium paid by the party providing the insurance and it may be added or subtracted from the child support obligation. Any calculation of child's portion of the premium shall be made pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-208.

a. The parties shall share all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments, incurred for the child. The party who incurs an expense shall pay for it upfront and provide verification of the expense and its payment to the other party within 30 days of incurring the expense. Verification of any out-of-pocket expense may be sent via a photo through text message or email. The party receiving verification shall then have 30 days to reimburse his or her one-half share of the out-of-pocket or uninsured cost.

b. If, at any point in time, the child is covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parties, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the party with the best insurance shall be primary coverage for the child and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the other party shall be secondary coverage for the child. If a party remarries and the child is not covered by that party's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a stepparent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the stepparent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried party and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the child. The parties may change the primary/secondary designation if the other party obtains health insurance that is superior and less expensive than the original primary designee's insurance.

c. In addition to any other sanctions provided by the court, a party incurring medical expenses shall be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other party's share of the expenses if that party fails to comply with a timely exchange of receipts/verification of the expenses for reimbursement.

21. Childcare. Andrea's mother has been the child's childcare provider since she was born at no cost. The parties shall continue to use the maternal grandmother for childcare for the child at no cost for as long as the maternal grandmother can provide such care. If Cory desires to use his own childcare on his time, he shall be entitled to do so and he shall pay that cost on his time.

22. Extracurricular Expenses/School Expenses. When the child comes of age, the parties shall share the child's extracurricular expenses, lessons, summer camps, school expenses such as dances, fees, books, and other expenses as they can agree in advance in writing. The parties shall first advise each other in advance of the costs so a party is not obligated for an excessive or unreasonable expense, but otherwise the parties shall support the child in extracurricular, school, and sports opportunities equally so long as they can do so. The party who incurs an agreed upon extracurricular expense shall pay for it and then provide the verification of the expense and its payment to the other party within 30 days of incurring the expense. Verification of any extracurricular and/or school expense may be sent via a photo through text message or email. The party receiving verification shall then have 30 days to reimburse his or her one-half share of the cost. In addition to any other court sanctions, a party incurring extracurricular expenses shall be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other party's share of the expenses if that party fails to comply with a timely exchange of receipts/verification of the expenses for reimbursement or disregards the wishes of the other party when incurring an expense, or who fails to obtain reasonable consent prior to incurring the expense.

23. Alimony. The parties are both employed and capable of supporting themselves, therefore no alimony shall be awarded, and the same shall be forever waived and barred.

24. Debts. Each party shall be solely responsible for debt incurred in his or her name, including credit card debts, vehicle loans, and loans from family members and/or from friends. If either party has incurred debts in the other party's name without that other party's knowledge, the person creating the debt shall be solely responsible for that debt. Regarding any and all debts and/or other obligations assigned to one party under the terms hereof, he or she alone shall be responsible for the same, and shall defend, indemnify against liability, indemnify against loss, and hold harmless the other party from the same. Both parties shall be entitled to provide notice to creditors respecting the division of debts between the parties, including a copy of the formal divorce decree and findings of fact and conclusions of law arising from this petition.

25. Real Property. Andrea shall be awarded her premarital real property located at 742 E. Sandstone Circle, Sandy, Utah 84094 (hereinafter referred to as the "Sandy Home") free and clear of any claim by Cory. Andrea shall be responsible for any debt and liability associated with the Sandy Home, including the mortgage, taxes, insurance, utilities, and maintenance, and shall indemnify and hold Cory harmless of the same.

26. Vehicles. Cory shall be awarded the parties' 2022 4Runner and Andrea shall be awarded the parties' 2023 Dodge Ram 1500. To address the equalization of the vehicles, Cory shall pay Andrea $3,500 within 90 days of May 22, 2026. If any vehicle is jointly titled or under joint obligation, the parties shall cooperate to re-title the vehicle or refinance the obligation to remove the party that was not awarded the vehicle from the title or obligation. The parties shall arrange to obtain their own vehicle insurance as well if they have not already done so, within 30 days of the signing of the Decree of Divorce.

27. Personal Property. The parties have already separated and divided their personal property. Each party has been awarded his or her own personal property, clothing, electronics, or any item that was received by gift or was inherited or received by gift.

28. Bank Accounts. During the marriage, the parties did not co-mingle their bank accounts or open any joint bank accounts with each other. Each party shall keep his or her own separate savings or checking accounts for which they are named as the account owner.

29. Retirement Accounts. During the marriage, the parties acquired certain interests in retirement and investment plans. This is a short-term marriage, and therefore each party shall be awarded the retirement accounts in his or her name free and clear of any claim by the other party.

30. Taxes. The parties shall file their taxes filing married, but filing separately for the 2025 tax year, and Cory shall be entitled to claim the child on his 2025 taxes. Beginning with the 2026 tax year, the parties shall file their tax returns separately as well.

31. Dependency Exemption. Each party shall be allowed to claim the child as a tax dependent on his or her state and federal taxes beginning with the 2026 tax year. Cory shall be entitled to claim D.J.B. in odd years so long as he is current in his child support obligations to Andrea by December 31st of the filing year. Andrea shall be entitled to claim D.J.B. in even years. The parties shall cooperate to sign any IRS documents to facilitate their filings. If either party is unable to realize a benefit from claiming the child as a dependent, then the other party shall be entitled to claim her.

32. Life Insurance. Cory shall maintain his current life insurance policy, naming D.J.B. as beneficiary and Andrea as the Trustee, so long as he has support obligations. Once all support obligations have terminated and the child turns 18 years of age or has graduated from high school, whichever occurs later, then Cory is no longer required to maintain life insurance for the child's benefit. Andrea has established her own estate planning with life insurance through her employer for the benefit of D.J.B.

33. Mutual Restraining Order. Both parties shall be restrained from speaking derogatorily about the other party. The parties shall not make disparaging remarks to one another or to their child about one another or in the child's presence, either verbally, in writing or otherwise. Both parties shall be mutually restrained from harassing and threatening the other party. The parties shall not enter or go to the residence of the other party without permission from that party. Both parties shall be mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under this paragraph and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or shall remove the child from such circumstances.

34. Neither party shall use the other party's likeness, picture, name, identification, or credit of the other party to obtain credit, open an account for any service, or obtain any other service.

35. Other Provisions. The parties understand that if either party owns a life insurance policy or an annuity contract and no changes are made to the policy then the beneficiaries currently listed will receive any funds paid by the insurance company under the terms of the policy or contract unless they subsequently change those designations through their providers.

36. Pursuant to Utah Code §15-4-6.5 the parties are advised:

a. On the entering of a decree of divorce or separate maintenance of the joint debtors in contract, the claim of a creditor remains unchanged unless otherwise provided by the contract or until a new contract is entered into between the creditor and the debtors individually.

b. In addition to the creditor's duties as a secured party under Title 70A, Chapter 9a, Uniform Commercial Code – Secured Transactions, and the creditor's duties as a trustee or beneficiary of a trust deed under Title 57, Chapter 1, Conveyances, a creditor, who has been notified by service of a copy of a court order under Sections 81-9-302 or 81-4-204 that the debtors are divorced or living separately under an order for separate maintenance, and who has been expressly advised of the separate, current addresses of the debtors either by the court order or by other written notice, shall provide to the debtors individually all statements, notices, and other similar correspondence required by law or by the contract.

c. Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b), a creditor may continue to make negative credit reports of joint debtors under Section 70C-7-107 and may report the repayment practices or credit history of joint debtors under Title 7, Chapter 14, Credit Information Exchange.

d. With respect to a debtor who is not ordered by the court under Sections 81-9-302 or 81-4-204 to make payments on a joint obligation, no negative report under Section 70C-7-107, and no report of the debtor's repayment practices or credit history under Title 7, Chapter 14, Credit Information Exchange, may be made regarding the joint obligation after the creditor is served notice of the court's order as required under Subsection (2), unless the creditor has made a demand to the debtor for payment because of the failure to make payments by the other debtor, who is ordered by the court to make the payments.

37. Attorney Fees and Costs. Each party shall be responsible for their own costs and fees related to this action. If either party fails to abide by any subsequent orders of this court and the other party is forced to seek court assistance in enforcing those orders, that party shall be awarded attorney fees and costs reasonably incurred.

38. Mediation. If future disputes arise related to the party's decree or parent-time, the parties shall engage in mediation before litigation and shall equally share the mediation costs.

39. Final Documents. Andrea's attorney shall prepare the findings, decrees, and other final documents for entry of the divorce.

40. Both parties shall sign whatever documents are necessary to transfer titles and quit claim deeds, or any other documents necessary.
